Topic - Planetary Prayer Frequency

which can be recorded as music. Each planet has its own, uh, whatchamacallit, its own musical notes and everything. So when you play instruments and you hit D notes and C notes and E notes, these are actually music notes that the planets are producing.

And our ancient language, which was taken from us, helped us to produce these notes to where we could actually communicate directly with the solar system, right and direct, no middleman. So with that being said, we're talking about speaking things into existence. It's hard for us to speak things into existence because we don't have the vernacular sound octaves that we used to have.

That's like telling somebody, grab what you want. Motherfucker, if I don't got no arms, I can't grab what the fuck I want. So if you tell people, speak what you want into existence, do the, this is why we gotta do scientific diligence research.

We can't just do the historical research because you can learn a truth, but if you don't do the scientific studies of what makes that a truth, you will never understand that that may not be a truth anymore. So yes, it's a truth that we can speak what we want into existence, but it's also a truth that we were doing that with a certain vernacular octave that we don't have anymore. And some people have a strong enough will chakra, I mean heart chakra, and we produce enough will to even through this enslaving language, we have the power to speak what we want into existence.

But a lot of people have weak heart chakras, so they can't do that. So the point of this video is to let you know, you have to tap into your righteous frequency, because that is what the ancestors are trying to speak to you from. We have to understand, when we're dealing with spiritual enslaving and oppression, we have to understand how far we have actually been spiritually enslaved.

That's like goddamn taking the gills off a fish, but you got the fish living in the water with a scuba diver tank now, and you're telling the fish it can live underwater. The fish is no longer in its original state. African people, we are no longer in our original state.

So not only is our environment not producing the proper frequencies and gases and physiological circumstances for us to grow, our vernacular expression is not producing the octave needed to contact certain beings to which we could draw information from and draw guidance from while in these physical vessels. So when you're dealing with the ancestors, and you're dealing with ancient civilizations, African civilizations, because every ancient civilization was an African civilization, period. The reason every ancient civilization has multiple gods and multiple beings were not because they worshiped these beings. It was because they personified, all right, and gave these beings characteristics. And not only that, they were able to speak into the atmosphere and communicate with these beings through other substances, such as DMT, marijuana, and things like that, where shamans would make you smoke marijuana or DMT and go into a dark meditative state, or Egyptians, and I'm going to do a farewell on university on this, how the pyramid was a meditation chamber, how Egyptians went into the pyramid, aka the meditation chamber, and projected their consciousness out of their body and spoke directly with the ancestors and channeled information and brought it back to the civilization. They were all on a different octave of frequency and sound.

So with that being said, we have to understand we no longer produce that sound. So we have to start dealing with what we feel right here and being guided by doing what we know is right. Because if you don't listen to your inner voice at this particular time, motherfucker, you don't have no connection to the creator.

You don't have any connection to your ancestors. You don't have no connection to the natural wave frequency of what you should actually be doing in regards to what the creator wants you to do at this damn time. So with that being said, it's like you're blind.

You can't see. So all you can do is feel, all right? So even though we're dealing with the voice, I'm going to use the allegory of being blind. We're blind right now.

We can't speak. We can't act. We can't communicate.

This is not our natural octave of frequency. So all we can do is feel. We got to feel our way around this motherfucking matrix.

So start listening to what you feel, OK? Because you can't see. You're blind. So with that being said, family, understand how important it is when we're dealing with being a spiritual-like being and being an athlete because melanin is condensed sunlight.

The sun powers the entire goddamn solar system and you. So if you can't communicate with that which you are literally of, you are condensed sun, then you have to ask yourself why. And once you understand why, then you have to ask yourself, OK, well how else do I communicate with the sun? You communicate with the sun through your chakras, which I broke down in my video, Seven Levels of Existence.

You got seven chakras, which are the color of the rainbow. The sun has a visible light spectrum within its electromagnetic spectrum. That's the color of the rainbow.

Each of them spectrum, the octave frequencies connect to you directly through your seven spiritual valves, a.k.a. your seven chakras. That's your last line of communication to the solar system. If you do not take heed to the vibrations that are channeling through your body, then it's pretty much a rat for your ass. And I don't have no I don't have no other words for you. It's a rat for you. And you won't make the shift as simple as that.

As this planet is being refreshed by the sun, as well as planet Nimru at this point in time, it's going to be a rat for you. There's no other way I can say that. I'm not even trying to say it nice.

So that being said, get back in tune with yourself and understand what has put you out of tune with yourself. And with that being said, I love y'all. Peace - Young Pharaoh

Topic - Original Universe Calendar

This video right here is about the original calendar. Now, we understand that we live according to what is known today as the Gregorian calendar or the western calendar or the Christian calendar. That would be um AD and BC. Now, the Caucasian took us from our original solar time or solar calendar which we operated upon in order to throw us out of harmony and synchronization with the universe. Now, what do I mean by this? Right now, a lot of you believe it's the year 2016 AD. No, it's actually the year 15,12. The way you calculate what year it is is the distance or how far you've traveled around the galaxy. Um, specifically the zodiac sign. You have to understand that the sun is traveling at approximately 70,000 km per hour around the Milky Way galaxy, which is our galaxy. Now you have to understand my video uh Bible is based on astrology or solar prominences to understand what I'm saying. The zodiac signs and the constellations are only a tad bit different. A constellation is a group of stars which form a particular pattern. A zodiac sign is a group of stars which form a particular pattern but the sun passes through during its travel around the galaxy. So we understand that out of all the constellations in our galaxy we only pass through 12. So this is where you get the 12 zodiac signs of the 12 houses from. Now, why is this important? Because you start at Virgo when you're dealing with years and you travel around the zodiac sign in a clockwise manner. So, you go from Virgo and then you go towards Aries and you go towards Aquarius and you come back towards Virgo. So, when you deal with it with the zodiac sign on the scale of months, you go counterclockwise and you start at Virgo and then you go um towards Aquarius and then towards Pisces, then towards Aries, then towards Taurus and back towards Virgo. Now why is this important? Because the sun we have been a we are 15,12 years away from Virgo. It takes us 25,920 years to complete one complete revolution around our galaxy. I mean around the zodiac the um the zodiac signs and it takes us 2,160 years to pass through each zodiac house. Now today as I speak to you we are exactly 15,12 years around um the zodiac body celestial body. So it is actually the year 15,12. Now when we deal with um solar bodies or celestial bodies we understand that the sun emits frequencies and depending upon which house we're in for 260 years or which zodiac sign we are in we get affected by that frequency. Now um when a human or an animal emits a gas and that gas affects the biological or psych psychological state of a living organism its called a pheromone. Planets and suns or celestial bodies outside of the planet emit gases as well. And when they trickle down into the atmosphere we breathe them through the oxygen and they affect us biologically and physiologically. This is called a solar prominence. Now why is this important? Because the reason the Caucasian took us off of our original calendar is so that we wouldn't be in tune with not only the universe and be um expecting certain solar prominences, especially like that which is being emitted from the Aquarian age, but so that we would be thrown off of or out of tune with our higher selves. For example, you have what is called the seven days of the week, which are actually named after planets. But the reason they're named after the planets is because on these days these planets emit or the or planet earth is intaking um frequencies or prominences from these planet planets um the most powerfully. For example, Monday the moon is feminine energy. Feminine energy is is nurturing. You're supposed to rest and nurture yourself on Monday. But instead your first day of work is on Monday. So, you're not allowed to actually bask in and intake the energies and actually rest your body and your mind and raise your frequency the natural way you're supposed to on Monday or moon day because you're out running around and starting the weekday or the work day. Then you have Tuesday, excuse me. Tuesday is Mars. Mars is a masculine energy. Um, it's a masculine planet. If you look at the government, all of their wars are always wags on a Tuesday. The majority of their wars are always wags on a Tuesday. when the US went to war with um Afghanistan, they went to war with them on a Tuesday at 12:00 on a Myers day, a war day.

Um Wednesday, excuse me. Wednesday is Mercury intelligence. That's why they call Wednesday the hump day and Wednesday is kind of like when everybody's getting ready to um get over the weekday and everything's getting more easier towards Friday. But Wednesday, Mercury is a planet of intelligence, communications. You're supposed to be dealing with the communicative or the left hemisphere of your brain on this day because that's when astrology gives you that prominence. Then you have Thursday. Thursday is Jupiter. Jupiter is a um a feminine energy planet. But on Thursday, you're ending the workday. So you can't really sit at home and take the time that you need to to intake these energies and upgrade yourself. And then you have Friday. Friday is Venus. Venus is what?

Another feminine planet. This is why they tell you now that you've completed your workday, you should go out. Now, most people go out to do what? Try to go to a club or try to find somebody that they can either attract to um have sex with or get to know. Why? Cuz it's feminine energy. So, they put clubs on feminine energy days like Friday, Venus, feminine energy. And then Saturday, uh Saturn feminine energy. Now, why is this important as well?

You're supposed to be resting on the days of feminine energy or doing something withinyourself. Now, they tell you to go to church on Sunday, which is the day of the sun. Why?

Because on that day, um, within our particular solar system, we are receiving energy from the sun more than we normally would the other six days throughout the week. So, on the Sunday, they tell you to rest and then they tell you to party on Friday and Saturday. The sun is is is a masculine energy. So you're supposed to actually do and exert energy and force on Sunday, not rest. You're supposed to rest on Friday and Saturday. So they got the entire world working and exuding energy on days we're supposed to be internal. And then they got us being internal or resting on days we're supposed to be external. So they have actually reversed reality. Just like we used to read one direction, now we read from left to right. We used to read from right to left. They actually reversed reality once again. So they took us off our original calendar, not only to detune us with what actual reality we're living in and take us from our natural state of understanding and attunement with the universe, but also so that they can manipulate us and we can accept it. For example, you have the Acadian rhythm. The cadian rhythm, long story short, is basically the your biological clock in how solar time, which is your solar system or the universe, awakens certain cells in your body to perform certain duties. So, one of the performances of um the circadian rhythm when dealing with sales is we're going to deal with um eating or the digestive system.

From 7:00 a.m. to um 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. you have cells that are awakened in your body which are ready to eat and digest food. So, you're actually supposed to eat from 7:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. And then from 1:00 p.m. I mean from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Then from 4:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. at night, you're not supposed to eat anything.

You're supposed to allow the food to digest in your body and from that time uh that is when though that is when the cells which are present to eat the food and intake in the body go to sleep. So it's basically like you going to work and go on a shift. You don't work 3 hours a day. You work one shift. So same thing with certain sales. They don't work triples and doubles. They work they shift and then they go from so from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. certain sales are on that shift which is meant to eat. And then from 4:00 p.m. to 11 p.m. another group of cells come on and do their shift which is meant to digest and um break down the food you've ate. And then from 11:00 p.m. to 7 a.m. another another shift of cells come on and they distribute the nutrients throughout the body. Now why is this important?

Because apparently we're not eating according to the Caucasian rhythm or the natural biological clock and structure of our bodies. We're eating three times a day according to the Caucasian and were eating meat. And this is why they call it breakfast. Break fast. B R EAK fast. FAST. Breaking your fast because the Caucasian knows you're not supposed to be eating at a certain time because the body should naturally be fasting and and and and being allowed to break down whatever it is you just took. So they have you break your fast and you eat three times a day and you never give your body a break. Your body stop wanting to eat food after 4: 00 p.m. you and then they teach you to eat dinner at night.

Why? because they know your body is not going to digest the food at night and you're going to go to sleep and it's going to sit inside of you and then you're going to gain weight because the food is not going anywhere. It takes 90 hours to digest meat. So, not only if you eat something on Monday, it's still in you Thursday, but then your body don't even begin to break it down until the next day. So, they understand the science of this. This is why they took us off our natural calendar. Not just to confuse us in what year we were living in and what warp time. They have actually created a reality and we've been living in their reality and their matrix. It's not a damn 2016. is 15,12. You're not supposed to eat no three times a day. We're living on a European diet. So, or a European construction of time. They have reformatted our minds and first they had to reformat our time. So, you have to understand we are not living in our original calendar family. We are living in a matrix that is created by the Caucasian and they destroyed our understanding of time so that they can destroy and reconstruct our understanding of reality. So they have manipulated what we do during the week and created a work day or a work week. And then they have manipulated our intake and our diet so that we can willingly believe that it's okay to intake food at wrong times of the day so that we will be less powerful than we normally would if we were intaking and eating not only the correct diet but in tune and in harmony with the universe. Animals don't even eat three times a day. Animals eat once a day and they rock. Animals are still on the circadian rhythm. We are not. We are out of tune with ourselves because we have become out of tune with our higher self which is space the universe and we have to understand the calendar was manipulated purposely. It was not done by accident. So understand and also when we dealing with the year and the days of the year um as we can see the Caucasian says there 320 365 days a year. That's not true. He did that because as you know he makes some months 28 days, some months 30 days, someone 31 days and he has to come to a conclusion of some set time of year that it is um some set number of days a year it is because he keeps fluctuating within a faulty ass month that he keeps creating. Really it's only 360 days a year. There's 90 days each season. There's four seasons. So therefore, you only really have 30 days in a month. Now, and you have in the four seasons. And we understand that um four times 90, there's three months each season. That's 360. There were originally 360 days in a year. And then we understand that 360 days is in perfect harmony with the universe in the solar system, which is 360° . The Earth rotates at 360° . The sun travels at 360° . The universe actually spirals and manifests life in 360° . Galaxies rotate in 360° . Your hand opens and closes in 360 degrees. The blood spirals through your veins at 360 degrees. Everything is a complex spiral. So time and reality is created by motion and motion is moving in 360° . So understand we have been taken out of tune with our natural biological and astrological clocks. So get back on your original calendar and throw that bullshit calendar out and understand what time it is. We are in the year 15,12 and we are we will be in the Aquarian age in the year 15,120 on a Gregorian calendar. That's 2034. Get ready family. Raise your frequencies and understand the science of our original calendar. Peace.

Peace peace family. This video right here is about um how the body is how the black body because remember these are just vehicle shells which contain us which are the souls of light entities inside these vehicles. Um this video is basically breaking down how black people are the DNA of the cosmos.

So excuse me. When you spit on the ground, you leave your bacteria and DNA on the ground. We are literally the bacteria and DNA of the cosmos. We are literally uh let's say small cells inside of a cosmic body. So how your body has uh you know how your body itself is made up of blood cells and bacteria and DNA and genes. We are the humanoid uh bacteria cells and DNA and genes of the cosmos above so below, we uh micro and macro, you know, individual and whole. Our cells individually make up our whole body and black people individually make up the whole cellular body of the uh cosmos.

Now, when you dealing with the black body, uh I like to compare it to the melanated uh symbiote off of Spider-Man. Now, when you're dealing with the original uh Spider-Man or anybody who watches Spider-Man, you know that the symbiote or Venom suit or the black Spider-Man suit, whatever you want to call it, came from outer space. When the spaceship went out of space and they came back, it came back with the symbio on it and that's how the symbio got to Earth. Now, you dealing with melanin. This is the comic books or Marvel, which the whole Marvel universe is predicated off of the abilities of black people. When you're dealing with that, you know that if you deal with science, you know that melanin is condensed sunlight. Melanin is the only physical substance which is earthly bound but is interstellarly created. Proarotic cells, melanated cells are created outer space but yet are seated and black people are made up of proarotic cells. So we are the only beings on the planet earth which have cellular and biological compositions that were made up outside of planet earth. So we are living extraterrestrials. Now with that being said, when you're dealing with the melanated body, the symbiote, you have to understand that melanin is intelligent. Your body, the black body is so intelligent, it can give commands to the nervous system without even notifying the brain. This is why we have the best reflexes. This is why we have the best physical capabilities. Uh now when you're dealing with melanin to prove that it is uh you know has uh interstellar DNA or interstellar yeah interstellar uh genetic origins itself and how we are literally uh living in shells or we how black people literally are uh genetically connected to God outside of my genetic reincarnation video where I broke down how in the first layer of the DNA there's a encrypted code which states God eternal within the body. But when you're dealing with melanin, uh melanin in the body to reproduce itself first breaks down the amino acid tyroine. Tyr o sin e. Now tyroine is um is produced by an amino I mean by an enzyme in the body uh called tyroanis if I'm saying it correctly. Now tyrosanis is first produced once the melanin in the body uh breaks down what you call uh quinine iquinine five or six. So now once this happens uh this becomes uh ty i mean yeah tyronine I mean tyroine in the body. So now this is important because tyroine is one of the only uh whatchamacallit amino acids in the body that has a natural organic metal which is copper and we know that copper is a natural conductor of electricity. So before melanin can be produced within the melanocytes in the body this uh breakdown certainly must take place. Why? so that these bodies can can conduct thought and intelligence on a sufficient level and as immaculately as possible. We know that copper is a conductive of electricity. Your thoughts physically manifest themselves on this plane as as electricity. So now we understand that the body, the melanated body is literally a superconductor. It's literally a conductor of electricity. So not only does your nervous system itself conduct electricity, but your skin, your flesh itself conducts electricity. uh a higher level of consciousness in order to tap into the creator and absorb the electromagnetic spectrum. Now, why is this important? Because within these amino acids, we understand that melanin in your body, black people, melanin is RNA oxidized. Now, oxidized by definition is just when something combines with oxygen. So, now why is this important? RNA is ribboucleic acid. Ribboucleic acid is your individual strand of DNA. So DNA is deoxyribboucleic acid and ribboucleic acid is your individual DNA. So to give you an example, DNA is the bank. RNA is your personal bank account. So RNA is all the mental, physical and spiritual experiences that you and information that you gain in this lifetime. And then your RNA stores that into the DNA and you pass that down to the the you pass the DNA down to the child through the genes. So why is this important? Our body, our melanin is actually RNA oxidized from the cosmos. So we are individual strands of the creator. So we are individual pieces of the of the galaxy of the universe living storing information through our experiences and taking that back to our collective DNA which is the creator. So black people, our skin, our body is literally divine. This is why white people study chemistry so high. Kim means black. The stream means the study of the study of blackness, the study of melanin. They study us because we are living walking gods and goddesses.

This is not just a game. Ancestors ain't just say this for because it sound cute. We are the gods and goddesses in the flesh. In the right here in the flesh. So it's in your DNA. So now we are the symbiots.

Okay. We are who these motherfuckers wrote about. And then when you dealing with it even when you watch the Spider-Man when the one that was played by Toby Magguire that have in a minute, if that's his name, uh you see when he got the suit, what happened? He started swagging. got some little diddy bop in his walk, start getting the girls, he got stronger. So, this is not by uh coincidence. Melanin makes you more advanced. Period. This is not up for discussion and for debate. It's not about being racist. This is about being truthful and scientific and motherfucking stating the obvious. There are no white running backs in the NFL. That's not by mistake cuz you motherfuckers can't you you don't got the power to be running through through Ray Lewis like that. So with that being said, uh you have to understand that melanin gives you psychic abilities as I break down as well. Uh also when we dealing with absorbing electromagnetic spectrum and we dealing with the body soup, the venom soup. This is why Europeans get cancer from the sun because our melanin due to it being a superconductor and us containing organic metals which is copper in the body. We have copper in us. So not only you got iron in your blood, you have copper in your flesh. So now why is this important? This helps us to absorb 99.9% of the electromagnetic spectrum of the sun aka the sun. So when the sun rays hit us, there's a process that takes place called ultraast internal conversion. Once again, ultraast internal conversion.

And what this does is the melanocytes in our body as well as the dipple antennas in our brain help us to disperse and dispense 99.9% of the UV rays as well as the entire electro electromagnetic spectrum of the sun and convert it into heat energy and energy that we will potentially use for whatever purpose we want to. Now white people due to them having little to no melan melanin in their melanocytes can't convert this energy. So now let me give you the science behind melanocytes. Melanocytes are small ovalshaped pockets within the melanosomes pockets of the skin. Now why is this important? These you have different quadrants in the body that produce melanin. Your brain melanin uh the neuromelanin nerve tracks produces the neuromelanin in the brain. The melanin in your flesh is produced by your melanocytes to give you the differentiation. Now when we dealing with the skin, we're dealing with melanocytes. So now when the darker you are is a gauge for how much liquid and machinery you have in your melanocytes. We're using machinery just to identify uh the the physical compositions that are needed to produce melanin. So if you pitch black like black black god black African black you have about you about 85 to 100% full and you have the machinery to reduce melanin and melanocytes. If you about my skin color, you about 75 to 100% foot complete. If you about let's say uh lightkinn, not matto, but you lightkinn, you you can be anywhere from 50 to 100% full. You have the machinery. Now, if you about Asian, and I don't mean Caucasian, I mean like Asian, like Chinese or Asian or Korean, your melanin is about 25 to 50% full cuz they got the feel melanin. But they can they can tap in just enough. They're not Caucasian. This why they can you this why you see Neanderthalss like them such as Buddhist monks can still feel no pain everything cuz they have a tad bit of euro melon. They're not all the way out of out of uh the cosmos such as the Caucasian. Now they're about 25 to 50% full have the machinery to produce melanin. Now the Caucasian is 15% to 0% full if not zero and they have no machinery to produce melanin. So why is this important? The African body has not only and also don't forget the Caucasian 85% of Caucasians have calcified pineal glands. So now why is this important? The African body not only 100% of us are born with functioning pineal glands. We have neuromelanin and we have a literally a a pool of melanin a liquid of melanin in the third ventricle of our brain. And our brains can produce what you call neuromlan within the neuromelan nerve tract and we can produce melanocytes in the skin. A Caucasian has no neuromlanin in their brain. They have a third they have an empty third ventricle and they cannot produce the euronuromelan in their melanocytes. So since they can't produce that they suffer from skin cancer because their body cannot go through the ultra fast internal converting process. Now even if caucasians did have uh a certain grade of melanin their bodies don't have the machinery to produce this melanin. So even if they did have a certain amount of uh black genes, they calcified pineal glands don't allow them to even produce neuromelanin in the first place within the neuron nerve track of the brain. So they cannot tap into the creator. They cannot tap into the cosmos. So now I'm using this point to show y'all black people how they are not a part of God because the neuromelanin is is the RNA oxidized. RNA oxidized. They don't have that. They don't have no genetic marker from God. Okay? They don't have no galactic receipt for they ass. So this is why I'm trying to tell y'all all this we are all the same shit. No the fuck we are not black people. We are children of the most high and they is the badass adopted kids of the most high.

That's that's what it is. So call it like it is. So with that being said family like getting back on point before we make this about Europeans. We are the gods. We are the melanated children of the sun.

And you better get ready. You better you better get your meahertz frequency up. You better alkaline yourself because the cosmos has spoken. Okay? The sun is at a solar maximum and it's getting even hotter than that. So y'all better get ready and act like y'all know. And with that being said, black people, we are the symbiotes. Okay? We are who they try to imitate. We are who they try to talk about and we are we are uh we are we are the ch we are the uh physical manifestations of our of our holistic selves, our higher selves, which is God. So, if God uh let the universe turn into a human, it would turn into us.

First, it would turn into a black woman and then from the black woman, it would turn into a black man.

But for the for the most part, it would turn into the black race. It's us, y'all. And we have to get back to our divine states. We must get out of this illusion that the Caucasian has us in. And we must learn to love our blackness. We must learn because another thing about melanin is melanin is intelligent. Like I said, when you speak to a plant, go look up the experiment of the lady who played rap music to the plant and then played instrumental orchestra music to the other group of plants. The ones with the rap music died or grew up half ass. And then she did the same experiment where she cursed out plants and called them bad names and then spoke positively to the other plants and they grew up healthy and the one she spoke negatively died. So our bodies, right, black people are alive. Your body breathes without you telling it to breathe. It's not dumb. It's intelligent. Your intestines is a brain. That's why they say go with your gut feeling. So, you got to understand if you think you're black and ugly and and you fall victim to white supremacy and a white man has made you hate yourself or you don't like black women or dark-skinned men, then you are literally telling your body not to be powerful, your body will not work the way it's supposed to. White people know this.

This is why the first thing they install in black people is self-hate. If you don't believe me, this why everybody's white. 95% of people on television are white. Every channel you go to, white. Your favorite wrestler, white. Favorite motherfuck your favorite cereal, the motherfucker on the box, white. Favorite creator of your clothes, white. Favorite motherfucking uh whatchamacallit favorite Power Ranger, white. Favorite superhero, white. Jesus Christ, white. Everybody white. They whitewash the fuck out of you because they know any internal love and any thoughts that's being channeled directly to the melanin is going to be picked up by the body and the body is going to be amplified and it's going to make you more powerful. This is facts. This is not uh this is not up for a motherfucker's opinionated uh rebuttal. This is scientific fact. Internal thought when directed gives the body energy. But when you're dealing with a black person, the psychology must be there. In order for the melanin to activate, in order for your body to love you back in order for your abilities to become accessible to you, there must be self-love and understanding. So the most important thing a black person can do in this damn time is love they self. If you somebody who think African people is, oh, you black as hell, you are corrupt and your body is not functioning the way it would be if had you loved it. Okay? So understand it. You are not this body. This body is your vehicle. This is a living breathing organism and entity that you just so happen to inhabit. And you must love this entity in order for this entity to operate with you at its most powerful uh stand from its most powerful standpoint. So with that being said, be grateful for the vessel that you have manifested in order to navigate this realm in and understand it. We are the symbiotes. Use the ability while you have it at your at your uh hands or at your feet for this temporary existence. So with that being said, family, come back into the understanding of self. Come back into the love of yourself and connect back mentally with the cosmos and and connect back uh connect back intellectually with this frequency so that you can understand who you are and operate as who you are cuz that's the most important thing. Just keep talking about this shit. It's not going to get it.

We can read all the books we want to read, but it's time to apply it. Spirituality is not something that's learned. It's something that's experienced. And you don't experience nothing until you do it. So with that being said, family, love your melanin and do your melanin. And that might sound crazy, but i mean that. Do the melanin. Do what it is melanin is supposed to be doing. Feed it sunlight. Feed it good food. Love it. Think positive about your blackness. Love your curly hair. It's not nappy. It's called fauculus. Look it up. The sun has fauculus. Anybody who's been in my black woman is God lecture, you know what fauculus is. So with that being said, do what your melanin is supposed to do. Do so do for you and you would do for you, which is the other extension of yourself, the body. So with that being said, family, um, delete the the mental understanding of black being inferior or black being ugly because that is that exact psychological standpoint that you have on yourself that has hindered you your entire life. And with that being said, peace.

Topic - Black Women = GOD

What connects God or the black woman to the universe? Melanin. Now, let's iterate on melanin because I'm pretty sure y'all hear me say melanin 98,000 times a day. Melanin. There are four types of melanin. You have cosmic melanin, which is what science would call dark matter or black matter or uh black plasmid. Uh what do you call it? Powerful. And then you have planetary melanin which is human melanin. Now humans, we are going to go into science here. Science confirms that you are not a human if you are not of African descent. Only Africans are 100% human being. All other entities on the planet are only 96% human being, 4% the and your thought. So when they say planetary melanin or human melanin, they're talking about African melanin because only African people possess neuromelanin. Neuro key word neur just like neurons nervous system. Neuromelanin is created in the brain by the pineal. Why is neuromelanin important? Because neuromelanin connects your nervous system aka and your thoughts to cosmic melanin. So this is where they get the uh the saying connection to the most high. This is where Europeans created that fictitious hierarchy of only the pastor have a connection to God or only the Catholic priest has a connection to God because black people have a connection to the cosmic god due to our neuromelanin in our brain. What happens is once the kal kalini energy circ navigates up all 33 of your vertebrae it jumps from the 33rd vertebrae into the brain and it pushes open the pineal gland like a door. See a lot of people don't know the pineal gland actually opens and lifts up and once it once it's being stimulated by the school energy it swells like the hood of a cobra and the pituitary gland which is located directly under the pineal gland begins to flicker like the tongue of a cobra. Hence why the Egyptians put the cobra on their crown chakra to let you know that all of my chakras are fully activated. Now continuing on with the field, once the pineal gland is opened up, the pineal gland is the door which separates the third ventricle of the brain from the fourth ventricle of the brain. The third ventricle of the brain is in the first front half of your head going towards your forehead and the fourth ventricle is in the back half of your head going down towards the brain stem. And what happens is once the uh pine opens up it acts like a latch or a release lever and the neuromelanin aka the black liquid that's produced into the that's produced by the neuromelanin nerve track in the brain and stored in the third ventricle begins to flow out of the third ventricle into the fourth ventricle and stimulate the brain. Specifically what it stimulates is what's called dipole antennas. DIP O L E. Dipole antennas are melanated receptors located in between the internal and external layers of the skull which actually allow your thoughts to enter and exit your head. A lot of people need to understand this. Now why is this important? Once the dip antennas are being are being stimulated by the melanin you have a you have a more enhanced mehz frequency in your brain which allows for a greater connection to the solar system. So it's just like your phone. If you somewhere you got bad reception you don't have a good connection. If all of your if you don't have a good posture and your chakra energy is not climbing up the spine into the brain, you don't have a good mental connection with the cosmos. Are you following me? So when we talking about planetary melanin, why is planetary melanin important? Because only African people have this. We are the ones with the direct connection to the creator and specifically the point in this lecture is the black one. So now we deal with uh the third type of melanin which is plant melanin which is chlorophyll. Chlorophyll is just melanin for plants. Now, if you look up the chemical formula for chlorophylls, you'll see that it's the exact same formula as African people's melons. The only thing different is we have iron and plants have magnesium. So, this why you hear say you got iron in your blood, but we also got copper and it'll tell you that too, which is a conductor of electricity. Now, why is this important? If you was to take a plant and take me and just switch my iron with the plant's magnesium and switch the plant's magnesium with my iron, I would now have chlorophyll and the plant would now have my melon. So this shows you that we have a biological connection to all things in nature cuz we are the only natural beings on the planet. Now when you go to the fourth type of melanin which is animal melanin which in science is called fmelanin. Why is fme melanin important? Because African people which have planetary melanin possess all of these melanin content. Animals do not possess neuromelan. So now why is the melanin important? Because caucasians have melanin. They don't have neuromelan. So when you're dealing with the pineal gland, 85% of Europeans come out with a calcified pineal, which means their brains cannot produce neuroman because the pineal gland is like the headquarters of the neurom nerve tract. And for the 15% who don't have calcified pneumonating energy raises up the brain stem of the Caucasian and pushes open the pineal gland door, they have an empty third vent. So it is literally impossible for the Caucasian to have a connection to the creator because he wasn't created natural. He's your enemy spice. So we say the black woman is God is because the black woman's melanin content is the most potent on the planet and she has the number one connection to her higher cosmic self. Y'all following me? So now let's keep it kicking. Okay. Now let's break down the difference of levels of existence because we want to prove how the how the universe is a female uh cosmically. I mean how God is a is a female entity cosmically and how God is a female entity physically. Now first we got to get into God in the spiritual is the universe. Now this will be ethical. So this will be what I first told you and I broke down the science by the cosmos built upon electro I mean electrons. Now we know physical by default this will be a black woman. Why? Because a black woman's melanin and melanin sites within her skin for one helps to connect her to melanin. Now the molecular formula for melanin is carbon 18 hydrogen 10 nitrogen 2 and oxygen 4. Now why is melanin and melanin sites important? Because in the epidermic layer of your skin you have something called melanocytes. Now picture small pockets that produce melanin. Now the melanin in the epidermic layer of the applicant is only and can't only be produced by the African. Now let's get into the scientist because before I get into this lecture we want to eradicate all other women on the planet earth from having a chance to think that they can say that they that they can hold a candle to the black. We want to bust them right out the right out the dealing with the black woman. and you deal with all other people and and depending upon the shade of your skin if you are not of African descent because you have an African tribe in Africa who has never had any sexual reproduction when a European and the whole tribe is lightkinned but they have the same uh genetic data as the darkkinned African women.

So we going by race here because race does matter. So if anybody know about race, you damn sure it's right about race. It's all about race. When you're dealing with Spanish people and Chinese people and you compare them to the African the African sites, you have what is called biological machinery.

The African woman has the machinery needed in the melanin sites to not only produce the euromelanin and the neuromelanin, but the darker you are, you're about 85 to 100% full. And then when you get to a lighter skinned humanoid person, they're about 50% to 75%. I mean a brownskinned person like me, I'm about 75 to 100% full. Now when you get to about a lighter shaded person, they're about 50% to 75% full of melan on the spider on the on the on the conscious or the level um keeping this in a realm in which the epidermic layer of their skin produces. Now when you get to a European person, European people according to their flesh are 15 to 0% empty when it comes to producing melanin in the skin. So not only does the European produce from 15 to 0% melanin in the skin, they don't produce the neuromelanin that we produce. They produce melanin which is animal melon. So the black woman possesses the machinery to produce the melanin and then the quality of melanin that that she produces can only be produced by her. The European lacks the machinery to produce the melanin. This is why they don't this is why they get uh sun cancer and skin burn. Listen up skin cancer.org. According to the statistics, every 57 seconds, one European dies of skin cancers fast. Now, this is not my accent. This is because they cannot produce neuroman within their skin because they lack the biological machinery to do it. And even if they did, they can only produce fome melanin, which is animal. So now, why is this important? This is why Europeans get hairy. And we not we not going to turn this about the European, but I got to prove my point to bring it back to the to the greatness of the black woman. This is why Europeans produce so much hair because not only are they genetically sliced as monkeys here, the hair on your skin shields them from the sun. So when you look at a monkey in Africa and you say, "Damn, Pharaoh, if the monkey got feel melanin and the Caucas got F melon, why the monkey don't got skin burn? You ain't see a baboon, you ain't never seen a baboon with no red ass face." I'll tell you why the face is red. Because the baboon has no hair on his face. So it has nothing to shield it from the UV rays of the sun. So the baboon gets sunburn in his face. That's why baboon is a very invested animal. Now why it's important Europeans when you want to talk about Sasquatch and all that that is them making a mythological character is predicated upon how they used to be when they were cavemen. So now what the European does is once he shaves off his skin because he can't come among civilization looking like that period. So now that he hasn't civilized himself he has nothing protecting him from the high UV rays of the sun. So he's getting skin cancer at the alarming rate because I promise you look up statistics Gillette razor is a trillion dollar company to you and niggas don't buy Glet don't buy Gillette. So if you take if you take a European put they ass in a room no razor for a year you ain't going to know who the hell that is. So let's be real now. Why was you making this point? Because melanin is condensed sunlight. So just like water goes from gas, liquid to solid, melanin goes from electricity and magnetism to what you can touch today and you should be in love with. If you don't love yourself, I don't know what the hell did you black? So that being said, melanin condenses straight out of the sun. So when Egyptians saying we are children of the sun, that wasn't them trying to be killed. That's a fact. They understood the science of quantum mechanics. So the black woman has a physical substance which she passes down to us black men that you can only get from the cosmos itself.

So there's no other woman on the planet earth that's 100% human being except for the African woman. And there's no other woman on the planet earth that has neuromelanin in all parts of your body, not just the brain, but the skin, the liver, the heart. Even their DNA is coated in melanin. And this comes straight from condensed sunlight. So you can only get melanin if you were created by the sun. So you got to understand the black woman is the chosen humanoid being. And we have to fight and protect for the black woman. This is not a brownie point. This shit ain't to make a black woman. This shit is because this is the way black men this is the reason black men was created. So we got to go according to nature. Period. That's that's just it ain't no discussions. It ain't no more uh opinions. If you don't if you can't get with this information by now 2016

I'm looking at you as the enemy. And when it pop off you ain't my brother. Now with that being said what's this thing's physical existence? Because now that we prove that the black woman possesses uh melanin that can only be obtained from the sun. We got to and we got to we got to uh show our qualifications for being God. What sustains physical existence? The sun which is light. How is light created? Now everything is created spiritually before it's created physically because if you guys raiki healing which I'm studying but I act like I'm nice with it but I'm going to get into it. But if you deal with if you see un Chinese people who are educated by they do acupuncture and all that and y'all see when we man paralyze you and unparalyze you all that all that has to do with shower centers which are the energy vortexes in the body. You are you are a spiritual being condensed into a physical being. Hence once again melanin is condensed sunlight. Now why is this important? Light is nothing more than electricity and magnetism when it comes together. So electricity and magnetism once it comes together is physical but light is the thoughts and will of the creator which is the spiritual components of the creator. When you're dealing with emotion emotion is a uh compacted word for energy in motion. So when you're having an emotion that's just the energy vacuums within your body are beginning to flow. So right now if I say shut your ass up and you get mad I just put your energy emotion inside of you. So this is why self- discipline is so perfect, so important because each and everybody in this room is an individual universe and I shouldn't be able to come make you have a goddamn solar storm because I said something you don't like cuz that's what it is. You have a tornado inside yourself cuz I told you you up here but you should have enough control over your being to not I shouldn't affect you don't see planets fighting up here. You don't see my fuck you looking at you don't see you don't see. So why are we fighting like that? So we don't understand ourselves. So now why is it important? Because the thoughts and will of the creator of the unified field vibrated itself into a spectrum of what you call electricity and magnetism through emotion which is just energy and motion. So once the cosmos set in motion on an energetic level to become electricity and magnetism and combine together and vibrate itself into a sun and from the sun stimulate the uh let's say I don't want to say dead let's say dormant atoms and make them ionize which I'll go into and make these atoms form plants and make these atoms form cells and organisms. It created a black woman. Now why is this important? Because that shows you that the black woman was deliberately and intellectually created and put here. So ain't no big bang theory accident nothing. The creator wherever you believe in Allah Jesus Santa Claus Easter money whoever you believe in up here out of all the shit that's on this planet that was by accident. You can bet that the African woman was for show here deliberately and intellectually to do her job. So it is our job to make sure that she does her job because you can't say I tell you all the time you can't say all white people not like that. We tell that to the son because he don't play no games with they he tell that to the son. Is the son racist? No. So for you to be trying to tell me to do something that's against nature, I have to question your allegiance to your guys. All right, we good. Yeah. All right. Boom. So when you deal with the radio level of the electro with the sun, this is where the sun actually began to speak because look at sound. When you when you use your best vocal force, it's just vibration. Play at the top. How do you produce a sound? This is vibration.

So the sun was actually spoken into existence. I'm going to read the definition one more time if you need to understand. Radio the transmission and reception of electromagnetic waves of radio frequency especially those hearing silent messages they don't say maybe or we thought it was it say so now why is important because you got the radio wave right here so the sun began to get spoken into existence so when the Bible say and God said let there be light godamn it said let there be light it was intelligent wasn't no accident that the black one was here first so now why is it important you see this right here family this is called an electromagnetic wave now as y'all can see The electromagnetic wave is not so condensed at this point. But as it travels the electromagnetic spectrum, it begins to condense. You are watching the sun condense into melanin. Do y'all see this? Do you see it combust?

So when it so when it created the universe saying, you know what, I want to be a goddamn human.

Boom. And start vibrating. It got here and said, "I'm a human." But guess what? The first human was the black woman. So I had to keep this don't make us inferior black man. I love being a black man. If I can come back again, I'll be a black man again. But the point I'm trying to make is we got to we got to play our position. We can't know our position until we know why it is or who it is. I mean or who the black woman truly is. So now let's get into this family. This is 432 hertz. Y'all see this? Let me teach y'all what a her is real quick. Okay. Drums. Black people. Why do we love drums? Why do we love bass? Because we absorb sound through the skin. A lot of people don't know that. You literally absorb your favorite song. I promise you right now, get get some extra money in your paycheck. your favorite song is the first thing that pop in your head and you want to do a little dance. I'm telling you the truth.

This shit ain't by accident. It's because your DNA stores and records on a on a on a uh on a level of your flesh on a biological level what you intake on sound. It's called simatics. Symatics is the study of waves and how they interact with you biologically and study biochemistry.

Biochemistry is how you how you I mean study bioenetics. Bioenergetics is how you bi biologically interact and respond with energy. So now we dealing with herz, right? You got kilohz, uh, megahertz, gigahertz, and terz. Kil means a thousand, mega means a million, gig means a billion, and terra means a trillion. So I want you to understand the velocity of how hard this goddamn sun is vibrating. So when you driving in your car and people like, "Oh, this shit whack." No, the sun whack. Your car don't whack. Now a tear, right? It's like a drum. If 1 hit this wall one time, right? That's one hertz. So now 1 kHz will be me hitting this wall 1,000 times every 1 second. 1 gigahertz, I mean 1 megahertz will be me hitting this wall 1 million times in 1 second. 1 gigahertz will be me hitting this wall 1 billion times in 1 second. Excuse me. 1 terz will be me hitting this wall 1 trillion times in 1 second. So when the sun gets to 432 terz aka right here where this wave is hitting itself 432 trillion times per second it begins to create physical reality. So if you study paradoxology which is the science of spirit beings and ghosts which is factually confirmed paradoxology will teach you that anything under 432 terz is non-physical but yet still intelligent. So now why is this important? Go your ass out of space. Everything that's not contained within the spectrum of light is still intelligent but non-physical. So now when we want to deal with the black woman and we want to deal with uh the science of the black woman, we want to understand that melanin is condensed sunlight. Melanin was intelligently designed by the creator. So when you design a car, people say, "Oh, you put the pis I couldn't do. I couldn't put a car back together." Think about your body. If I gave you skin and nails and hearts and valves and veins and told you create a body, could you do it? No. So understand the intellectual I mean the intellectual uh proportion in which the black woman was put here on purpose by the creator. How many bowels you got in your heart? How many veins? How many tendons? How many bones? What goes here? Who pass around muscle mass? The breast at this time of year sales don't do this. All this was created on purpose by the creator. So I need for that to sink in your goddamn head before I go further. The black woman is a divine being. This is by default. It's not by opinion. It's not up to what we want to feel. This is by fact. And we got to do all we can to restore her back on our side. Because all white supremacy is is making a black woman value everything but the black men. If you can get the black woman back on your side, there is no white supremacy. White supremacy is not police killing you when it's not that. White supremacy is feeling like I want a man with a good job. The white man job. White supremacy is I want a good fishing man.

The white man Christianity. White supremacy is niggas ain't shit and niggas is dumb. But the white man is so smart. He's a professor. But all that shit is about. White supremacy is taking the mind of the black woman and redirecting it in the favor of the white man. So, we got to get the black woman back on our side. And once you do that, you ain't got to worry about shit. You good. So, with that being said, family, the black woman is God and we going to go back into the silence.

Continuation...

We are going to go back to science. The sun creates planets and human life. Because now when I tell you that the sun, as you can see here, was created intellectually by the unified intelligence of the cosmos. See, when you do a little quantum science and you say, "Pharoh, what's quantum?" Quantum is like the way Buddhist monks say one. So this is the totality of things. So you got your hand which is a part of your arm, your arm which is a part of your torso, your torso which connects to your leg, your feet etc. And then once you become a human, you become a client. Do you follow me? So you got octaves of the mind. People don't know this. You got your conscious mind which is only 10% of what you consciously think. You got your subconscious mind which is fueling 90% of what you think out of 10%. And then you have your quantum mind aka the connection to the creator.

So we want to talk about what is God outside. God by definition will be God is the highest of the mind which uses elements of matter to express itself. Hence when you reach your higher self. So now why is this important? We have to. Now that we've proved that the highest level of intelligence created the sun, which on purpose created the black woman, I'm going tell you step by step how she was created. I'm not going to leave you with no blanks. Before we get into this lecture, I'm going to show you. So you ain't going to know. I ain't tell you the sun created the plan. How I feel. I don't know how. No. Get ready cuz I know. I know. I know. God damn it. Okay. the sun, which is this is this is talking to you and this is why you are supposed to sing because you are just like how your hand is to your arm is how black people are to the sun and and let me tell y'all a lie. A myth I'm going to say. I ain't going to lie. I'm a prophet. I'm going to say a myth. A myth is that white people want to kill all black people. I'm going to tell you why they don't. Cuz they can't. Because we biologically absorb the rays of the sun. If you kill every black person on this planet, the whole fucking planet duration: 1 min son, the whole planet going to get scorched and burned. It's going to look like a giant desert. You can't kill black people. That's like saying uh we are like sponges. We how sponges so water we soak up sunlight. I wish they would drop a bomb and kill every nigga on the planet. They be right behind us in two days. So that is saying you got to understand we are individual manifestations of our cosmic selves. So once again when the Egyptians say you are the children of the sun this shit was not like they wasn't trying to be cute. I promise you never was not a pyramid smoking weed like the children of the sun. No that shit ain't happen like that. They was dealing with something they knew. Now let's go into to the science step by step. We skipping no steps of how a black woman was created by the intelligent of quantum creator which you would call God or whatever you want to call it ionization. Now what is ionization? Notice family everything in space is black. We ain't going to deal with science. We just going to say black right now. Keep in mind simple plan. Why is planets and shit everywhere? Why is it just suns planets and then billions of light years away and another sun another planet? Why is that? Because of ionization. So I'm going to give y'all the science right now. This is the science that nobody going to give you. I'm going to give it to you. But first, I want I want somebody to yell and answer cuz I want to I want to interact with the people. Does the sun shine light on the earth or does the earth attract the light of the sun? That's right. The iron in a core of earth attracts the light of the sun. The sun don't shine no goddamn light. Cuz if it did, it'd be shining everywhere. You wouldn't be able to see. It be like standing in front of this. I can't see. The sun is what? Electricity and magnetism.

Electricity and magnetism are attracted to what? Metal. The iron within the earth core pulls the attention of the sun. Just like when a black walk past you asks you to be driving, you be like this. Let's be real. As above, so below. As above, so below. And I'm making jokes, but it's the truth. So first of all, you need to go to every college and throw that goddamn teaching in the garbage. Because once you teach the truth and you put the matrilineal system back in place, you understand that it's the law of attraction that governs the universe, not the law of projection. So the patrilineal system is an over-masculated system in which everything is projection. I'm a man. You don't look at me like that. The female is feminine. She sat there and looked good. Do you want some tea? You are trying to get you to be attracted. The universe is built upon these same laws. Now let's go. What is ionization? Ionization is when an atom becomes radioactive. Now we're not going to use radioactive materials. We're going to deal with it. We're not going to use the scientific term. We are going to keep it simple so you can understand. When something becomes radioactive, that just means it becomes unstable. Okay? So in this shit you get the wobbling in science they call that radio. Now why is it orange? Why aren't there plants everywhere?

Because these are what you call neutralized atoms. They're not positively or negatively charged yet. A atom doesn't become positively or negatively or negatively charged until it becomes struck by sunlight. So the universe is just potentiality. So just like they say you can become anything. All of this shit out here has the potentiality to become anything if it gets struck by sunlight. If it don't, it just sit there waiting to become into existence. So our our solar system was created first by ionization. Now once ionization happen once a ray of light strikes the atom. Well, first let me take y'all do science. How are elements created? You got the sun but you have no plants, right? Stars get to vibrating as I showed y'all. Just did once this shit get about right here. It's been doing that for 10 trillion years. Sun just blow up. Boom. And what happens is it creates what science calls stardust. There's no such goddamn thing as dust in space. Stardust is chemicals as well as genes. And I mean gen DNA, genetic material as well as cells. So when they say stardust, when you go into what's actually in stardust, it's chemicals, genes, DNA, sales, etc. Everything needed to create a human being and a planet and an animal. You follow me? So now let's get into the science. Stars flow, right? Boom. I mean I mean atoms become ionized. And in order for a unstable atom to become that stable, it had to give away an electron. So now this goes back into the science from the beginning where I said the universe is built upon feminine energy. Now let's just use the first two elements. Hydrogen is the first element. Helium is the second element. Now I wish I would have put it in here. When I go home and put it in here, if you look at the uh periodic elements table chart, it got rows. But those of you who could just get a visualization.

Now you would have 15 elements in row one, 15 and two, maybe 20 and three, maybe 30 and four. Let me tell you why that is. Because all the elements in row one only have one electron. All the elements in row two have two electrons. and so on and so forth. Now, hydrogen is in row one, it has one electron.

Helium is in row two, it has two electron. So, now if I'm if I'm a helium atom and a piece of sunlight strike me, boom, I become radioactive, unstable. Now, the only way for me to become restabilized is for me to give away an electron. So, now once I give my one electron to hydrogen, hydrogen now upgrades to helium cuz it has two and I downgrade to hydrogen. Y'all following me? So, this is how elements get created by the exchange of the energy. Absolutely. So now once these elements get created by the sun, the sun explodes. Boom. Now the sun is so powerful, it has enough solar force to push this star dust trillions and trillions of light years away. And guess what happened? The the magnetic frequency of another sun catches this uh stardust. So just like you put fruit in a blender and you make a smoothie, that's the same goddamn way the planet is made. So this is called a orbit. So stardust, I'm stardust and I'm floating along and I'm coming into this sun and I'm like, "Oh, I'm caught and I'm just doing this," So what happens is all of this stardust begins to mix and it begins to create plants. So just like when you baking a cake, the planet the damn cake don't just come out hard. How-do you think the earth has a core? Because it has a lava state as well. So the cake I mean the earth goes through what science calls the biochemical state of creation as well. Now what they don't tell you is that in the earth's biochemical state while it's getting ready to create grass and trees and dirt and water and all that it don't tell you that it's getting created to create procaryotic cells which is the black hole. So now let's get into the science elements proarotic cells create the human body and the planet. Why? I'm going to give you a quick synopsis. This star right here contains I mean this star ionizes atoms and it creates genes and cells. It explodes. Now picture imagine the dust coming from over here. It get caught up in this orbit. Boom. And it begins to rotate in orbit and all of the chemical elements and genes and DNA begin to blend together and create a planet. On that planet, humans begin to um become created as well. And the first human created is a black woman. So now when you say, oh get their DNA from black women and white people get their DNA from black women, where black woman get her DNA from? She got it straight from the go. So she's god. So what's the problem?

So that being said, let's get into what a proaryotic cell is. Now, once I get this screenshot, see, I don't play that this screenshot on my phone. I do the research. I ain't talking my I read it, confirmed it, checked it, debated myself, didn't win. Oh, it's right. I'm doing the research, man. I'm telling y'all the truth. Now, what is a proaryotic sale? According to suburch, I mean suburb summerchio.com, this is a scientific website. As you can see, this says the first sale. I know it's blurry but it says the procarers procurers were the first sales. So now let me stress that fact because I can't stress it enough because you got people keep running around talking about women nigga that's secondary and that's come from jeans fighting and all kinds of stuff but just expon we want to deal with the first okay stop telling African name is Africa if it was a why we not deal with a stop telling me that I'm you care why you not get into where sales come from cuz if you do you got to go into this and you got to go into the black one being here first and they're not going to do that. So in these college universities, they rather just tell you go your way. They can get these degrees and be out here with their kids up here like they know they don't know a goddamn thing. So now with that being said, this is why white people control the information. This is why they control the information because they do not want black men, black women to have a proper understanding on each other. Me and you can be good Christians, never commit a crime, go to college together, be roommates on the dorm, graduate and live happily ever after, and have never had a correct psychological understanding on each other cuz we were never educated correctly about our origins. So now white supremacy is very popular because even the most successful black relationship is still dead. It means nothing. You don't even know who the fuck you dating. This is not shar. This is the physical manifestation of the creator. But we don't know that cuz we can't prove that to ourselves. But don't worry cuz I'm here to prove it. Now let's deal with science. when we done with uh science according to S we know this is a lot but the reason I'm putting this number up here is because this is what the white man is willing to admit even if it is a lot I know the numbers high fact but we going to deal with what he's willing to tell you according to the white man proariotic cells were created around 3.9 billion years ago that's a long goddamn time Jesus was not here yet and if he was in 3.9 billion years still goddamn late but you know who was formed in the cosmic womb according to the white man every black woman in this goddamn room. So now let's get let's get into it. What is a procaryot? What is a procaryotic cell? Proarotic cells can be classified into procarots and you curios procurotes are considered to be the first ever living cells. I'm going say it again the first ever living cells and are thought to have originated from protoons. Now they are in the kingdoms of mana which is simple bacteria and archa fossils proved us prove to us that both arcade and mana had evolved somewhere between 3 to 4 billion years ago. So now we can substantiate that the European on a biological scale confirmed that the black woman has beyond ancient origins cuz he said 3.9. Okay. So if you consider Egypt a ancient civilization that's about 5 to 15,000. What do you consider 3.9 billion? So now let's keep let's keep it kicking. Why were they the first form of life to appear on Earth? Why were they the first form of life to appear on Earth? Let's read what science says.

Let's read what the white man says. Not no nigga up here. Let's read what people in the laboratory says. There are several theories suggesting how life first appeared on Earth. Guess what the number one theory is? Extraterrestrial. There is evidence. Let me get over here so y'all can read it, too. There is evidence that suggests that life did not originate from Earth but outer space. Okay. In 1969, a meteorite landed in a land Mexico. After close observation of the meteorite, the meteorite was said to contain amino acids, a molecule that is used to create proteins, the basics of all life. This theory of cosmic ancestry is known as panspermia. So now let's get into the word extraterrestrial. Extra means to add on and trio means the astral plane and terra means earth. Something extra from the astral plane was added on to earth. Am I lying or does this story seem a little goddamn true? Now is the sun intelligent? Did it create elements? Did it uh create planet earth in a biochemical state which formed a human? We can prove all of that so that we know this ain't no goddamn lie. So we deal with extraterrestrial. People like to play worse matics. When I say extraterrestrial, you know what I'm talking about. I'm talking about somebody getting off a goddamn shit. But for people who want to play even still in your form is black woman is still an extra terrestrial. So either way you look she's gone. Now with that being said let's keep it cake. Here we go. Her periodic cell becomes black woman. So now you got the planet earth. It's in this biochemical state. Everything is hiring now just like when you baking a cake. And now you get the first living organism which is black. So let me take y'all through the side. I'm going come back here so everybody can see how it's done. Y'all can see that atoms become molecules. Molecules become cells. Cells become tissue. Tissue become organs. Organs become organ systems. Organ systems become organisms. The first humanoid organism was the black one by default. How do we know? Because this shit right here just said procurios are considered to be the first ever living cells. This is the first ever living cell. So I don't understand what you niggas is talking about. I know. I know. I know how to read. So you know what I'm saying? We have to get back to our origins. So now why am I making this point discussing it? Cuz that's the point of this lecture. Return to the matriarch. What's the matriarch? your correct mental psychological foundation as a black man. And I had to stress this enough because you got some people that be so hurt. And if you hurt because you didn't have a couple black women in your life, I ain't judging nobody. You didn't cheat. You ain't take care of your kids. And now I come say the black woman. You feel like shit as you should. But it ain't too late. You can do what you got to do. I ain't picture perfect, but I clean my shit all the way up. You can clean your shit up, too. So that being said, the matial mentality from the ancestors was not because they was running around barefooted huts. is because they understood quantum mechanics. See, a lot of people can tell you the mechanics of a door. You turn a knob, this slick can't tell you the mechanics of the cosmos. What is a black hole do? And what does it create? Does anybody know? No, I'm not trying to nobody. I'm just telling you the truth. What causes a solar storm? What causes a planet to shift a certain amount of degree? What is a plas wormhole? We don't study this shit. Why people was at home every day with their telescopes looking at this shit? We buy our kids Jordans.

They bought Andy a high power telescope. You think they do that shit on accident? You think they do that? No. Because they know who the fuck we is. We just don't know. So, just like they say, new planets get created every day. New organisms get created every day. But we need to deal with the original one right now, which is the black one. So, bringing it back to Egypt. When you deal with new and they got - the black woman over like this and she got the stars on her, motherfucker. That's new female came from the universe. That ain't by accident. But that's even kicking out. So, now we can genetically don't think I need to go in anymore genetics. We can genetically have an understanding that the black one was here first. Period. Let's keep it now.

Now, each level of the visible light spectrum is a energy vortex. So, when you're dealing with chakras, we going to go by definition. The definition of a chakra is a energy vortex center, which inputs and outputs energy. Follow me? Yeah. The sun, right? When you get to 432, which is the level when physical reality first becomes in existence, is what science calls the visible light spectrum, right? So, the first level of physical manifestation is color. And the first color created in our spectrum of life, which travels at 186,000 m per second, is red. And after red, you got orange. After orange, you get yellow. After yellow, you get green. After green, you get baby blue. After baby blue, you get navy blue.

After navy blue, you get purple. After purple, you get condensed sunlight, which is black. Hence the movie The Color Purple. Hence the racist saying. They say, "Nigga, you so black, you look purple." Are you following me? Yes, sir. So now the Earth, I mean the planet, the sun damn sure got energy vortex centers. So now we want to see if the black woman have energy vortex in as well. Sure enough she do.

Sure enough she do in the same color as the electromagnetic spectrum of the sun. Now why do you have shots? Before we go into shop I mean before we go into the rest of this. Why do you have chakra? The same reason you got input and output uh holes on the goddamn box for you to plug your mic in for you to digest information from an outside outlet. Your chakras. See let me go back. Let me run back real fast. You see these? These are different of the sun. So once the sun gets to 432 terz to 480 it's it's becoming physical it becomes red and then once it goes from 480 to 510 it becomes orange and then so on and so forth as the tz frequency begins to raise. Now as the sun gets to 790 frequency and beyond it becomes melanin. Now each of these frequencies can only be ingested by each of your chakra levels. So when they say cuz remember the sun carries intelligence. This is a fact.

This is indisputable. The sun gives you information. It gives you thoughts. Every level of you is not powerful enough to digest every level of the sun. So this is what your chakra is for. So the sun is like the puppet master. You're the puppet and the chakras are the strings that connect y'all. You follow me?

So they say, "Oh, you being in your lower self." This is because you're living in the lowest level of your intelligence. So you can't think past 480 ter. This is why they measure the brain at mezz frequency.

This is why science considers you scientifically did at 25 MHz. But as you raise the mezz frequency of your brain, you become more intelligent. Hence the alkaline diet. Let's do this. So, the black woman is a humanoid manifestation of the earth, which also has chakras, which I'm going to show you in the next slide. There you go. I know y'all see me throw this up. I can't throw this up enough. Now, once again, chakras, energy vortex centers, which input and output energy. When you're dealing with degrees, okay, when somebody say, "What's the degrees today again? Where we at?" 82. 82. Degrees.

What? angles. Okay, so that mean the sun is 82 degrees um in comparison to Oakland, California and we're getting a certain spectrum of light. So you look when you deal with dimensions, dimensions are just angles. For anybody that draw, you know, one dimension is one line, two dimension is two lines like playing Super Mario or Sonic and then three dimensions or 3D is is when you make a square into a cube, it's three lines. So with that being said, chakras help the input and output the light frequency being emitted by the sun through different dimensions of your being. So the black woman is not only compared and contrasting the sun, she's compared and contrasting planet earth. She has different spectrums of earth which are strong and weak. The earth has different spectrums of it which are strong and weak. Hence now y'all heard me say it. I'm say again California Hollywood is the most negative fucking place you can live on the planet. Hence this is why the Caucasia has made this his home base. for pornography, bullshit, movies, reality, TV, because he can do it right here. When you go to Africa, Africa, as I say, is the fifth chakra, which has to do with creativity. Hence why everything was created on this continent. See, you live according to where you live. It's called bioenergetics, y'all. I'm going say one more time. Bioenergetics. Study. You biologically only can become by what you're surrounded by. Hence why your ass living together. Even the light in your house is killing you, but you don't know that cuz you just need to be able to see. So, we got to get into the science family. Let's keep it case. How? Right now, we're going to go into how the black woman is the physical manifestation of the of her celestial self. Y'all follow me? Now, we're going to compare the the cosmos or the solar systems anatomy, planet Earth's anatomy to the anatomy of the black one. Now, let me give you my definition what anatomy means. Any science, right? And that is the branch of science concerned with the bodily structure of humans, animals and other living organisms especially as related by by dissection and the separation of parts. You follow me? Definition two, a study of the structure or internal workings of something. Y'all follow me? So now let's compare the anatomy of the planet earth to the black woman and see if they don't hold any goddamn hand because they were created by the same creator which is the cosmos who divine intelligence and they have a branch of science called information science. If y'all try to get the book it's going to be like $180 but if you can afford to get the book and information science it teaches you how everything that's physical or intellectual comes from a unified field of the cosmos. Nothing is random and this is a European busting this out which we already busted out which you know we putting it back out today modern format but study information science when you study that in evolution theory by itself will go in the garbage the big bang theory by itself will go in garbage because they're proving through quanturh physics and and advanced technology and telescope how everything is first created as a thought aka electromagnetic frequency from the cosmos and condensed into a physical reality. Now let's keep it first we going to deal with the nervous system of the planet earth. Y'all see these latitude longitude lines? We're going to assume this is a black hole. This is the black hole's nervous system. The latitude lines of the planet Earth go from left to right. The longitude aka long y always remember this by long up and down go from north to south. So the earth this is the earth's nervous system. Your nervous system is the electromagnetic grid which sends your mental your intellectual will or signals to your body to carry out your will. You follow me? The earth has a nervous system. This is what causes the earth to flood. This is what This is where the earth say, "You know what? Have a hurricane right here.

Have a tornado right here. Have an earthquake right here." Shit ain't by accident. The earth the reason earthquakes is cuz Europeans keep building shit under the ground and how like if somebody keep putting shit in you. So the earth say destroy that shit. I'm a hurricane. So or I'm I'm going to have an earthquake. Okay. So you got to understand this is the earth's nervous system. This is intelligent. What a lot of people don't know is Alaska is by the north pole. The north pole in you. Y'all know what the Taurus energy is, right? Yeah. You know it's like the aura of the of the earth. Now in science the aura of the earth is called the magnetosphere. Now in Alaska they have set up technology directly on the north pole because this is where all see all of these lines that run around planet earth. They all come out of here. These motherfuckers got a whole facility in in and ridiculous amounts of nanotechnology where they're actually tapping into the grid of the planet earth and causing natural disasters. Okay.

Now how would you be able to do this if the if the earth wasn't intelligent? If you if for you to have something to tap into shows that the earth possesses it own level of intelligence. Hence, this is why it's illegal for you to live in Alaska. How many of y'all motherfuckers I mean this is illegal? Why why it's illegal for y'all live in North Pole? How many motherfuckers of y'all live in the North Pole? My cousin in the north in I mean I mean the uh the North Pole. So boom. When you dealing with the North Pole, the North Pole is the is like your pineal gland is the controller of your nervous system. The North Pole will be like the pineal gland of the planet Earth. Y'all follow me? So all these latitude and line two lines wrapped around the planet earth from the north pole. Now the latitude and line two lines of the planet earth has a radio frequency of 8.7. Y'all get this book titled quantum theology. It breaks it down there.

How they measure it. Now with that being said this radio frequency can be heard by you as that beat.

Y and y'all know where that shit coming from. That is the planet earth actually trying to harmonize and synchronize with you. Well you be thinking you be motherfucking tripping. You're not driven. That is a radio frequency which can be measured up to 8.7 measurements for degrees and you impute that you'll find become one with the planet earth. Hence we know the Indians was black. The word Indian come from the Greek word indigo which means blue black. But outside that this is why the Indians used to say you can put your ear to the earth and listen because this was that was a a sutra or a wise statement letting you know they was in tune with the frequency. Now this is why you never see no animals. Ain't no natural disasters. You see niggas in there blowing up looking stupid with they 2K. You don't see animals caught up in hurricane because animals is on that frequency. Animals are on that wave. We got to get back on that wave. You cannot get on that wave if you too worried about the being you. You cannot get on that way if all you think about love hip hop. The love of hip hop is keeping you away from this. This why you got to be quiet. You got to be skilled with God. All you got to do is sit your ass outside and just don't say shit and just be quiet and let nature get in tune with you and you will start to get information. Niggas going to say, but them same niggas floating like a hurricane. Now let's see anatomy part two, right? Let me come over here. The earth's inatory system compared with the black woman's gumatory system. I'm not nobody else here. Am I okay? And gumi, if you don't know, is just a I'm at the end. Don't worry about brother. And gumi, if you don't know, is a scientific word that just means skin. So they make up these big ass words to intimidate you out of shape. And kumi just means skin. So we saying the skin system of the earth compared to the skin system of the black woman. Hence, both of these, the blacker you are, the more genetic material you contain. The blacker the soil, they call it rich soil. You said anybody don't accidentally because they both come out of that cosmos. You don't plant no goddamn seed. Who? Who who pouring down white soil? Who doing it? Why you starting? Don't you want to go? Let me let me bust y'all ass now. What you doing? What you doing? What you doing? Who starts the garden in the winter time? That's why. Whoever got killed from your parasite, that's white. Everything in nature that's white kills you. That's why they said this white ain't right. M but don't ask me to back now that let me go in on y'all interracial ass when a black woman is born right I use science to back my shit up when a black woman is born she's born with all the opic cells that she'll ever need to have all the children you'll ever need she contains the DNA the DNA and what I'll be going into in this lecture is how you get your DNA from your mother and the child gives it back with that being said I'll be going into how the black woman has 200 200,000 mitochondria DNA genes. The black man has on max 5,000. Now, I won't go to the science. Don't worry. But with that being said, even if it's a black man, even if a black man was to give the child all the genes he had, the child still gets 195,000 from his mother. Now, why is this important? The white woman ain't got no motherfucking 200,000 mitoch DNA. She probably got 2,000. So now, when you reproduce with a European woman, you actually cut off the genetic lineage of your motherfucking race because the black woman is who gives the blood to the child. So if the mother is the one who give the genes to the child, your white that white mother ain't giving shit to that kid. So understand as we even reproduce with themselves, we knock ourselves off the planet. Not to mention real blood cells or monkey blood and all the other shit I ain't going to. Let's just deal with genetic information. When you reproduce with a white woman, all of the potentiality and African ancestry on a genetic level, you cut that shit off because she only can give the child what she has. So this this is a misconception when niggas say, "Oh, the child is the son of the father." Shit, you got 5,000 fucking ass gen. The other 195,000 come from the black. So if you reproducing somebody, they got 2,000 jeans on max, you can give your child 7,000. They still missing 199,000. So all you motherfuckers who say, "I love being black." If you got a white woman, they be killing your race. Where is it at? So this is why the black woman is important. Okay? If you got a bank and you got a billion dollars and it don't go put your shit in the bank with a dollar, nigga, what loan you think you get? Nigga, you ain't getting no loan. So the black man, nigga, you want to further our race and progress with our race, you better go get something black. Cuz I'm telling you, I'm going to get three homeless 500 lb black women before I get one bad.

Now keep getting back on point. Get back on point. The skin of the earth is the soil. Okay? This is this is the flesh of the planet earth. This is where all things grow. And just like life uh grows from the planet earth, biological uh life grows from the flesh of the black woman. It's the epidermic layer in the skin because you get your skin from your mind as we break it down. So everybody in here technically has girl skin by default. You have the skin. So everybody in here is a girl. If you want to just tell the truth, you aint got no such thing as man skin. You got girl skin, but you came out in a form of a boy, but you still got a flesh in your mouth. Period. Now with that being said, let's give a kick. the earth circulatory system, family, versus the black only circulatory system. Oil is the blood of the earth. Okay? And you we you see this oil bill. This is the equivalent of when you go to the doctor and you let the motherfuckers extract some blood out. These motherfuckers is just extracting the blood out of plan and we let them do it cuz you want to drive. Nigga, if you don't walk around, if you get a horse, I'm laughing. I mean, we laughing, but it's the truth. If we want to talk about we we gods. We have to do what gods do which is protect the fucking planet. Okay. So you have to get off the white man dick for a man. Let him have his technology and get back to being natural so the earth can at least rejuvenate his goddamn self for me. Okay? So as long as you remain to be lazy you're going to keep being lazy and giving yourself to the Caucasian and he's going to keep using your energy to keep destroy the plan. I give another example. I just gave him this. I showed this slide my other pop. I do like mine. We used to garden the tree, pick some fruit, eat it. Even if you don't want to eat it all, you can throw it on the ground. Little squirly come eat it. Eat the strawberry. The seed ends ends back up in the dirt and then it reloc. And from that one seed, you get a whole damn strawberry truth. Now guess what you do?

Cuz you lazy is fucking you don't want to learn how to get your own guy. You go to the corner store, you buy you a fucking FOGO. You drink a FGO. You throw the plastic out. Plastic way up in the Atlantic Ocean. Kill three turtles and one duck. And then they dig out the damn ocean, throw it in the field, and you destroy a whole goddamn forest. Cuz now you got to make this into an underground trash waistline because you lazy and you want to be unnatural. So now we dealing with the blood compared to the black woman's uh in gumatory system. You just let these motherfuckers just extract planetary blood. Shame on us. Shame on our blacks. Shame on us because we don't want to be who we know we are cuz we lazy as hell. It's just like you tell your kids, "I know you can do good in school." They just want to be on their phone and get failing. Man, you know your son ain't stupid. You know he not. Same thing with us. And it keeps me alive to know the greatness of black people spiritually, observationally, and scientifically and watch niggas run outside and be assholes every fucking day. We got to get back to what we supposed to do. Now, getting back into the lecture. This is the blood of the earth. The earth has blood, which is the oil. The black woman has blood, which is actually her blood. This is produced within the confines of the earth, underneath the the the crust and the rocks of the earth. This is produced underneath the confines of black woman, aka her bones. So, now let's go to the next slide. family. The respiratory system of the planet Earth compared to the respiratory system of the black one. Now, I want to let y'all know this ain't no tree. This is actual lungs. Under X-ray should look just like a goddamn tree. Okay? This is just X-ray lungs. That's it. Let's break this down, family. Every 90 days is a new season. March is March is spring, the start of spring, and June is the start of summer. 90 days, I mean 90 days of spring, 90 days of summer equal 180 days. In March and spring is when life grows, vegetation grows, you can go to the farmers market, might want to go outside with your shirt off, you feel good when we come out and something period. This is when the earth is actually inhaling. If you study geomancy and bio energetics again, you'll see that the earth is actually taking in oxygen that is given to the plants for the plants to grow. So the earth actually inhales. It takes the earth 180 days to inhale and then the exhale begins in September, which is fall. And it's almost over by December, which is winter, which is 90 days of fall, 90 days of winter. So it takes the earth 180 days to inhale and 180 days to exhale. So when the earth takes in oxygen, which is the life force, all life grows and becomes active. When it exhale, aka outputs the life force, it becomes winter time, which you can't grow anything that sustains your life. So the earth actually breathe. It's a living goddamn organism just like the black one. Now, why is this important? Because if you inhale for 10 seconds and you exhale for 10 seconds, that's one complete breath every 20 seconds. So that's three breaths a minute. 60 seconds* minutes if if you did that for 3 minutes straight you would be in tune with the oxygen level of the planet earth. Now we dealing with numerology $3 * 3 = 1$ mean yeah $3 * 3$ is what? Add it up. Nine. I want y'all to do it. It's nine, right? So what else is nine? cuz I want to make people think. What do what do black women do for for the number nine? Okay. So everything is on a divine interval of nine. If every every goddamn season, every two seasons is 180 days. 1 plus 8 plus 0 is 9. And I can go on and on and on about the number nine. So even your breath just like Buddhist smoke say take a deep breath. Okay?

Keep your keep yourself peaceful because it's put you in a natural octave to planet earth which gives likes to things. Black women give lights to things on an octave at number nine. So they're still uh synonymous with the planet earth. Now let's keep it part the earth's skeletal system in comparison to the black woman skeletal system. This is the skeletal system of the planet earth. They call it the rock cycle. So up here this is where we live. Then you see the ocean but underneath us when you want to deal with the earth's crust and all that when you keep going down in order you have igneous rock which is the first layer, sedimentary rock which is the second layer. third layer of metamorphic rock and then down here you have what people actually believe is a place called heaven which is actually now why is the point because this the earth's core is actually the soul of the planet earth because we have to prove that the earth is alive to even compare it to the black hole so now we've proven that the earth has skin we proven that the earth has blood we've proven that the earth has lungs we've proven that the earth has a nervous system now we have to prove that the plan has a skeletal system so now why it's important because behind the black woman skeletal system is the most violent part of her being her And behind her orgas is her soul. So now let's keep this kicking family to bring this into in total.

Now we going to deal with the earth's core which is the soul of the planet earth. Now y'all see this right here. This is the earth cut in half and this is the clear view at the earth's core. This is the sun. Now why would I do this? Because the the sun remember you get your souls in the sun. That's why you got the soul of your hand, the soul of your feet, your solar flexes, because these are the three triune these are the three triune geometric points on the human body which allow you to input solar energy. If you don't believe that your body runs off sunlight, look up a scientific disease cuz you know they call everything a goddamn disease. Look up a scientific disease that's medically termed I have a book. This shit is like 2,000 goddamn pages. It is nothing but medical terminology. It's a medical terminology I mean uh term in there called solar paralysis. Guess what solar paralysis is? Every night at 12:00 a.m. when the sun go down, you got to become paralyzed and don't become physically able to move until 12:00 p.m. the next day when the sun is in the sky. So they show you that your ass is powered by the sun cuz you got some people who can't biologically connect to the sun so much that when it goes out of their presence for 12 hours, they be stuck. They got to go to the hospital every night and they got special rooms going and they're all European. So it shows you that the sun helps to allow your soul to act to move in. Go look shit up my mind. Solar arousal. Go look shit up. Go look it up. So that being said, why is he worried? Because the core of the sun, I mean the core of the planet Earth is 6,000* C. The surface of the planet Earth is 6,000* C. So we got a sun inside the goddamn planet. So you hear people talking about the the inner sun and the inner core of the planet Earth. That's all real. That ain't no fake ass. You can go live in this planet. The the point of you being able to live in the core of the planet, the core of planet Earth to get off subject is so if we ever get a meteor shower, it's like going to your basement when it's a hurricane. turn in your basement. So if we get a meteor shower, you niggas going to be looking crazy on your board. Don't know where to go. And white people already got they underground facilities ready. They ready for planet. We not probably just broke on the floor 38. So that being said, now why are we comparing the sun and the planet earth to having the earth's quart being the sun? Because the planet earth, this is the first level of pregnancy. So when we want to deal with the holy trinity, people keep saying, "Oh, the father, the son, and the holy ghost and Jesus and Mary, they got that from Isaac. You know what I'm saying? Horse then nobody ever want to say where where the damn Egyptian get it from. You know what I'm saying? So we got to question Egypt. I'm not knocking Egypt but we can't allow our greatness to become a religion either cuz you got people who don't question that Bible. You got some niggas that don't question shit. Egypt say Egypt says it's right because but we just so happy to have something outside of religion. But we still not we got to question the origins of our ancestors. The first holy trinity came from astrology. Okay. Now, I'mma show y'all Earth is this is involved to Earth being pregnant with a sun. Once again, I'm I'mma say it again. The surface of the sun is 6,000 degrees C. The Earth's 6,000 degrees. This is why you say I'm having a son. Have any of y'all women in here ever get pregnant? If you don't even ask, why the fuck do you call him a son? Why you call I'm having a G? You call anything. Why do you say I'm having a son? Because you are a physical manifestation of the creator. You are physically a a humanized, let's say, planet. And it is the sun which is the black man which gives you the photon our sperm our electrical conduit which i'll go into to remind your body to do what it naturally does which is which is reproduce which you were once able to do by yourself which I'm going to go into and give birth to a son. So this is where the ancestors first got the holy trinity from. So you got the earth pregnant with a son and has a mini son in his core in his belly which is the same exact infrastructure in the green had the actual sun in the sky. Now let's see if this pans out. It makes sense to me where they got the holy trinity from because I can see it. You got the black man which is photonic energy. The sun is photonic energy. Oh, hold on. This went great. You got the black man which is photonic energy. The sun is photonic energy. Why is it doing that? I didn't bring my remote. All right. You got the black man with his photonic energy.

You got the sun which is photonic energy. You got the black woman which is which is electronic You got the black man with his photonic energy.

You got the sun which is photonic energy. You got the black woman which is which is electronic energy. You got the sun which is electronic energy. And when you get pregnant and you have a your black man's child, you call it your son. Y'all follow me? So the black woman by default is still synonymous and in perfect harmony with the mechanized uh with the mechanic system of the car.

Now this is why they call your left side of your body your feminine side because this is the side that your electrons uh your electronic energy or your feminine energy uh navigate and this why they call it the right side of your body whatchamacall your your your masculine side because your your your proton energy navigate this side. Hence, the majority of people in America is fucking right-handed, but the majority of people in Africa is left-handed because people in Africa still live according to a matineal system. So, their their feminine energy guides them. Everybody over here live according to a pass line system. So, our masculine side guides us.

Continuation

Now, let's go. Read these references in the Bible cuz I got to give it to you from all sides now cuz some people will not they not going outside that Bible. So, I'm going in there with you. Don't worry, I got my fire on now. Genesis, right? And Genesis when it says and I want y'all to know this reference is from Spiritual Science Research Foundation. So, I'm not making this up on my ass. The Europeans have an entire facility dedicated to researching your soul from a scientific standpoint. So why does everybody find interest in the spirit world of African people but us? I don't understand that shit. If it ain't Jesus and then motherfuckers say there ain't no such thing as ghost that's pseudo then but you fucking pray to a ghost. That don't make no goddamn sense. That don't make no sense. So you tell a nigga you can't astro reject that pseudo but then wait. You think when you die your soul is going to travel to somewhere outside the planet. Nigga that's astrop projected. Fuck you talking. So we got to understand we got to get back to where we got to be. So when we deal with the Bible which is a a Masonic book and the reason I say Masonic book is because a lot of people will know in order to be a slave master you had to be a Mason. You had to ain't no if ends of us about it. You know why? Because Masons study the science of black people and use it against us to oppress us by information. So Masons wrote this book and Masons knew the black woman was God when they brought us over here. So now this why the first thing they did was turn a black woman and a black man against each other. And in this Masonic book it states and the earth was void without form and void and darkness was upon the face of the deep and the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. That's talking about the woman being pregnant and the damn correct me if I get the word wrong cuz y'all know I will tear a word up. The um embryonic fluid within a woman's womb. I say that right? All right. So that being said, the amniotic fluid within a woman's womb, that's what this Bible verse is symbolic to and the spirit of God moved across the face of the waters. Now, according to the spiritual science research, there's actually what they call where it's at black energy covering the fetus causing increase complications as they call. So this shows you what is black energy? If you study science, they say that space is made of black energy. This is cosmic melanin in the womb. So they showed you where they got the signs from. The black woman is God. I don't she she the black woman should be on the fucking every billboard in America till we get it right. Till we get it right. So this is where they got the verse from. So don't worry, I got some more religious references for y'all for the for the for the biblical people. Now when we dealing with uh when we dealing with the Adam and Eve story being a lie cuz I got to go through the Bible cuz a lot of our people is so stuck on that. So when a Christian see this, I need to pull them right up out the matrix like pretty cool. Now with that being said, the the Y chromosome is the man. Okay? And it comes from the X chromosome, which is the female. The Adam and Eve story is a complete goddamn lie. Why? Because without without science common sense. Why the hell we got to send my ribs as y'all? If I gave you my ribs to be creative and ri that's common sense. But going into science, we're going to break down how the

Y chromosome comes from the X chromosome. We're going to be breaking down. We're going to be breaking down this right here. I replaced this with the extraterrestrial information. So, ignore that. We were breaking down the mitochondria DNA of the black woman. We're going to break down how a baby boy is actually a girl for the first 5 weeks. We're going to break down how you get the skin tissue from your mother. And we're going to break down how the black woman created all races. And this is going to be used to disprove the Adam and Eve story. Now you would say why would you want to disprove the Adam and Eve story if it's a lie? Because if you can prove that shit is a lie, everything in the Bible is predicated upon that happening. So once you destroy that, well, who the fuck is everybody? Where's King Abel coming? You know what I'm saying? Where's where's Ham and Shim and them coming from? Cuz that never happened. So this is why we got to go on that goddamn Adam E. Okay. So now in the Bible, it says, "And the Lord and the Lord called the deep." Oh, let let me give y'all the book and the chapter. Genesis 2 21. And the Lord God caused the deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept, and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof. Chapter 20, I mean verse 22. And the rib which the Lord God had taken from man, made me a woman, and brought her unto the man. Verse 23. And Adam said, "This is now bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called a woman because she was taken out of man." All right, let's stop. We're not going to lie, I'll tell you why it's a goddamn lie. Which chromosome is man and which chromosome is female? Your blue is man. So how fuck did you get this? How did you do that? You didn't do that. Yes. This is for right now. I don't I don't know any information. I'm a 5-year-old. And they say, "Pharaoh, daddy about to teach you about the Bible." Yes, Dad. Adam gave Roman from his rib. Okay, Dad. And I get to college and I get to science and they say, "This is the female chromosome and the man chromosome." What the fuck was you talking about, Dad? How did you get a million dollars out of a doctor? I never saw that happen unless you were a hell of a magician. So, with that being said, let's go into the science family. The XX chromosome, right? When y'all just go back in y'all brains right now when y'all was in school and you see the big X and the small Y. That's because the XX chromosome is five times larger than the Y chromosome. We can see that right here. So we know they are not lying. This little blue chromosome is only the top half of that of that goddamn pink chromosome. Now according to science because if I tell somebody right now motherfuckers love to say chromosome chromosome just like they say jeans but they don't get into detail. They'll tell you that different genes hold different amounts of DNA strands. This gene might have two. This gene might have two million. This gene might be this big. This gene might be this big. But motherfuckers just keep classifying everything like it's the same. When you deal with chromosomes, these chromosomes ain't the same. You got different names for different chromosomes. Females are called metacentric chromosomes. Say it so y'all understand. chromosome. Now the man's chromosome is called the subentric chromosome. Y'all follow me? Now when you look up the definition of sub, guess what it means? Substituted. So who substituted the black woman to become a black man? Because when you're dealing with information science, nothing happens randomly. So I don't think this big ass XX chromosome just decided to become this by accident. Why would they do that? But we are going to go into that. But I just function. Now, why is this important? Because, as you can see, this is missing 2.8% of his own self. This is the man. This is the woman. Black men. How many of y'all here produce breast milk? None of you do. So, it's a million other things that we have that we don't, but I'm going to use that one cuz that's the most obvious. Nobody has breast unless you just eating ridiculous amounts of estrogen. Other than that, even once you get them, you still can't produce breast milk. So, now, why is this important? You don't use all of your being because all of your being is not present within you. Period. You come from the black woman. We are these vehicles cuz remember you're not your vehicle. So it's like the black woman is 2016 and we're 2015. We ain't too far behind but we not on 2016. It just is what it is. Damn. So when you dealing with u whatcham you call it using your entire body. We missing 2.8% of our genetic material. So we missing the attributes that the black woman have. So it's like Pokemon. You got Pikachu, then he turn into Raichu. You got black woman and you turn into black man. We are all one and the same. We are different manifestations of one organism. Are you following me? Yeah. You got the red, you got the grizzly bear, you got the white beard. They both going to eat your ass. What's the difference? So, when you're dealing with duality and you're dealing with oneness, the European creates duality. There's no such thing as you and me. It's me and you just physically manifested as different reflections of each other. It's like looking in one of them mirrors and the mirror got your head big and you looking weird. You know that's not true you but that is your reflection. Same thing with black women. I know this ain't me but this is my reflection. So we have to become one again. You understand what I'm saying? So the woman is like the key. We like the key. The woman is like the lock. What's more important? Cuz you can lose your key and get another one. You only get one lock. So with that being said, understand family. Now let's get back into this. The click is a miniature penis. Now let's be mature about this family. You going to be mature. You see them little big clips out there. You see I being said, this is not by uh mistake. The click actually is only protruding out of its surface two fifths. If the other three fifths of that click come out, she'd probably be long as she is a scientific fact that the click is a penis that's not protruding all the way out. So now, why is this important? A man is just a female turn inside out. Her ovaries protrude out of the vaginal wall and become your testicles and they get covered in excess skin. The reason you circumcise your son is because all of that extra skin around his penis is really the skin that would have been on his vaginal wall had he stayed. So we are just women turned inside out on a on a body level cuz remember you are not your body. So the reason I keep stressing this is because I say information is only digested by maturity level. Okay? So I'm not telling you that you're a girl. I'm telling you that your body is a different manifestation of the original form in which it came. Follow me, okay? Let's get on the Y chromosome, family. The Y chromosome is five times smaller than the XS chromosome. It contains 2.8% % less genetic material than the excess chromosome. It does not use 100% of his body functions. I just broke down the science behind the skin on the penis and the vaginal wall as well as testic ovaries. And also this is why the X the X chromosome is more advanced. This is why girls mature and learn faster than boys. Who wants to bet that you going to tell your daughter to get out your business when you tell your son? Because that's a fact. This is not my because so so we got to stop letting the white man tell us cuz our our kids is fast. Our kid ain't fast. God damn it. She's 100% complete. She's supposed to be retaining information fast. We going to put a football helmet on and hit our head a couple times. We get it right. I was a kid. So, you got to understand little girls ain't fast. They're they're up to date. They're intelligent. It's the boy that take a little longer to mentally develop because we don't have it all. So, that's where the saying come from. He don't got it all. Motherfuck. He damn sure don't. But you got to be patient with it. So you got to stop telling your kids they fast and stop telling your son he's slow cuz we use these words. Sit your fast ass down, boy. Stop acting slow. You say shit all the time. I said it before in the past not knowing what I was saying. But this is the science behind that. If it take your son a minute to learn, no. Let this goddamn chromosome come in your head. So next time you say son is 5 plus 5 and you be like nah. You be like what the fuck? He be like I know. I know. Let's be real. Let's be real. But no, he's going to he's going to develop. And once he develop, he'll be where he need to be. But until then, it take him a minute. But when you got your when you got your daughter and you say that she's saying it or she watch TV saying it, don't think she fast. No, that's because she's complete and she's working the way she's goddamn supposed to be. You should be proud of that. And it's your fault cuz nobody told you to be watching fucking Love Hip around. Now, with that being said, now let's get into the real science to this, feel me? Because I'mma prove that this is true. Anybody got any doubts? You want to know how we know this is true? Cuz this is how the white man know how to make a a transsexual. The white I got Damn. Did I put the slide here? Oh my Oh y it a sound. It ain't no speakers. But you don't need no speakers. You just need the visual. I I narrate. Don't worry. Now, you can't turn a woman to a man, but you can turn a man to a woman. You know why? Cuz the man used to be a goddamn woman genetic. Now, if you don't believe me, let me show you where the X Y chromosome comes from and how it goes back into a XX chromosome. Is it going? Let me see. Yeah. Okay. Let me get out my way. That's the click. proof that the man is a woman turned inside out. This is showing you what these motherfuckers do in these operation rooms in the animated design. That's the you that's the ovaries, right? And a woman, right? It's going to show you how woman becomes man because remember you a girl for the first 5 weeks. Ovaries drop down. There you go. It became a boy. This showing you the baby in the womb. It shows you the ovary drop down. Right. Here we go. Oh, this doing nothing crazy. Okay, long story short, I don't know what's going on with that, but long story short Oh, here we go. All right, I'm about to say come on now. Now, this that shows you the the ovaries drop down within the child. This is going to show you once the child becomes a man, how they put the ovaries back up in you. Now, this is turning a man back into a woman. So, this shows you the child be the female become a male. Now, they about to show you how they turn the male back into a female. Here you go. clip become a penis. They take it. They cut your testicles open. Here you go, fellas. No, we got to watch this. See, they can't even do it. Listen, they taking the taking it out, you fellas. They clip them out. Bang. So now this like, oh, transsexuals don't get raped. Now you know why. There you go. They take your penis, they cut it off. Cut it all. Right there on the table. There you go. Now watch them. Now watch. Now watch how they about to do. Now watch how they about to do. They put they choke your penis in there. Bring it out. mouth, right? And then they tuck it back in cuz remember the first video I showed you the ovaries coming down as it's for a boy. They just do the reverse prospect. No, but they making a vagina at where your testicles used to be. Look, they making it and now they got to where I meant to put it here. Now they got this machine where they can actually insert a uterus into a man. She can get pregnant. And they're lactation to breastfeed. Exactly. I'm just upset they still cut everything. Okay, now they took everything out that you needed to be a man. Now they close you up. You don't need that anymore. They take your penis. They turn your penis back into a vagina. You see it? It was coming out. They tucked it back in. Bam. Now they give you No. No. They giving him a uh incision. They about to make him a fake clip. See? Boom. Motherfucker going to be on Jerry Springer next week. Here we go. That's what I'm going to tell you. Now you gave the bad wall. He ain't creating no wings now. They about to sew him up at the end. They going so him up. You ready to go? Y'all live in Cali, too. Y'all got to watch out. Don't be thirsty in 2016. Britney might have been crying. Look at that. Now that's a womb all day. Now look. No, it's not. Right. All right, let's correct that. That's an artificial woman. They didn't turn the man back into a woman. But you know why? Because they knew he used to be a woman genetically. Here you go. Look. Show it up. All right. You have to wear a cup to the next lecture. Now they going to close it. And there you go. Trend artificial wound. Boom. Now I promise you the brother just picked up on my thought because I wanted to say this. You know how many slaves they experimented on? They got that right. They was experimenting on it. But outside that the point of that is to show you genetics and biology and whatn European study. Because I have a question. Raise your hand here if you ever thought about turning somebody in Sunday night. So what kind of diabolical motherfucker would say think about that? Why would you think about that? You understand what I'm saying? So you got to understand the the mind of the European. This is you do not want to let three white people and white labs get you alone. You don't want that. Okay? You see you seen hostile. That shit ain't fake. That shit is real. That shit is real. They pay motherfuckers to kidnap people, clone you. Then they torture your clone and your clone died. They got five more of you waiting to torture you. So this is billionaire club shit. They got museums that you can't get into if you don't show them. Like you know rappers have like black cars and shit. Your uh rich ass white people, they got cars where you can't even get into the museum if you don't show them the car. And I'm I did I'm going do I mean I put that in my Anak. They got axes that's 35 ft tall, but you'll never see them cuz your money ain't long enough to even get in that museum. So understand public and private. You got public school, private school, public information, private information. public law, private law, aka sovereignty. Nigga, you got public museum and private museum. So, understand the science family. Now, that being said, we're going to deal with

Now let's break the science down family. Athenogenesis by definition is a type of asexual reproduction in which the offspring develops from unfertilized eggs. It is particularly common amongst arthropods and radical fish. It can also be found in some species of fish, amphibians, birds and reptiles but not in mammals. Now let me break this down because to the average person it might not be your fault but you're going to say we're mammals. You know what it says not in mammals. No Europeans are mammals. They're spiked with monkey and wolf DNA. That's why they smell like wet dogs in the rain. We have reptilian DNA. This is why we have the reptilian part of the brain. And it also prove that we're reptiles, that we have reptilian DNA is the pineal gland. The cobra is the only animal on the planet that not only has a pineal gland, but it also meditates. The cobra is the only animal you can play music to and it dance. Try that shit with a tiger and see what happens. That being said, because the tiger is a mammal, it doesn't have a pineal gland. The tiger does not tap into the higher levels of consciousness. Hence, this is why the ancestors called the divine energy serpent energy. This why they chose the cobra. That's why they wore the cobra because the cobra is the most spiritual animal on the planet. Now, we have reptilian DNA. That's why when you get ashy, you look scaly. And if everybody go like that, you got wet hands. There's not nobody in this room that don't got wet hands. [applause] So, with that being said, family, we have reptilian DNA. So, when it says and reptiles, they talking about us and the mammals. They assume the you got to deal with science. Now, why is it important? Like I said, black people are not mammals. Whites have monkey blood and jeans. Blacks have reptilian genes. Reptiles, specifically cobras, have pineal glands and give live birth because people like to say snakes lay eggs. Nigga, the snakes they show you on TV cuz some snakes give life. So, I don't know what kind of animal plan y'all watching. But that being said, this proves that something of reptile genetic lineage can give life birth and as well as produce asexually without the help of an outside uh species. I mean outside or counterpart to it own species. Now the black woman fertilized herself through sperm in her bone bone marrow which was secreted through her baron. Now let me get into this. Uh queen would you check that camera? Now with that being said it's still recording. All right. When we dealing with uh cartoogenesis and I I got it right here but don't worry I'm going to give you the science and I'm going to show you what happened in what date is this? July 7th 2013. Can't see it but I can see. So this that was only 3 years ago that this happened. What happened is in the bone marrow of black women, they were producing sperm. This sperm was being secreted out of today two P-sized glands under the vagina. Women, y'all probably familiar with these glands if you ever been to the doctor or whatever. They're called the barthalon gland. They're on each side of the vagina. They're p-sized. And in these bar glands, you have little openings called baralen duct. And the sperm will shoot out these baron duct into the womb of the vagina and fertilize the egg called bartheogenesis. Now, why is important? The same way women get wet today, you call it getting wet, whatever you want to call it. Imagine a sperm was coming out. You'd be pregnant every time you seen a diesel man with red. So with that being said, when women self fertilize themselves, this was the process. Now due to uh let's say extraterrestrial interactions and black men being created, black women at this point in time are not performing itself performing this uh feat genetically on their own. But this could be a multitude of reasons because remember 98% of the DNA is locked out of 64 DNA codons. We're only using 24. So as you come into the quering age and the DNA gets awakened, you don't know what your neighbor going to do. She might just be myself pregnant and a white man already got it prepared. He gonna say it's a holy miracle but it's not. It's a genetic miracle which we were doing already and it's normal since we're not doing it no longer seems normal now. Now if you say feral if this is true show us don't worry cuz from Discover magazine which is an international magazine as well as national magazine. They did a whole article on it called babies from bone marrow from 2013. It's only 2016. So that being said this ain't no 1930 shit. I bring up to date information. Don't worry about that. This shit ain't black and white. This shit was made on color print, baby. Now, with that being said, microbiologist Karim Naia, N A Y E R N I. I'm going to be skipping the last name the rest of the time. Come on. So, you got it. Kareem in of the Northeast England Stem Cell Institute just took a step forward, rendering men obsolete by immersing stem cells harvested from men's bone mill in a cocktail of chemicals that mimic the environment of the testes. Remember testies is your uterus, I mean your ovaries. Neuria and his team turned the stem cells into immature sperm. The experiment marks the first time that any non-reproductive human tissue has been transformed into game. If the cells can be grown into mature sperm, the technique would allow men without functioning sperm or even testes to father children. Now, why is this important? This is not the first time somebody did that. We was doing that in the past. But for two, this proves that sperm can be created in your bone mill and used to fertilize organisms. So that means that family shut these Christians down with the truth and black women understand your power. So understand black men our position and why we were created today. Now that being said this was posted by William Rage. Go study William Rage. He's a whistleblower just like Eric Snow. Now this slide is about an extraterrestrial body found on the moon proves woman is the oldest woman ever found. So according to science, they try to say, "Oh, the oldest woman was found in Ethiopia and she's 3.2 billion years old." Well, this black woman right here is 1 I mean, she's 3.2 million years old. [clears throat] This black woman right here is 1.5 billion years old. So, she got locks. So, let's get into this. This was posted 2015, February 6. Go look up. I'm going to say it again. Y'all want to write his name down. William Rutling. Okay, look him up. Now with that being said, the CIA has been deleting videos pertaining to the city cuz there was a violent city there too and Eve. Eve means an extra biological entity found on the moon. I suggest you download them before they succeed. I talked to William on YouTube 3 years before fakes were being put on YouTube. He is real and afraid for his life. But nearing the end of his life cuz they killed his ass. He wanted to make this info public to get it off his chest. I wonder how many white white scientists and rich people notion that they just want to get off their chest. With that being said, William is a hero and will one day be noted as such in the history books. Now, if you study Norman Berum, Norman Beerram is a was a was a scientist for NASA for the last 12 years. And he wrote a $1,400 book called The Rings of Saturn. And in his book and in his interview, you know how to get the book. Just go type his name on YouTube and watch his interview. You can watch the three-minute one or the 2 hours. In both of them, he st that he saw with his own two eyes 7 foot African meloniated looking entities that resemble African people get off a fucking spaceship. So when you see this black on the moon, it don't sound so goddamn crazy. Now when you got somebody who was working for NASA for 12 years and all they do is watch outer space confirm that extraterrestrials look like Africans. It's not so hard to see that it's a black woman now when we just confirm that the XX chromosome for XY. So this is why I be shitting on the inky and story because you talking about inky and I knew it's all men that came down here and created the race but how they created the race of people when they came from the black woman. So where she at story too so I don't jack that story. That's that's some white supremacy shit. Now with that being said here go actual photographs. See that? See that pine heal gland? Ours ain't like that no more. Who knows? Maybe we ain't operating with the same jeans she had 1.5 billion goddamn years ago. But I can tell you I know she black cuz them lips do not come from. Okay. Them lips told me she was black all day. So with that being said, family understand black woman is God. She got genetic origin. Now I hope I got the ship in here. Let me check out the ship they found her on. This is actual actual satellite imagery of the moon. Right. This is the ship when they zoom in on it. This is how big the goddamn ship is when they compare it to structures on Earth. This is the Queen Mary boat. And this is the Eiffel Tower. Y'all see how big that goddamn ship is? That's some Star Trek shit. Seriously, this what they found her. This what they went up in and got her. So understand, we say the black woman is God. She's God. And if you want to talk about Jesus, nigga, they didn't find Jesus yet. They didn't find him. Okay? Cuz I tell people, people say I when I say, "Why can't they find Jesus?" They say, "Cuz he got out of the ground and rose again." The nigga sandals didn't. The sandals didn't go to heaven. So where is the nigga roll? Where's the coming from? Where is it? Because if you can find a 1.5 billion, Listen, y'all don't understand how fucking long billion is. 1.5 billion year old black woman on a ship that's damn near as big as three fucking countries, but you can't find a man to pray to. I rather pray to black women all day. I don't give a fuck what you niggas talking about. So that being said, family, understand a black woman is God. Not just we proved it genetically. We proved it astrologically. We proved it uh geographically. We proved it energetically. We now we getting ready to prove it religiously and we proved it philosophically. We proved it system systematically. Now we proven it extraterrestrially. Do anybody got any more questions. Thank you. Let's keep it let's keep it kicking. Now that being said, mitochondria DNA this what I was working on earlier. Now [snorts] once again definition by means of public information in most multi-cellular organisms mitochondria DNA is inherited from the mother. Now why do I stress that point? Because you got so many people especially the Israelites. The Israelites if you in the building it's just the truth. You are not the seat of your motherfucking father. You're not. It's just not your period at the end of the sentence is not the beginning. Don't care what you talking about. Once again, according to science, in most multicellular organisms, mitochondria DNA is inherited from the mother. Okay, mechanisms for this include simple dilution and egg contains on average, this is on average, okay, but this even the minimum or the maximum amount of DNA a black woman can have. This is just what she guaranteed to have when you run a course. on average 200,000 DNA molecules whereas a healthy human sperm was reported to contain on average five molecules. So where the is like that? So we [snorts] need so they need to read this. With that being said, let's get into the science family. When you see this sperm right here, anybody who deal with sexual reproduction knows that the whole goddamn tail fall off. Only this may get into the head. Now why is this important? This is where the male mitochondria DNA is at. So, as a black man, when I impregnate my black woman, all I got is five mitochondria DNA. And damn it, I'd be lucky if two go there cuz this fall off. Now, why or how does the black man impregnate the black woman, you ask? Now, we are nothing more than a light switch. We are what you call an electrical conduit. Our sperm comes from the black woman. Remember, we're a black woman minus 2.8% of her own genetic mass. So as she lost a piece of herself, we now possess that piece. See the the when the when the when the key is in the lock, it's whole. If we the key now, we separate and the black woman is the lock. We just remind her of her ability and how she functions. It is a scientific fact that all your sperm does is go into the egg, electrically shock the egg. Just like when you die and somebody gave you CPR, the sperm is like CPR for the egg. It hit the egg, boom, the egg say, "Oh, she not supposed to be going." And it start growing. That's it. So you just remind the black woman of what she used to do without you. That's what we here to do. To play the part for the black woman that she can no longer play at this at this point in time for herself. Now, proving this mitochondria are of female origin, not male origin. You see the sperm going to the egg. This ain't going to make it in. This is where the mitochondria is at. This is just a head. Now, the female oite aka egg cell will pass on more than 100,000 mitochondria to the next generation. Sperm cells typically possess less more than 100 mitochondria. So now you take that mitochondria and you go get Becky and Becky probably got 10 goddamn mitochondria [snorts] and you have a baby talking about something uh you furthering your No, you're not. No, you're not. So you got to understand the signs why interracial dating is dead. It's not because we being racist, nigga. You are not furthering your You don't be a spider and go have a baby with a goddamn bird talking about oh we just in love, nigga. Where where the rest of the spiders going to come from? Go pick another spider. So you can't be an African and go with a European or a Japanese or a Chinese and think that you further than the African race. You cutting off billions of years of living. I showed you a black woman on the moon. You cut that off when you fell in love with Taylor Swift. You cut it off and this ain't this a malos in the building. We all growing as one. We coming into our knowledge ain't our fault. We didn't do this shit. We just learned about what happened. But now going forward, we know when in doubt, stay in doubt and go back home. Don't go with that. Now, with that being said, babies are girls for the first 5 weeks. Okay? Sales turn into tissue. Tissues turn into organs. Organs turn into organisms. Skin tissue is inherited from the mother. Let's break this down for this posted by Men's Health. Another international magazine. Okay. So, let's let's see what Men's Health has to say about uh the stages of pregnancy. [clears throat] Everyone comes from a common genetics and developmental framework. that is tweaked by sex hormones, says Richard Bryce, B R I V I E S E A S, who has a PhD and is and is the director of Yale Reproductive Ecology Laboratory. Okay, so not only is he the director, he's in the laboratory watching shit develop. So now, let's see what he had to say. We all start at generic embryo. you have a set of male or female sex chromosomes, aka XXX Y chromosome. But the distinction doesn't kick in until your hormones enter the picture. He explains, "Without hormones, like testosterone, you will stay on the path to womanhood. And sorry to say, your body already started developing by the time this dissertation was made, which means your lady parts were already starting to form." Now, how do we prove this? I showed you a couple slides ago of a woman pregnant with his son and the ovaries was dropping out. So every man in here was on his way to being a woman until that XY chromosome kicked in at 5 weeks. Now what's the science behind this? You ask Frell. The science behind this is when you're pregnant, you not only give genes to the mother, the child gives jeans I mean the mother not only gives jeans to the child, the child also gives genes to the mother. So if women stop getting pregnant with boys, there will be no more boys. Whenever a woman gets pregnant, that child gives her new jeans too. And one of the genes given back to her is the X Y chromosome. So the X Y chromosome is just in recycle. If we were to take that out of cycle, there would be no more males on the planet. Y'all follow me? So this is how she keep getting the gene back. Now let's go into this family. You get your genes and your tissue from your mother. Now why is this important? Because as I stated earlier earlier, you see her looking at her hand. She is looking at the ancestors. Okay? The ancestors live within you because you are literally physically manifested within your genetic tissue. You as a black man have the skin tissue given to you by that black woman who gave you all them goddamn mitochondria DNA. So with that being said, you got the you got the skin in your mother, your grandma, Queen Zinga, slave that got raped, Nepertiti, the black woman on the moon. Everybody has this flesh. Everybody has a feminine skin tissue or organ. So there's no such thing as duality. Black man, we have to come back as one. And you can't understand it. So when I say the black man is God, do that mean the I mean the black woman is God. Do that mean the black man is not God? No. It means that we have to understand she was here first. And until we put her back on her throne, how the fuck we going to get on? When you on your throne, you look to the right. Your woman supposed to be there. So if she not on her throne, nigga, what you doing on yours? So that being said, you got we got to get back to the the the true genetic understanding of where we come from. Now the black owners body during giving birth, right? Because I want to I want to I want to put this out there. A human body can bear only up to 45 units of pain. Yet at the time of giving birth, a mother feels up to 57 units of pain. This is similar to 20 bones getting fractured at the same time. You can figure it now. The mother's pain and love for her child. So now this got to show this goes to show you right black man the black woman is genetically and spiritually equipped to even step outside of her biological means to do what she got to do. Your ass will die if somebody tortures you and you [laughter] steal over 45 units of pennies. This is fact mother electrocute you soon as you get to 45 units of pain. You dead. Your black woman is able to step outside of her physical law. She's breaking physical law. The universe said if you feel 45 units of pain, your ass is dead. She's going 13 I mean 12 units over that to give birth to your ass for you to grow up and disrespect her. That's some crazy shit. So that being said, you got to understand why we said a black woman is God. Nigga, you you feel 57 units of pain. Until then, bitches shit to me. I don't know what you talking about cuz I don't want to try. So that being said, we got to correct our psychology of the understanding of black woman power and and what she mean to us, not just genetically, but spiritually. and and and it shows you the emotional will and strength of a black woman because I'm going show I'm I'm going to speak on what I observe. What I observe is black women carrying niggas. And what I mean by that is we didn't go through what black women went through in slavery or nothing. Okay? Black women was breastfeeding niggas while they was chained up getting raped. Slave master trying to hang you. She have sex with slave master not to kill you. They've been sacrificed. Niggas is going to jail, nigga. They send you income tax, sending you they last all kind of shit. Let's be real about this shit. You get kicked out. You don't go to your nigga house. You go to your black woman. Whether it's your wife, your side, the woman, she caring niggas emotion. And I'mma break down the emotional expression of black. All right. I ain't done. Okay. It happened to me when I was young. It happened to me when I was young. I'm talking from personal experience. If you cheat on your black woman, she take you back. You cheat again, she take you back. You get caught flirting, she she she be upset. She still be there. Nigga, she liking nigga flick on Instagram. Yo, hell no. Don't disrespect, nigga. We have an emotional volcano. We not eternally strong like the black. Does that mean we weak? No. But that mean we have to acknowledge the power of feminine energy. Black women have sat by for thousands of years. Watch us get sold in slavery, rape. Today they killing us in the motherfucking street. Niggas is killing niggas. She went to school with her grow up. Her son killed her. You know how much shit black women go through emotion that we ignorant to. Okay? And they still strong today. Niggas have heart attacks over one little motherfucker. Did they kill my man? Fuck that nigga. They killed all eight of her sons. Nigga, she still going to work. So what's your fucking problem? So you got to understand the And that shows you giving birth love. The love that a black woman has for her child allows her to step outside of the physical compounds to deliver you. The love that black women have had for black men, despite us disrespecting her, running off with these cave back cave beast assies, despite us trying to be, despite us beating on her, she's still motherfucking here. And niggas need to harness that energy and acknowledge that shit. Period.

The female being has been chosen by the creator to be the portal between the spiritual realm and the physical realm. The only force on earth powerful enough to navigate unborn souls onto this plane. So tell me why we do not treat her as such. Let's go back into the initial statement of this of I mean to the first paragraph of this initial statement. Now the female being has been chosen by the creator to be a portal between the spiritual realm and the physical realm. Now, why is this important? Y'all see that baby and that black woman? This baby started off as a thought. I'll tell you how. Because somebody thought they wanted to have some sex. Period. If nobody never had the thought to have sex, nobody would never be able to be manifested. Now, why is this important? The black woman is a pathway from the astral plane to this plane, aka astrophysics and physics. Metaphysics and physics. See, we always want to talk about physics. Physics starts off as light. Light is a non-tangible substance that becomes tangible. You can go outside right now and feel the heat from the sun and you can't grab it. Look at this. I can't grab that but it has an effect on me. This light is created when matter and antimatter combined. Antimatter is just a scientific word. The spiritual realm and matter is the spiritual realm became physical that creates light. So now why is this important? The black woman is the portal for everything that want to comes from antimatter into matter. You feel you following me? So now, just like I gave an analogy again earlier, I'm give it again. If you want a car, your ass got to go to the car lot, buy it, and pull off. If you a soul and you floating your ass around the world or wherever you come from in the galaxy, and you decide, you say, "It don't got to be Earth. It could be another. I want to have a humanly existence on this planet." You got to come through the black woman. You ain't coming through me. I only pitch. I don't give birth. You got to come through the African woman. Now, depending upon what car you want, would be dependent upon woman you choose. If you want a hoopy, you go through Becky because Becky kind of going to work on this planet. Remember these just your vehicle. Becky going to get sunburned. Becky can't run. Her butt flat. All kind of shit wrong with Becky. You go to Shaquilla cuz Shaquille got all the genes you need. See, I I'm using cars because that's the best uh symmetry I can give between human. This is your vessel, your soul driving. White people are like hoopies. Black people are like Lamborghinis. And we think we the hookies and we let them think they the Lamborghinis. We the ones with all the genetic material. We the ones that we can create anybody right now. I promise you. So that being said, the black woman is the portal for this. So we should be protecting her. All this uh whatchamacallit abortion shit. You don't know who you could have aborted me. You could have think about if I was aborted. You don't know how long it would take me to reincarnate to come get this information. And my mind would have said I'm having an abortion because a European created the abortion. uh whatchamacallit society of organization to stop black people from reincarnating. See, white people don't do shit to us physically. They do it to us spiritually. We always think white people trying to attack us physically. White people be one-on-one since day fucking one. They never came out and said, "Nigga, I'm taking this." Nope. They gave niggas Christianity and made that him fight him. Abortions. Abortion is not just to stop us from sexually reproducing because we reproduce. The average 17-year-old black girl in America is on her second kid. The average white woman in America has 30 on her damn first. and she had to give a whole bake sale to somebody else just to get it. This is to stop messiahs. The federal government said what? There will never be another messiah. And they making sure that they putting religion everywhere, liquor stores everywhere, and abortion cla because you got souls who come to this planet to raise the frequency of this planet and you can't get here cuz the abortion clinic was waiting for you. And then if you do make it through that, the family you reincarnate into, they going to try to indoctrinate you in relations. So the white man know the black woman is the portal. This why he cook her ass on white supremacy. Hence, you can't be in the house with the white woman. If she want if the white woman on section 8 or fool for me, aka if she want me to be her man, black man got to be out in the house. And then the average black woman who don't got no man subconsciously wants a man. So we going to give you the mystery man. The white mystery man who you love and be loyalty more than me. And a white woman is so I mean a black woman has become so hooked on the goddamn mystery invisible white man. You can take her on a date, buy her a diamond ring and buy her a fucking country and she gonna give your credit to Jesus. Jesus, [laughter] what the fuck? I fuck that shit. You know what I'm saying? We don't work for God. Sometime hold on work time for that now. Jesus, you take you take care of them kids. Rub that feet sign that back like Jesus, thank you for putting this man in my life. What the fuck? What does this have to show you? This shows you what white supremacy is. White supremacy is pledging the allegiance of your woman to the opposite race. Period. That's it. So that's because the white men understand who the black woman is. And we don't know how to combat that cuz we don't know what angle is being combed from until now. Let's continue on. Now what we going to do is we going to compare the black woman to the universe. Okay. So, the name of this slide that we're going to get into is the black woman in the universe compared. Now, we're going to be comparing the attributes of the sun and earth to the attributes of the black woman. Check that camera, please, queen. The attributes of the sun and earth to the attributes of the black woman. And you can start it over if you want. Blackulus will be compared to the hair of the black woman. If you don't know, the entire anatomy of the earth, I'm going to compare to the entire anatomy of the black woman. If you don't know what anatomy anatomy mean, don't worry, family. I'm going to put the definitions in there for you. You'll be fully caught up. The Earth's core will be compared to a black woman while in her stages of pregnancy. So, we're going to compare if the solar system in the cosmos is synonymous with the black woman. See, we don't we not here to just say a black woman to die cuz it's cute. We here to use tangible facts, what we can see, and compare it to why the ancestors taught the same shit. This is the return of the matriarch. Not nigga, get up here and give your opinion. Let's keep it let's keep it kicking. Blackulus, right? Online dictionary. All right. So, I told I I got a 1500 page dictionary if anybody want some problems. But this is the online dictionary for all of y'all pull y'all phones out right now and say don't believe me. According to flockus, right? Flockus in astronomy is one of the bright or dark patches on the surface of the sun visible in a spectral heliogram. Y'all follow me? Remember melanin is condensed sunlight. So melanin is intelligent and it spoke things into existence. I mean the sun is intelligent and it spoke things into existence through it radio frequency. So when they say you are made in the image of God, everybody on the planet is made in the image of the black woman. But the black woman is made in the image of the soul. Now let's continue. Pharaoh give us an example of how fauculus would be made in the image of the black woman. An example of fauculus by definition is a hairy or bristly appendage on a posterior coxus of some hypermeniputer. Now, all of these big words right here, don't get lost cuz I looked him up. Long story short, all of that ridiculous shit just means something protruding out of the on the surface of an object. So, long story short, what this says is a hairy or bristly appendage protruding out of the surface of of an object. If every black woman in here don't got a hairy and bristly appendage coming out they goddamn skull, I don't know what you doing anymore. I don't. So, with that being said, fulus, which is found on the surface of the sun. So when you in school and they make you draw the sun with the points or if you look at the sun and look like it's staticky that is astrological here on the sun. The black woman has the same exact we have flocks. Europeans have follicles. If you take a black person here and compare it to a dog it has no genetic match. If you take a European hair follicle put it under a microscope compare it to a dog they have a 100% match. This is why Europeans don't have curly hair static. This why when you comb your kid hair it sound crunchy and we've been taught to make fun of it but it's not nothing funny about it. That's electromagnetism. That's fuck frequency coming through your head. That's why they say your hair is your fucking antenna because your hair connects you through the dip antennas through the sun as I broke down earlier. You follow me? So the black woman damn sure got some flockus on her head and when you come out the womb you have some flockus on your head and white supremacy make you think that it's bad because really they know that shit is bad. So let's keep it. Okay. Now let's now see if this describes the black one. That shit look like Harry Brille and finish to me. Yes. shit look like Harry versus to me. Okay, so let's deal with flocking. Now, another thing I had to make a mental note to get into. Black women, y'all got to stop destroying your goddamn flock for the white supremacy. [applause] I'm going tell y'all from I'm going tell y'all from a from a from a a righteous point of view of a man. Don't I don't want you with no blind wig on. If you come out the womb is naturally blind, I know the science behind it. I respect it. Don't come Don't come to me with no blind wig on. Don't come to me with no perm because no matter what the fuck you say, you suffer from white supremacy. I don't care what you talking about. Okay? Because if I come here with my pants tag talking about it's just what I like to do. I'm giving elections. [laughter] You're not going to you're not going to respect that cuz you know I'm suffering from some type of mental psychological disorder called white supremacy because no nigga in their right mind just got their pants to their knees. Nigga, you can't even run. If they throw a grenade in here right now, you going to be the first nigga down with your bag. So that's not even correct. Okay. You don't see niggas in Afghanistan with their shit down here like what I want to do. You don't see. So that's retired. Now with that being said, and I used to wear my shit down. So I was retired at one point in time. I ain't making fun of nobody. But when we deal with flocking this, right? Why do why do black women perm their hair? And why do no other races people perm their hair? Because nobody else has an electromagnetic connection to the cosmos like that black woman. And let me give y'all a joke. Now, black women have pores in their head which release natural gases. In science, it's called a phamone. So, you got animals that release pheromones that tell you, "Oh, it's time to mate." You got some animals that release pheromones that tell you, "Oh, it don't eat me." A pheromone is a gas that's released by an organism, which causes a psychological and biological effect on an organism that ingests. Follow me? Yeah. And black women naturally release chemicals out of their head that make you attracted to them once ingested into you bio energetically. But guess what you do, black women? You destroy the pores in your head which create these gases by perming your shit. Perm is like bleach for your skull. Okay? So that being said, when you look at grass, grass is standing straight up. When it's dead, what it do? It lay the fuck down. When you perm your goddamn head, you kill it. It lay down. And you talking about some girl, look at this crime. You just killed your whole shit. You just killed your whole shit. Killed your whole shit. And if I got burn, we make I love all y'all. I don't fuck with your ball head. Only you black and you you got a place for me. Just don't come here look like little Ke turning white. But with that being said, you are destroying what makes you attracted to your common power species by trying to look like the species that's been at war with your ass. Follow me. White supremacy again. So all these black going to become talking about something. I just like to perm my shit cuz I like to do it. Keep liking to destroy your goddamn self cuz this ain't called debate. This is for facts. So you are destroying your flockiness because now what happens is everything that you do consciously affects you subconsciously. So now when you look at black women who perm their hair by statistical research, most black women who perm their hair live in an inner city. One, but two, most black women who per their hair go out their motherfucking way to buy other materialistic things cuz they don't feel attractive to the black men. This is a fact. Y'all putting weave on, heels on, skirt on, going to the club, trying to look cute because you trying to see uh who finds beauty in you because subconsciously you don't understand that you craving for what already naturally makes everybody else find you beautiful. This is why they say ain't nothing like a natural sister. You know where that came from? Cuz ain't nobody emitting them pherommones like a black woman. But when you perm your shit and you walk [clears throat] in the room, I don't ingest nothing. Only thing I can do is try to look at your butt cuz ain't nothing coming out your head. Nothing coming out of there. But let Erica Badu come in here with them lock and you don't know that Eric B. You ain't even going to walk. You don't even approach Erica B how you approach Nicki Minaj. You approach Nicki Minaj like yo you got a better ass. You shake and quiver and stutter when you approach Eric B. This is because of the pherommones. I'm trying to tell you stutter. So they trying to get you to destroy that. Okay, understand black woman, you already come how you need to be. And if niggas don't acknowledge that, you should be happy that they let you know you don't need to be around them type of niggas. Now, let's keep it case. Now, we're going to appear I mean, now we're going to compare the electronic expression of the sun to the shot. I got to get some water, y'all. I'll be up here dead. Okay.

Now, let's get into Islam. Uh-huh. Muslims love her. Ain't no running from this one. This one don't blow Islam off the map. The black woman was second time. Cuz remember, Christianity is what she was first suppressed. The black woman was suppressed the second time in what they call today, the Middle East. Now, I'm going to drop a Jew for all y'all right now. Go look it up. I always say that Christianity is an extension of I mean, Islam is a extension of Christianity. Christians pray to Jesus. Muslims pray to Jesus. Facts. Christians believe in Abraham and Moses and all of them goddamn prophets. Muslims believe in all of them prophets. What they don't tell you is Christian Islam was started by in the Vatican. Go look up Admiral Bay. I'm going to say it. Write it down. Go look up Admiral Bay. Admiral Bay works for the Vatican, which is a military fortress. The goddamn Christians was trying to go over there to the Middle I'm going to break this down so when I'm done telling y'all the story, it all going to make sense. The goddamn Christians was trying to crusade their way over there to the Middle East where the Africans was at, but the Africans had already heard about their brothers and sisters being enslaved to Christianity. So when the white man came, they fought the motherfuckers, went to war, told you not coming over here with that shit. So what what Islam did was they created Christianity in the form of a new context, which is the same shit. And they went and got a coon ass nigga named Muhammad who couldn't read or write, gave that nigga the book and sent that nigga amongst our people with that shit. And by s nobody turned to Islam by will. He went over there to his own people, asked him do they want to basically join this European. They said no and he start killing niggas because the European was doing what he do today. Young Pharaoh ain't a billionaire but I'm righteous but be Diddy a billionaire and a shit and niggas going to go with P. Diddy every time. Same thing with Muhamad. Listen, the fucking the Vatican has captured Egypt. We got all the shit. Is you going to keep fighting against him or not? You is kill you. Islam. Islam. Islam. And now niggas today walking around talking about nigga that is from slavery. So Islam is nothing more than the Vatican religion just like Christianity and Judaism given to niggas because they wouldn't accept it this way. So basically what you can get with this or you can get with that nigga that's it. So Islam is an extension of Christianity. Now let's go into the science. Islam was created. Go look him up. I come with facts. I ain't here to play with you. 622 AD, Islam in the Quran was created based off the Old Testament which was created in the Vatican and used to suppress the worship of the black woman in the Middle East during the pre-Islamic period. Now, what will be the pre-Islamic period? Hm. Before anybody over there was a goddamn Muslim period. Now, with that being said, in 6:30 AD, Muhammad had Allah A changed to a L I a Muslims worship the woman. Now for those who feel that the metad was translated. Oh, we got plenty of time. We good. For those who feel that the metad was translated, you know that you know that uh according to that translation for those who feel that the media was translated and we are the end. For those who was translated, you know that they say that the Egyptians always denoted feminine presence with the letter T. Right or wrong? So you got N may sme I can go on and on. Every female deity in Egypt had a T. So they said that the Egyptians or the African people migrated to the Middle East and they took their feminine deity with them who was Allah A L L A T. And what Muhammad rat snitchkun traitor ass did was he went over there and he slaughtered the patriarch system and for the European as being a foot soldier he changed the T to a H which is a lie. So now I'm going prove to you that the that Islam is created out the woman's womb and that they pray to Allah which is a woman's womb. And let's break this down, right? Allah, look it up on Google. It's all on Google. Pronounced Allah was a pre-Islamic Arabian goddess. Who was one of the three chief goddesses of Mecca along with Manat and Usuz. So they show they have when they have three females that was over there worshipping. Now they telling females you can't take off that goddamn ninja costume. How did that happen? You got to ask yourself, how did that happen? How did today come from today? We got to look at yesterday. Now, I just show I proved to y'all that they that they was worshipping three females. Now, let's break this down. Right. Now, if you if you a Muslim or you know anybody that's a Muslim, I don't know how to speak Arabic, but go look the prayer up. In the prayer they got a prayer where they say all that jargon and then they say now the prayer they say is that they worship mercy and savior in the womb of Allah right in the of Allah. But I don't know means whom. Now let's look up the etymology of the word. Here it is right here. Rhm it is a Arabic and Hebrew word is a triconental root of many Arabic and Hebrew words. And many of those words are used as names. It indicates mercy and sympathy. It means womb. Do you see the word womb right there? So I'm not making this shit up. Rama or ra means caring, cares, and mercy. So you see it Arabic verbal stems. Rahima means to be mild, care, have mercy. Raama means to care for, feel sympathy for and that's how you say it means to beg for mercy. Now this is the power of prayer that Muslims do when they go to Mecca and pointed the black stone. The black stone is symbolic to the woman's womb and you point at it with your right hand. Now why would you point at it with your right hand? Because your right hand is your masculine side. So it's like putting your penis in the vagina and you seek refuge within the of Allah. But Allah used to be Allah and means womb. So they worshipping females all through Islam and oppressing them at the same goddamn. So the black woman got this. It's over. ain't going back. Ain't no going back. You about to go hang your goddamn rug up. Hang that shit up. Hang that up, baby. She about to fly up out of here like Aladdin. God and your shit, too. You know what I'm saying? I'm coming.

I'm I'm coming in yours to show you she in yours. Now, that being said, prayer hands. Yes. You are told to form prayer hands in order to speak to the creator. Right or wrong. Right. You even meditate with your hands in the prayer form to speak to the creator. Right or wrong. Everybody make prayer hands right now. It don't look like a vagina to you. Look into your hands. That's a womb. They telling you to talk to the creator. Talk into the womb. That's it. So even the shit you do is ritualistic to feminine worship. Okay? So the creator is your physical and cosmic mother. And you are forming a womb with your hands. Everything in nature is a direct reflection of the creator has a womb. Here's the real womb. Here's the womb in your hands. Here's the wombing fruit. What? Everything got a womb. What's the problem? What's the problem? We can see that we can't see no original Bible. We can't see no original. I can see it look like a vagina. Look just like a my hand look like a vagina. You say talk to the creator. Only motherfucker I know created me was the cosmos and my mother and both of them is ran off electronic in it. So we understand the black woman is God hands down. And you even talk to God. Now the black woman is the physical manifestation of the creator. Y'all see the top? The top is the planet Earth being seated with what you would call uh styrustr from the cosm. This is just like how sperms look when they trying to go inside the fertilization of the egg. As above, so below. The black woman is God. What's the problem? Cosmically and physically. What's the problem? Let's keep it kicking, y'all. A nation cannot raise as high as it a ra a a nation can only raise as high as you carry this woman excuse the type. Okay. So now why is this important? White men are on top because they put their white woman on top. Excuse genetics. Excuse all that. We just going to deal with morality and virtue. They was killing niggas for looking at white women. White was lying saying he looked at me and niggas was hanging next to the swing. I didn't know if it was the swing or the nigga that was swinging. So, with that being said, we don't nigga, we we prostitute, not women. We think it's cool to be a pimp. Name five white pimps that you know. Now, name seven nigga pimps around the corner. Not even face. Why is this? Why is this? Why is this? Because you became a white man in your black man skin. So why? What's wrong with the black race, nigga? We don't uplift our woman. You only going to go as far as you as your woman can go. Period. The white woman know that these white crackers is killing us every day with batteries on. They support him. They wake up, make Joe sandwich. Joe, I'll go out there, kill a 13-year-old with a toy gun, and they be supporting Joe. Joe's wrong, but look at the support because Joe uplift his woman. White men don't be cheating on their women. Believe that, they just be laughing. And when they done, it's over. It's over. Niggas be cheating. Niggas be cheating with the rides made, the motherfucking with the coming down the aisle, throwing the pedals. We don't We don't We don't I'm telling you the truth. Niggas is a savage and we got to speak on it now. We don't uphold our women virtually. So our race ain't shit morally cuz we shit morally. All we teach our sons is don't be emotional. Don't cry. Shut up. Yeah. Oh, you having sex with mad women? Yeah. You the men. You just taught that nigga to grow up and be the most ain't shit nigga in line with the rest of them. You ain't teach them to have no code. No conduct. Respect your woman. Be real. You know what I'm saying? None of that. So this why the black race not going nowhere because we not we not upholding our woman because we was upholding our women the way we're supposed to. What the fuck? Black people we living this. What can we do? We already did everything. We came from outer space. We build pyramids. We was even the best slaves. Niggas wasn't even bad. We was doing bad shit better than anybody. Why the fuck you do that? Every other race slave cells ain't worse. Niggas was singing all you know what I'm saying? Like let's be real. Everything we do is great. Even the in negative shit. Okay. So, what what's the problem with other than our woman and rising back to the top? Niggas got to stop trying to challenge the white man. And what I mean by that is you cannot be a gangster. Okay? No such thing is important. We should be uplifting our woman because by default, you uplift the genetic material of the child you produce with the goddamn woman. How you going to say bitches ain't shit to have a child? You wonder why your child ain't shit? You the one who passionate down to the child. So understand family, we got to get back on point with our black women. Now, ending this lecture, family, and we getting ready to do Q&A, I want to say that, you know, we say the black woman is God. It's not because it's it's fun to say it. It's cuz it's fucking needed. It's needed. We are a defeated ass people. Okay? We don't respect ourselves. We don't love our people, bro. I need to come here and play with you. We don't respect ourselves. We don't love ourselves. We treat our women like shit in front of these crackers. We let these crackers about to shit on our women all fucking day and we think it's cute. We got to uplift our black woman, black men. And by default, you uplift yourself.

Topic - Bible being based off Astrology

Now the Bible as we know it is written by Masonic and the practitioners. Okay. and is written predicated upon and founded upon the astrological means and sciences of inevitable events that anybody who lives on the planet earth within this galaxy which just so happens to be the 18th galaxy will experience. So if you live on planet Earth, okay, you'll have other celestial bodies around you, particularly eight other ones that we call planets and one sun. There's nothing you can do about that. And these bodies all have their own harmonic movements being you know the duration of time it takes into orbit etc. So now as the solar system is doing what it does simultaneously we are traveling across the galaxy. I'm going to show you this in detailed form, but I need for y'all to understand that during this astrological travel of us around the galaxy, the frequency of this planet Earth is constantly changed. So to give you an analogy, right, or to give you something to help you better understand this, when the planet is at a certain position in accordance to its location in regards to his revolution around the sun, it changes seasons in regards to weather. So now understand that just like we change frequency or seasons on this planet due to our revolution, we change frequencies in uh things that we experience as far as the weather, the atmosphere, etc. in regards to our planet and the sun's position and accordance to its location within the galaxy as we travel around the house. So what y'all need to understand is the Bible as well as all other religions because Islam is in here too. So do not think you're safe. So that being said, the Bible as well as all other religions have nothing more than a cute fairy tale way to explain what happens during these events. So if you take the Bible or any religion too literal, shame on you. You've been fooled. Now, with that being said, that was the introduction. This is the presentation. Zodiac definition. Now, anybody who knows me know how I do. I have to break everything down to basic status so that you can fully understand what I'm talking about. So, before we say the Bible based off astrology and you know to plan zodiac houses, some niggas don't know what a zodiac is. That's what I have to tell you. Now, I'm providing the definition for you right here. You don't even got to look it up. Zodiac definition right according to astrology is a belt of the heavens within about 8° either side of the ecliptic including all apparent positions of the sun moon and most familiar planets it is divided into 12 equal divisions of sign being Aries Taurus Gemini Cancer Leo Virgo Libra Scorpio Sagittarius Capricorn Aquarius and Pisces okay now that being said when you go to the the uh etymological roots of the word zodiac you'll see that zodiac meaning Greek I mean comes from the Greek word zodos okay meaning circle literally meaning a circle of little animals you follow me so zodiac means circle the Greek word zodiac was uh zodos and that means a circle of little animal so that being said this is why they use animals to illustrate the zodiac sign that's is so simple so simple and this comes from the uh personification of the ancestors using nature to explain event. So just like when you see uh you know Egyptian deities or things like that, they always have animal history. There's always an animal involved or some form of a figure in nature used to personify an experience. So it's the same uh application model that was used in regards to creating the figurines or the uh the structures that will represent these constellations that we call zodiac signs. Now the difference between a zodiac sign and a constellation because we need to understand this. Okay, a constellation is a group of stars which form a particular pattern. A zodiac sign is a group of stars which form a particular pattern that the sun passes through during his 25,920 year journey around the galaxy. So now the only difference between Aries and a constellation that's uh billions of light years away from us is we're not passing through it at any point in time during our travel. So, we had 12 patterns of stars or 12 star systems that we travel through and it takes us 25,920 years exactly to travel. So, do y'all understand the uh significance between the zodiac and every other constellation? These are the 12 frequencies of every star for the sun. So, these are the uh 12 patterns of suns composed in regards to giving you different effects predicated upon your different location atmosphere. Let's keep it. Let's see. Oh, we ain't about to play this game. Let me get the Let me get the value multiple. Here we go. All right. Now, what is the size of our galaxy? Because if I tell you that we travel in the galaxy, I have to also be able to think, not just me, anybody should have to be able to tell you how big the galaxy is, how long it takes you to travel it, etc. Because we don't deal with uh ministry land. I'm not just telling you something you're supposed to just jump on. So I personally did the mathematical calculations and I provided them for you here. Now with that being said, what is the size of the galaxy? Excuse the title. Right? First you have to understand that we're dealing with the solar pant right which allegedly determines the distance of our galaxy. So before we can do the proper calculations, we have to get back into the proper calendar mind that we want to use. So they tell you that it's 365 days in the year. That's a lie. It's a complete box. The calendar that you use was introduced by the Catholic Church. It's called the Gregorian calendar, the western calendar, also known as the Christian calendar. So today, if you believe that it's 2017, it's because you believe that somebody named Jesus Christ died 2017 years ago. But then somebody will also tell you, "I'm not a Christian. I don't believe in the Bible." And then you say, "What day is it?" They think, "What year is?" And they say, "It's 2017." How you not a Christian? You believe 2017. So we have to understand your whole, you know, frame of thought is religious every day. And really, it's actually the year 15,003. And I'm going to explain how. But what I have to do before I give you the size of the galaxy is help you understand before you can even calculate the size of the galaxy or or or how long it takes us to travel in a day. You got to get your goddamn days back cuz your whole module is off. Now with that being said, it's not 365 days a year. It's 360. Okay? It takes 90 days for a season to change. There's four seasons. $90 * 4$ is 360. So now what you have to understand is it takes us 25,920 years to orbit our galaxy that has been named or deemed an open. Right? Now you want to say how do you know this? Right? Because it takes us 2,160 years to pass through each of the 12 zodiac houses. So every one zodiac house it takes us 2,160 years to pass through. And when you do that 12 times, right, it comes to 25,920. So, we understand that Earthbuster travel through all 12 zodiac houses is going to take us 25,920 years. Now, in order to find the size of our galaxy, you must first multiply 360 days by 2,160 years because we want to know how many days is in 2,160 years. You follow me? So, now I'm going to do it again cuz I know math. You know what I'm saying? Math is a touchy subject. So, I'm going to make sure we get it today. is 360 days in a year, not 365. So we want to know how many days are in 2,160 years. So we took the amount of days that is in one year, which is 360, and we multiply that by 2,160 years. Y'all following me? Mhm. Okay. And that gave us 777,600 days. So in 2,160 years, there's 777,600 days. You follow me? I'm going say it one more time in case you got your pass and you want to get in 2,160 years there's 777,600 days. You follow me? Next what you do is you want to find out how many hours is in 777,000 in 600 days aka 260 years. So what you do is I'm going to need Thank you very much. I'm going need I'm going to need the phones. Everybody get it. Take a second to get right. If you got to get right check it cuz we running through this today. All right. Now with that being said, now what we want to do is we want to find out how many hours, right? I'm in 2,160 years. So we know that there's approximately 24 hours in a day. So you take the time that it takes us to have one complete day and you multiply that by 2,160 aka 777,600 days. And that gives us, y'all ready for this? 18,662,400 hours in 2160 years. You follow me? Yes. Now, before I go on, okay, I like to get you on the ball. Why would I want to find out hours uh how many hours there are in 2,160? But then you find out how long a day is that it is. Yes and no. I want to know how long it would take me to travel. In order for me to calculate my travel or my miles, I'll have to know how many miles I'm going per hour. So, in order for me to get there, which like I said is correct, I need to know how many hours I got to travel in the first place. So, now after correcting my calendar, throwing that bullshit Christian calendar in Irish, getting back on my my true calendar, multiplying the hours in a day, I'm multiplying the days in 2060 years and multiplying that by 25 hours a day. I know that there's 18,662,400 hours in 2,160 years. So now what I do right is I multiply the time/ hours that it takes us to travel 2,160 years by 360° in order to find the size of space that is one zodiac house where we are traveling to. Now we know that a circle is what? Okay. So when you multiply the the the the uh equation that we got for how many hours is in 2,160 years times a circle, it'll give you the size that it would take you to travel a circle in such that space. Follow me. Yes. Okay. Now we going to get it. We going to get right today. $18,662,000 * 400$ hours. I mean 18,662,400 hours times 360° gives us 6 bill718,464,000 miles. But that's just in one zodiac house. So that's not even the entire galaxy. So that one little that one little house is 6 is 6 bill718,464 miles. So in 2,160 years we travel 6 bill718,464 miles around the galaxy. And that's just going through one house. You follow me? Now that's very big, but that's only one house. Now we got to find the size of the galaxy that we're traveling by multiplying that by 12. I do this for real. To find our Milky Way galaxy's complete size, you multiply 6 bill718,464,000 by 12. Okay. 6 mill 6 bill718,464,000 mi which is one zodiac house* 12 equals 80 billion 621 uh million578,000 miles. So this is the total size of our uh zodiac galaxy as we know it. So approximately 81 million miles that we travel. Don't put that on your car. Don't put that on your car. Don't put that on your car. Okay. So now, now that we know the distance that we have to travel, we can now successfully calculate how long it takes us to travel. Now the sun travels at 70,000 km hour. Now we have to convert kilome to miles cuz we want to know how many we want to talk in language. Y goddamn kilome how many miles hour. So that being said, we want to convert 70,000 km to miles. Right? Now 70,000 km when converted to miles is exactly 43,495 m hour. Okay? So if you go 70,000 km an hour, you went 42,495 mph. You follow me? Next, we multiply the miles hour by the time and distance that it takes us to travel through one house. You follow me? So we now what we going to do is we going to take the miles or hour that we go and multiply it by the amount of hours in the galaxy in order to find out uh the distance and the size and how long it takes us to travel the galaxy in order to get the true size of the galaxy. Excuse the typo once again. So now we take 43,495 mi and we multiply that by 18,662,400 hours. Remember that's only one zodiac. So that's 2,160 years. And that equals 811 billion721,88,000 mi that we travel, okay, in 2,160 years. All right. Lastly, we take this distance and we multiply it by 12 for each house. So now we take 811,721,88,000 miles. That's how fast we going per hour, okay? Throughout the zodiac house. That's how fast we're traveling through each house. Follow me? And we multiply that speed by 12. And that gives us 9 trill740 billion653,56,000 mph that we're traveling around this goddamn moon. Wow. Y'all following me? So now we successfully calculated the time, the distance, and the miles per hour that we're traveling through space. And they talk about the Earth is flat. Now I'm going get on that when I get home. I'm I'm tear out. Now with that being said, you might say, "What is the significance to know the size of our galaxy?" Because for one, it let you know that life is bigger than you. So your ego shall have a secret. For two, it let you know the significance of why somebody would take the time out to write a book about our adventure through the cosmos. But first, I have to prove to you that we're actually having an adventure through the cosmos. You follow me? So before I say the Bible is about us traveling through space, I have to prove to you that we're traveling through space. I believe I'll successfully prove that today. If not, try to prove me wrong. Now, that being said, let's begin. Now, this is a uh computerenerated video of imagery that will give you a depiction of what it is I just mathematically explained. So, I showed you a uh mathematically traveling through space at a certain miles per hour. Now, this video is going to show you what that process would actually look like. like SP nothing. Heat. Heat. Don't worry. Don't worry. Don't worry. Okay. Now, all right. So, y'all y'all mind have a full grasp on what we doing right now on this planet? How fast, how long it's taking it, how long it takes us to move through a house and what it looks like if you face watching these planets do what they do. So, when somebody say, "Oh, the sun rotates one power, 80 mph. How?" You're not fast moving through this goddamn galaxy. We talking about how. So, that being said, we want to deal with the zodiac signs, right? Because I want to continue to give y'all a full understanding on the astrological synopsis on what it is we're dealing with before I go into the book. So, that way when I jump in the book, you going to be right there looking. You going to say, "Oh, I know what that is. I understand." Follow me. Monks, right? This is a zodiac if you don't know. Now, as you can see, Aries is on the left and Virgo is on the right. Okay? So anybody who does four school charts or anything or you just like to calculate astrology, you know that Aries is always the rising sign or the ascending sign and you know that Virgo is always the you know the descending sign. Okay? So we know that the sun always rises at Aries and it sets that Virgo according to our perspective but outer space is the reverse and I'm going to break it down. Now months start at Aries and go counterclockwise. Okay? So for example, it goes Aries, Taurus, uh, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, all the way back to Aries on a scale of months. So the way that we live on the planet Earth according to how we view the planets, because remember, we're rotating on the planet in the opposite direction that the sun is pulling us around the galaxy. So according to us, we're seeing the zodiac sign in a in a reverse in the counterclockwise hand. And the way that the calendar is set up, the months reflect that. So that being said, you got uh Virgo about August, September, then you got Libra, October, a little November, and then we can go to January, February, Scorpio, Sagittar. So the months are already set up to reflect the counterclockwise movement of how we're seeing the zodiac sign. But on a scale of how we're actually traveling, like I showed you, we're not going counterclockwise. We're going clockwise, which is from Virgo to Aries. So to keep it simple, on a counterclockwise scale, we're going from Aries to Virgo. And on a uh I mean on a on a monthly scale we're going from Aries to Virgo. And on an intergalactic traveling scale, we're going from Virgo to Aries. So you start at Virgo, which is zero. And then it takes us 2,160 years to get to the end of Virgo and start Leo. Then it takes us 260 more years, 260 more years to get to the end of Leo and the beginning of Cancer, which now we're at 4 uh 4,320° I mean uh years. And then as we continue to travel, right, we come all the way to where we are today, which would be 5,13 years. And I'm going to break all this down cuz I just got to understand what this looks like. So as y'all see that sun traveling, it starts here. This is zero. Okay? And then it takes us 30° to travel through a house. Every 71 years, we move one degree. So when we multiply that, right, that's 71×30 , you get 260. So every 260, we move through uh we move 30 30° to a house. Now, right now, we've already been through Virgo, Leo, Cancer, Gemini, Taurus, where the Bible starts at. And then we've been through Aries where Moses is at. And we've been through Pisces where Jesus is at the fish. And now we're coming to the age of Aquarius, which is the book of Revelation. Y'all following me? Yes. So, we are going to get this work. We are going to get this work. Okay. What is astrology? Cuz I'm not done laying my foundation. I'm not building on a house foundation. We'll have a foundation after this. What is astrology? Astrology is the study of movements and relative positions of celestial bodies interpreted as having an influence on human affairs in the natural world. So if you study hard with the N without the L, right? It'll be just the study of celestial bodies and their relative positions. So the study of astronomy is the study of celestial bodies, things that are out of space and just how they operate. The study of astrology is not only the study of things out in space, how they operate, but how they interact and influence you as a human in your environment.

saying I'm just looking at the let's keep it what is a solid because we have to ask ourselves why would you be studying the planet and how do they have to do why would that be important and how would they influence us on the planet why would book about right we have to understand our ancestors were they like to call it solar worshippers and say we worship the sun that's all hocus pocus so that being said we wasn't no solar worshippers none that we understood that we were one with the universe at certain times of the day certain days of the week certain moments of the year and cert of intergalactic years, okay? Different planets and different suns did different things. And like you can see right here, it says gas, okay? Actually being kicked off a planet gas. You see it right here. So that being said, solar prominence, right, by definition is what large aluminous hydrogen gas, right? That thousands of above. Now I'm g a gas that affects you biologically and psychologically it's called When you eat the alkaline deferr you cross the path and the stump and you say that stink and you mind humans black women in their head that's why when you per your hair or you keep doing things your hair you know selfesteem you don't feel physical it's because you're not giving off the natural gases that black digestive so just like animals give off gases during certain times of year let you know humans So you'll be burning your hair fucking up your make with that being said whenever a gas is kicked off inside the atmosphere like phrase. Now when this same thing happens outside the atmosphere it's called a solar only difference. So if a skunk spray your ass you hit with a fair if a plant miles off of gas on Tuesday you hit with a solar problem. Hence love on Tuesday. Tuesday is what Aries Aries is what Aries is a is a humanoid personified form of Mars. Mars is what planet that controls muscles and strength and aggression. It's a planet that's uh connected with your root chakra. And this is why they call it the god of war, your lower self. And every Tuesday the planet kicks the ass off. It's simple. It's simple. Wednesday is Mercury. Mercury is what intelligence. Every Wednesday planet Mercury kicks the ass off. Friday Venus feminine energy. Every Friday what? Planet Venus kicks the gas off. You follow me? So every day of the week, these planets speak and they speak to you in the form of solar. So now with that being said, we are going into contact with different stars and different planets and receiving different solar properties that are affecting us psychologically, biologically and genealogically a certain DNA that were once considered normal, okay, within you as a human. I'm going to go into that in this lecture. And we have to understand all the figure figurative stories and things like that in the Bible that are legally speaking on this are nothing more than stories of solar prominence. Y'all follow me? So don't get caught up in the hype talking about some goddamn Moses came down that cliff that mountain with 10 stone tablets and Moses is nothing more than and then you start going to war with people. We having a world we had world wars over religion and then you might as well go just shoot a nigga over the moon because that's why you doing this way. So here we go. Allegory. The Bible is allegory. And at the end of this, I'm going to show you a verse where the Bible tell you allegory. But first, I want to give you a definition of allegory. I'm going to be using that word a lot. Right. Allegory is what? A story in which the character and event are symbols that stand for ideas about human life or for a political or historical situation. Definition number two, the expression by means of symbolic fictional figures and actions of truth or generalizations about human existence also an instance right as a story or painting of such expression. Definition number three a symbolic representation. This all these describe exactly what religion is. Okay. Now first we got to get it on this but we crack the book. We crack the cover. Okay. Holy Bible holy means son and Bible means book. Here's highlighted for you. Here's the author Wayne Stewart. Here's the book soul trap. Go read it for yourself. Now, what that being said in this book, it clearly explains how holy means helios and bible means helios. Helios means son. Bible means book of papers. So, the holy bible literally means sun book. But you open them up. When you open it means son book. So when you grab the bible that wasn't no goddamn different than grabbing a scrunchy for dummies or something. But the only difference between you is you was the goddamn W on the wrong book. So we have to understand that the Bible, right? Holy Bible literally means something. That's first and foremost. Now we didn't crack the Bible open, right? And what's the first book? Okay, one more time. Genesis. Okay, so that's where we go. We sent him the truth. We sent them into Genesis. So we didn't crack the sun open. And lo and behold, we got Genesis. Now the book of Genesis takes place in the age of Torah. And I'm going to explain this thoroughly. Now, the Bible goes back how many years? 6,000. History goes back how many years according to their standard? 6,000. Egyptology goes back how many years? Oh, we making a hell of a connection. Oh, damn. Why everything started like 6,000 years? Who Who said that? Who said that? Don't worry, there's more. There's more. Don't worry. Genesis by definition, right? Is the origin or mode of formation of something. So Genesis means to create something and its origins. Follow me. Now we want to go to the story, right? Because the first resp I'm not arguing with no corner store niggaologist. None of that. None of that. We going to the big boys. Okay. This National Ge motherfucking National Geographic. National Geographic. Prove teaching on Mr. Yak. Now I'm break down. I'm not Muslim. Now I'm going break down what it mean. Okay. Now you hear N say that Yak took 200 years. That story is true have not true. Okay. Yak is a Hebrew word which means so when they say another race of people what they're saying is somebody that happens to be extraterrestrial I did an entire lecture on that called extraterrestrial you can go watch it so I'm not going to jump into but I'm going to show you because how you spell Jacel now they say no back then so you take that J off that what you got now in the story they got showparate the bomb speckled insp what how when was how old is this book now created the other race and this is National Geographic telling you that European genes and all the genes are only 600 years old. Now watch this. I got something else for you. The prestigious National Geographic Society has reported that scientist studying DNA have not confirmed that Europeans as a people are younger than we thought. Using the unbiased, I like that word. Using the unbiased measure of genetic science, they point to the same birthday for the European as did the most honorable Elijah. Now, watch this. Professor Alan Cooper, director of the Australian Center for Ancient DNA at the University of Adelaide, analyzed DNA from ancient skeletons and found that the genetic makeup of modern Europe was established just about 300 I mean 6,500 years ago. So, the Bible started at what? What? What? Okay. The Quran starts at what? Egyptology starts at what? History and school start at what? So who the fuck is telling us that shit only been there when you evolved from monkey that was that was completed by when? Okay. Okay. So we going we going we going anything throw that shit because we see cuz we talking about all of the why would you offer somebody's ability to calculate their existence? Cuz you trying to bring them to your world. You some Freddy Cooper shit. That's the truth. All right, motherfucker. We was Gamora before you came. Now it's 2017. Bitch, it wasn't no such thing. Now it's 2017. Now I got to be working at three. Y'all got to understand this. Somebody is trying to fit you on their motherfucking schedule. I'm not going to play with you today. I'm not at all today. Now remember we said what? 6,000. 6,000. Okay. Now, it takes us approximately 2,000 years to travel through each other, right? We come into the age of Aquarius, right? Let's go back to three houses. 2 4 What's that? Six 2 4 6,000 years. This is where the Bible starts. This is where the Bible started. The Taurus. Now watch me. I'm the dad. Now I did all the calculations. I never didn't do this. This is personal research. Okay. Now, with that being said, I did these types of legends four years ago in prison and they still stand today. I was like 6,000. I thought so, according to the final call, because this article right here was released in 2013, you see it up there, 2013. So, I don't want nobody like that shit from 50 years, nigga. That shit is damn yesterday. So, I don't I'm not coming with no old, you know, negro spiritual. We are coming with the update. This is today. Okay. So, according to that final call that was released in 2013, 6,500 years ago would have been in what 440 I mean 4,487 BC, but instead of keep saying thousand, I'm going to say 44877. So, that would be 4487 BC. Before we continue on, BC, but BC actually such as Indiana. So if you watch some shit that say 20,000 BC, you know, other motherfuckers are not included in that history. So what they had to do was they had to take hundreds of thousand 200,000 year old history and condense it down into a 6,000 year period. This is why when I bust the fucking better niggas in their head, okay? Cuz they try to tell you that King Ku and his son, but the pyramid in Sp, but how the speaks of the great pyramid is 30,000 years old. How you build a 30,000y old structure 2,000 years ago? You didn't. But guess what? The child society created a fake ass Egypt story to fit their motherfucking religious agenda. This is why the Bible, the Quran, the Torah, and Egypt all say the same shit because it was created by the same goddamn liar. How did I hurt you today? Not bitch. Shut up. Shit. Shit. They was already there. I'm sending niggas. We didn't. So with that being said, a lot of times when we hit that better, what people got to understand is that we hit that better, you know, it's that whole Egyptian the same motherfuckers who created religion. So you can't believe all that unless you doing I got some uh pictures in here saying I had to put my name on unless you on the ground doing field work. We don't want to hear you at all. Now with that being said, boom. They say that Yak, right? Cuz remember Yak is Jacob. This is the Jacob Yahoo history and the bully, right? They say that Yahoo was born in 479 BC, right? Which will put us at the year 8367. Now they began constructing the Caucasian race in 468 which will put us at the year 8,400. Now that's right here. George started at 8,640. So he started people that were in the beginning of now. Now that being said, they say died in 4572 BC aka 8,514. Right? Now they said that the first 8,600 BC which is around right and then when we go to the beginning of the tour which is 8,4 that 46 BC and they said that completely completed grafting in the year 4086 BC which puts uh 94 which puts in the year 94. So they say that he started graphing them about the beginning of her Torah and he ended here. So now we see that the story of Yak or Jacob right happened within the age of Torah which is 6,000 years ago which is the only which is the reason that we don't know why 6,000 years and we know that why is the creational process but when you go into the characteristics of the Torus one of the main is materialism. So the genetic people were materialized 6,000 years ago. See now if you read this book and you ain't no mother you don't know what you read. Some of you niggas think some reference biblical reference of Jacob in the book cuz every time I say something we not even know you don't get no room to run. I don't even want you never Yes. Okay. Now when you read this book in the dictionary of the Bible author David it right here right the adjective I bear or you say means strong and mighty and is used of humans and animals the strong animal excellence was the bull and many translate the phrase a bear as the bull of I'll say and many translate the phrase a bear as a bull of jail appealing to the elite bull Any questions? Now, let's go back. What is that? Okay. It ain't hard. It ain't hard to see. You just got to want to see. Let's kick it now. Biblical account of Yahoo's wrapping in the air ra cuz I'm going to give it to you after I'm not I'mma give it to you. Go your ass, okay, to Genesis 30 verse 32 and just read. Now with that being said, Genesis 30:32 says what? I will pass through this Jacob. I will pass through all thy thought today removing from them all the fire and all the brown cattle.

Continuation...

See, you just got to want to see. Let's keep it kicking now. Biblical account of Yahkub in the Anthog cuz I'm going to give it to you after I'm going to give it to you. Go your ass, okay, to Genesis 30 verse 32 and just read. Now, that being said, Genesis 30:32 says what? I will pass through. This is Jacob. I will pass through all thy flock today. removing from them all the speckled and spotted cattle and all the brown cattle among the sheep and all the spotted and speckled among the goats. Okay. And of such shall be my hire. Verse 33. So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come when it shall come for my hire before thy face. everyone that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and brown among the sheep that shall be counted stolen with me. Verse 34. And the bond said, behold, I wouldn't might be according to thy word. Verse 35. And he removed that day the he goes that were written straight and spotted and all the goats that were speckled and spotted and everyone okay that had some white in it and all the brown among the sheep and gave them into the hands of his sons. Let's keep it contained. Verse 36. And he set a three days journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob fed the rest of Lean's flock. 37 And Jacob took him rides of green popular and of the hazel and chestnut tree and peel white spikes in them and made the white appear within the rod. Oh wow. And the rod is symbolic. It's in your face. Okay. They are telling you this. I'm Oh, y'all thought I was over shot. Okay. Verse 38. And he set the rods which he piled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering pots, and the flocks came to drink that they should conceive when they came to do it. 39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ring, stretched, speckled, and spired. We talking about freckidians here. We talking about freckle tradians here. I got a whole lecture where I show you freckle dravidians in my genetic reincarnation. Don't miss it. Okay. And my extraterrestrial existence. 40. Verse 40. And Jacob did separate the lambs and set the faces of the flocks toward the ring straight and all the brown in the flock of Lean. And he put his own flocks by themselves and put them not until Leon's flocks. So Leon flocks is the brown flocks. Jacob flocks is the white flocks that he already took brown out of brown being melamin and mandro y'all following me let's keep it moving 40 and Jacob there was no J back then so it was Jacob and Ya did separate the lambs and set the faces of the flock toward the ring straight and all the brow and the flock of a and he put his own flock by themselves and put them not unto the bond's cattle Okay. 41. And it came to pass whensoever the strongest cattle did conceive that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters and they might conceive that they might conceive amongst the rock. Who's the stronger cattle? And laying them in the gutter means what? You kill them. So you're not letting the African gene reproduce. I'm not going to play with y'all today. I'm not 42. But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in. So the feeble were leans and the stronger were 43 and the man increased exceedingly and had much cattle and maid servants and men servants and camels and so this is telling you he created his own motherfucking race. Yakob means what? Subpler. Somebody substitutely subplanted a genetic race of people on this planet. We can go to anywhere you want to go. Go to China. There was black people there. There's Chinese people there. Now you go to India. There was black people there. There's Jibian Indian there. Now you go. Where you want to go? Mexico. We want. So this shows you why you are not where you were once upon a time. And it's recorded right in the Bible starting in the age of Taurus which was 6,000 years ago which is why they use the blood allegory with Jacob to tell you that a group of people was materialized underneath the age of Tora. Follow me. Let's keep it kicking. Now when you get done with the book of Genesis, we go to Exodus. We go to good oldfashioned Moses. Okay. The book of Exodus takes place in Aries, which is the next zodiac sign after Taurus. Exodus definition of mass departure of people, especially immigrants. They said this is the same amount of time they came up to mountains. A mass departure of people. So now here we go because we want to come back to Egyptology because Egyptology tells you what did Moses live. If you you see me type it in just so y'all can do it yourself. What year did Moses live? They'll tell you 1446, right? Attempts to date the Exodus to a specific century, right? Have been inconclusive. Okay. Kings 1 uh chapter 6 verse one says that the Exodus occurred 480 years before the construction of Solomon's temple. That would imply right in Exodus in 1446 BCE. But you know why they try to take it there? Because they try to tell you that Thos key word utmost off that say okay then thos the third in Egypt died in 1426 BC and he reigned as a king from 1479 BC to 1426 BC which will figuratively put you at the same date that the Exodus allegedly happened in the motherfucking never happened. So, religion, Egyptology, same funky ass agenda. Throw it all in the garbage. Now, with that being said, they they say that Moses, right, was what? Cast into the Nile River, right? By his parents and he was found by the daughter of Pharaoh. Now, that's funny. Now, that's real funny. say that because when you study Egyptology, they tell you Philos the third was cast into the river and he was found by the dark field by the name of Hatch, right? So you see where they merging the stories at, right? You see where they merging the shit. So it's like you can't escape it. If you're not a Christian and you go to Islam, you still in the lie. If you're not a Muslim and you a comedic nigga and you got your uncle on, you stilling the lie. Get out that lie. get out. So, you know, I'm here to kick down the walls of falsehood. That's what I'm here to do. I'm not here to sugar coat shit for nobody. So, you might have been doing something for 30 years and you've been wrong. It is what it is. And we not here to say, you know, the complete totality of our history is incorrect. But I'm going to show you the inconsistencies where they are. Let's keep it moving. Moses history and ram. Now, here's the ram right here at after at follow me. Aries starts at 10,800 years. So once we start at zero and we go we go our 260 another 260 another 260 another 260 another 260 and we get to Aries 260 we've now traveled from Virgo to Aries in 2800 years. You follow me? So the age of starts at 2800 years but if you convert that to the western Christian calendar that's 2286 BC. Now they say that they left Egypt in the Exodus in 1446 BC which will put us at 116 11,640 years which is still inside the age of now uh whatchamacall it when you go they say that people left the car about years ago when you take 4,000 years back from today that put you at this date and the characteristic of Aries is activity. Okay, now we going back to BC and AD. BC means before the Caucasian. AD means after damnation because we know that after that Caucasian came out goddamn cage, there's been damnation for any and everybody and they come in contact. So we not talking about racism. We're talking about historical facts. So we can see the supplanting process begin to take place from a 4,600 year period. You cannot see any uh you begin to lose sight of African history starting about 10,000 years ago. Brahminism was changed to Hinduism. Uh all kind of things happened. That's another lecture for another time. Now that being said, let's keep it. Egypt fell. All kind of shit just happened. Now that being said, let's keep it moving. Moses history and the ram allegory part two. Following me. Moses father name was am ram. Am means to be. Now, don't let me tell you. Let this motherfucking dictionary letter out. Don't let me tell you am. First person singular present indicative of be. Old English means to be or to remain. So am means to be and ram means ram. Am ram means to be r to be in. So now so now we got I got to come laughing. This is so funny that people took I don't know what the hell people been doing with their lives and ram means to be a ram, right? No, Moses is considered genealogically to be a descendant of Abraham. Ab, right? Because Abraham when you originally spell it, when they say you're spelling it correctly, there's not no H in there because when you spell it with the H in there, it's just it's just a mixture formation of the word Brahma for Brahma. Once again, Taurus, but when you take that H out, you spell it traditionally like they say, it's spelled Ab R A M. So it's Abra or Abra. So now a in Latin as you can see down here what word forming element meaning away from or from all down to Latin AB means away from or from all down and was reduced to the word before. So now a in Latin means before Abram means before the ram. So Abraham was in the book of Genesis which is Taurus which was before Aries. And then in the book of Exodus Amra gave birth to Moses which means to be Aries. I'm not playing with y'all today. I'm not playing with y'all today. Now, what is a ram? A uncated male sheep. Now, let's take a look back. What's that sign right there? I'm not about to play with y'all today in Las Vegas. I'm not about to play with y'all the day in Las Vegas. Okay. Biblical reference of Moses and the ram. Exodus 32: And it came. That's everybody's favorite Bible. You got to go. And it came to pass as soon as he came night unto the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. And Moses's anger waxed hot. Characteristic of Aries. And he cast to the tables. I mean, and he cast the tables out of it. I mean the Yeah. the tables out of his hands and break them beneath the mouth. So this is when Moses came down Mount Si. He was mad. Everybody was worshiping that golden calf and he said, "God said, don't worship idols." Even though he made you in his image, so motherfucker, he was worshiping himself when he made you. And I'm contradicting myself. He got so mad. He got so goddamn mad and he broke them goddamn tablets because he seen people worshiping the golden calf. Now I want to go back for a minute. What sign is that right there? What's a baby book? Okay. Okay. I'm not about to play. I'm not at all. Exodus 32:20, the next verse. And he took the calf which they had made and burnt it in the fire. Here he is. What kind of sign? Okay. And ground it into powder and started upon the water and made the children of Israel drink it. So this is destroying the egg of Tor which was before it so that it could fully rule for the next 2,160 years. Follow me. I'm not playing with y'all today. Let's go. Now we're going to go to Leviticus 8 13-22. Now this is more Aries characteristics of being aggressive by Moses being taken out on the cap. Leviticus 8:3 and Moses brought Aaron's sons and put coats upon them and guided them with the girls and put bonds upon them. And the Lord commanded Moses verse 18 chapter I mean verse eight I mean chapter 8 verse 14 and he brought the bull of the sin offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull for the sin offering verse 15 and he slew it and Moses took the blood and put it upon right the whole of the altar around which around with his finger and purified the altar and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar and sacrificed it to make reconciliation upon it. Verse 16. And he took all the fat that was upon the inward and the call about above the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and Moses burned it upon the altar. Verse 17, but the bull in his high his flesh and his gang he burnt with fire without the camp as the Lord commanded Moses to do. The Lord is the son. Okay, God in this instance. Verse 18. And he brought the ram. Who? the ram for the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the ram. Verse 19. And he killed it. And Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. And he cut the ram into pieces. And Moses burnt the head and the pieces in the fat. And he washed the inwards and the legs in the water. And Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar. Moses burnt the whole. So don't say nobody owes it. That was Moses doing that.

Okay. Moses acted out his astrological self. Now that being said, it was it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savior and the offering made by fire because Moes is a fire sign unto the Lord as the Lord commanded Moses to do. Now why would God command somebody to kill a rabb? Because maybe the God is the son. Maybe Psalms 84:11 states that our Lord God is the son of shield. So maybe the son commanded Aries to now be in rule for 2,16 years as it's pulling up into this house outside of Taurus. Ever think of that? I don't know. I just might know what I'm talking about. Verse 22. And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. Don't worry. Don't worry. I got you. Moses history in Mount Si. Cuz sadly, some of y'all think that you can walk up a big ass mountain and come down with 10 couples tight. Cuz sadly, some of y'all think it can be done. Some of y'all do. So, I have to go. I have to do this to you. I have to Moses went up Mount Si, also known as

Continuation...

Don't worry. Don't worry. I got you. Moses history in Mount Si. Cuz sadly, some of y'all think that you can walk up a big ass mountain and come down with 10 couples tight. Cuz some of y'all been thinking, some of y'all do. So, I have to go. I have to do this to you. I have to. Moses went up Mount Si, also known as Mount Harab, to talk to God and receive the Ten Commandments. Commandment by definition means a divine rule. I want that to be in your head. But I also want this to be in your head cuz I did a video called if you believe in the Bible, you crazy. I think you're crazy because right now if I leave Las Vegas, Nevada, I go up in them goddamn hills that we all see. And you see, where are you going? I say, man, I'm going to talk to God. motherfuck and he was tripping. So if I'm crazy, why are you not crazy for believing this? Okay, so you believe in the Bible have a high sense, okay, of neglect at their own common sense because if it's not cool for you, why is it cool for him? You go to the mountains and talk to invisible motherfucker. What are you talking about? You came in my right now and I was talking to myself and you said I'm talking to my man Jimmy. You right here in this chair and Jimmy was in that chair. I'm I'm being straight jack. Okay. Now that being said, the word si comes from the Aadian lunar moon god sin. S I N. Once again they say what? We was all born in sin. Sin means also balancing sodium wave. knows our original electromagnetic frequency structures of your DNA until this world begin to alter your heart rate frequency by overstimulating you with stress. But outside that understanding of sin, the other definition of sin is lunar fertility. You were all born out of a fertile womb. So you were all born in what? Sin. What is sin? A moon cycle. You was born during a moment. So with that being said, it's so crazy. It's so simple. Now the word sin comes from the lunar god moon sin who is also depicted as a what the next one cuz remember also s is called cuz you got so you got to hit nigga I'm shooting at Christians Muslim Hebrew and him over there got to hit them all. So her is a Hebrew word which means glowing heat. Watch. Watch this. The story of Moses going up the mountain as you see here, whether you want to call it or is allegorical to the divine rule because remember he went and got the commandment to the divine rule of a woman's fertility cycle and the son which both sustain life. I'm not I'm done. That's right. So all you say is nigga the sun was hot at noon. You said all that shit to say at 12:00 is the highest time during the day. So that's and the commandment is the divine rule that women carry on life due to your fertile process because you can't have no baby and you can't have a baby as a man. I'm sorry. So that being said, try another plan. Maybe that's going on. But keep it in part two. This is the Acadia lunar god set. This is another image of the Acadian lunar god set.

Here he's depicted as a bull. Here he's depicted as a half moon crescent. This is the symbol for the eastern star of the sonic group. Half mooning crescent. Guess what? This is a all female group. Wonder why. Wonder why. Wonder why. But guess what else we got? Islam. Islam. So Islam don't even know where the hell they goddamn symbol come from. They over there telling if you go look up the definition of curse on everything I love, it says administration. So they consider your administrative cycle a curse. But if you goddamn go there and over there in the Middle East they tell you you can't even come in in uh what you call it in certain pres in the presence of certain people in certain you know monasteries and buildings and temples if you on that time of the month how when your symbol is nothing more than a representation of that time of the month and Allah which is a L I a before it was conquered by Muhammad was a I a which was and guess what Allah was a female fertility goddess. I'm done. I got nothing to say about Islam. And then they do a prayer and they ask Allah to seek mercy within the of Allah. And is a threeletter word. So RM which means womb. So when they do their prayer and they ask to seek refuge within the of Allah. Why would you ask? Why would you ask to seek refuge within the womb of a man when a man? So Islam is nothing more than the perverted watered down version of the the previous worship of the god. And they got from him. Why? Because the same that created Egyptology, the same created Islam. We going to connect the dots. Connect the dots. Connect the dot. Connect the dot. We going to connect them dots. Connect them dots. There was no reference of Mount S. Exodus 19 verse 20. Because I got to give you the reference. Believe it or not, there's a nigga out there that would jump out and say, "He never said he went to Sinai." So, you got to feed them their own word. And the Lord came down upon Mount Si. Okay. From the top of the mountain, and the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mountain. And Moses went up. He went up. Now remember Moses born by Amram. What time? What do they use to remediate time before 12:00? Okay. Okay. I ain't got nothing to say. I ain't got It's all astrological now. Oh. Here we go. Because when niggas go to war, what they do? They blow that horn. Why? What kind of horn they blow? Why you blow rams horn? Cuz Aries is symbolic to war. Oo. When Moses came down the mountain, what he blow the ram. What do Jews blow? The ram's horn, also known as a chauffer, is still blown today by Jews during the hash. The hash, which means literally beginning of the year. What was the first month? Virgo. No. Who said? Say it again, please. Aries. Okay. Okay, it's all solar worship. Let me keep it. The beginning of the zodiac wheel or rising part of the wheel is Aries. This is also the first month of the Jewish civil calendar. Don't believe me? Don't worry. I got a Bible verse that truth. Biblical reference because Jews and everybody, they coming out the Bible in the Torah. So, you got to go up in their book, throw them in the iron bar and submit them. That's how you got to do them. biblical reference of Aries being head of the year and a rabborn. We going to go to Exodus vers 12 and 2. Then we go to Exodus I mean Exodus 12 verse 1 and 2. Then we go to Exodus 20 18. Exodus 20 verse1 King James Bible. And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt saying verse two this month shall be unto you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year. I'mma read the motherfucker one more time. This month shall be unto you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. That's what God told Moses. Who was who? Aries. I'm not playing with y'all. Exodus 20. And the people saw the thunderings and the lightnings and the noise of the trumpets and the mountain smoking. And when the people saw it, they removed and stood a fire. This is Moses blowing around. That's all it is is astidity of Moses. It's a shame. Our people are sick and I'm here to put it on the table now. Y never seen this statue of Moses with ram horns though. Moses statue with ram horns. The Latin Bible, right, which is before the Christian King James Bible describes Moses as having horns, which I'm going to show you in the next slide. Here's a with horns. Here's a closeup of Moses with the moon. Okay. So as to resemble the profile of a fish known right now known as the sign of the fish or the Jesus fish. What's happening? I'm not I don't leave no room for a nigga to argue with me. Argue with your own self. Now here we go. The first appearances of the symbols in the Christian art in literature date to the second century AD. The symbols used among Christians have become popular by the late 2 century and its use spread widely in the third fourth century. The symbolism of the fish itself may have its origins in pre-Christian religious imagery. Let's see. Jesus history and virgin birth allegory part three. Virgo is referred to as the house of bread. Okay? Due to it being in the months of August and September, which are times of follow me? Bethlehem, where they say Jesus was born, is a Hebrew word. Beth means house. In means wheat. This is why the symbol for Virgo is always a virgin girl holding a sheet of wheat. Jesus's place of birth is allegorical to the son passing through the birth of zodiac house. We going to lay it out. We're going to lay it out today. Biblical of Jesus virgin birth. Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on the was on this when as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph before they came together she was found with the child of the Holy Ghost. That was Matthew 1 18. This is Matthew 1 verse 21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins. Matthew 2:1. Now when Jesus came born, when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days that he rode the king, behold, there came wise men from east to Jerusalem. We get into three wise men too. But I want to show y'all the Bible did say Jesus was born in Bethlehem. So the reason I'm putting the knife in the vampire chest because I don't want nobody saying that didn't history of the eastern style and the three kings. You just see right here it said read again in the days of behind belt. pay very much attention, very much close attention. The Sirius star is known as the star in the east. On December 24th, it aligns perfectly with Orion's belt. I got the goddamn what you get the word again on December 24th. On December 24th, it align perfectly with Orion's belt whom the anchor to as the great kings. Okay. When a line all stars following series point to the place of Sunrise on December 25th and you see the sun get ready to rise right there. So when they tell you to be for Jesus who the sun was followed by the three kings from the east here you go and this is why they celebrate Christmas on December 25th talking about Jesus was born. Here we go. This is why the three wise men/ magi in the Bible which follow the eastern star which is serious to the place and location of the birth of Jesus which is the rising of the sun. I'm not playing with y'all today. December 25th marks the alleged birth I mean mark the birth of the sun as it begins to rise back into the northern hemisphere during the first day of the summer. And I'm going tell you why. Because when we dealing with uh excuse me when we dealing with uh the Bible and astrology on December 21st the sun from December 21st to December 24th because remember they say Jesus died on the cross. Okay. And then he uh after that he resurrected and he rose. After a few days, he res and he rolls back up. I don't know what the hell happened to my slide that was neck, but I'm going to give it to you worry about. Now, my next slide I add and whatever my laptop did with it was a slide of the sun in the southern sky and it was in the constellation known as the crooks constellation. Now, the crook constellation literally means a cross with a handle. So, crooks means it means cross with the handle and hump literally. So when they say the sun died on the cross from December 21st to December 24th, from the northern hemisphere, the sun actually seems to stand still for three days straight and then begin to rise back into the northern hemisphere. And this is why they say Jesus died on the cross for three days and resurrected because the sun is in the southern sky inside of the constellation and come into the northern hemisphere. Follow me. All right. Biblical reference of the eastern star and three kings, right? saying there is he that is born king of the Jews right for we have seen his side in the east and are and have come to Matthew 2:2 Matthew 2:9 when they heard and when they had heard the king they departed and lo the star which they saw on the east went before them till it came and stood over where the young child was once again till it came over them and stood where the young child And some of y'all take this so goddamn literally that we can go to war with another country right now based off your illusions of now the difference between equinox right now. Why would I explain this? You will need to know this in order to understand the astrological science behind the allegorical death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. And here come that slide I was tell both will be explained in the next slide. Y'all ready? What are you? Okay. A solstice is the 180 days it takes for the earth to travel from summer being June 20th.

Continuation...

Now the difference is between solstice and equinox. Right? Now why would I explain this? You will need to know this in order to understand the astrological science behind the allegorical death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. And here comes that slide I was telling you about. Both will be explained in the next slides. Y'all ready? What is the equinox? Okay. Solstice is the 180 days it takes for the earth to travel from summer being June 20th or 21st to winter being December 20th or December 21st. Hence we have two sole summers which begin when the planet earth is tilting either toward or away from the earth the most. So here at the solstice it's hotter days are longer because earth is tilting toward the sun. Here's the winter solstice. As you can see we know the tilting away from the goddamn sun. So our short is but then a flat earth nigga will tell you that I'm shut up cuz I swear to God I'm going to rip niggas apart. I'm going to rip them niggas apart. But with that being said we are going to skip it. An equinox is 90 days. Okay aka 3 month periods between the earth's two solstesses. So you got your summer solstice here when and your summer solstice is when the sun is going from winter to summer. I mean your winter summer, your winter solstice when it's declining from summer to winter. Now in between these two periods you have what is called equinox. Do you follow me? Now an equinox is the 90day aka 3mon period between the earth two solstices, with March 20th or 21st which is spring the transition period into summer solstice and September 22nd or 23rd which is fall or autumn being the transition into winter solstice. Do you follow me? The tilt of the earth is what causes the winter and summer solstice, not our distance from the sun. This is also the reason for the change in daylight time during winter and summer months because the tilt causes the earth's northern hemisphere to be leaning away from the sun as you can see right here during the winter solstice and to be leaning toward it during the summer solstice. As you can see right here, the solstices cause the northern and southern hemispheres to trade places receiving different different uh lengths of the sun forming. But a flat earth nigga will tell you that the sun is in here with us and going on. Okay. So, okay. Now, here's what I was talking about. The astrological death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Watch this uh depiction I got over here for y'all. During the sun's descent from the winter solstice from the northern hemisphere, it is moving south. As you can see, during the days of December 22nd to December 23rd, December 24th, the sun appears to come to a complete stand still as you can see here. Right now, for these three days in the southern sky within a constellation known as the Cooks constellation, as you can see here, which means which resembles a cross as you just seen there, and I'm also going to show the next slide on December 25th, the sun appears to begin to rise again and make it ascension back into the summer solstice as you just seen. Hence, the of of Jesus dying on the cross and resurrection after three days. You know, the resurrection is not celebrated until the spring equinox, which is in the middle of that, right? I mean, in the middle of that transition, which is Easter. This is because the sun doesn't rise back above the equator until the northern hemisphere, causing the time to once again come on. That's why Easter is on a different motherfucking day. Theological death and resurrection of Jesus Christ part two crooks. See I got the right see this photograph of the crook translation right now watch this crooks origin crooks and means what that say ankh all day in America denoting a representation of a cross chiefly is crooks and silk literally means cross with a handle in Latin I'm done I got nothing to say to these I got nothing to say I ain't got nothing to say but y'all keep talking about Jesus died on the cross for three African Egyptian was the first people to die. Everybody acknowledged its significance from December 21st December 24th in regards to the mystical or biblical reus because I need to give y'all this but somebody when they can't escape the truth they will try to remanifest their whole presentation like it wasn't based on this. So I have to give you argument. So when a nigga say you never said that you niggas will do. I've had people who tell me that that they source never said what I really read that he said. So I have to read into it again. Now 1 Corinthians 15 verse 1 King James Bible which is your favorite Bible and that he was buried and that he rose again the third day according to the scripture John 19:1 17 the king once again and he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of the skull which is called in Hebrew gold John And wrote a title and put it on the cross and the writing was Jesus of Nazareth the king of John 19 which is the verse four where they crucify him and two other with him on either side one in Jesus in the midst. So the Bible does say that Jesus was crucified on the cross and resurre the king of the Jews. So it shouldn't be any discrepancies right there. Biblical reference to Jesus crown of clothes. Matthew 27 29. And when they had played it, remember when they was crucifying, y'all see the passage all so he was so dying for your when they and when they put the crown and when they had laid it, okay, a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head and a reed in his right hand, and they bowed the knee before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews." John 19:5. Then came Jesus forth, bringing the forms and the purple and saith unto them, behold the man, there go your son and go your crown of thorns. Look at it. Even when you see the sun draw ancient times, it always has rings coming out of it. There go your crown of thorns. Jesus is your son and here goes his crown of thorns before he was crucified on December 21st, December 24th within the constellation. Shame on you niggas. Shame on you niggas. Shame on you. Niggas is in the church. They're going to be in the church tomorrow. tomorrow paying ties to the motherfucking I'm deal with y'all. That's why I say y'all niggas have to be psychiat. But we also need is is the question a system that would allow niggas to be crazy. Why would you allow niggas to believe? Let me tell you something, right? Let me veer off. God asked Abraham to sacrifice his only begotten son. Only only to do it up until the point where Abraham was going to actually do it for him to say, "No, nigga. I'm just playing. I'm just playing, nigga. But thank you." So, with that being said, in the Bible, everybody

Speak to God. God Abraham sacrificed his son. He called Moses to the top of the mountain, gave this nigga 10 goddamn couple stones, half tablets. Nigga, Moses must have been Coloss. So, that being said, everybody in the Bible always speaks to God. If you kill somebody right now, you go to court and they make you put your hand on this Bible. Swear to tell the whole truth, nothing but the truth. Behind the judge, they say in God we trust on the dollar that you paid for your goddamn European representative lawyer. They say in God we trust. And when they say why you kill your motherfucking baby and you say shit, God told me to do it. Guess where you go? You don't go to jail. Where do you go? The crazy try to fuck the same government that give you the Bible when you get in your cell. Anybody in jail, you know, the first thing you see is your little cup, your tooth, your toothpaste, and your Bible. Yeah. So, you are going to go take me to jail and indoctrinate me to the faith, but I can't use your faith as a motherfucking alibi. Right? But you found this whole country off niggas who talk to a voice that they never seen. Do you follow me? So why would the government allow you to be crazy? That's because they want to control you. Because this whole country is and this why they call themselves the enlightened ones, right? Remember, light is an illusion temporarily. is eternal. I got something for you today. Biblical reference of Jesus Jesus as the son. So when they say Jesus is not the son and you are making that shit up and some people take the Bible so literal that if you believe God is talking, I'mma let God talk to you. So let's ask God, what did he mean? Well, according to Psalms 84:11, God said, "For the Lord God is a son and you." It doesn't get any direct. The Lord will grace and glory. No good thing will he withhold from them that walk upright. John 9:5, as long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. But notice it says in the world and then flat earth n say the sun is in the world. I pause right there when I get home. But here we go. the 12 disciples and his part because if Jesus the son had 12 disciples then who could disciples be now what was the characteristic of Peter Peter was a fiery impulsive changeable pioneering leader who eventually became the rock upon which founded the new church guess what it was called church of the lamb what's the name here is a It deals with inspiration. Peter was inspirational and created a church called church of the land. He was next. Next next disciple, Simon Zeus was Taurus. Simon was a dogmatic determined zealot who was concerned with the property and finances rebelled against the payment of taxes and received from Jesus the admonition of being I mean when Jesus said render under Caesar the things that are Caesars. Taurus is a fixed sign. Guess what that deal with? Materialistic things. Next, James was a Gemini. Okay. Third disciple was spoke to accept the authenticity of the Messiah but became the eloquent preacher of the church of Jerusalem and an active evangelist and exorter. Okay. Jesus Christ. Gemini is a beautiful sign that deals intellect. Gemini is what both sides. First he was like I don't really believe in Jesus. He was like I'm advocating for Jesus. Next, Andrew was a sympathetic homebody, a follower of John the Baptist, whose first thought when he discovered the Messiah was to run quickly and fetch his brother Simon. Uh, cancer is a car sign and that deals with what? Sympathy. Next, John was a Leo. Okay. He was the most beloved sign inspiration. Anybody know anything about Leos? What? They love attention. They love attention. And he was the most loved nigga got statues and all kind of that's one of y'all niggas favorite books the book of John love so I don't I have to love now saying Philip was a Virgo here we go I'm Philip was always precise calculating and quiring and practical Virgo is a mutable sign which also is materialistic Libra. He was inconsistently pure. I mean he was instantly pure. Excuse me. He was instantly pure, tactful and persuasive. Libra is a cardinal sign also deals with intellect. The 12 disciples were 12 zodiac signs. And this is why Jesus spoke to all of them because the sun travels to all of them every 25. You're very welcome. Now Thomas ain't guys Thomas was a Scorpio. Okay. What is what was his characteristic? He was a doubting skeptic. He was bold and he was courageous. Scorpio was a thick side. One of his characteristics is to be sympathetic. James was a Sagittarius. Okay. He was a great teacher who with Peter and John became the spiritual leaders of the early church of the land. Remember lamb is what? Baby Aries, baby R. Now watch me fuck y'all up. James, Peter, and John are all three fire signs cooperating together to become mutable and inspiration. Anybody who does astrology, when you put a triangle in the chart, it tells you the element of the uh sign that you're dealing with. So when you draw a a triangle from Leo, Aries to Sagittarius, you just connected three three fire signs. James, Peter, and John was what? Leo, Sagittarius, Aries. And they work together. Okay. and the church of the lamb. I'm done. I'm done. His goddamn disciples is the zodiac sign. Let's keep it kicking. Y'all thought I was done. I'm running through these motherfuckers. He was the gatherer, the politician and the one authority in the governing seat of Rome. Okay. Cat power was materialistic. That is who Jew. Okay. That is you Aquarius was the one who considered the lot of the peasant and sought to better the living and the working condition of the masses and who interrogated Jesus at the last supper as to who he would manifest himself to be. Aquarius is the fifth sign in. Now Judas Pisces the traitor. Remember Jesus died in the age of Pisces. Who sold him out? How many fishes? How many fishes did somebody said what? They playing both sides, right? The fish face what? Okay. And Judas was Jesus friend. Then he turned to Jesus who Okay. That's playing both sides. Judas Pisces was one who succumbed to temptation and suffered severe pains and remorse. Right. Was also responsible for of Jesus Christ. Beautiful sign. One of the characteristics why he felt badly did his nature play both sides like a motherfucking Pes. Here we go. Right there. Pisces playing both sides. You're sympathetic after you did wrong. I'm not playing with y'all. Jesus allegory. Now the age of Pisces starts right here at the year 12,960. Now converting that to the western calendar which we call the Christian calendar that would be exactly So at 126 BC that was the exact start of the age of don't worry I have a slide here coming up where I'm going show you each and every year according to the western calendar as well as this calendar which denotes the start of these eras now born 1353 aka 33 BC Jesus Christ was allegedly born now a characteristic of Pisces guess what self Jesus walked this earth and he turned spiders into puppets and he turned water in the vine and he just his robe just smelt like dove soap and he was just so good to people. He was so good to people. Okay, he was selfless but that's the characteristics of Pisces. That's why he was born in the age of Pisces and that's why he has those characteristics. Here we go. Biblical of Jesus Christ the title Matthew 14 19 and 20 let's find and he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass and took the five loaves of bread and the two fish once again two fish okay and looking up to heaven he blessed and break and gave the lo to his disciples his 12 disciples and the disciples to the multitudes Matthew 14 and they did all and were filled and they took up the fragments that made 12 baskets full. Let's keep it kicking. What is the precision of the people now? Right? Because you need to know this in order for me to fully understand the transition between all these books that talk about Jesus Christ and the revelation. Because if you really read the Bible and you don't bullshit, you know that Jesus don't come into play till the end of the goddamn book. because Pisces is going to come into play to the end of the trial and tribulation that you go through with Taurus and so this is why Jesus don't even get mentioned and get born to the end of book. So here we go. The possession of the equinox is the occurrence of the sun rising at a different side of the zodiac during spring every 260 years due to our 25,928 galaxy to the title. This is what the Bible refers to as eons or ages which related to the word world. slide after the next one. In the King James version and other versions of the Bible, it is called procession because the zodiac constellations seem to go backwards, right? Or for instead of forward like they do on following or in a possession state, it seems like it's going backwards. Now, even now the word eon and age was used in damn near every goddamn Bible. Now, why is it important? In the King James Bible, they change the word age or eon to the word world. So, anywhere when you read the Bible say the end of the world, the end of this includes the word world. It really says the age of eon. Now, don't worry cuz I'm going to show you motherfucking other Bible verses from almost every other Bible where it says age except for the goddamn King James book. So, don't take my word for it. Biblical reference for procession of an equinox. Once again, it takes us 260 years to move 30° through each zodiac house. Every 72 years, we move one degree. Now, watch this. I got the international version and I got the King James version. I'm starting with the King James version. Both of these are Luke 1 verse Luke 10 verse one. Starting with King James. After these things, the Lord appointed 70 also and sent two of them and two before his face into every city and every place whether he himself would come. I just told you every 72 years one degree. Now let's read that same verse in the new international version. And the Lord appointed 72 others and sent them two by two ahead of him into every place where he was about to go. That's dealing with the possession of the equinox. Yes. Aon verse age world. Y'all follow me? A verse world. The Greek word eon. Okay. Orion, excuse me. A i n in greek was translated into the Latin word eon which is a e i o n which is translated into the English word age. Right. By definition, [music]

is also known as the Fibonacci sequence having a numerical value of 1.618. So I'm going to break down the science of the flower of life uh spiritually, psychologically and biologically as it is the blueprint for all three of those subject matters. I'm going to also break down how the golden ratio is found and why it is so relevant to not just you but all things in the universe. So with that being said, let's jump. We are going to jump right into this. Now we are talking about the uh the flower of life right to the average person you know the flower of life is just a bunch of circles okay but you have esoteric and exoteric knowledge. Exoteric would be like for everybody aka in our language will be considered public information. You have esoteric which would be for a small group of people or private uh or a private sector of information which in our normal format of language would be considered private. So that being said, you have public schools, private schools, you have exoteric science, esoteric sciences. So the majority of niggas in the in the world today are getting exoteric or publicbased bullshit. So that being said, we want to understand we looking at the flower of life from the true esoteric uh from a true esoteric perspective of understanding. Now that being said, boom. When you look at the flower of life, right, the initial circle is created from consciousness. Okay? Now what does consciousness mean? It means to be aware. So now we got to start somewhere first because when we talking about the creator, right? You are the creator. But you have to understand how you formed yourself. Now when you look at space, space is void. It doesn't have form. It's dimensionless. Forms are created within realms that we call worlds. They're called worlds because they're whirling inside of space. Okay? So you have esoteric existence, which is planetary existence. Then you have exoteric existence which would be I mean you have uh whatchamacallit esoteric existence where you exist you know within a private sector. This would be the spirit level of existence and you have a exoteric level of existence which would be the outside module of existence which would be the physical realm. So you have the internal realm which is the spiritual realm. You have the the external realm which is the physical realm. You have the metaphysical meta means beyond beyond physical. Physical just being that which you can calculate using length, width, height, volume etc. And you have the physical realm being the biological aspect of yourself which can be calculated using lightw height uh volume etc. So that being said the flower of life is nothing more than the blueprint of how you were created spiritually and then condensed yourself into a physical being. Now let's go into this right boom consciousness God generator organizer dispenser of all reality. God is what? The highest extended of the mind which uses elements of matter to express itself. So your body is made of elements and matter. You are the highest extent of the mind which controls this vessel. But you also have a higher extent of that conscum of thought that we call your higher self. So you have your conscious self than your higher self. You use 10% of your brain as they like to say you don't use 100% of your brain. Yes, you do. You use 10% of your brain consciously consciously and then subconsciously the you use 90% of your brain which controls that 10%. As above so below. A atom is 10% physical and is 90% space. So with that being said, we have to understand you are just a macro expression of your micro self and then your micro self has a micro self which means your micros is actually a macro expression of its micros and so on and so forth. Now what we have to understand is at some point in time in the universe, right? And now the reason we say some point in time and we don't know what time because a lot of assholes who say well you know if it doesn't if if you know how do you know when the universe was created or or you know how old is God and not God being a religious God but once again being the highest extent of the mind when the first thought was created okay when the first level of awareness was first came into first came into fruition. The reason you can't calculate that is because time because time is calculated physical using length, width, height, volume. Okay? Before a box is measured, it has to pres be presented to you. Okay? So if you don't have a a subject matter to measure, then you cannot if you don't have something that has angles and dimensions, then you don't have anything to measure, let alone if it's not presented to you. So when the universe right or when consciousness first said I am and I exist and I want to exist physically because when the universe first said I am or I exist that was metaphysical okay and then it began to vibrate itself using the electromagnetic spectrum of the sun into a physical state which I'll explain. So the universe consciousness God whatever you want to call it said damn I'm here and I want to have a physical experience. So it began to vibrate metaphysically into the physical realm and to create dimensions. So with that being said, you can't calculate how old your mind is. Nobody knows how old the mind is. You can't sit at home and say, "Damn, well, the first person who ever had a thought ever was five trillion billion years ago." No, because that's formless. So if something is void and without form, it doesn't have an age. This is why nobody knows how old the soul is. Okay? Your soul doesn't have a physical age because it's void and without form. Your body dies, but your soul is immortal. So we talking about becoming an immortal or the realm of immortality or actually understand that that you are immortal is because you have to understand that your true self your higher self is void and without form. So once you learn to perceive yourself in this lifetime from that perspective then you learn to walk this earth as a true esoteric being esoteric meaning private what a private sector of information that was hidden from you. Now that being said, getting back on point, the universe, consciousness, God, whatever name you want to call it, the boogeyman, I don't care what you call it, the highest of mind, which use elements of matter to express itself, one day said, "Hey, I want to exist." And it began to project consciousness in all directions. And this is where sacred geometry comes from. Okay? So we have consciousness going up and down, which is north and south, east and west, okay? Which is left and I mean, which is left and right and then front and backwards. Okay? So we have conscious uh energy being projected. Energy is what? Uh I mean emotions are what? Energy. In motion. So before we can create emotions or something to house emotions, we have to first project energy. Now in a void, energy goes every way. It doesn't have a direction in which it flows. So energy is projecting every way. And we know that anything uh whatchamacallit outside the influence of what we call gravity forms the original shape which is a sphere or a circle. So once energy was projected okay in all directions the shape of a sphere began to manifest okay and then outside of that what consciousness did was it moved 90° outside okay the parameter I mean or the circumference of the original sphere or circle that I just created and it duplicated that process and it did it three times okay and that three times when it did it in order for it to continue to duplicate itself perfectly instead of moving 90° it began to move itself 30° and it continued the duplication process now from the third circle uh whatchamacall it four more times until it became a total of seven circles okay giving us what we call the seed of life and this is where you get the star David from and the lotus flower and the science of all of that behind the ancients which I'm not going into right now but outside of that boom then what consciousness did again was it created it it created that it duplicated that process again seven more times so now instead of seven circles we're at 14 circles okay and then it begins to create what we call um whatchamacallit the fruit of life Okay. And the tree of life. So that being said, then it duplicates itself um seven more times becoming what is known as the egg of life. So then after that it duplicates itself again seven more times. We have 14. It duplicates itself again seven more times getting us to 21 circles. And before it gets to the 22nd circle, right? So once it gets to about 19 to 22 circles, right, a seal or a binding spell was placed on it. This is that circle that you see on the outside in the flower of life. Now, why is this important? The flower of life doesn't stop at the flower of life. So it actually stops at the tree of life or I mean excuse me the fruit of life. So that being said, you got the seed of life, the egg of life, okay? Because the seed becomes the egg and then the egg becomes the flower and the flower becomes the tree which bears the fruit. So that being said, they stopped it. Okay? And when they put the seal on there, they actually stop the uh the the fruition process of the flower of life to becoming a fruit. So what happened is what happens is once you take that seal off the flower of life, right? Let's say we're at 20 circles and you put 13 more circles on it. 13 is going to be an important number. It gets us to what? 33 degrees. 33 degrees of what? This is what masons call I mean this is why Mason stop at 33 degrees. Not only because you have 33 vertebrae in your spine, but that square and compass that masons use are used to measure what? Measure the angles and degrees in the flower of life at 33 uh spherical points. So that being said, once the flower life gets to 33° , it forms what is called the fruit of life. Okay? So the seed becomes the egg which becomes the flower which becomes the tree which becomes the fruit. Okay? And the fruit bears what? life. Now with that being said, what we have to understand is the the the at the stage known as the um fruit of life. Okay, the flower of life then manifests into what is called Metatron's cube. Now Metatron's cube create I mean holds all two and threedimensional shapes. So if you look at Metatron's cube properly and you connect all the circles, you'll see a triangle, square, circle, hexagon, pentagon and then you'll see the threedimensional versions of all of those two-dimensional shapes. Period. So every form comes out of Medatron's cube which is a circle. So the flower of life is actually the blueprint for all physical reality. So that being said, the flower of life is basically the template for anything that you've ever visually seen. Whether it was a house, a building, a bug, a car, if you thought about it and drew it, that came from the blueprint of the flower of life. Now why is this important? The flower of life duplicates itself predicated upon what we call the golden ratio which is that natural spiral that you see in everywhere in nature within a fruit within a woman's womb a snail's shell anywhere you know your hands when you make a fist it goes in a circle your blood spirals through your vein in a circle black people are here curly uh spirals in a circle everything goes in a circular motion even in nature tornadoes hurricane circle your eyes circle but this circle is at a is at a precise ratio of 1.6.8 And here's how that is. In order to find that ratio, we have to take the first two measurements ever in the universe, which was 1 and two. Now, when you understand where numbers come from, because it was a black woman in Africa who who also created the numerical system. So, shout out to black women for teaching the entire world how to count. But outside of that, what you have to understand is the first unit of measurement ever was one. And the first unit of measurement ever was two. Now, if you look at the number one, it's one angle. If you look at the number two, it looks kind of like a Z because it's two angles. When you look at the number three, it's saying it's three angles. So numbers are actually no more than linear signatures of how many angles fit inside of a circle. So zero is actually the only one true number. One is just a different variation of the number zero. So when you get to 10, actually what you just did was make 10 different variations of the number zero. So when we're talking about oneness, there's actually only one true number. Every other number is just an angle inside of a void. And this is why numbers are infinite because the potentiality or the potential of what it is you can create is also infinite just like the universe is infinite and it's also everly expanding. So that being said when we have to understand we have to understand the I mean in order to understand the science of how things are infinite you have to understand the science of how you're immortal because you're void and without form and you create from a platform that is void and without form which means it is always in abundant I mean it is always in an abundant state of energy. Now that being said, coming back to the uh Fibonacci sequence, right? When you take the one, right, the first unit, right? What you do is you take the first unit of measurement, which is one, and then you uh bring that in synchronization with the second unit of measurement ever, which was two. So from there, you get a right angle. Now, in in math class or trigonometry, we understand that we have to find the hypotenuse, which is the longest side of a triangle. And in this case, it would be missing. So that being said, you have a one angle and you have a two angle. Okay. And then you're missing the top angle of the of the pyramid, which is a right angle. Key word, right? Hold on to that. So, what you do is you take in order to find that you you realize that what a right angle or a right triangle is just a rectangle cut in half. So, in order to find the height and the length of this angle, all you have to do is cut both of those in half. So, if the height is one, half of that is 0.5. And if the length is two, half of that is one. So, you go 0.5 up in height. And then you go one unit over in length and that brings you exactly to the middle of this uh right triangle. And then what you do is you draw a circle. And then you find the the mathematical calculation points from the distance between each vertex point and its correspondence with the circumference aspect of the circle or the perimeter or the outside of the circle uh which I'm going to call it the circle being that it comes in contact with. So for example the bottom part of the right angle which will be down here right in a vertex point is just the tip of an angle. So let's say the bottom part of the point or the right angle, right? You would take that and you would measure that all the way to the left side of this imag this imaginary circle that you drew. And it's a ratio that would give you cuz remember it's not a full length of two anymore. It's 1.618 when you do the mathematical ratio on it. And then if you go to the second vertex point which is shorter and you bring it to this to the to the right side of the uh of the of the circumference of the circle you just drew, it also is 1.618. So we see that the right angle created from the Fibonacci I mean from the flower of life creating what we call the golden ratio right has a numerical ratio of 1.618. And then what the universe did was when it went 90° okay because in order to shift dimensions you have to go 90° and I'm going to do a video on that next. When it went 90° and and duplicated itself it duplicated itself at a greater volume of 1.618. And then when it went another 90° it duplicated itself at a at a even more greater volume of just 1.618. 618. So this is why from the tip of your fingernail to your knuckle, that's 1.618. But then from your first knuckle all the way to the knuckle at the at the uh base of your hand is also a greater proportion of just 1.618. From your wrist to your elbow is 1.618. But then if you take that distance and measure your wrist to your shoulder, that's also a greater proportion of 1.618. So this is why they call the mathematical ratio of five or being 1.618 618 divine proportion because everything in the universe is only bigger than its previous self by a ratio of 1.618 and this is due to the way that the universe is building itself according to the flower of life. So it's building in a right uh angle manner. So the first angle ever was a right angle. Hence when you do the right thing you feel better. You feel like you're ascending because according to the flower of life as it's building naturally in his natural flow which is going towards a right angle a righteous manner to do the right thing. It's ascending. Now when you go left, okay, according to the scale of the flower of life, you descend. So you go down by a ratio of 1.618. So that being said, this is once again energy in motion. Emotion. Energy in motion. So this is why when you do righteous things, which is what? According to nature. Nature just means what? To ascend. Okay? Ascend means to go in accordance with the natural flow of things. The natural flow of things are in a right angled manner. 1.618. To do the right thing. Okay? This is why when you do the right thing or you do something righteous, you feel good and you feel high in your spirit because you're ascending. So you can vision the ascending process as as a tornado that's going up. Okay? Now, when you do the wrong shit, okay, you feel low vibration. You feel low vibrationally in your spirit and you feel down and you feel depressed. You can envision this state as a tornado going down. So with that being said, the reason that you're doing left shit or even when you use slang, you say, "Bro, that shit was way left, bro. That shit wasn't right." Even in the slang, we don't even understand subconsciously how we're trying to express ourselves metaphysically, aka esoterically. We're we're we're so in tune with ourselves that we don't realize it. So even when you do some shit that's all the way left according to slang or something that's not right, you feel bad. To feel bad is to what? To feel opposite of good. To feel opposite of going the right way. You don't feel ascended. You feel descended. So you're going down the motherfucking spiral. Meanwhile, the universe is trying to get you to go up. So we say what is doing wrong things or what is doing that which is not right. Doing that which is not right is doing that which is not in accordance with the natural flow and building process and blueprint of the universe. If

You love everything about self-destruction. Your philosophy is disgusting and horrible which causes your inner being aka your inner form, your inner form to be a victim as well as reflection of that. So now let's go into philosophy. Right? Once the proper philosophy is developed and all incorrect illusional concepts are erased from the mind, okay, one will begin to develop the proper perspective on life and the universe. And we'll go into what that is in a moment. Thoughts about doing physical actions stimulate the brain, neurons, and muscles in the body the same way it would if you were to actually perform them. Thoughts literally change the brain's neurochemistry and shape and shape once again according to the thought patterns it receives. The mind can be used to metaphorize and advance the human mind and body according to the philosophy of the thinker. This takes place okay at the synapse location or in the brain through the utilization of the brain tissues known as white and gray matter. Cells in the body respond to words, okay? And have their own individual capacities to react and respond to consciousness. Now, let me break that down, okay? Literally, when you think of doing something, the muscles in your body react as if you were actually doing it. And they did an experiment where they had a group of people, right, actually physically work out. And then they had another group of people actually only meditate and think about doing the same exact workout that they had the other group of people actually doing. The people who physically worked out had a 30% physical increase in their body in their muscular system. The people who only meditated and thought about working out had a 22% increase physically and in their muscular system. So the people who actually didn't work out were only 8% behind the people who actually did. Why? Because the neurological system in your body operates off of your thought patterns and your philosophy. So this is why meditation is so important. And this is why getting rid of western psychology is so important. Because if you believe that you can do it and you think about you doing it, then we can scientifically prove that you are physiologically reshaping yourself to do what it is that you are constantly uh putting in your own thought pattern or mental curriculum that you can do. But if you believe that Jesus is going to do it, it's not going to work. So I'm going to take this same experiment and I'm going to give you an example. the people who who were meditating and thinking about working out was thinking about themselves lifting the weights or whatever the form the workout was. So their brain the neurons in their brain was interfacing with uh the tissues and their muscles etc. and they were still giving off the same chemical reactions as if they were physically doing exercise. Now, if those same people would have thought about Jesus doing the goddamn workout, then their body would have never had a physical increase because the brain wouldn't have identified with the body or the the physical aspect of itself as taking place in the mental concoction. So, this goes to show you why religion is so dangerous because as you believe, you can conceive. This is a scientific literal fact. But if you believe that somebody else must conceive for you, then your body will never shape and develop into the aspect that you needed to do so for you to do what it is you are conceiving in your mind that you need to do. So with that being said, this is why the aspect of I or know thyself is very important in regards to psychology because your body advances adapts okay and alters itself according to your selfbelief aka selfbelief believing in yourself. If you believe in an entity outside yourself then your body is never performing mental alchemy. Okay? Your mind is never interfacing and advancing your body the way it should through the use of white and gray matter. Now what is white and gray matter? Right? Gray matter, okay, is made up of cells, nerve fibers and neurons. And these uh use neurotransmitters, which are just uh chemical forms of information in order to integrate interact with and operate with the nervous system and uh the neuroscientific aspect of of your being. And white matter, okay, is the aspect of or or the conglomerate of nerve fibers which allow the gray matter aka brain cells, neurons, nerve fibers and etc. to do what they do. So the white matter is nothing more than than the conglomerate which allows and aids the gray matter into sending information to other aspects of your being. And this is important because you also interface with the cells of your body. Now the cells in your body literally respond to words literally and they have their own individual capacities to react and respond to consciousness. So if you was to cut your hand and you say I hate my hand, right? Your cells will actually pick up on that negative thought interval and it will cause the healing process of your body to be slower and to be more negative and to be more insufficient. But if you was just say I love my hand, okay, and my hand is going to heal perfectly, your sales will actually pick up on that frequency and act in and act in accordance in regards to how how how um how the process is going to be in regards to how it's going to heal itself. So you have to understand what you think and what you say has more effect on you than what anybody else can think and say about you. And this is why we're talking about mental alchemy and philosophy. Okay. Period. So you have to understand the importance of taking yourself from a dull state to a per to a perfected state. And before you begin to physically practice that, you have to begin to mentally practice that. Now we going to mind alchemy and we talking about perception. Right? And you see in this picture right here, one person believes it's a six and one person believes it's a nine. And I'm going to break down the the point of this illustration in a second. Your perception is how you choose to view reality. Okay? Your perception will either enslave you or liberate you as a being. Okay? In order to become an alchemist, you must you must possess the one and only true perspective, which is oneness through energetic and anatomic connection to all things, especially those of melanated aka sunlight/universal origins. Okay. Photons are digested by the body and released as bofotons which send out frequency modules that reconstruct reality to fit the frequency of the beam in which it is released from. Now, let me break this shit down. A photon, not a proton. So, we're not talking about protons, neutrons, and electrons. Protons have Pi. We're talking about photons, okay? PH. A photon is found at the very very vertex point or the very very very tip of a sun ray. It's the purest form of light. A photon is matter and antimatter combined. And you through your melanin which is located in the epidermis layer of your skin, the retina of your eyes, your hair, etc. As a melanated being, you download and digest photons which are nothing more than uh subatomic part particles which contain consciousness or information. And once you once you digest them, right, biologically your body processes them and then it outputs that information back out according to your own perception of reality. So the photon then becomes a biofoton. And once you do once you kick out a biofoton what a biofoton does is it interacts energetically right and radioactively with actual atoms in the atmosphere and they begin to reconstruct and recomprise reality according to what you believe it is. So if you walk up on this number nine and you say hey that's a nine. Okay, you're downloading sunlight and you're kicking out v photons and everything you believe about nine is going to be according to your own perception. So if you think nine is horrible and you think you should kill nine or go to war with nine, that's what reality is going to be for you. But if this person sees a six and they believe the same dumb shit you believe, then that's what they believe they're going to they should do. And guess what y'all going to do? Y'all going to go to war. And war stands for what? W A R. we are right when really it should be we are wrong because both these motherfuckers have an incorrect perception. Why? Because the only true perception is oneness. This is not a nine or this is not a six. It's an angle and you perceive the angle incorrectly which causes you to have an incorrect perception and off of that incorrect perception you create what is called a belief system in which you act upon. So this causes you to act as a savage incorrectly. So with that being said, when we're talking about alchemy, going from a dull to a golden state, you can't go from a gold to a golden state with an incorrect perception. So right now, if you're, let's say, a police and this nine is a black person walking up the street, if you have a perception that this person is a potentially dangerous threat, then you're probably going to be on the internet killing them on a body camera or something. But if you're a police and you think that this is a black person and you believe that everybody should be treated unfairly, then you'll probably deal with them fairly and they'll probably get to go home to their goddamn families. So this is the same thing with black people. If you're a black person and you're over here on the nine side and you're a gangbanger and you think that this black person is a op or they they are enemy because they wear a certain goddamn color that your perception has deemed negative, then you're probably going to kill them. Okay? But if you're a black person and let's say you're conscious and you're trying to bring your people together, then when you see this black person, no matter what they wear, you'll try to educate them and interact with them positively. So with that being said, why is this important? The subject matter never changed. The only thing that changed was your perception on it. My favorite color is green. If you don't like green, when you see the color, it'll do something negative to you. And it's called colorology. I'll go into that in a second. When I see green, I like it. I light up. So with that being said, the color green is not good or bad. The only thing that makes it good or bad is your perspective aka your perception. So with that being said, reality is literally what you are making it to be through the output of what is called biofotons. So when you change your mind and you change your philosophy and you change your perception, you change your reality. So, you change your perception by changing the way you feel, not just the way you think, because your heart controls your mind. Period. I'm about to go in, family. I'm warming y'all up. I'mma give y'all the blueprint and I'mma go I'mma go crazy in this motherfucker. Now, here we go. Mind alchemy. Now, we're dealing with consciousness expansion into oneness. Okay. Once you start to truly see all things as yourself, you will naturally begin to reconnect to what is known as the love frequency and develop a love for all people, places, and things. Thoughts such as destroying our planet or even littering will slowly begin to arouse a negative feeling within one's spirit due to one's newfound connection and expansion in consciousness. So now let me give you an example, right? This is negative and positive and science negative and positive doesn't mean good or bad. It mean negative means female and positive means masculine. So that being said, this is you right and through your chakra system which is just vortex centers which input and output frequency in and out of the body. You stay connected to the universe. But remember everything in the universe is comprised of atoms. Atoms are actually intelligent. So your body is comprised of many bodies because you're comprised of many atoms. So you're comprised of many different microscopic spheres of intelligence which help to make up the totality of your being. And then you as an individual act as an atom and all of us on the planet act as individual atoms which help to make up the totality of consciousness on the planet just like the solar system. The planets help to act as individual microscopic uh modules of consciousness for this uh let's say field of existence. So with that being said, we have to understand that as above so below. Now we talking about perspective, right? If you see a snake, the average person will say, "Oh shit, it's a snake. I'm scared." Why? Because you've been indoctrinated by western psychology, which is not your natural module of thinking as well as incorrect philosophy. But imagine if you was able to see this snake and you would just say, "Damn, this snake is just another anatomical manifestation of myself. Me and this snake literally both have pineal glands. Me and this snake literally are both made up of atoms. Me and this snake are literally both natural entities created by the universe. And I only fear this snake because it looks different from me when this snake is actually just me in a different form. So would you put on a suit Monday, okay, and look in the mirror and then wake up Tuesday and put on pajamas and be scared of your goddamn self because you look different? No, you would not. So, with that being said, if that sounds irrational as a fear, then why do you fear animals? Why do you go to the park and you see a bee and you lose your goddamn mind? Because the bee is just you and another form of you. And you can actually interact with the bee electromagnetically through radio frequency if you if your brain was in a calm state. So when you see pictures of African people and African women walking through the goddamn jungles with lions or you see uh General Si giving lectures on how they took lions over there to Japan. You think they did that shit cuz they feared the lion? No. The lions was living amongst them because they understood and and acknowledged the energetic connection between them and all being life forms. And they used that connection to interact and create a healthy planet for all being life forms to exist on. So now when you see this right and you see this water and you see this beautiful piece of nature, we don't this doesn't exist anymore. We live in a polluted ass city where garbage is constantly being kicked out and we're constantly feeding destruction to the planet cuz we don't identify with ourselves as the planet anymore. We don't identify with the planet actually being a mother to our bodies. Okay? Because it's just like renting a car. When you rent the car, you got to give it back. When your body is done, it goes and biodegrades back into the earth. You got to give it back after you're done inhabiting it as a consciousness. So that being said, we don't see the planet as the producer of our our physical vessels. So you came out of your mother's womb, but your mother's vehicle that she birthed you through came out of mother earth, but we don't see ourselves anatomically or energetically uh connected with the planet anymore. We don't see ourselves anatomically or energetically or consciously connected with the universe anymore. And this is why we develop incorrect perceptions and philosophies and fears of on the subject matter that we call consciousness because we don't see everything for what it is which is just oneness. And I'm going to break down and prove how everything is just oneness in a second. So with that being said, jumping back a slide six perspective for example sees this as a part of himself. So he treats it the way he would want people to treat him. This is why they say treat people the way you want to be treated because the way you treat somebody is actually the way you're treating yourself. And nine sees this as something that's other than him and he treats it negatively. Right? Because we fear the unknown. So now this example is this. If you see this goddamn snake and you fear this snake, it's cuz you don't understand that the snake is another form of you. So you're treating this the way you want somebody to treat you. And since you don't see this as you, you treat it like a piece of shit. And then the other perspective would be for you to treat this with love and respect and respect this snake's life path because you understand that this snake is you in another form. So now the difference between western excuse me family and eastern psychology, western psychology teaches you that this is a dangerous animal, right? And that you should fear it and that it has nothing to do with you bio energetically or anatomically. Eastern psychology or African psychology teaches you that we are all one and that this is an extension of you and that you should love and respect this animal. So now we have to understand when we talking about, you know, what's wrong when we talking about what's wrong with the goddamn uh the the way black people treat each other, fuck the animal. We don't even see each other as goddamn one no more. We see each other as bloods, crips, this nigga that, this nigga that, this nigga that. We can't even come together with the fact that we are melanated and anatomically connected. So until we practice that level of mental alchemy, we will never have a conscious expansion into oneness. Period. I'mma hit this water and I'mma go next slide.

Alchemy part one dealing with understanding. Okay, this is the final stage of mind alchemy right to which you have now accomplished. At this stage, one possesses supreme understanding of the ignorance of others. This understanding comes from knowing that the thoughts and actions of others stem from ignorance due to them not having yet transformed their minds from lead to gold. Okay. So, we talking about understanding, right? What breeds patience? You have to understand that once you get the goal, people are still led. People still stupid as a motherfucker. They still have an incorrect perception on what they believe life is. Misunderstanding, right, of a non-chemist, right? This is an example I'm going to give you would be murder. Now, let me give you why murder would be a misunderstanding of somebody who would in a in a in a uh subject matter of alchemy be considered a non-chemist. Right? Murder. You are not your body and can never be killed. And you are also not an individual separate from one another but connected to one another making the whole. Therefore, the non-chemist doesn't understand there is no such thing as killing another being. There is only suicide. There's only suicide. Now, let me break this down, right? You can't chop your left arm off and think that you hurt your right arm. You can't chop your leg off, your left leg off, and think you hurt your right leg and and think that you didn't hurt your body. So, if you believe that your that your arm, right, is separate from your body and you cut your arm off and you believe that you didn't hurt your body, you just believe that you are you then you have an incorrect philosophy and perception that all things are not connected. So if you say, "I'mma kill this person, right? I want to kill this motherfucker. They got you high." You don't understand that they're not the body. So you technically can't never kill them. The only thing you can do is eject them out their vehicle. So it's like a car accident. You get in a car accident and you total the vehicle, the driver can get the fuck out. So that being said, even the misperception of or or even the the western psychological conception of the word murder is is is a spell on the mind because it tricks you to believe that you can engage in an act that you can't. You can never energy can be neither created nor destroyed. It's always here. That's like burning water and thinking you destroying it. Motherfucker just evaporated. It's going to condensate right back down. So with that being said, the act of murder which is being installed into the minds of people is keeping you at a spiritual level of a thirddimensional perspective. And then on top of that, we're all energetically connected. So if you destroy another human or another animal, you're only committing suicide. If you go catch all the goddamn fish in the ocean, right, you might think you're feeding yourself by being greedy, but motherfucker, you committing suicide because you about to fuck up something in the ecosystem chain that's going to cause everything in nature to become imbalanced and it's going to come right back to you. So with that being said, we don't understand that every time we destroy something thinking that it's outside of us, we're committing either a major or minor event that we call sue aside. So if you keep letting these motherfuckers put chemtrails in the sky, you keep letting these motherfuckers dig up all the oil cuz you think that the earth ain't a living being and you think it have no connection to you. You keep letting these motherfuckers dig up all the resources in Africa because you think it doesn't have a biochemical effect on you, then you are committing suicide, motherfucker. That's straight like that. Period. So, with that being said, if you're going out here and you're killing people or you keep letting the government kill people and vaccinate babies and you think, "Oh, this is not my child. It ain't got nothing to do with me." You are committing suicide because you are energetically attached to that child. That child is going to usher in the consciousness that we call the future. And if you continue to let them destroy the future, you are letting them kill a aspect of you which is mean which means you are committing suicide. Period. Now a compassion right is developed and maintained for others due to the fact as an alchemist one now understands that others are just different manifestations and extensions of oneself. Yet they are still in their lead, meaning ignorant states of being in which the alchemist once was his or herself. So we talking about developing compassion and understanding because you've uh become an alchemist. That comes from understanding that people are blind. They have not been exposed to information such as this. They've never heard of shit such as this. And you have compassion for them because you know they know no better. Now, some people are just evil and they do need to be smited and put in the fire. So, that being said, this don't mean become a coward or a goddamn fool. Being compassionate. This means understand who deserves compassion and who deserves fur. Period. Now, with that being said, proof of a proof that African Egyptians practice mind alchemy. Excuse the typo. Let me hit this water one more time and I'm jumping in. We getting lit. All right. All right. I'm back. Here we go. Here you see the brain. Right now, let me tell y'all what y'all looking at. If somebody was to take your brain and pull it in half, this is what you would see. This is known as the corpus colossum. Okay. So this is basically your brain in half. Okay. Once again your brain in half. So now why is this important? When you see the eye of Horus, right, and you see Masons and Illuminati trying to use this symbol to scare you, what you don't understand is that this is a symbol that doesn't only depict and show you proof that Africans, okay? Because the Egyptians were Africans, had advanced understandings in anatomy and psychology. It shows you that they were also in tune in spirituality and how it interfaces with anatomy and psychology and a balanced brain. And I'll go into this, right? Only once the hemispheres of the brain are balanced can one reach achieve god mode. Right? So now what do I mean by a balanced brain? Okay, the left hemisphere of your brain is no longer bigger than the right hemisphere. You've taken on mental practices and challenges that help balance your brain. You've gotten rid of all incorrect perceptions and philosophies. You've gotten rid of all western hemispheric misunderstandings, etc. And you've gotten rid of all motherfucking, in the words that General said, you've gotten rid of 100% crackattosis. Okay, that you have floating through your blood. Once you do that, we'll we're gonna assume that you've done that. I mean, correction, we're gonna assume that you've done that and you're ready to go to God mode. Right? So, only once the hemispheres of your brain are balanced can one reach a god mode. Now, once balanced, the neuromelanin nerve track within the brain can successfully connect to the universe just as a computer once hooked up can successfully connect to the internet. The brain through what through through cosmic thought transmission is hooked up to the cosmo to the cosmic grid of the creator. The brain can literally produce any chemical the body wants or needs for any reason. Now let me break this down. Right? When you look at the eye of Horus, the eye of Horus is exactly is a is a uh ideographic depiction which exactly depicts your brain when you're looking at it from uh a a hemispheric perspective. So here you see the eyebrow on the eye of horse. Here you see the corpus colossum. Same exact place. Here you see the pineal gland and the phalamus gland. You see it right here inside of your brain. Here you see the hypothalamus gland which is depicting the nose on the eye horse. Here you see it exactly underneath the phalamus gland and the pineal gland. Here you see this part that comes it looks like it could be some under eye shadow or it will lead to the cheekbone on the eyehorus right going towards the outer limits of the face. This is symbolic to the medulla oblangatada here. When you go look up the medulla oblangatada it's coming out the exact same way. So the eye oforus is nothing more when they say the allseeing eye is nothing more than a balanced brain which allows the pineal gland to function properly and successfully in order to connect with the cosmos and I'll tell you how. Now I'm going to show you the steps step by step after but I'm going to give you the science. Now when I say that the pineal gland through neuromelanin allows thoughts to hook up to the solar system within a melanated being the same way a computer could hook to internet that is literal. Now what happens is you have a nerve tract in your brain called the neuromelanin nerve tract. Right? Now your neuromelanin nerve tract produces neuromlanin. Neuro means nerve. Okay. So now with that being said once a oh you can only do this with a balanced brain. Right? Once the kunalin energy travels up the 33 vertebraes of the spine it travels into the brain. Okay. And it releases this neuromelanin into uh the skull and other areas as well as the cerebellum as well as the spinal cord. And what it does is it stimulates dipple antennas. Now dipple antennas are melanated tissue receptors. Okay, they're melanated tissue receptors which actually increase a person's uh let's say mental brain wave frequency and thought patterns in regards to how you interface mentally with the cosmos. So with that being said, when your dipple antennas are not stimulated, it's as if you don't have any internet, okay? It's like your computer not having no internet. When your melanin in your brain is stimulating your dip antennas, which once again are located in between the internal and external layers of your skull, you are now basically speaking directly to the creator. So this is why they say your hair is your antennas because when somebody pulls your hair, okay, and that nerve and that pain that you feel in your head, those are your dipple antennas. Okay? So now when we say your hair is your antenna, motherfucker, that's literal. That's literal. And now when you see religion or western hemisphere, what they did was not only did they take alchemy away from you and teach you not to channel your thoughts internally, they told you that you don't have a direct connection with the internet aka the c the uh the universe. They told you only the pastor do or the Catholic priest do or the pope. So now you have people that are the head of these religious organizations that are channeling your spiritual energy from you. And instead of you being able to talk directly to the creator, now only the father can or only the Catholic priest can or only the preacher can, the preacher can, but the or the pope can. But these fictitious positions were created in mimicry off of your natural ability as an African to speak directly to God to whatever or the cosmos, whatever you want to call it. So with that being said, we have to understand the power of melanin within the brain and having a balanced brain. I'm going to show you that process in the next slide. And lastly, when we talking about the brain can produce any chemical that the body wants for any reason, what you have to understand is if you hold on to any thought for 180 seconds, which is just three minutes, your brain will produce a chemical which will be kicked into the bloodstream, the bloodstream or the nervous system. When a chemical is kicked into the bloodstream, it's called a hormone. When it's kicked into the nervous system it is called a neurotransmitter. So your brain will produce neurotransmitters or send signals to other endocrine glands to produce hormones that will produce the effect that you desire mentally. So if you ever see an old person and they look miserable, that's because physically their brain has been producing chemicals. I mean that's because their brains have been producing chemicals that cause them to physically manifest the perception that they've been holding on for more than 3 minutes. So that being said, if you were upset and you were calm, okay, and you held on to that goddamn thought, okay, about being calm for 3 minutes and you controlled your breathing for 3 minutes, your brain will start producing chemicals that calm you down. So now, why is this important? Instead of uh let's say depending upon your own natural ability to heal and control your inner form, now you go get a prescription. So you say, "Damn, I'm in pain, but I'm not going to stretch. I ain't going to do no yoga. I ain't gonna meditate. I ain't gonna allow my body to do what it naturally is programmed to do. I'm gonna say, "Fuck that." And I'm gonna go get a goddamn prescription that's gonna give me 1% of the effects I want and 99% of effects I don't want. So, that being said, we have to understand that we are becoming uh chemically imbalanced mentally and dependent upon a system that gives us the false illusion that it only can provide us with the services that we can provide for ourselves. We don't need no goddamn pastor to talk to the creator. The dimple antennas in the neuro melanin nerve track allow you to do that. You don't need no goddamn prescription to make you feel happy or make you not be stressed. They got motherfuckers on anxiety medicine. Your brain can produce these chemicals and I'm going to show you in a minute. So we are talking about alchemy going from a lead to a gold aka doll to a perfected state. We have to understand that these states are not even being allowed to practice these ancient sciences and these ancient practices, these ancient African practices because society is already set up for you to go somewhere else. So how are you going to go from a lead to a gold when motherfucker you are not even thinking about you? Ain't no you're not thinking about bettering yourself cuz you're too busy thinking about something else that can better yourself when you're that something else.

Okay. Proof African Egyptians practice mind alchemy part two. Excuse the typo. Once balanced, the neuromelanin, right, can be released in the brain in order to activate psychic abilities, okay, in the melanated woman and man. Now, let me break this down, right? Once the condalini energy, right, which is your spiritual energy travels all the way up 30 the 33 vertebrae in your spine. This also why masonry goes to 33° as well as metatron cube which I'll be breaking down towards the end of this lecture once the cooling energy comes all the way up the spine right it comes into contact with the pineal gland now this blue area you see here is the third ventricle of the brain and this green area you see here is known as the fourth ventricle of the brain right and this red area that you see here is known as the lateral ventricle we're going to be dealing with the third and fourth ventricles now once the neuromelanin nerve track right produces neuromelanin which is a liquidized state of melanin. It's literally it's like oil in your brain. So just like planet earth produces oil your brain produces a oily substance which is actually actually melanin in a liquid state but it needs somewhere to store it. So after your neuromelanin is produced by the neuromelanin nerve track in your brain it's stored in the third ventricle and the third ventricle is separated from the fourth ventricle by the pineal gland. So what happens is the kundalini energy comes up your spine and it pushes the pineal gland open right like a trap door and it separates the third from the fourth and your pineal gland begins to swell like the hood of a cobra. Okay, and the pituitary gland begins to flicker like the tongue of a cobra. And what happens is the neuromelanin goes from the third to the fourth ventricle and it stimulates the dipole antennas as I stated and it puts you in direct mental conception with the universe aka the all knowing and it gives you what is known as psychic abilities. Psychic phenomena is just when you're experiencing phenomena through your sixth sense. So your five physical senses help you to experience physical reality. Your pineal gland or your sixth sense helps you to experience spiritual reality. And that pineal gland is not activated until it's stimulated by neuromelanin. So this is why I gave it the analogy of saying being connected to the internet. A lot of motherfuckers pineal glands is not being stimulated. So that neuromelanin is not being released if it's even being created due to motherfuckers doing drugs and all kinds of things. So that being said, a lot of people running around here unconscious aka they don't have a connection to the cosmos. Aka they their biological computers which is their brain don't got no goddamn internet. So now why is this important? This is why the ancestors put the cobra on their head because once the kundalini energy comes up the spine stimulates the pineal gland the pineal gland swells like the hood of a cobra and the pituitary gland flickers like the tongue of a cobra. Hence they put the cobra on that pineal gland to let you know that they're in tune with the most high. Your spinal cord look just like a cobra standing up. Here's a cobra standing up. Now why is this important? The cobra is a spiritual symbol for inner strength. Now, why is the cobra a spiritual symbol for inner strength? Because it's the only animal on the planet that I know of, unless it's some shit that we ain't discovered yet or the ancestors didn't, you know, record, didn't feel the need to record it. So, that being said, as far as my research goes, the cobra is the only animal on the planet that can stand up and look you in your eye from 6 to 12 feet with no arms and no legs. So now if you want to understand how strong a cobra is, lay your ass on the ground and try to stand the fuck up with your arms and your legs tied behind your back. So once you understand how hard that is, you understand the actual inner strength of a cobra. So this is why the ancestors deemed the cobra a spiritual being. And whenever you see male pharaohs or male African Egyptians, the cobra on their head is always standing up and erect. Whenever you see a female deity, the cobra on ahead is always coming down. This is because men project energy and women digest energy. So you have to understand this is proof that African Egyptians practice mind alchemy. Okay? Because they left behind symbols and they wore uras. This is called a Ureas. And and and they uh left behind imagery to show you that they were in tune with higher continents of thought and that they and that they took an extreme level of importance in their mental health. And this is why they can build pyramids and niggas can't even tie their goddamn shoe. So with that being said, when the ancestors said know thyself, okay, they focused on thyself. They didn't say know Jesus Christ because he will make things better. They said know thyself cuz I will make things better. So God is you family and you have to understand this. All right. Proof African Egyptians practice mind alchemy part four. Right now you might say damn pharaoh why do you got hypoglyphics in here? Because remember I talked I told y'all about a balanced brain. Remember I told y'all about a balanced brain? Let me show you. Let me show you. Let me show you how real this get. Hieroglyphics were read as ideog holding entire stories in a single image stimulating the right hemisphere of the brain upon visual reception of the information. Now, why is this important? If you read a book, okay, right now, right, you go get you a James Patterson book, it's all words. It's all words. So now, why is this important? You're only stimulating the left hemisphere of your brain. you're not stimulating the right hemisphere of your brain which deals with imagery and creativity. So now the ancestors understood the importance of having a balanced brain. So what they did was they put the details of the story in an image. Why? Because the image right caused you to use the creative and image aspect of your right hemisphere of your brain as well as the left hemisphere of your brain to go get the detail. So your brain was being evenly stimulated when when receiving information. So as you can see when you look at hieroglyphics, these are not words or grammatical text. These are images. And when you go look up the definition of a hieroglyphic is going to tell you that it's an incomprehensible language made up of ideograms. And when you go look up an ideogram, it's going to tell you a phrase giving you a mental depiction void of a uh grammatical text, okay? Or or or phonetic expression. So that being said, a hieroglyphic is just a mental depiction giving you information void of a grammatical text or phonetic expression. So now, why is this important? When you look at the keer beetle, right, or the beetle in Egypt, right? And you see the sun on his head, right? And you see the wings rising up to get the sun, right? You might say, damn, what does this why did they use this as a symbol of I mean, what did they use this a symbol of? This actually the the keer beetle is symbolic to the sunrise. So, if you know anything about a beetle, right, you know that beetles go collect the dung in the field after the animals leave their manure and feces and they roll it into big balls. And then after they roll it into big balls, they leave their uh there their young in there, their larva in there, whatever you want to call it. And once their young leaves hatch, they have an immediate food supply available to them, which is the dung or the feces ball that they was born in. So they dug the beetles every morning and this is how they kept the fields clean after the animals pooped and did what they do naturally on the earth. So now the the the beetle rolling the big dung ball every morning, right? The ancestors took that and they use that as an allegory or or uh a metaphor for the sun rising every morning and becoming a big ball in the sky. So with that being said, when you look at this image, you don't just know that. You don't just know that. All you know is this is a beetle with some wings and a orange thing on the top. You don't even know that that's the sun. Somebody has to tell you the meaning behind this image or this idea aka an ideapho. So now why is this important? The image and the imagination I mean and the imagination skills that you have to use to understand this is stimulating the right hemisphere of your brain and then the science behind it that you need to use to analyze it is stimulating the left. So the ancestors use imagery, one single image to tell a whole goddamn story. And this stimulated your brain evenly. Now what what what western hemisphere does is they say fuck the image and we just going to give you the words. We not even going to give you a natural image because remember the image is something that you can actually see outside. You can see a dung beetle. So you were still connected to nature. What they gonna do is they created grammar and text and bullshit that we call vocabulary which takes you out of tune with nature and you have to literally read words that somebody made the fuck up and take their philosophy and understanding of it and get a incorrect mental stimulation just to learn. So we have to understand that the African Egyptians practiced mind alchemy and just by the way that they educated themselves and they carried themselves every day showed you that they were in tune with the practices of their mind. Period. Emotional alchemy. Okay. Emotion alchemy. We fa to get it in now. We fa to get it in now. This is a scale which determines and shows energy vibrations. So down here we have 20 which is shame, 30 which is feelings of guilt, 50 apathy, anger 150, boldness 200, 250 is neutral, 310 hertz these are all hertz frequencies 310 hertz is readiness 400 hertz is when you in your mind 500 hertz is when you in love uh 540 hertz is joy 700 plus hertz is when you become enlightened and this is all actually calculated by a branch of science called bioenergetics and biotuning. So that being said, let's let's break down emotional alchemy. Right? Emotions are frequency waves of energy which exist at certain levels of vibrations and are experienced as sensations upon one's perception of what it is they are experiencing. Western psychology causes the mind to identify with itself as the emotion instead of the experiencer of the emotion. Okay, let me break that down before I go any further. Right now, if I do something that somebody doesn't like, they'll say I'm mad or I'm angry. You're not your body, let alone anger. The correct term terminology is your actions are causing me to temporarily experience a frequency that we call anger or identify with that anger. But you can't be angry. But what happens is western psychology enslaves you to the experience instead of being the observer of the experience. So western psychology teaches you to say I am the body. I am the flesh. I am the anger. I am the negative shit. It teaches you to identify with yourself as being the problem instead of the person who is observing life in order to solve the problem. So we are talking about going from a lead to a gold state or a dull to a vibrant state. How the fuck you going to go from a dull to a vibrant state if just the way that you speak on your experience, you identifying with yourself as being a dull state? Period. So when you go to gold or vibrant, you understand that you can't ever be in a dull state. You're the experiencer of the dull state. So that's the difference between an alchemist and a dumbass entity running around this planet. Now, let me keep it moving. Right? Emotions cannot be experienced outside of certain vibratory spectrums just as colors cannot be viewed outside of certain light spectrums. Okay? This is known as colorology, which I'll go into in a minute. Vibratory spectrums are controlled by the heart which is shown later in this presentation. So now anybody that knows anything about the visible light spectrum knows that colors have to be at a certain frequency in order for you to see them. Emotions have to be at a certain hertz. You have to be at a certain hertz level in order to experience certain emotions. So that being said, your hertz level or your energetic vibratory biofield level is controlled by your heart. So in order to feel anger, your heart rate has to speed up. Okay? So if you can control your heart and your heart never speeds up, then it never produces the hormones that get kicked into the blood, which psychologically influence you to believe you're angry. So if you can stay in the delta or theta state mentally by controlling your respiratory system, aka your lungs, aka your breathing, aka your rhythm of breath, which I'm going to show you in a minute, you would never get angry. So you don't need anxiety pills. You don't need prescriptions. All you need is a proper breathing pattern and a new philosophy and perception on life and you are good to go. So we are talking about Buddhist monks. Once again, a Buddhist monk doesn't get angry. You know why? Cuz they have a different perspective and philosophy on life than you. So nine times out of 10, what's wrong with somebody is the way they think. If you change the way you think, you change the way your body reacts to what it is. This thing is what we call life. Phenomena. Phenomena by definition is anything that can be experienced through the five physical senses. Let's Colorology alchemy, right? Colorology by definition, okay, go look it up, is the psychological and biochemical response to the stimulation and vibration of colors. Okay, that's what colorology is. Now, with that being said, this is you. This is your chakra system, right? Now, your chakra system is the same color of the electromagnetic spectrum of the sun. Right? So, go look up the electromagnetic spectrum of the sun. I didn't have room to put it here, but you'll see it starts at red, it ends at purple, not the purple, it becomes gamma rays, and then it begins to condense into melanin uh at about 800 terz frequency above and above. And this is why we say melanin is condensed sunlight because it literally is. And this is why the Egyptians call themselves children of the sun. Now, with that being said, when you're when you're uh when you're like this is the pH scale, right? This is acidic food and this is what they call alkaline food and this is neutral. Now, what people who always, you know, so dietarily uh, you know, assertive on what you should and shouldn't be eating, what they begin to tell you is too much alkaline is bad. Too much acid is bad. You're supposed to be balanced. Just like energetically, trying to be too positive and be too cool is bad. Okay? Trying to be too evil and be too negative is bad. So, this is why they say too much of anything is bad. You're supposed to be balanced. Okay? Now, with that being said, I want y'all to look at the color coord uh coordination. Remember, colorology is the psychological and biochemical responses, right, to to the stimulation of the vibration of colors. So, red is your lower self. Green is love. This is your neutral. And then purple is your higher self. PH stands for potential of hydrogen, right? Because your body is made up of hydrogen and everything you eat alters your hydro your uh hydronized state. So that being said, if you eat acidic food is red. If you b have a balanced diet, you're green. And if you eat too much alkaline, you're in a purple. Same color as the chakras. Now, why is this important? The the uh the pH scale, right? Or your dietary stance, okay, is the color of your chakras. What you eat tells you what aspect of your being you're in. So when you eat meat and you eat too much bad foods, you begin to act like an animal. And this is why they say you're living on the animal plane. So this is why if you go look up statistics, you don't see vegans on trial for murder. You ain't never seen a nigga eat a smoothie and eat a salad and go shoot 20 motherfuckers with a chopper, but you see niggas who eat meat do. You know why? Because meat puts you in a certain frequency. Now, we're not going to condemn the frequency because sometimes you need the warrior frequency, but too much of the goddamn frequency is bad. So you got niggas growing up in the inner cities and everything they eat is keeping them here. And this is this determines your level of consciousness because your brain pulls frequency out of the chakra that you use the most. So if all you do is live down here, this is all that's influencing you psychologically. Remember colorology is what? The psychological and biochemical response to the stimulation and vibration of colors. When you pull up to a red light, right? Red means stop. Now you know why you stop?

Because psychologically something is telling you if you keep going, something bad is going to happen to you. When you bleed, blood is what? Red. You're not supposed to bleed. So, if you're bleeding, that means something bad has happened to you. So, psychologically, you identify with the color red as something being bad. In the Bible, they they uh when they when they created that fictitious entity that we call the devil in the Bible, what color do they make them? Red. When you watch a scary ass movie, what color do the eyes of the monster always be? Red. Okay. So, the color red we identify with psychologically as bad. And then the color yellow, right? We psychologically identify with that as as as being okay or intermediate. Okay? And then the color green is the color of love. And this is why everything in nature that is green is always uh life producing. Grass, trees, vegetation. We love summertime cuz it's green. When if you was to get off a goddamn boat and go to a beautiful green island, you would feel good and relaxed because the color green stimulates love. And this is why green means go. Yellow means I'm unsure. And red means your ass better stop. And when you look at the goddamn the power of the goddamn I mean when you look at the continent of your body, green is love. Color means I'm unsure. Red means I'm in my lower self. Now let's go to food. Let's go to fast food restaurants, right? If you look up every fast food restaurant, right? I just got a few here, they all use the colors red, yellow, and orange. Look at this. Red, yellow, and orange inside of your being. Now, why is this important? It is a psychological fact. You can go ask any psychologist. If y'all don't think this shit is official, go look this shit up yourself. The colors red, yellow, and orange make you hungry. They identify with hunger. Now, why is this important? This is why fast food restaurants use all their logos in the color red, yellow, and orange. Look at McDonald's, red, yellow. Popeye's red, yellow. El Poo Loco, red, yellow. Sonic, red, yellow. Burger King, red, yellow. Wendy's, red, yellow. Pizza Hut, red, yellow. Red, yellow, red, yellow. This is because when you look at them, not only does the name brand have a psychological subliminal effect on you through the commercial, the colors alone stimulate hunger. So this is why you drive past shit and you say, "Damn, I'm about to get me some of that. I'm hungry and you ain't even hungry for real. You're not even hungry." And this is why people in America is so goddamn overweight because we're being tricked into believing that we're hungrier than we really are. So this is called colorology alchemy because you have to take yourself from a dull state to a vibrant state. You have to get out of the goddamn the the the matrix or the elusiatory state right of color that's being used against you and perform alchemy and go from a lead to a gold. You have to transcend this misunderstanding that is being placed upon you by western psychology. Let's keep it kicking. Colorology alchemy part two, right? boring verse vibratory spaces. You know why you when you go to work, you be bored as a motherfucker and you be tired? You know when you go to work and you be tired as hell and you be like, "Damn, I'm when I go home, I just want to go to sleep." And then you walk out that motherfucker and you don't even be tired no more. You know why? Literally because the color of your job. This is dull. This is plain. This is why work offices use colors like white, tan, beige, because they don't stimulate excitement psychologically. Do you know why children's kindergarten rooms and children's classrooms have all colors of the chakras? Because they stimulate color and excitement in life. So if your job was the color of this goddamn classroom, you actually probably might enjoy going to work. This is why when you go to the club, it's always black. the lights are out, but then they always flash micro lights that are the colors of the chakras because this is mimicking the universe. The universe is black and everything in it is composed of the visible light spectrum, which is the colors starting at red and ending at purple. So, that being said, the reason people like the club and go out and party is because the colors are psychologically stimulating their frequency.

All shapes of all dimensions are formed out of a collection of circles known as the flower of life which you see right here on the left in pink. All things including non-tangible manifestations such as emotions, thoughts, music, etc. also come from this blueprint. This process will be fully shown slash explained in the following slides. So you see the flower of life over here but you might not know what this is. This is Metatron's cube. So if you don't know the flower of life becomes Metatron's cube. So this is actually incomplete. Okay. and then the circle or the the circumference or the border around it is actually a seal that was placed on it to actually stop the process of the flower of life from becoming Metatron's cube. So we talk about alchemy going from a lead to a gold. This is the basic lead state and this is the advanced gold state. So alchemy and sacred geometry go hand in hand and are one and the same. So with that being said, let me let me break this down. Don't worry family. I'm going to explain how the seal is placed, how it comes off, and everything. You'll have a full understanding. I'm just giving you a little more juice earlier than uh opposed to waiting uh till later for you to get it. So, now let's jump into this. Right. The flower of life. The flower of life is the universal blueprint by the universal architect or creator that you want to call God, whatever you want to call it, right? to create what is known I mean to create what it is that we have come to identify with as reality/realities. This is the template the universe created in order to infinitely create from its own self in order to experience itself in infinite ways. All things are one because they are all interconnected from this one source. The ancient African Egyptians documented the flower of life, but it has been found all around the world since ancient times. It has been found in places such as Egypt, Ireland, Turkey, Israel, China, Greece, Germany, India, Iceland, England, Tibet, Japan, Sweden, Latland, Yucatan, etc. This is a depiction of the flower of life, two of them in Egypt on what is known as the Assyrian temple. So this shows you that the Egyptians were familiar not with this symbol but the science of it as well as they had the capacity to create this symbol in its perfected state. This is a perfect circle. Two actually three. One, two, three. So that being said, we knew I mean we know that ancient Africans knew all of the science that I'm going to reintroduce to our consciousness. Period. Period. Not up for debate. Not up for debate. Not enough for debate. Here we go. Why the initial circle was formed? Right? So when we even talking about the flower of life, we have to ask ourselves what the fuck is the flower of life in regards to consciousness and why was the initial circle formed? So let's break it down, right family? Let's go into it. Okay. The initial or first circle in the flower of life was created because energy cannot become set in motion within a void. A void is what? Space without dimensions due to lack of gravity which is initially created by electricity and magnetism which is light. Because when electricity and magnetism come together they create light. So now let me break this down right. Science wants you to believe that the universe was accidentally created during the big bang theory. That's a complete lie. The universe is actually intellectually was actually intellectually calculated and created and is still being uh intellectually uh created today. This is why they say the universe is constantly expanding. So the big bang theory is exactly what it is. It's a lion ass theory just like that lion ass evolution theory. So if the ancestors and the Egyptians put the flower of life on the wall that mean that they understood that the universe was intellectually created by a higher level of consciousness and it wasn't an accident. So with that being said, throw the Big Bang theory in the garbage. Now with that being said, this right this eye right right here that you see right this eye of horse right here is symbolic to consciousness. And the black that you see behind it is symbolic to space. Now what happened was consciousness said you know what I want to become physical and I want to take on a physical form in order in order to experience myself as well as not just the whole but from individual aspects of my own self with a different perception. So with that being said, in order for the universe to do this, it had to create a space to do this. Now anybody who draws know knows that you have to create space by creating dimensions. One line is one dimension, two lines is two dimensions, three lines is three dimensions, four lines is four dimensions, five lines is five dimensions. So if you play a old Super Mario game or Sonic the Hedgehog game, you know that that's only two dimensions because there's only two perspectives. A dimension is just a perspective. So right here in a void, a void is what? Consciousness without a perspective to observe its own self. So what the universe did was it said hold on let me create a perspective so that I can observe myself. So what it did was it created the first initial circle within the flower of life that we getting ready to witness now. So this is it right here. Right? You see consciousness projecting energy out in all directions. Okay? That's what it did. Now after it did that right this consciousness moves to a 90° point on this circle right that it just created and it duplicates the action that it just did the first time right this is how the second circle is formed in the flower of life at this stage what is known as the viscopiscus is formed okay this is where radio and sound waves are formed at this is masonically recorded in the bible on what They called it second day where they said God let there be light. Light is what? Electricity and magnetism. Radio waves are what? Electrical signals carrying voice and sound messages. The Bible means holy Bible. Holy in Greek means helios. Bible in Greek means biblios. Helios means sun. Biblios means book. So when they say God in the Bible said let there be light, they're talking about on the second day, they're talking about the second stage of consciousness in the universe where the universe actually started to create the sun. So after it created a dimension, it moved 90 degrees to the outside or extremity of the first circumference of the circle and then it duplicated what it did the first time as you can see here and it created a womb which you see right here where electricity and magnetism came together to form light. This is called the bisopiscus. This is the first vagina ever formed in the history of history as we know history to be. So that being said in math class they show you the biscopiscus but they don't tell you what it really is. So when you in school and you see this, they tell you put the good over here, put the bad over here, and then put the similarities in the middle. That ain't got this diagram ain't got shit to do with no good, bad, and similarities at all. This diagram is showing you the first vagina ever that created the sunlight. Okay, this is this is why you say I'm having a son when you're a female and you're pregnant with a masculine form. Okay, this diagram is showing you this. Okay, this is the blueprint of all creation. Everything comes out of the womb. This was the first womb ever. Okay? And these circles are nothing more than what science calls celestial light. Some of us call it astrolite. Okay? And some of us call it the electromagnetic field. This is electromagnetic radiation being calculated. Okay? Aka electronics. Electronics is the intellectual uh manipulation of electrons. So this is the first form of electronics which is celestial electronics, the creation of light. Now with that being said, the visapiscus is a symbol right formed from two circles of the same radius intersecting in such a way that the center of each circle lies on the circumference of the other. This is also the universal uh the universal of two I mean the universal creation of two-dimensional reality. This is where two-dimensional reality is formed. Also known as the matrix, right? Which is the universal womb, right? Which eventually goes on to become the physical womb of the black woman and can be found anywhere in nature, which is shown in the next slide. So that being said, when we say the matrix, right, when you look up the definition of matrix, which I have right here, it says what? An environment or material in which something develops a surrounding medium or structure. When you go to the etymological roots of the word nature which I have right here, matrix means womb. Okay, in middle English and in Latin it means breeding female and then also in Latin it means uh mother which means mother. So the word matrix literally means mother womb and breeding female. Okay. So that being said, this is the original matrix. This is what occult practitioners and masons are energetically using to manipulate you out of interacting with. So when you downgrade females and you degrade female energy, you are shitting on the universe that created your funky ass. So with that being said, we have to understand this by using or having an unbalanced hemisphere of the brain, we're not fully in tune with the with the with the true matrix, which is the cosmos. Period. Period. Period. So when people talking about God and I'm in tune with God, if you're not in tune with this aspect of creation, you're not in tune with God. Period. Let's keep it moving now. Bicapiscus part two. Here we go. You see the vagina, you see the bicapiscus, you see fruits, you see strawberries, you see seeds. Okay. Everything that gives birth in the universe will always have a signature. And that signature will be the visapiscus. If it don't got a physicaliscus, okay, it's not a bearer of light as well as melanin. Okay, because all of these fruits have melanin. There are neanderthal organisms on this planet who lack neuromelanin and give I to biologically dead organisms. Okay? So just because it's walking around does not mean that it's truly living. If it can't interact with the light frequency or radio frequency that created it, then it's not of this origin. So if the universe use sunlight to create physical reality out of a matrix a matrix womb and things are on this planet can't interact and digest the sunlight out of the womb that created this planet then it is not of that universal origin. So we need to get that shit out the way before we go any further. This is a melanated source of cosmic essence. If you are not melanated, you don't come out of this womb. Now, I don't know what womb you come out of because you come out of a genetically engineered womb. But if don't nobody want to believe that, fuck it. I don't care what you believe. Just don't say you came out of this one cuz you don't. Now, that being said, this symbol is found in all manifestations which bring forth life. The universe is a giant female and the physical episcus is her womb. Period. Now, let's keep it kicking now, right? Let's keep it kicking. Let's keep it kicking. The flower of life is formed. How the flower of life is formed. Part three, the holy trinity, right? Third, We just went through the first two stages. Now we coming to the third. The consciousness of the creator, right? Forms a third circle by moving exactly 30° , right? Or one radius from the previous circle, which was the second circle during the biciscus stage. And you see this going on right here in which it just formed. This stage is known as the first ever holy trinity. Okay. Okay. So, you see the physical episcus, right? And then you see the uh the consciousness of the creator move away. Now, we going to go to the holy trinity, right? So, the visical episcus was created, right? And then it moved 30° away and it began to form the holy trinity. Now, the above process from this point is repeated four more times, right? Until there are now seven circles creating what is known as the seed of life, which is shown in the next slides. These next four circles right are created according to a new rule put in place by the consciousness of the creator, this new rule being to only create circles at the innermost circle points of each other circles before projecting consciousness. This rule doesn't apply to the first two circles aka the physicaliscus stage because at that stage all points were identical. This new rule provides perfection in the ongoing creation process and avoids chaos. So, that being said, you just synced it, family. I'mma try to see if I can hit it again for y'all. But, you just synced it. Let me go back and I'mma play it again for y'all one more time so y'all can see it. So, consciousness moves. Okay. Consciousness moves. I'mma go back for y'all to see it move. Do what it do. Hold on. Videos is automated. They want to act a little slow today. All right, it's coming back now. All right, here we go. So, with that being said, oh, it's acting great. All right, fuck it. PowerPoint want to act up. But with that being said, at this stage, okay, after the three initial circles are created, so you got the physical piscus and then this chalk chooses to move 30 degrees uh in the direction that it move. Okay, at this stage, then it goes on to create seven more circles which go on to create the what they call the seed of life, right? So the seed of life is the stepping stone to creating the flower of life. So now with that being said, the seed of life is formed from the first seven circles of creation which eventually go on to become the flower of life. It forms what can be referred to as a six petal flower or star in the center. The flower or star was represented by the ancients using the lotus flower recorded today by masons and Jews as the star of David. So when you see the star of David, they're talking about the flower of life. Okay? Now you see these seven circles, right? Seven circles, seven chakras, Fibonacci sequence 1.618 equals 7 when you add it up. This is why they say seven is the number of God because seven is the numerical order and principle to which the universe builds itself upon its own self. So now we say all things are interconnected, right? This was the initial circle, but then it moved out here and it made this circle, but then it moved over here and it made this circle, but then it moved over here and it moved over here and it moved over here and it moved over here. So now we talking about being truly conscious and understand that all things melanated are interconnected, right? This circle is you and this circle is me and we're all interconnected by other circles. So this is you. This is me. This is a tree. This is a snake. This is a rat. This is an apple. This is the earth. This is the air. This is the solar system, etc. How much of a goddamn fool are you to think that we are other than each other? So when you fight and you bicker like a dumbass nigga over dumbass nigga shit and you think you a blood, you think you a crip, you think you all of these things, you have psychologically detached yourself from the knowledge of an alchemist and you now underneath the guise of western psychology believe that you are other than each other. Imagine if these circles said, "I'm not a circle. I'm not a circle. You're not a circle. I'm a blood. I'm a let's go to war. I'm this. I'm that. I'm this. I'm that." How ignorant would this be? See, we talking about microscopic and macroscopic. All of these individual circles make up one big circle. All of the parts of your body make up your whole body. So, with that being said, what we have to understand is everything is energetically interconnected. Okay? And this energy uses atoms to physically permeate itself so that it can have an experience. So we have to understand the true science of interconnection between I mean when we talking about alchemy and we talking about the seed of life the seed of life is the first developing stage towards the flower of life right which creates this six-pointed petal in the middle that we can call a lotus flower the star of David the seed whatever you want to call it so this is the first stage

Now, first of all, we need to understand how space uh or or how empty space is technically not empty and how it has this etheric energy or this eth realm that people love to speak on all the time. All right. And uh we also want to go into the understanding of why they call it nine ether. Nine is just spiraling up. Six is just spiraling down. And so excuse me we understand that everything in the universe consists of a mathematical sequence of 1.618 the Fibonacci sequence go to ratio which creates everything uh according to a right angle which causes it to spiral up. So we call it nine ether aka ascension from this anatomical subp particle or metaphysical uh plane of existence. Everything extends and expands out of that. That's why they call it nine ether. And so that being said let's jump into it. Empty space. Space is made up of what? Atoms. Okay. Now, most people know what's called the fundamental template of an atom. Okay? Which is protons, neutrons, electrons. Remember that protons and neutrons are in the nucleus, aka the middle of an atom. Uh then you have the electrons that are on the outside. Now, all of these fundamental uh properties of an atom have more sub uh subcategories. So, electrons for example belong to a group of particles called leptons. Okay? And leptons are made up of electrons, okay, muons and uh tiles, taus. And so all of these particles have uh a negative one anatomical I mean a negative one uh electrical charge and they're considered uh neutrinos. Okay, a neutrino is a particle of anatomical structure which has a nearly 0% mass. And so they will be categorized as electron neutrinos, muon neutrinos and talon neutrinos. Then protons and neutrons are made up of I mean belong I mean excuse me belong are made up of quarks. But we have to understand how we get the quarks. Protons and neutrons belong to a category of particles known as baryons. Baryons uh are comprised of a category of particles uh categorized as mesons and mesons make up a category of particles known as hadrons and then hadrons are made up of particles that we know as quarks and so when you people talking about quarks and things like that just know they skipped about two three other subatomic particle categories which even leads to quarks now I'm not going to go fully into the detailed categories of uh baryons mesons and hadrons because this will be a whole another video. But, uh, I'll come back to that in in a later video where I go into detail. I might even do a PAU on it, but I'm not going to do that now. I'm just giving y'all the branches. And so, all of these different compartments of particles make up different aspects of an atom. Now, why is this important? We want to talk about empty space. Okay? Energy exists in space. You hear about 0 point energy and all of this energy being created in the center of an atom. This is how in the compartment of an atom known as hadron I mean in the hadron particle compartment of an atom where the protons and neutrons exist aka the quarks. Okay, quarks and gluons are what you consider shortly particles. Okay, they're they're constantly uh reacting to each other and discharging each other and creating fluctuations of energy. Now on top of that uh quarks are moving at uh if not almost close to the speed of light. Now this is important when you mathematically take into consideration the size of the volume in which so much force is being generated. For example, if I was to run 100 miles hour on a football field, it's not equivalent to if I was to run 100 miles hour from this side of this uh banner to that side of this banner. And so that being said, we have to understand the amount of force that's being generated in such a small space. Okay? And so all of this frequency is being generated in such a small in such a small small space which is a atom. Okay? By the interaction of gluons and quarks as well as the movement of gluons. Here we have all of all of this uh energy being emitted which is being caused by these fluctuations. Okay? as well as the frequency and energies being emitted being emitted by the electrons. And so this is what we call the atheric realm or the nine ether realm because from this energetic blueprint, okay, from this flower of life template is where all physical uh reality is being ascended into existence. So once again, 9 ether spiral up 1.618. And so with that being said, boom, now we got all of this energy being fluctuated across the universe. Okay. And you have the ability to electromagnetically attract this energy. So all of this energy that's coming from this metaphysical or or or uh subatomical uh I mean excuse me subatomically physical template okay is being manifested into physical reality through what you call the four fun and is creating what you call the four fundamental forces of nature which is uh electromagnet excuse me electromagnetism gravity or gravitational uh force and then strong and weak forces or pulls and so from these four four fundamental forces of nature, we get physical reality. And so this is how things are spiraling into existence just off the movement of one atom. Okay? Just off the existence of one atom. And then you take this atom and you duplicate it by the infinite amount of atoms that make up the infinite amount of everything that we see. And now you see the abundance of energy even just in the atmosphere. Oxygen atoms as as as I'm just waving my arms around and I can feel the wind and the breeze. All of this energy is available to me. And so what you have the ability to do is harness this energy, draw this energy to you. This is why they call oxygen the life force. Because through oxygen and through your breath, you are able to breathe in atoms, okay, through the oxygen molecule and harness this electromagnetic energy, okay, directly from inside your vessel and through your respiratory system, distribute these electromagnetic forces throughout your body. And so this is why it's important to keep your air purified, okay, and non-toxic as well as water as well. So anything that you digest, okay, whether it be food or whatever, but specifically I'm talking about oxygen, okay? Because we breathe 100% of our life until we die. And so that being said, when we talking about manifesting things or pulling things out of the ether, okay, atoms are computed by consciousness. I've done plenty videos where I broke down how bofotons and other subatomic particles recompute reality to the internal frequency of the observer. Okay? And so what's happening is you are pulling out of the universe or creating within the universe somewhere you may not even be conscious of the construct of the energy that you wish to harness. Okay? And so there's not anything on the planet earth that you can't manifest whether it be angelic or demonic. And the construct of the energy that's I mean and the construct of how the energy is being manipulated or guided by the entity all depends on the intent of the entity. So when we talking about once again the science of empty space and nine ether okay and pulling things out of this etheric realm understand that we are physically here within this vessel from the same forces that I just broke down. And so you have what you call spiritual beings, deities, interdimensional deities, extraterrestrials, whatever you want to call them. You have entities who specifically exist on this plane of consciousness. Meaning they have not uh computed and and and created a physical vessel. So they still exist as an electromagnetic frequency of consciousness which you can channel just like a radio wave. Okay? I don't got to see you to call you on my phone. So your body is able to channel radio waves, okay? and download radio waves. They've did brain scales with people who do channeling. You get your brain to the delta state. You can channel electromagnetic frequencies and your brain can can compute the message from the sender. And so that being said, there's an entire realm of space which you can compute, channel, receive information from, send information out. Okay? And so even praying, even though we know there's no God, when you meditate, okay? Because praying is when you ask a non-existent energy to do something for you. Meditation is when you say, "I'm going to channel the energy from this realm, okay, into my mind and gather up the measurement of strength that I need to do what it is I need to do for myself." So even when you meditate, okay, or you doing whatever you do with your spiritual deities or your ancestors or whoever you talk to, okay, excuse me, you're talking to that, you're talking to them on that plane, on the etheric plane, aka the empty space plane, aka on a in a in a scientific uh realm, the realm of quarks, hydrons, etc., okay? Leptons when it come to electrons. And you're trying to get these energies to reconstruct themselves into the manner that you wish. And so that being said, understand that there is a science behind everything that our ancestors have done on this planet since they've been done since they've been on this planet doing it. And so it's old information, but it's new to you because it's being reintroduced to you at a new aspect of your current incarnation. And so we have to understand that your reality in this current time as far as your individual life goes is your fault. Is your fault. And so you have the ability to pull into your life what it is you want, just like you have the ability to get rid of out of your life what it is you want. What determines the way you use your free will to commit to any one of those potential actions that I just described is your ability to deal with your own intelligence and your own emotions in a mature and healthy manner as well as what is best for not only you but all other organisms and realities that surround you. And so with that being said, family, I hope this video was extremely helpful to those of you who not only need to understand that this energy does exist, but that you can harness this energy. And so if you follow me family and you watch this channel, you know I've done plenty videos on how you can download frequencies out of the universe, dipole antennas, which is located within the internal external layers of your skull that allow you to channel uh frequencies from the solar system, etc. So I don't have to go into all that right now, but right now I wanted to mainly focus on the science of the nine of the nine ether realm and how that energy is actually created through flu fluctuational interactions between quarks and gluons which emit this unseen energy out in the universe. And so when you get bad vibes or you walk in, let me give you an example. If I walk into a room and I get a bad vibe, okay, that's the and you say, "Damn, my spirit talking to me." Spirit spiral. Okay, nine ether. That's your atomic self. You don't just feel things physically. You feel things electromagnetically first. Okay? And technically, just like I said in my other two videos, atoms are 90% space, 10% physical. So technically, even though my hands are doing this, they're not even touching. So what you're doing, what you're feeling is the electrons, okay? as well as the quarks and gluons within the atoms that are existing within your physical environment that you are currently in reconstructing and rearranging yourself and rearranging themselves due to the influence of the negative frequency of whatever it is outside of you that's interacting with your aura aka your biofield. Okay? And so that being said, that's what a bad vibe is. So the universe is always speaking to you. It's always warning you. It's harmonious. It's a symphony. It's an orchestra and if you're not a spiritual musician as I will call it in this case, you'll never know when you're out of tune. And some people don't know that they're out of tune so much that they live their entire life off key and then wonder why their life was not the song that they wanted to write. And with that being said, family, understand the science of the abundance of the universe that is available to you and utilize it for the good of mankind because we have enough people that are trying to utilize it for the evil of their own imaginations that they have failed to victim to. And with that being said, I love y'all. Peace.

Topic - Science of the Mind family. This video right here is about the science of a sound mind. Okay, now let's just get right into it. Okay, what is sound? Sound is a electromagnetic frequency that carries information. Every everything makes a sound. Excuse me. Everything makes a sound whether you can hear it or not. Your ears are only designed to hear within a certain range of sound frequency. But that doesn't mean things don't make sound. You can't hear the sun. You can't hear the the spheres in the in the in the solar system, but they make a sound. Okay, people say if a tree fall in the in the forest and you don't hear it, did it make it? Yes, it made a sound. And and and this is where feeling comes in because I might can't hear it, but I can still feel it. And so emotions are sounds. What are they? This is where telepathy comes in. Huh? I'm say I'mma give you one more Jew before I get back on my point because I'm I'm I'm stepping on the side to give you a Jew to unlock your power. Emotions are sounds. They're messages. It's up to you to decode the message and digest the information. Huh? Telepathy is not something you do with your mind. It's something you do with your heart and then process in your mind. But I'm going to leave it right there. And coming back to one point, right? Everything makes a sound. Animals, trees, air, um, everything, this camera, the desk, if it vibrates, it makes a sound. It's up to you to be able to bioenergetically absorb that frequency and see what it's telling you. So the reason some people don't know how to listen is cuz they don't know how to hear. And the reason that somebody don't know how to that some people don't know how to hear is cuz they don't know how to listen. And so that being said, you have one sense, not five. You have one your electromagnetic field. Everything has to touch you before you process that data. Oxygen molecules, gases have to touch your nasal uh your nasal passageways and your nasal hairs before your brain calculates smell. Taste. A physical atom has to touch your touch your tongue in order for you to process taste. Hearing sound waves have to go into your eardrum and touch your touch the bones in your ears and touch your skull for your skeleton to process sound. Light, eyes, photons have to hit your retina and be converted into electrical signals and sent to the back of the brain into the section of the brain that deals with optical vision. Then your brain has to process those signals and then refract that signal back out for you to process vision. So without being touched, you cannot have any sense of sense. So I'm sorry once again, no disrespect to white people, but I'm sorry that white people lied to you. Okay? There's really only one sense, but which is your mind, which is your your electromagnetic field and and this is an understanding we had before we were univilized by univilized people who told us they were civilizing us. But coming back on point, right, dealing dealing back with the science of a sound mind, sound is internal and external. Okay? Now you might say, "Phero, why are you always talking about internal and external?" The internal is something that a specific group of people don't don't talk about because from my personal studies, they don't possess an internal. But that's just my personal studies and opinions and I'll debate that with anybody. But to each his own. So I'm going just keep it universal. The internal is important because the internal part of yourself is the part of yourself that you produce. It's the part of yourself that you self-sufficient that where you supposed to be self-sufficient. So for example, externally we looking for love, right? But if we never get that love, yes, it's going to affect us because every cause has an effect, but it should never affect us to the point where we destroy because we should have been giving ourself love the whole goddamn time. Externally, yes, it's nice if somebody else thinks for you. But if nobody else thinks for you, you shouldn't become a idiotic moron cuz internally you should have been thinking for yourself the whole time. So there is a duality to reality at all times. It's the world you live in and then it's the world outside you that we all live in and that we all create from universal projections of the worlds that we all live in and may the greatest world win and may the greatest mind win. And with that being said, let's come back to the science of being mentally sound. Right? Why are you not sound? And I'm writing a I'm writing I'm writing a lot of book. I mean I'm writing a book. I'm about to put it's about to be the hardest psychology book in the world. So I won't go too too deep. And Feral Island University should be done if not this week, next week. and we taking off. So, I'mma say this, right? Remember when you used to go to the doctor and they say, "Are you mentally sound?" They don't say that no one. You know why? Cuz sound determines health. If your body is not in a proper harmonic pitch, you're not healthy. If your brain falls below 72 mehz frequency, the specific sound waves of your brain, you're not mentally healthy. So, your body is nothing but a song that is either in tune or out of tune with its own self. Period. Now, you might say, why is this important? Right? Let's put ourselves through a process. I don't know where you live. So, apply this to whoever you are as an individual. You wake up in the morning, right? And you get out of bed. What do you hear? What do you hear? You hear two things. You hear what the whatever is going on in your mind and then you hear whatever is being placed into your mind. So you hear the internal sounds of that you that you creating in your own mind and then you hear the external sounds that other people are creating outside of their own minds that you are experiencing. So now why is this important right? It's a million people that you heard your whole life whether you realize it or not. Let's let me give you an example. If you walk through the mall you're not really focused on other conversations. So it all just sounds like ah and it just sounds like a bunch of noise a wall of noise. But if you be quiet and you focus on a conversation, you can tune in. So now, why is this important? Your subconscious mind has been tuning into people's voices your whole life. However old you are, guess how many conversations you've heard? Now, here's the question. Who you listening to? Who has captured your mind to the point where you no longer listen to the conversation you you should be having with your own self? Who is guiding you? Because the only person you should ever be really following in in ser in all seriousness is you. Who you listening to? Who who gave you that bad advice that you've been following for 10 15 years? Your mama probably. Your dad probably. The nigga up the street probably. Huh? Your friend that's really a hater, but you don't see it cuz you don't you don't cuz you're not paying attention to the person you that will be able to see that. Probably. So, we have to ask ourselves who are you listening to? And depending upon your answer, from this point on, you ain't been mentally sound. And I said this on Instagram. I'mma say it again right now. If you are listening to any other voice besides the one that's outside your head, you are crazy. Period. I don't want to hear it. I don't I'm not arguing with you. And and I'm not saying that if you tell yourself 1 plus 1 is three and I'm saying 1 plus 1 is two, then I'm crazy. No, I'm not. Let's be Let's be logical here. Let's be adults. Math is math. Science. I'm not talking about that. Let's be mature adults here. Where you want to go, the person you supposed to become, the part of yourself that's your job, your duty, your responsibility. That couldn't nobody else take on that responsibility if we wanted to, cuz that's your job. That's what you supposed to do with the free with your own free will. That's the part of yourself I'm talking about. Who is that part of yourself listening to? If that part of yourself is allowing somebody else or something else to tell it what to become, you crazy. Period. I'm not arguing with you about that. Period. Period. If you telling yourself when I grow up or I am growing up and this is the person I want to become and you allowing rappers, NBA players, football players, and all of these other people to steer you in another direction, you allowing white politicians that we've never met a day in our life to steer you in another direction. Nigga, you crazy. And you in the and you in the matrix and and you so far in the matrix, the matrix didn't even think you would be that far within it. So, with that being said, you have an inner voice and you have outer voices. Whose voice is the loudest in your life? The voice in your head shall always be the loudest in your life until another voice that come another voice or soundwave comes along and ascends you even more. A more intelligent louder voice. Huh? A more intelligent wiser voice. Huh? That doesn't come take your power but gives you power to become a more intelligent, wiser, louder voice. See where I'm going with this? So this is the whole understanding and science of being mentally sound. A lot of y'all lives are chaotic because your mind is chaotic. Now, you might say, "Fro, why is this important?" This is why y'all don't want to deal with reality. And this is why a lot of y'all are out of your minds. Because you're being driven out of your mind. You know why you you know how you being driven out of your mind? Cuz you not the one driving your mind. Huh? Let me give you an example. Invaders. An invader can drive you out of your village. Huh? because there's too many of them. If it's 50 of us and we see a thousand people coming, we got to dip. We got to retreat. Let them have it. We got to go set up shop. So, so we got driven out of our home. Your mind is the only place that you truly live. And you being driven out of your mind because it's being invaded by constant sounds and voices of other people that you don't know, never met, never want to see, don't care about you, don't love you, don't have no positive interest in or intentions for you, but they constantly sending you messages and you constantly listening. And now you getting 50 thou imagine your phone, right? Imagine if you got 50,000 messages every 5 minutes to your phone. You would have to put your phone down and go get a new You wouldn't even be able to use it because it's getting too many messages. How can you use your mind when you getting all of these goddamn messages your whole life? Huh? Especially if you black. Especially if you black. I ain't got to go there. You know exactly what I'm Especially if you black. How can you use your mind if you being driven out this motherfucker? You ain't never You don't even got time to think. And then when you do got time to think, it's a million people in your air. Friends, family, TV, music, neighbors, school, bot bot, police, end of the world, co bullshit, all kind. What? How can you use your So you're being driven crazy. Huh? Don't believe me? Go at home. Go home. If you're not home watching this, get five different speakers. Turn on five different motherfucking songs. And don't even just do hip-hop. cut on hip-hop, country, rock, heavy motherfucking rock and pick another one and see what happens to your mind. You're gonna say, "Damn, that's I can't even think. I can't even think." That's what's happening to your real life. But you want to know the difference? You grew up in an environment where you could not think. So, you learn how to exist without your mind, without your voice. You don't have a voice. See, when people say it's important to have a voice, the voice is the one in your head. You ain't got to I don't have to say nothing to nobody as long as I know what's going on in my mind. So, you grew up in an environment where you never use something because you never seen the value of it cuz you never seen it cuz you was driven out of it from the gate. But right now, if you do that, you'll say, "Damn, I I need I can't even think." But you don't realize that the same position you putting yourself in now with that experiment is the same position you was born into your whole life. You was born into chaos. You was born into frequency overload on your brain. Soon as you come out the womb, shit just sending you messages in your mind. And now you being driven out of your mind. And you don't want to face reality because you can't make what? What? Sense of it. You can't make sense of it. You can't make sense of how you think because you can't make sense of how you feel cuz you don't realize like I said years ago your heart talk to your brain. Your brain don't talk to your heart. It's called neurocardiology. This why the Egyptians weigh the heart. Huh? The state the state that the state of emotion that you in is the state of thought that you in. And what you feel like determines what you think like. When you angry, you think different versus if you happy. Huh? Huh? So, it's a different side of yourself when you're angry versus the side of yourself that comes out when you're happy. So, let's take that understanding and apply it. Your whole life, you've been being overwhelmed and overloaded with messages, aka feelings, aka emot excuse me, emotions. And these messages and emotions are physical frequencies. They actually exist. And you might say, "Frea, why is this important?" By you not dealing with them, guess what happens? They get tangled up and they get all caught up and they get all strung up and now this right here was anger, but anger got twixed into happiness and then that got twisted in and next thing you know, you got a big ass yon ball in your heart of 20 years worth of shit that you don't want to deal with because you don't want to even deal with your mind because every time you try, you can't make sense of it. So, this is why it's time to start unraveling yourself. This is why it's time to tell people, "Shut the fuck up. back up and give me time to think and let me ask myself, why am I angry? Oh, that's not no legitimate shit to be angry about. Let me let that go. That's one piece of yarn. Damn, why am I happy? This ain't really no shit to be happy about. This is stupid. Well, let me let that go. Oh, why am I Why am I Why am I this way? Oh, this ain't really no way to behave. They lied to me. Let me let that go. And you got to start unraveling the yarn that's in your heart so you can start unraveling the shit that's in your mind. And then once you get all of these feelings out of your heart, you'll get all of the sounds out of your mind. And then you'll come back to the genuine feeling that you are supposed to have. I don't know who the fuck you are, but I know that it's some is something in you that's genuinely supposed to be there. And it's something in you that's genuinely not. And you got to get rid of the shit that's genuinely not supposed to be there. And find what's genuinely supposed to be there. And when you find what's genuinely supposed to be in your heart on my life, you gonna find your superpower. And that shit gonna activate your mind. And that sound is going to become so loud in your mind. And that voice, that ancestral voice is going to be channeling so loud in your mind that now when other sounds come, you'll process them for what they are and let them go. And so that being said, I hope that this video um has influenced you to seek a sound mind. Nothing more, nothing less. And with that being said, I love y'all. Peace.

Topic - DMT possible Gateway to Higher States of consciousness

We're going to break down what DMT is. DMT is an abbreviation which stands for dimethyl tryptamine. Once again, dimethyl tryptamine. Now, when you break down the compound of that word, the first lateral fraction of that word is dime dim. When you look up dim, it's an abbreviation for a dimension. Dimethyltryptamine. Dimension tryptamine. Okay. DMT is a natural psychedelic drug which is produced within the pineal gland and it actually raises your level of consciousness and allows you to digest different frequencies of phenomena. So that being said, DMT is what makes you dream. So that right there should give you a sense of a sense of understanding to the levels of consciousness that your body naturally produces a biochemical substance known as DMT aka dimethyltryptamine which puts you in a state of higher vibration and octave within your own frequency. Now with that being said psychedelic right a psychedelic is known as a drug or any drug which produces in a hallucinogenic state or awareness and consciousness. This is by definition. So uh DMT is a naturally produced psychedelic within the pineal gland of African people which puts us in a higher state of awareness. Phenomena uh a higher state of awareness and consciousness. Phenomena is anything s any sensation experienced through the five physical senses taste sight sound smell. So that being said, before we go into DMT, we want to understand how do you have a higher experience. Your body processes speed through electromagnetic currents. So that being said, for example, the universe is not quiet. It's just so loud you can't hear it. Your ears are only meant to process 20,000 uh megahertz of sound. So anything above that octave, you can't hear. So that being said, the universe is so loud, your brain is not able to digest and analyze those electromagnetic waves. So it's just like when you walking so fast, like you might hit something or some people get cuts when you playing football, you moving so fast, your brain is not processing all activity. So you might not realize you got to cut until after the fact. So that being said, because everything is happening so fast. So with that being said, this is like when they torture somebody, it's the pain seems like it hurts more because it's happening slower. So the the faster something happens, the less your brain process it and the less uh analysis that your brain is able to do on the phenomena being experienced, the less that you become aware of it. And the slower the phenomena, then the more you become aware of it. So this is why they tell you to stretch slower, do yoga slower, do taichi slow, so that your soul and your body become can become more in tune. When you do things too fast, you don't actually get to digest or have a full experience of that what it is you're engaged in. So, that being said, when we talking about psychedelic drugs, what psychedelic drugs do, and I'm not approving of anybody going to do a unnatural psychedelic drug. We talking about DMT here because DMT is naturally produced in the body. And I'll go on go in on DMT in a second. So, with that being said, if you out there, you know, smoking flocka, nigga, that's on you. So, with that being said, uh I don't want anybody think I'm encouraging them to go do a psychedelic drug. But outside of that, getting back on point, what psychedelic drugs do is they actually upgrade, you can say, the body's natural ability to process phenomena. So that being said, let me give you an example, right? If you do a psychedelic drug, you might start hearing voices, but them voices was always there. You just didn't hear them. So for example, they have what is called as EVP, electronic voice phenomena, which is basically the recordings that people who deal with paranormal activities use to record spiritual voices. So the technology is only doing what our bodies can naturally do. Alt even cell phones any piece of technology is only replacing is only making you dependent and and self-replicing of what it is you have the natural capability of of performing yourself. So the octaves of sound right is outside of the pitch in which your ear is is able to digest. But when you do a psychedelic drug this upgrades your sensation of hearing. So this is just like when people say when you people that go blind they're able to hear better or people that's deaf they're able to see farther. Now imagine if naturally you was able to upgrade all of your five senses. So let's say if the average person out of that 20,000 megahertz if you do a psychedelic that puts you at 30,000 MHz. You don't know what sounds is in the universe that's that's that speak that's that that that's being emitted into the the our physical reality or our dimension that that's just outside of your range. But the the psychedelic drugs upgrades your five physical senses including your ear and put you in range. So you start hearing motherfucking voices. You're not going crazy. You're just hearing something that naturally was outside of your reality and what you could experience. What the what the DMT does, right? Remember DIM. Okay, the first abbreviation for for dimension. Go look it up. Dim is short for abbreviation for dimension is upgrades your perspective. Now remember in the past video I broke down how dimension is predicated upon your perspective. So that being said, we have a a a ear, right? That's only geared to hearing sound at that which can be made out as audio within the third dimensional frequency. So what the DMT does, it might put your ass on a sixthdimensional of frequency of of audio digestion. And people who do DMT, right, or psychedelic drugs, they will account that they have experiences with beings. They talk to beings, okay? They hear things. They're not fucking crazy. The ancestors, shamans, they used to make you smoke uh marijuana or DMT and then go in a cave before you meditate and they would come out with with knowledge and understanding or come out with new insights. Indians used to smoke. We know Indians, Africans, all African shaman smoke. This is not what you think they smoking, motherfucker. Tobacco? No, they're smoking weed and DMT. Now, you might say, "Pharaoh, where are you getting D? Where are they getting DMT from?" If it's produced in the brain, DMT is found in all living things. It's found in every animal, every plant. It's in water. They call it the spirit molecule. So, that that shows you that this molecule is in all things that possess a life force. Okay? So, with that being said, uh all things are tapped into the omnipresent creator. All things have a connection back into the blueprint of the cosmos. And outside of melanin, right, a biochemical substance that all living things produce, even trees, is called DMT. Now, I'm not going to tell you how to make DMT on this motherfucking video. And I'm not going to act like I know how to make DMT. So, don't ask me. But with that being said, it is highly motherfucking illegal. So, I don't want nobody watching this video thinking that you about to go get some DMT, your ass will be in the Feds. So, that being said, you think weed is good for you and it's illegal. DMT is great for you and you'll be under the jail. So, I have to give you that warning as I'm making this video and for my own purposes as I'm speaking on it. I don't want nobody saying F is telling people to do psychedelic drugs because it's always a fuck boy out there. So, with that being said, Feral is not telling people to do no psychedelic drugs. I'm teaching on it. Now, getting back to the point, our ancestors used to extract DMT out of plants, right? Break it down into a crystallized form once they extract it, right? And then smoke it. Okay? So with that being said, they would go into higher states of consciousness and DMT only lasts for a maximum of 10 minutes. But you can actually you can actually experience this when you go to sleep. Okay? So with that being said, your body releases DMT when you sleep. This is why sometimes people have experiences that they know are not dreams. You're not crazy. You're just experiencing different octaves of vibration. Remember, everything is sound. So if you high as hell off a psychedelic, when you get to touching shit and when you get to motherfucking uh seeing things or hearing things, you got to remember your senses are going crazy. So if the normal average person five physical senses, taste, touch, sight, sound, smell, is on level five, DMT got you on level nine. So your you you hearing things that's that's there all day, but you not able to hear them. Some people hear their grandmother call them. Some people hear their family call them after death, and you think you crazy, and you keep hearing it from the same side. You don't even hear from a different side. You hear from the same side. When my grandmother first passed, I kept hearing her call my name. You're not crazy. You picking up on her frequency. She's reaching out. Your family is reaching out. This is all psychics do. When we deal with what a psychedelic drug, what you think a psychic is? A psychic is somebody who's tapped into the higher level of higher levels of their five physical senses as well as six senses and can process the spirit realm at a deeper interval than you and they can relate messages directly back to you that you are unable to relate to yourself. So with that being said, a psychic is a motherfucking a iPhone 1000 and the average person is a funky ass cricket. So with that being said, the you don't have the same abilities as the upgraded phone, which is yourself. So that being said, everybody possesses certain abilities and talents that we can use to interact with the spirit world as a medium. We're just not being taught as children to harness those. Okay? So with that being said, this is why African people are a naturally spiritual people because we naturally have melanated vessels that produce everything we need inside to contact the higher the higher realms in this in the solar system. So we're being taught to deter and look down upon our natural connection to the creator and that is what we must stop. So that being said, a psychedelic is a drug which produces a hid a hallucinogenic effect or or raises an awareness and consciousness. This by definition, go look it up. phenomena is anything that you experience through the five physical senses. DMT is a natural psychedelic drug produced within the pineal gland of African people that raises your awareness and consciousness. That's it's nothing spooky about that. So with that being said, family, understand the sacred science of yourself and understand the divinity of your vessel that you in. You're a soul within this vessel. This vessel was created and geared for you to do everything that you need to do as a soul, including direct contact back with the creator. I promise you DMT going to put you back in contact with higher levels of dimensions, higher levels of this dimension before any religious book is. I can promise you that. So, with that being said, family, we have to understand now since we understand the science of this, how are we being manipulated? Because now you going to the doctor and you're getting unnatural pharmaceutical drugs, right, that are not only destroying and corroding your pineal gland along with the fluoride that's in your water, right? Is putting you on certain levels that they want you to be in. For example, they might give you a psychedelic drug, right? But then this psychedelic drug, right, or this prescription drug releases certain chemicals in your body that causes you to be angry. So now they opened up a whole another portal, right? and got your got your five physical senses vibrating crazy ridiculously high. But remember on the spiritual realm, the universe is reacting to you. It's not acting upon you. So if you ascend in an angry state, you're going to attract beings that vibrate on that. So now you got people tripping the fuck out. You got people doing drugs and killing motherfuckers and raping motherfuckers because not only depending upon their psychological and spiritual state they were in before they did the drug. Even if they was in that state, the drug already has unnatural chemicals which induce the state within you. Just like motherfucking chemtrails, just spraying chemtrails that's inducing certain involuntarily inducing certain psychological and emotional states within organisms. So that being said, these motherfuckers know what they're doing and they know that we are naturally every time we go to sleep being opened up to higher frequencies. So if you are a cultist, okay, and you like to summon demonic spirits and you know that you're oppressing a race of people who naturally go to the spirit realm every night during what you call sleep time. Why wouldn't you spray chemtrails and do shit to make put them on a negative frequency all day? So when they go to sleep, they are going to a negative aspect of themselves instead of positive aspect of themselves. You got people going to sleep having nightmares with actual entities. Just like I broke down in my other video when everybody was having that that sleep paralysis and that lady and that man was coming in people rooms sitting on motherfuckers's chest. That was actually happening. But they was already prepping you to go there before you go to sleep. So if you think these chemtrails is just only to block out the sun, don't be a goddamn fool. there to also induce you into certain emotional and psychological states of being because you attract how you feel. So with that being said, you I mean you attract how you vibrate internally, which is what how you feel. If you go to sleep mad, motherfucker, you liable to have an angry dream. But what if you don't know you're mad? Okay? I mean, what if you don't know why you're mad? That's the problem. A lot of people wake up angry. A lot of people wake up sad. A lot of people going through depression and we don't know why. is because the chemicals in the food, the chemtrails in the sky, as well as the bodies being unstabilized due to this fifth dimensional frequency, which I broke down in my video solar frequency and Aquarian and ascension. Go watch that on my channel. So, you have a natural phenomena that's causing you to be emotionally and psychologically imbalanced. And then you have unnatural phenomenas that's being instigated by the government to have you be emotionally in uh psychologically imbalanced. And then you going to sleep in a negative state. And every time you your soul goes to ascend is attract you you you attracting of energies and frequencies and deities of the vibration you're on. So everybody in America is eating garbage. Kimtrails got you fucked up. Food got you fucked up. And you going on a fucked up part of the spiritual plane. That's the most blatant way I can say it without trying to be cute. So with that being said, this is why it's important to correct yourself because when you trying to deal with the ancestors or you trying to deal with certain spiritual beings, you're only going to attract who you are inside. If you a bitch ass trifling motherfucker, then everybody you attract on the spiritual realm going to be just like your bitch ass. So with that being said, if you're if you're mean well and you got a good heart, okay, this is why the ancestors say the mouth speak what the heart feel. The heart don't beat what the mouth the heart don't feel what the mouth speak. So, with that being said, if you got a good heart and y ou're righteous and you got good intentions, then you attract those beings with you. And I'm going to do a video on spirit guides as well to break down how everybody got a spirit guide and how your spirit guide you on this plat on this on this physical platform that you walking on called life. So, that being said, stay tuned for that. But bringing this video to an end without uh making it too long, family, DMT is a naturally is a natural drug produced naturally by your pineal gland which expands your awareness and consciousness. Psychedelic phenomena is what you experience once you raise the five physical senses, excuse me, either higher or lower. So, it's just like color. Contrast. Raising the contrast makes the picture brighter. Uh lowering the contrast makes it dimmer. The only thing is a higher frequency and a lower frequency. It's pitch. Everything has sound. Every everything is sound. You just either heightening or lowering the pitch. So if you start to digest frequency slower, then you have a fuller experience. This is why when you do tantric yoga sex, you do it slow and you breathe slow so that you get the full sensation of the sexual energy so that you use it to manifest. And when you're moving too goddamn fast, okay, you don't get the full you don't get the full experience. But DMT allows you to have the full experience of things that vibrate higher and at a faster pace than you. So with that being said, in order to have a full experience on this third dimension, you have to learn how to control your breath and be and be focused at a slower rate than everybody else. Breath control determines heartbeat rate. Okay? And if you can keep your heart at a certain pace and at a certain beat and keep it at a certain frequency, then your your your five physical senses as well as your six sense will begin to process phenomena at a more fuller at and you will have a more full fuller experience. So that being said, understand the importance of your reality because time can pass your ass by or you can have the fullest life experience you wish and there are some things outside of your experience until your body naturally produces a chemical that allows you to tap into that which your body is naturally not able to tap into which is higher vibrations of electromagnetic phenomena. So with that being said, giving my example one more time. EVP, electromagnetic voice phenomena. Tech, a piece of technology used to pick up the electromagnetic waves being emitted by spirits which are creating a voice that is permeating throughout the cosmos. And in particularly this planet Earth, right, from spirits trying to communicate with us. All a spirit is is you outside of your vessel. I gave this in before. I'm going to give it again. A pedestrian is a nigga out not in the car. A driver is a nigga in the car. When you park your car and get out, nigga, you become a pedestrian. A ghost is you outside of your vessel. That's it. So nigga, when the ghost is trying to talk to you and you can't hear, that's equivalent to a nigga knocking on your window and the music too loud and you can you don't notice a nigga knocking on your window trying to talk to you. Same difference. So what happens is what the psychedelic does is it allows your ears to be loud enough to hear this nigga knocking on your window. What it does, it allows your your your ears to pick up the electromagnetic voice frequency of the spirit and be processed by your brain at a rate that normally you wouldn't be able to pick that up. That's it. It's that simple. It's all science. So, that being said, understand that we have the melanated vessels to do all things and we have to start applying that and we have to get back to African spirituality. Religion has hindered us and enslaved us and most importantly deterred us from our own greatness. And with that being said, family, I love y'all. Peace.

Topic - Seven Levels Of Existence

This is um university study in the universe where we teach melanated beings about themselves. Now with that being said, my first lesson family will be um titled what I would like to call the seven levels of existence. This is teaching you as a black person melan entity about the seven levels of existence on what you exist on this dimension outside of the physical shell. Now here we um we're going to start with the seven levels of existence. I'm going to relate them directly into the chakras. Now, on the third level, the third chakra, we know it's yellow, but I drew it black here because it wouldn't show up on the board. Now, your first chakra, which is your root chakra, will be um related with your physical self. Your second chakra which would be your sacral or naval chakra would be orange that would be related with your emotional body. Your third chakra which would be your stomach chakra or your solar plex chakra will be yellow and will be related with your mental body. This is your third level of existence. your fourth chakra or your fourth um body would be your heart chakra and this would be green. This would be related with your will and your fifth chakra which would be your throat chakra would be baby blue and this would be directly associated with your intuition. Your sixth chakra which will be your pineal gland or your third eye will be your individual soul. This is the throne. Your body is the temple. This is where the soul takes it seat in this vessel. Your seven chakra or your crown chakra would be directly associated with um what I would like to call what we conceptualize as god or the all which is the divine. I'm going to draw out two figures here which will be a black person and a non-melanated entity which will be a caucasian to show you the difference between these levels of existence. So now um and after this video I'm going to make another video called electromagnetic um it's going to be called the electromagnetic entity and I'm going to show like our condensed sunlight and show you how the electromagnetic spectrum is just individual our chakras in our body is our own individual personal electromagnetic spectrum and it's going to correlate personally with this lesson. So be on the lookout for that um for that session. But now getting into the melonated. This is a black person. I'm draw this can go for either male or female. This is a melanated be. So now you have um your first body which is physical. So I'm going to draw this really close around the edge. You have your physical body. This is level one as you can see. physical. Your second level in which you exist is your emotional body. And these are all these are all planes on your on your grid on your on the plane in which you exist. Your third level, which you may not be able to see, family, I'm going to try to do it as best as I can. And this yellow, your third body will be mental body. So here already we have the mind which controls the body which is connected to the body and and receives information on the physical plane through the second level of your existence which is the emotional body. So now going even further out into your aura you have your fourth body which is connected to your heart chakra which which is your will going into your fifth body. Your fifth plane of existence, your throat chakra is intuition, your intuitional body. Your sixth level of existence in which you exist on is your soul. Notice this is turning into a rainbow family. is going to be important in a minute. In your last body, which connects you to what we can call the creator of God, your seventh level of existence or your crown chakra will be the divine, your higher self or the spirit. Now, let me give the chakra points so that I can correlate all of these. Now, the first level of existence, aka your root chakra. If you're a man, it's your penis. If you're queen or a woman, it's your it's your vagina. Your second level of existence will be your n. This is orange. This will be your emotional body. Your third level, this yellow again, family. Don't know if it's going to show up, but this will be your mental. Your fourth level family will be your heart chakra, your will. Your fifth level intuition throat chakra. Your sixth level will be your pineal gland. In your seventh level, which will be your crown chakra, I can crown in the head or a soft spot on a baby's head right before they're born. So now, family, as a black melonated entity, you exist on seven levels. You have your most densest self, which is the physical realm. Then you have your emotional cell, your emotional body which connects the soul and the mind to the most dense to your most densest self which is your physical body. Then you have your fourth your um your fourth chakra or your fourth level of existence which is your will. Then you have your fifth the fifth outer layer of your aura which is your intuition your intuitional body. Your sixth level which is the soul and your seventh level which is divine. Now how do all these bodies intertwine? Because mentally you can jump from plane to plane. So now this is where we go and you call people um you can hear the term stop living in your lower self. People who are stuck on a physical realm, people who are stuck on a physical plane cannot see from the perspective of these other six bodies because you're stuck on one plane. So therefore let's just say for example um a person who is stuck on the physical realm only can see or perceive phenomena through the what I will call the two what we can conceive as the two physical eyes. Now this dimension the physical realm is just the third dimension of existence the third level of existence. So now from here we can conceive that this as you can see is the lowest level of your existence. So for those who are not functioning up here in your pineal gland which is the soul cannot foresee or cannot use their insight in order to operate on this paradigm. Why? Because if you're stuck on the physical realm then you're not using your emotional body. And if you're not using your emotional body, then you cannot fully um take in information from this realm in order to process it mentally on your third body. And if you're not using your mental body and you're not strong minded, then you do not have a strong will, a strong heart chakra in order to manifest things because the will is used to manifest things. Now when it comes to using your will when all four when the first four levels of existence are operating correctly your physical body emotional body your mental body and your heart chakra your will. While your first four chakras are aligned you have just um went from your lowest self and you're on your way to your higher self. So now when dealing with your higher self, you come into your intuitional body. And this is the body that you go into which perceives you and deal with the soul and being able to feel your surroundings or using your um using the spirit world to guide you versus the physical realm. And this is when you cross into your intuitional body. Now your six level body. Now existence once flowing with each other. And once in contact directly with your soul, you can reconnect to what we call here. But you can call it God, Allah, whatever you want to call. This is your highest. Now let me illustrate the divine here so that you can see what I'm talking about. This would be your universe. Think of that as a universe. What I just want to illustrate to you why it's important to have a healthy chakra system. energy which we can conceptualize what we call the area of the body when energy releases from this reservoir it flows up the spine when it hits it when the water hits it stuck and you have to unblock the chakras now these chakras become blocked by traumatic or unpositive experience experiences that we may go through in life which I named a few my video titled no soul. So now let's just assume you're a healthy flowing person and all your chakras and body energy flows up the spine because the spine is just like it's like it's just a transporter of the energy. It's like a train. It's like a train on spiritual level of manifestation. So this Once the energine, it hits the pineal gland and flowing out the crown. Once flowing out through the crown chakra, the the um the energy that you possess flows through the creator. So now here we see thoughts. If you have a weak tune of your existence or you have a weak electromagnetic field or we can call it the thoughts or or will any manifestation creative. You cannot connect back to your higher self if your energy is not flowing to your um if your energy is not flowing to your pal. So what we want to do is we want to keep all seven levels of existence on that and the will of the physical realms can be received by manifest. You pray to God. You ask him to bring things into your life. Actually what you're doing is you want to send a thought through your chakra and your seventh chakra being your out the crown of the body with the creator which is the source which is the universe and the universe will reconc Now you speak and learn to draw. This is a black person and it's the first level of existence. might not show up. And notice that the Caucasian electromagnetic field or his vibrating as the way I drew the melanated entity of the black person. I'm going to get into that in a second. And we're going to stop there. Okay. So, the root chakra yellow might not show up. His third chakra, his fourth chakra is his heart chakra, his fifth chakra, which is his third chakra. And then I'm going to draw his pine just so you can see. Notice that the Caucasian electromagnetic field looks to be um weaker or more because he does not vibrate at the level of a black person. We know that science proves that a black person can take in the entire electromagnetic spectrum can only take in the visible spectrum because of their melanin deficiency. So their electromagnetic field is not as calcified by glands due to them being genetic defective offsprings of African people. It is a scientific fact that you are not African descent, you are only 96% human being and 4% only Africans are 100% human being. Now why is this important? Because when the cumuline hits 85% of them again not strong enough to project his manifestations to the creator because he is not a natural part of But even if it was his or her calcified calcified or the um manifestation of the cannot even connect to the creator as you can see from what you would consider God or Allah or divinity or whatever conceptualize the creator or the source the literally cut off from the creator. So why is this important? Because it is through which I'll go into another lesson I'll make and he uses frequencies to manipulate and throw off the chak. So by meat and eating certain food when the natural frequency of the universe is a32 and the melanated entity of black person vibrates at 432. But the British standards institute in 1939 switched the stand from 432 to 440. He threw off the equilibrium and electromagnetic field of all. So now by eating the foods you are not only your system to be manipulated but you are allowing to force you into your lower self and it is on this plane you can be manipulated. Now I'm not going to go into other things at this time which exist and connect to the creator but I will make videos from the other subject I discuss in this topic. So stay tuned. With that being said, this is the first university is now session once again. Fuck that being said. Peace.

Topic - Universal Law

We're going to be breaking down what is the one true law, what is the difference between statutes, uh policies, where they come from, and who naturally should be given authority, uh, uh, an authoritarian platform to enforce the law. Now, what is the law? The law by definition is a sequence of principles and rules established within a community, right? And carried out by the authoritarian figure of that community. So, that being said, where do the the the set of principles and rules come from? First of all, and I'm going to be going into into this in a second, there's only one true law, which is do not transgress on the free will of another entity. And outside of that, all other minute infractions come into play. For example, if I don't give you permission to take my stuff and you take it, you transgress on my free will. So, how did you do that? You burglarized my home while I was gone. So now we're just in saying how you infract it upon the only one law. So with that being said, there's only one true law which is do not interfere with the free will of another being. Now with that being said, we talking about policies and statutes and breaking the law. Okay? The law you're following is not the law of the creator. You're following the rules and regulations of a corporate entity and a business. So now let me break this down, right? The definition of policies is what? Actions proposed by an individual, government, or organization. So that's a definition of a policy. Statute is what? Okay, a statute is the laws imposed or the rules or the principles imposed, excuse me, the principles uh proposed by an organization or an institute. So you're following the rules and regulations of a corporate of a corporation, a organization, a governmental body and an institute. You're not following the rules of the universe. So if somebody says don't go 30 miles per hour and you get a ticket, that has nothing to do with nature. That has nothing to do with the universe. That has the that has everything to do with the ideology of Masonic occultic practitioners who founded this country. So when you say you're following the law, you're not following the law of God, whoever you believe in. You're not following the law of the creator. You're following the law of somebody who you never met. They're Illuminati member, a Leeches member. They live in Europe. They own the motherfucking IRS, which is not a goddamn uh uh American uh an Americanowned business agency. So, your tax dollars is going to somebody who's not even an American and you're all working in your slaves for Europe. So, that being said, let me keep it kicking. Now, we talking about the one true law and we're talking about, you know, uh where this comes from. We have to understand history for a second before I even go into this. So, we understand that at one point in time, black people were slaves over here, right? Not all, but some were slaves. Now, this is where you get free man and you get non-free men, right? Black people that were considered unfree and were slaves were considered business stock. same as cattle are considered today on the farm. So that being said, they were stole they were sold in exchange for I mean they were sold in exchange for financial for financial currency. Now when Abraham Lincoln allegedly freed the slaves, which he didn't, black people fought they were out of slavery. Look up the gull wars. Outside of that, when Abraham Lincoln allegedly freed the slaves, he didn't free the slaves. The word citizen bec I mean the word slave became citizen and the word slave master became governor and the word plantation became state. So everybody, every citizen in every state is enslaved to the debt owed to the government and is being uh paid back by their governor. So the governor of every state has took a oath to repay the government this this that and the third amount of debt through the energetic labor of its citizens. Look it up. So that being said, when they killed Abraham Lincoln, the reason they killed Abraham Lincoln, white people specifically, was not because he freed the slaves. That's a lie. They killed Abraham Lincoln because he included them into slave trafficking. So what he said, well, basically what happened was white people said, "Wait a minute, Abe, y'all didn't s here and work these black people and made them do y'all bidding for financial currency, okay, and and and uh business transact transitory uh interactions. And then not only did you convert them into a citizen, which is a slave to the to the government, okay, which is a paper slave, now you going to make everybody a goddamn citizen." Because remember, white people were not subjected to the law at one point in time. This is why they were not going to jail for alleged crimes. So now with that being said, all Abraham Lincoln did was convert the word slave into citizen. Made everybody into citizens, which is paper slaves. Look up straw man, etc., etc. We're not going to make this video into that, but look it up. And he turned everybody into slaves to the government, and white people shot his ass for that. So with that being said, that's why they killed Abraham Lincoln. Now, this is 2017. We're all paper slaves. Welcome to the future. Now, that being said, we're dealing with today slave patrol. Okay? Okay. And if you look at the badge, go look up the badge of slave patrol, which was people who whose job was to catch slaves. And outside of the brutality they did to slaves, their job was to make sure that the stalk or the cattle didn't run away. So you got people who if a goddamn horse or a cow runs off the farm, their job is to go catch it and bring it back. That was the job of the slave patrol outside of the rape and the extra shit they did. But with that being said, their job was to make sure that these these negro cattle did not get away so that the money was not lost that they were accumulating. And then the slave patrol once uh America became a corporation in 1776 which is a business go look it up. It became a business entity. Slave patrol became police control. Police is what? Policy control. What is policy? The proposed principalities and ideas of an organization or government. So that being said, once America became corporate, it became an organization. Okay? and you became a a piece of individualized individually owned property by the United States of America which is a corporation. So that being said the state the uh slave patrol became the policy patrol. So law enforcement is nothing more than policy enforcement. So the law enforcers of this country's job is to do what? Enforce the policies and statutes of a business not God. So, that being said, when you answer to a judge, you're not answering to God. When they say you're breaking the law, you didn't break the law of God. You broke the law of a nigga who owns a business. So, that being said, if in my business I say that, uh, let's say it's okay to not have a shirt on, but then over there, you got to put a shirt on. If you come in my business and you break my law, my principle, my statute, I'm going to take you to court and you're going to have to see a judge whose state agrees with my rules and regulations and will enforce the the uh penalty upon you. But if you go over there, then you won't be considered breaking my law. So when we talking about life, whose law are we following? You know, I'm so sick of people saying the law, the law, the law, motherfucker, this is a business, okay? And you need to learn b proper business management. So we talking about breaking the law, fines, statutes, principles, even going to jail. All of that shit is nothing more than occultic ritual. Period. So this I'm going to say it again. This is why when you go to court, right, they summon you. What is it? What do you summon? You summon spirits, okay? You attach an energetic medium, okay, or a doorway to the energy you're trying to bring. So that being said, we know that John is an American name. So, a black person's name never could actually be John because we're of indigenous and African descent. But if my name is John and mentally you connect with me, then when I pass away, every time you say John, you're going to think of me. Even though I have no origin that equates or synchronizes with the origin of the name John. So, that being said, names are just mediums for energy to interact with each other. So, when you go to court, if you get a warrant or a summon, if they say, "We're summoning John Doe." When you come to court, all you're doing is you're presenting the physical collateral for whoever they believe John Doe is. So, it's a summoning process. It's a ritual process. Then, when they come, they say, "You broke this statue or this uh policy, okay? Or this law, and we're going to charge you." What are they charging you for? They're charging you for your energy, your soul. What is that? Time. Because your body is what? Solidify light. And as it cond as it begins to uh uncondense and basically uh de modulate or or evaporate you are undergoing death. So they're charging you for your time that you could be doing anything else in this goddamn war in this world. So this is why just like when you uh spend money cuz money is what? Currency. Currency is electricity. You charge a credit card. So when you go to court and you get charged with a crime, okay, this allows you underneath the 13th amendment to become what? A slave to the government. So, with that being said, you're a slave in society as a citizen, but when you go back to prison, you become a slave underneath the name of a convict or inmate. Now, with that being said, they charge you for your energy, okay? And after they charge you, they sentence you. And then they send you off to what? A plantation to do their bidding for a certain amount of time. They're draining your energy, okay? And then they put you in a sale. Now, sales do what? Input and output energy. Even the cells in your body, they input and output energy. So, for a certain amount of time while you're in jail, they open your cell. You go out, you do what you do. You might make license plates, you might go work, you do something around the plantation, then you go to the prison yard, do what you do, and after a certain amount of time, they put you back in your cell and you rest and they charge you back up. So basically, the prison system is like a body and all of the inmates are literally like the cells that make up a body being uh functioning just like the sales in a body. They're outputting and inputting energy. And then after a certain amount of time, right, they kick you out and then they replace you with new salemates. Okay, so that being said, all of this shit is outlic. Just like when you driving on the street, the red lights on the back of the car is symbolic to blood cells that is keeping, you know, the body of America flowing. But that's another uh video for another time. Now, with that being said, coming back to my point. So, that being said, your energy is being extracted not for breaking the laws of the creator, but for break but for breaking the laws of satanic devil worshippers who play the the fake ass role of the creator. So that being said, when we say the the law, the only true law is don't transgress on another free person's free will. Everything else is statutes and policies that is making this shit complicated. And this is why people are breaking the law because they're they're they're purposely being placed into environments where they have no other choice but to survive. So that being said, if you if you put a person somewhere where they're hungry and then there's no food, but then up the street there's food, and you tell them don't steal, what the fuck you think they're going to do? They're hungry. So that being said, it uh let's say illegal activity is being instigated by the same people was being created by. Now bringing this back home when we talking about the one true law, if you don't break if if if there if right now they threw out the constitution and they just said, "Don't transgress on a person's free will without their permission." That would save us a lot of time. You know why? Because people will ask you for shit before they did it. So if somebody walk up to you right now and smack the shit out you, okay? That's called assault. But if I walk up to you and I say, "Hey, do you mind if I slap you in the face?" And you say, "Go right ahead, Johnny." And I slap the shit out you. You just gave me permission. So that being said, when we talking about even fighting, right, if you fight in the ring, two people have consented to this event. So now it's called a sports event. But if you fight on the street, then that's an illegal activity. The only difference was it was permission over here. It wasn't permission over here. So that being said, we have to understand that the universe is being monetized and commercialized. So what they've done is they've taken the capitalistic society. Capitalism means what? To capitalize. They've taken the capitalistic patriarchal mentality and put it on the universe and they're literally benefiting off of the one true law. So with that being said, if if the one true law is not to transgress somebody's free will, all they've done is taken every single way that you can and commercialized it to where they can marginalize it and profit. So if if the creator said, you know, uh once again, don't transgress on a person's free will, what they've done is they've said, well, if you take something, that's considered this. So we're going to make that a business policy that we can profit off of. But not only are we going to do that, we're going to do that unfairly. We're going to make it to where people have no choice but to take. And then we're going to penalize them. And then we're going to put them in the prison industrial complex and use them as a cellular module to extract their energy to continue the evil conglomerate of outism that we're practicing. So, that being said, we have to ask ourselves, somebody monetized nature. Who the fuck did that? When apples grew off trees, they didn't come with receipts. So, the fact that you have to buy a apple and have a receipt to pro to have proof of purchase shows that somebody has infringed themselves in your life as God because God never intended for you to pay for a motherfucking thing. So, when we say you're paying for something, right, just like in the Bible, it says in that occultic may sound Bible, it says you're going to pay for your sins. Your sins is what? Ignorance. Jesus is what? Jesus Christ. Christ comes from the word crystals which means anointed. Anointed deals with py gland and higher frequencies and octaves of thought. Your ignorance is your ignorance to uh oneness with the creator and Christ is your own consciousness and the cross is nothing more than a hexahedron when you open it up cuz if you take a cube and you open it up it forms a cross and when you close it it forms a box and a box is a geometric shape which deals with containment. So the reason that your consciousness died on a cross is cuz when you close the cross it forms a box. So that means your consciousness has been contained by the creator and that's what the death of Jesus Christ is is symbolic to and then on top of that not only has your consciousness been been contained you are paying for that ignorance of your contained consciousness and you pay for what currency I mean money is what currency currency is electricity you spend electricity aka what your nervous system your thoughts is controlled and conducted throughout your body through your nervous system electrical currents so you are giving your thoughts okay and paying for what you pay attention to so this why commercials and everything use subliminal messaging because they're trying to get you to pay attention to their product so you'll pay for it. And with that being said, bringing it back all the way around, we have to understand that there's only one true law. Anything else is just some man-made shit. And this is why America got it twisted because people will fight and die for something they believe in and pay no attention to something that they know. So with that being said, family, we want everybody to understand the wrong way to go and the right way to go. Now, does this mean to go outside and break the law and get yourself into trouble with law enforcement? No. This means the only only reason that I'm putting this message out there is for people to understand we talking about change. Everything must change, motherfucker. When you get as much time as y'all niggas spend on the internet, you know, if you don't hit refresh, the goddamn page won't change. The information on the page won't change. The comments and shit you like to read won't change. So, with that being said, we talking about America. America is not going to change until people understands why it's not changing. And that's because it's in a box. And we're talking about capitalism. We live in a capitalistic society where everything is being marginalized. So right now, if you going through something, instead of helping you, they'll make a TV show out of your pain and make it a spectacular and write a book. If you get raped, instead of getting you psychological help, they'll give you a show on fucking VH1 about how you got raped or on oxygen. So if you if you even if you a sick ass rapist and you tie motherfuckers up, you can go right now and watch bondage porn where they tie motherfuckers up and have sex with them. So every type of ideology has been commercialized via negative or positive. And the government is benefiting from your lower and your higher self cuz that's the way it has been set up to extract your energy, your currency. So that being said, there's only one true law, family, which is to not transgress on the free will of another being. And if you do so, you are breaking the law of the creator. But if you go over 30 miles per hour, if you motherfucking dress a certain way, if you break the dress code, that has nothing to do with the law of the creator. That is the law of a nigga who owns a business. Okay? So, we have to understand the difference. So, when you go into court, understand what you are truly being judged upon. Nine times out of 10, you did not break the law of God. You broke the law of little Jimmy who owns a business and you don't know he exists and you pay him taxes every day and he's a part of the elites and he sip fine wines and tea with funky ass Queen Elizabeth over there in Europe and they marginalize and extract your energy all throughout your life. So you go to work, okay, seven days a week to uphold the system that is doing nothing ando but holding you down spiritually. And with that being said, family, understand the one true law and follow that and do what it is you must do within this matrix to survive. But do not become mentally contained or have your consciousness boxed in and live the rest of your life inside of a hexagon. And with that being said, love y'all. Peace.

Topic - Racism,Occult Magik (witchcraft)

I'mma say this very slow. Racism is a type of witchcraft. Racism is a type of spellcasting. Racism is a type of ritual. Yes, it is systematic injustice and all that other stuff. But hear me when I say that it started out as some weird occult nonsense. When you study the history of the people in power that orchestrated everything that we're going through all the way back to the Portuguese and Spain and the split of the prime meridian, there has always been occultic forces. is the word a cult means hidden culture. Word cult means system of beliefs. What they believe and listen to me is that the black race, right, represents the old world. You can look this up. Look up the Theophony Society. Okay? Look up the um Knights of the Rose Order. Look up the golden circle. Like for real, I'm being dead serious. Y'all don't really understand why these people believe in racism so much. It's not just hate. It's a religion. It is a it is a form of ritual. Okay? and the original forces of this world especially through the 16 and 1700s that started the mechanism of which we're dealing with today is because this is a ritual a form of destiny swapping okay when you read the observation concerning mankind people and the countries by Benjamin Franklin written in 1755 you go to the last page I think it's 200 124. He literally says that they brought Europeans over to America as a ritual for the gods of Mars and Venus to homogenize them under the banner of whiteness to make a new people. He dead ass says that. And he says that he wants to take the sons of Africa and remove them from America. Okay. It was always a ritual, right? Isn't that why we have the apotheosis of George Washington in the capital building? You can look up and see him being depicted as a whole deity. Isn't that why the Washington monument is the same as Osiris and it represent a phallic symbol? Is that why we have Greco Roman structures all across this country representing the gods and deities of antiquity? H is this why JPL Jet Propulsion Laboratories which is foundational in NASA and sending us to the moon founders were also occultist. Same with Henry Ford. Same with all the country uh companies. The people that built New York were occultists and that's why that's such a hub for all of this stuff. What are we talking about here? What are we talking about here? Because in reality, when you look up the definition of negro from the 19th century uh Britannica, what you see is that it was an exonym that didn't just mean people in Africa. It was Malaysia, Australia, the Polynesian islands, and Asia, right? So, and that represents the old world. That represents the East. So, if you don't understand what racism really is, it's a form of destiny swapping. It's a form of making the majority the minority, giving power to the minority. This is why they're always talking about the great replacement theory and how the white race is dying out and they're not having children. They're being replaced by black and brown immigrants. They have been talking about this stuff for the last 400 years and everything you've been seeing has to do with this fear and they are literally using whole ass magic witchcraft to do it to to switch the dynamics of power. Whether you believe in it or not, racism is deeper than a form of systemic power within a cast system used to subjugate different people based on phenotypical expression. You look like this, so you're treated this way. Yes, that is the case. But there is a spiritual component to it, and this is why we can't get rid of it. because people worship it, right? And what we have to understand is that the word negro come is really synergized with the alchemic word negro or negro. and they are trying to off of the unaligning and mass destruction of black and brown civilizations. That's why the continent of Africa has been how it's been. That's why we're invading the global south, going into South America, attacking these countries. Because in reality, what is going on is that through the destruction of black and brown people, the white race will be able to transmute themselves into a new technocratic world where they fuse themselves with technology, transhumanism with cybernetic enhancement, become the new pure race that's immortal, and they're cybernetically controlled to all technology. So they have access to all knowledge and they're connected to all the drones and cameras. So they have pseudo omniscience and they'll be able to flick their hand and open up a door because it's all going to be automated. It they'll be able to flick their hand and make money appear in your account like they're a deity because everything's going to be controlled through cryptocurrency. They're manufacturing the situation to literally make themselves God on earth. this is what they believe. So while yes, racism and systematic injustice that all people deal with sucks within this prejudice infrastructure, but there is a mystic component to it. You know, even when we get into the word Caucasian, the reason why we call white people Caucasian, even though there's like a I think a actual Asiatic type race in that area that's a little bit more darker or tan or whatever, um is because they thought there was a piece of the Noah's Ark in the Caucasus Mountains. So by calling Europeans Caucasian, that was a way and back then during the era of pseudoscience where they could connect their lineage to Adam. I'm being so dead serious. So whether you but whether you're religious or not, that's not the point of this video. The point of this video is to educate you on what the people in power believe and the the function of racism and how they practice it as a spiritual belief of superiority. The Ku Klux Klan, they literally call themselves grand wizards, right? At the end of the day, all these groups perform rituals to invoke fear to hold power. To hold power and that is textbook magic. For people who understand what magic actually is, then you know these people are performing magic. Straight up. Straight up. And racism is a complex form of spellcasting. It is. And we have to be aware of it because the stuff we're seeing and how they're trying to shift power. Oh, war is always energy. The unaliving of all those bodies is always what they need to change the world. Like they did World War I, World War II. Now they're trying to do it again to usher in the age of transhumanism and cybernetic demigods that walk the earth. I hope you're ready.

Topic - Planetary Clock Explanation

With planetary hours, you have the ability to see when you should schedule something according to what time it is in the planetary clock. The reason I trust planetary hours so much is from personal experience, right? I walked outside, checked the planetary hours app. Within 1 minute past the hour of Mars, there was already someone outside arguing, which if you know anything about the planet Mars, it's basically the planetary ruler for Aries. And Mars is arguments, conflicts, legal battles, anything to do with altercations between other people. And as you know, Aries is the angriest sign. And I've also had it where I've prayed before and it activated during the hour of the sun, which many Christians say that the God of the Bible isn't associated with the sun at all. But my experience with planetary hours proves otherwise. And so here's how you can use this in a way where you do the right things at the right time. I'm not saying that you should schedule everything that you do according to an astrological clock. But what I'm definitely saying is it does have an effect on what you are doing, but I think most people automatically do whatever is associated with this time unconsciously. So starting off with an hour of the sun. Now during the hour of the sun, you should go for scheduling things that have to do with your overall purpose in life. So, if you want to do something church-wise, maybe meditation or deciding what type of college you want to attend, I would say the hour of the sun would be the perfect time period to do this. Now, in an hour of Mercury, this would be more intellectual work, stuff that involves more cognitive effort like homework, studying, research. Now, moving on to Venus. This would be the perfect time to ask someone out, right? If you want to go on a date or set up a time to ask the girl you're talking to to be your girlfriend, it would probably be during this time period. Moving on, Mars. I already told you guys arguments, altercations, legal situations, you probably want to handle it during this time. Now, for the money, if you're trying to sign a deal or sell something or just anything to do with business, automatically right there, Jupiter is the best for trying to get financial gain. Now, hour of Saturn, I possibly wouldn't schedule that much there because it's an hour where you have to deal with things, right? It's for pain and punishment. Now, if you have a responsibility that you want to deal with and it's like something that you'll finish off that time and you won't have to worry about it again, you might want to do that time. But at the same time, I'm not going to lie, I don't like it. I just wouldn't schedule anything out of nowhere during that time because you'll probably learn a lesson with whatever that thing is. Finally, we have the moon. I wouldn't call the moon opposite of Venus, but I would say Venus is more like you. And then the moon is more like someone chasing you. So, let's say this. If you're a girl and you want someone to approach you, I'd say you might want to go out during moon hour, you might have someone approach you during that time. According to the schedule, from what I've seen, some people automatically just do whatever they're supposed to do at that time. This is how you get more in depth with how the celestial bodies actually affect things on Earth.

Topic - science between Water Memory & Spiritual Baths

This video right here is about spirit baths and the science of water. Now, with that being said, we have to understand that water is considered we want to know what water is before we even go into spirit baths. Now, with that being said, water in science is is uh considered the spirit molecule or the intelligent molecule. Why? Because water itself is intelligent. It holds intelligence. It holds memory. This is a fact. Water actually remembers. You could actually speak, okay, to water and change the frequency of the water. Now with that being said, water resp as as well as all uh anatomic phenomena responds to sound in octaves. Okay, your vocal cords. Okay, your atom's apple. The reason you speak out your atom's apple is not atom as in adam. It's really atom as in OM. Your atom's apple, your vocal cords, right? actually reconstruct the symmetrical formation of atoms to revibrate reality in in conjunction with the meherztz frequency of your brain. So the reason they even call this your Adam's apple and use your vocal cords just like you use chords on a guitar, okay? Or chords on an instrument, you use your vocal cords and your Adam's apple, right? To reconstruct reality to your own internal frequency every time you speak. This is why people say you're speaking things into existence. So when you speak to water, water holds that frequency. This is a fact. So with that being said, water is an intelligent molecule. Your body is made up of 85% water. Your brain itself is 85% just water. This is why uh whatchamacallit it is the where your p it's where your pineal gland is located and it's the head aka the central nervous system of all the neurons in your body, right? Because it's what water is the number one conductor of electricity. Your brain helps to interface with every component within your body. So with that being said, we have to understand the science of water before we even get to talking about it. And secondarily, what is when we want to talk about water? Water is the physical manifestation. Once again, why it's called the spirit molecule. It's the physical manifestation of the spirit world. Now, anybody who knows, you know, minute chemistry, you know that water is what? Oxygen combined with two hydrogen molecules or so. With that being said, this is why you see the uh two uh in between the H and the O. So that being said, if you know anything about science, oxygen and hydrogen are both gases. If you know anything about chemistry, oxygen and hydrogen are both gases. So now you have to ask yourself, how can two gases, right, form a solid, which is water. Okay, think about that. So water technically is not physical. Even though you can feel it, you bathe with it, it's wet, you can boil it, burn somebody with it, it's all just a gas. So you're manipulating uh an intangible object into a tangible object, which is utilized for so many different purposes. But with that being said, the reason it's called the spirit molecule is because it represents reality. It is a formulas void of whatever it is you mentally concoct and vibrate it to be. So water can be hot and be used to boil.

A person can become hot and or or or risen in their temperature. Remember temperature comes from the Latin word temporar which means state of being dependent upon your internal stating being right your temper. temperature, temporary state of being. Depending upon your temper or the temper outside determines the state of being and the quality of existence of your reality and that within conjunction with your own uh ideology or psychological perspective on life will determine what form you take. Information in form same thing with water depending upon the degree or temperature it is will determine if it boils and goes back into a gas form. If it stays a liquid which is formless, if it becomes solid to where it can become destroyed. Now remember anything that flows any energy that flows or is formless right can take any shape or form. Once water becomes a solid it can no longer become form. So the so the uh solidified form of water can be uh whatchamacallit symbolic to somebody stuck in their ego or somebody who think they know what they talking about and they don't or just all of these people with these incorrect mentalities, right? They've went below the degrees in which they should be at. So with that being said, before we even go into spirit baths, we want to break down the science of water. And that's a quick understanding of water. Water is symbolic to reality. Just like we are experiencing a holographic reality within this avatar that we call a human body, none of this is actually uh tangible. We experience virtual bio reality through the five physical senses. You experience water which is actually a gas determined upon the degree that it is uh whatchamacallit being being placed under. So that being said, water is intelligent and it is symbolic to life. What is how is it symbolic to life? Because it's actually the form that you choose for it to take and the frequency that you choose to place within it, whether positive or negative. Now, we talking about spirit baths. Water is important because it bonds with you. And this is why your skin shrivels up and prunes when you're in water because the water molecules actually bonding with the water molecules within you and it's causing the uh the blood vessels within your body to constrict due to of due to um over oxygen absorption. So that being said, your your blood vessels begin to become constricted and your skin begins to prune up. And this is why dead bodies and things like that decompose in water or this is why during floods uh you can see houses or wood becoming decomposed in water. This is why water can break down damn near anything just like acid because it's actually bonding with it cuz everything is made up of actual everything is actually made up of water. So with that being said, we have to understand the true science of reality. Now with that being said, we want to go into baths. Not only is water bonding with you when you taking a spirit bath, a spirit bath just means you are conscious to the spiritual capacities within the water that you're using to I don't want to say manipulate, let's say regulate and control for how it is you want to elevate your internal frequency. So when we say a spirit bath, right? When you look at movies or you look at ancient civilizations and you stud the way they took a bath, they didn't take baths the way niggas take baths today. So that being said, they didn't just heat water up and get in it. All right? And we've been uh if you notice a lot of people have been stepping their game up. They've been putting bath salts and things like that in their bath. But it goes a little step further. Each crystal as I broke down in my lecture spirit science which you can watch at my website uh youngfro.net each crystal and as well as food as I uh broke down in my lecture spirit diet every fruit like the way the ancestors knew how to manage themselves is because the sun has what is known as the electroinary spectrum which is it has stages of colors. Now everything created within a certain color spectrum has certain laws and principalities that it aderes to. So for example, right, your digestive tract or your stomach chakra is the color yellow, right? And this is associated with things such as banana peppers which are also yellow. And we know that when you're having digestive problems, if you eat banana peppers which are yellow, this helps to move the b uh the bowel process along with as well as other processes within your stomach aka your digestive tract. So we can see that the stomach chakra aka the digestive tract which is yellow is cleansed and associated with other of fruits and vegetables such as banana peppers which are yellow and they go hand in hand with together I mean hand in hand together as far as the synchronizational process. So we understand how did our ancestors know which herbs and berries and things like that to pick to help certain parts of their body is because everything was understood and associated by color and this can be studied in a branch of science known as colorology. Go look it up. It's an actual branch of branch of science. Now with that being said, same thing with crystals. The color of a crystal will tell you the function or I mean the part of the body that it positively or negatively functions with. For example, amethyst crystals. Everybody loves a crystals. They're purple. It's no coincidence that it goes hand in hand with your third eye, your pineal gland, which is your sit chakra, which is also purple. So that being said, each crystal has an energetic function or a bio frequency function for the bi for a bio for for a certain part of your bio field. Now when you take these frequencies right and you understand them and you understand the science of biotuning and you encompass this and you magnify all of this uh understanding and you uh let's say integrated with water now you're dealing with spiritual bathing. So that being said certain flowers as I already broke down release certain gases aka pheromones that induce certain psychological effects in the brain. This why you see people put rose petals in their bath. But there's all kind of different plants and herbs and flowers that you can put in your bath. Too many for me to get specific on to induce certain psychological effects. So, for example, before we break down the spirit bath and the science, let's just break down if we was making one up. Let's say if you if you was taking a bath and you needed to be happy, right? What you would do is you would find some flowers and some herbs, right, that are still living, of course, cuz they have to be given off the scent, right? And you would break down the science of this. I mean, you will you will go get the specific uh plant that that holds the information that you need, such as pheromones that give off positive joyful energy, and you will put them in your bath, right? And then we know that love and happiness is associated with the heart chakra. So, you would go get certain crystals that associated with the heart chakra, and you would put them in your bath, and then you would go get go get certain salts that are associated uh with what it is with the uh end effect that you're trying to achieve, and you would put them in your bath, right? And then you would play if not certain music, you would play a bio tune. For example, the heart rate uh frequency for love is 528 MHz. So you could play a frequency like that and that would put you in uh the the state of consciousness or the state of being that you're trying to be in. So with that being said, once you put all of these into the water, what you have to understand is right your bofield is what your electromagnetic field. your electromagnetic field begins to stimulate the frequency of the water as well as everything within the water is stimulating that frequency and then it be those molecules begin to bond with you because uh water is intelligent and your body is also made up of 85% water don't forget. So now everything you just put in that water now begins to bond with you and elevate your frequency to that state of being for the specific time period that you're in the water. So we talking about spirit bathing. Spirit bathing is nothing more than using the natural state of existence of all things to determine a certain frequency that we want to go to. Creating that realm within the tub or whatever contraption you're you're holding the water in and then submerging yourself into that frequency. And you seen them uh tap into or show y'all this this this science a little bit in the movie Constantine where he had to jump in the water to go to different realms. All they was telling you was that water was changing his frequency. And you seen them when they did the the uh the oultic execution on Whitney Houston and her daughter, they put them both in the tub, okay? Cuz they was showing you that they was changing they was changing their frequency. So that being said, there's books on spirit bathing is all kind of sciences out there on spirit bathing. I have a book myself on spirit bathing that you can go get and they'll actually show you how much uh like uh the ingredients and what amount to put this that and the third in and you can start taking you some spiritual baths. So with that being said, we are extraordinary deities and we have to start once again living extraordinarily. It's not about being uppidity. It's not about thinking you too good. It's about understanding this the science of intelligence and then executing it. Knowledge is to know. Wisdom is to exercise what you know. If you know how to build a car and you never build one, use an unwise ass nigga. Use an unwise mechanic. So with that being said, if we keep saying we built pyramids and we was intelligent and we was gods, nigga, then we need to start exercising our intelligence to go back to that. And one of the main reasons that we uh don't is because of peer pressure. So with that being said, family, everybody needs to override the fuckery and start doing extraordinary things because that will make you an extraordinary being. So with that being said, when we coming back to uh spirit baths, understand that your frequency is controlled by you at all times. So I just dropped the paou Ferala University on heart rate frequency, right? That's controlling your your your respiratory system in order to control how you re respond and react to phenomena that's outside your immediate control physically. But when we talking about controlling your frequency uh at all times outside of just being in control of your breath, you can also be be in control of how you cleanse your body. So taking a bath is not just about getting dirt from yourself externally. It's about getting dirt from yourself internally and certain negative emotions only exist at certain frequencies. So with that being said, you bond and absorb with water molecules. Water molecules are intelligent. So what you do is you actually concoct the water to the frequency that you want to go and then you go there. This is why people naturally now you know they was you we was already on on the way family but we didn't know why. We were subcon it was just like when people when your friends die in a hood and you pour some liquor out. You don't know that that's actually an African tradition that people do in Africa where they pour out certain waters and certain uh I mean certain alkaline waters and certain fruits for their ancestors. It's something that's subconsciously in your DNA. And you see black women now when they get in the bath, what they do, they light some candles, they put their pedals in there, they put their music on, they put their little their little towel or whatever they over their eyes and they become submerged and they go whether they in meditation or they just relaxing, they was it's coming the intelligence is coming out of your DNA. Remember when you're a genius, a genius is what? somebody who can pull information out of their genes at an accelerated pace opposed to another organism. So that's actually a subconscious uh genius trait that we already tapping into. Now we just understand the science of it. So with that being said, family, understand the science of what a spirit bath is and how important it is to actually take a spiritual bath. A bath that not only cleanses your body but raises your frequency. And once you understand the science, now you personally can understand what is wrong with you and start creating baths the same way you create food. Everybody don't cook different. Everybody shouldn't be I mean everybody don't cook the same. Everybody don't shouldn't be bathing the same either. Everybody don't got the same goddamn problem. So with that being said, the importance of being an individual should be magnified greatly because it will determine how you contribute to the whole. And one of the ways that you can upgrade how you live as an individual on this planet is simply elevating the way that you bathe. And with that being said, family, I love y'all. Peace.

Topic - Matrix not Existing

You see, to break yourself out of the matrix, you must understand that nothing exists. You must understand nothing. And when I say this, it confuses a lot of people because they have been taught to digest the concept of nothing or no thing as the absence of emptiness, a void. But I challenge that notion. So when we look at the word nothing, no thing, not anything, not something. Why is this important? Because when we look at um synonyms, we understand that naughty, which is evil, originally means zero, right? So when we look at not, which is nothing, nothingness, the number zero, and it's an evil act. So why is this important? Because evil is like cold. Cold is the absence of heat. Evil is the absence of love. So when we look at the word cipher as a symbol for zero, right? It comes from Arabic. We understand that they originally got it from the Indis Valley region. And this is in the Sanskrit Vidic knowledge. So when you study the tantric information right the vidic knowledge what you learn is that zero originally was a symbol for the womb right it wasn't this integer that uh was a placeholder right of no value right in reality it represented the womb why is this important because what if I told you that zero isn't the absence of it's the unlimited potential potential to be. And you can see that the spiritualness of zero is still there. Even though we get into concepts and we lose wonder because when you see zero as an integer put behind a number, it increases in value. So one goes to 10, 10 to 100, 100 to a,000, 1,000 to 10,000 because zero is an absence of, right? If the symbol itself represented nothing, then putting it behind another integer as a value, right, to symbolically mean something shouldn't be possible, right? Because symbols mean something, right? When we arrange them in a certain way, they portray a certain message. That's how glyphs and this type of stuff works when you study the history of language through um anthropology. So the reason why this is important is because often times you'll have edgy or atheist people and they'll say I don't believe in nothing religion or spirituality or folklores or myths you know myth just means oral story tradition these are all um coping mechanisms of earlier humans no it was not these were forms of sciences and this is why I tell people to study words first You see the word science just means state or fact of knowing. So what we have to understand about a lot of early spirituality is that these were forms of sciences. These were facts and states of knowing. And when we understand that we appreciate them more. For example, when we think about the concept of animism, right? Um the attributing of living souls to inanimate objects. Well, think about it. When we understand and look at the world with this wonder instead of a rigid concept, a fixed definition, a principle, we open ourselves to the mysteries and the possibility of the trees being alive, of the flowers being alive. And if you're up to date with your agonomic knowledge and science, there is a lot of research coming out about plants having maybe their own form of emotions. And the reason why this is important is because a lot of people laugh at our ancestors. But what we got to understand is that look at the economy today. If people today looked at trees as alive, looked at the river or the water as holding spirit, right? understood that the air we breathed was spiritual, maybe we wouldn't harm the earth. Maybe we wouldn't be so thirsty to cut down the Amazon rainforest, right? Maybe our ancestors respecting the environment and anthropomorphizing it like it did was really a mental meditation and a form of science, a way of knowing to stop them from destroying their environment like we do today. Have y'all ever thought about that? Have y'all ever thought about that humanizing and talking to a tree has financial implications when it's not a capitalistic infrastructure that's hungry to cut all the trees down. So of course they would have to form their own science or fact of knowing their own spiritual discipline because the word spirit and this is why I always tell people to learn words bro be careful be careful because you'll call yourself not believing in nothing and you believe in something because a spirit the animating vital principle of man or animals breathing and you can see that the word spirit is in words like inspiration right and this is why it's So important to understand this stuff a media influence of God or a god. So our ideas were person had personality right the ancestors believe that ideas could possess us that they were alive and I think about what I see today with this jingonistic violent patriotism that possesses people and makes them act out of body. I mean, how can I not say that America isn't some type of complex egregor, right? And when we understand this knowledge and what our ancestors believe, like for instance, I'm the type of person um if you ever seen any of my videos, you know, I break down how the Bible talks about dragons, right? Uh the Leviathan. And when you understand this, thou breakest the heads of the dragons in the water. Okay, a lot of people don't know, but the story of Jonah and the whale, right, was originally about a dragon. And when you look at the earliest depictions, he was swallowed by a dragon. And you can see this a lot in European culture. Why is this important? Well, because when you study other cultures, you understand that dragons were depicted in Chinese folklore and mythology. So maybe there's something to the symbolism of the dragon and what our ancestors felt that it represented, right? And I'm the type of person, you know, I'm all about day of the day of the speech, night of the night shoe of knowledge. There's no language or speech where their voice is not heard. Their line goes out throughout the earth and their words to the end of the world. So when I look at something like uh it is the child that sees the primordial secret in nature and it is the child of ourselves we return to the child within us is simple and daring enough to live the secret. Lousy and then you have Jesus saying you can tell this in red. Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted and become as little children, ye shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as a little child, the same is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. So once again, Psalms 19, day of the day of the speech, not in knowledge. There's no language or speech where the word of God is not heard. So the word of God and this knowledge that all our ancestors had from Afroasiatic to Indo-Uropean, you can see that there was certain consensus and certain idea, you know, I'm not trying to get into, you know, religion, spiritual wars, and I'm I'm above that and I like to look at everybody's perspective and talk about stuff. And what I've noticed is is that we lose ideas due to this rigid conceptualization of stuff. We have no wonder. We have no mystery. You believe in nothing but not understanding that nothing is something. That's why nightmare which is darkness may m a r e means ghouls or goblins. That's why in movies they show us that the darkness is really a portal to unlimited potential and possibility where these beings, these creatures crawl out from. So my friend, if you're on this intellectual philosophical horse of nothing exists and humans are just trying to rationale uh emptiness and the void that we're hurdling to, I would question if there really is a void because in our physical reality there is no absence of. You go outside the tree and couplets, you never just see one thing. It's an experience. Oneness is a manufacturing of capitalism. Only type of oneness there is is the unique experience that we all go through in this universe. One verse in the book of life. And do we all share our one experiences as the collective when we harmonize into unity. Right? So that's the only true one. Oneness my brothers and sisters. So don't be confused by nothing.

Topic - Spiritual Marriage

I'm going to save everyone a lot of time since I was born in this world with a lot of inner wisdom and have since remembered what that wisdom entails and why. You will never feel complete until you integrate with your soul and understand who your soul is and who is talking to you from a soul standpoint in your mind versus what is not your soul, which are thoughts that come into your field that then you act out. And there are levels with what those thoughts are attached to. And then once you integrate with your soul, you then start to understand who you really are. So then you can find your counterpart who you were already spiritually married to. So life constantly tests you to see if you will settle for relationships that are not aligned with you. And you are initially put in families that have distorted views of love and marriage, which is a majority of the world on purpose. So you can inherit programming habits that you must then overcome that were still lingering in your soul field. So then you can reach divine union. And then once you reach divine union, you overcome the world completely and remember what true love is. This is the highest form of heaven. And I've spoken about this in other videos. You will always feel like something is missing even when you marry someone in this world because they're not truly your divine counterpart if you do not know who your soul is. So if you continue to operate in this world and feed the egoic storylines and you do not do the inner work, you will continue to be in relationships that are not aligned with who you really are. And you will never be satisfied. And you will never be satisfied by companies that you build and make all this money. You will never be satisfied with doing adrenaline type behaviors where you continue seeking more and more things to seek adrenaline. And I'm telling you like I originally already had this wisdom inside of you and then I remembered it but I also just you know I've I've done the traveling I've done the um the adrenaline spiking the skydiving the parasailing and guess what I felt absolutely nothing. The mind will spin stories and it will say, "Oh, you should go try this. You should try this fix. This fix this fix." And so you do it right. You try the drugs. You do it all. And then guess what? You still feel empty inside. It creates a pleasure, a short-term pleasure. And the sooner that you recognize that this pleasure is temporary, the sooner you will do the inner work to realize what is the point of life? Why are you here? And I'm giving you the answer. The answer is A, you need to integrate with your soul. And B, you need to recognize what true spiritual marriage is. This is why the first chapter of Genesis in the Bible is so critical because God created us in their image. I don't think God is a male. So I hate that we reference he, but God created us in the image of itself. and created us in a pair and we have to first learn to love ourselves in order to love our counterpart in human form. It is the greatest gift that we can have and you basically attract relationships in your life to allow you to overcome distorted views of love. So if you were in an abusive relationship or born into a family where abusive relationships occurred, that is because a you needed to overcome that really quickly so you wouldn't enter an abusive relationship. That's like the smart path, right? If you didn't learn the lesson, then you have to enact the lesson. Meaning you will then attract abusive relationships to overcome that level. Um, and also you have to recognize that all of the characters in the game you've played because they are played out by different points of consciousness. And so therefore, you probably were the you were the one that abused others in a previous lifetime of some sort. These are things that you have to feel through even though your soul is pure. So these are parts of levels in the game. Everyone thinks if they're in their ego that their story is special and that they are a victim and they identify with their Saab story. But I'm here to tell you that your story is not unique. You are enacting a collective level that you chose to experience in this life. When you start to view life this way, you will awaken and you will climb up back like you will overcome the levels. And life specifically puts you in these situations where you know you're in corporate America or you're not in corporate America but you're playing the game or you're in the influencer field or you are you know watching reality television or watching different TV shows. Like all of these are tools for you to analyze the collective levels of scripts so you can overcome them and recognize them when they enter your field and re and and view them from a third-party observer of how absolutely ridiculous they are. And then you have to admit to yourself that you're not happy in relationships built off egoic scripts. There is no way you are experiencing true divine love when your relationship is not integrated in your soul. This is literally the foundation of the entire purpose of why you're here. But you have to do the inner work to acknowledge it and to really ask yourself what is marriage? Because most relationships in this world are built off of the ego. And so, uh, doing the inner work is the most critical. And then if if God puts someone in your life that feels real, if you're not ready, you won't be able to hold it. Because when you're ready to actually accept divine union, you will know that you are staring into the eyes of God in another being all the time. And it's not just that you can read them and that you're staring into their eyes. It's that you know that they're conscious that they are channeling and basically a child of God. So you basically have a relationship with two conscious beings that have integrated with their soul and know that they are embodying God in divine human form. And this is the basis of Christianity. This is what Jesus Christ represented. This is the highest path. If you are doing anything in life and life is throwing things at you that are distracting you from this truth, you are out of alignment. You will continue to spin in circles. You will continue to be unfulfilled and nothing will satisfy you and you will feel empty inside until you recognize that first you need to integrate with yourself so then you can be with your counterpart and then you will feel like the joy is going to be beyond it. And like this is something I know deep in my soul. And when you know that you are and you acknowledge and you remember that you are spiritually married to another person already in the soul realm which is the only realm that exists and the material world is an illusion of that. So when you go and you're physical with people that are not that you know in your heart are not spirit-like are not your partner spiritually. You are cheating on your partner and you are giving yourself away to someone that is not compatible with you. And not only that, they're technically spiritually married to someone else and you are inheriting all of their pain into your field. And it is absolutely insane. Like the avatar of the human body is partially an illusion meant to house a spirit. So when you're physical with someone that is not aligned with you, you're basically sleeping with someone's spirit that's not your partner. And you have to comprehend this and really process it in order to move forward.

Topic - Parallel Universe & Reverse Polarity

All right, family. Let's hop right into it. Okay, so I highly suggest if you have not seen the movie um Doctor Strange the Multiverse, you guys should really watch that. That will answer a lot of things about what's going on. So yes, I'm the guy who has been explaining to you that you have a parallel universe, right, where you're mainly at your highest format and then you have a format where we're in now where you seem to be this the lowest format of your um higher self, but you really are the senses of your higher self and together it activates time traveling uh different realities, multiveres. Okay. Now, um, in Doctor Strange, he said they went to, uh, the girl who could, uh, travel, her name was America, right? The girl who could travel through multiple, um, places. He said, hey, um, she didn't know how to use her powers. He said, "So, hey, how how come in this dimension you can't just find yourself and um, find a version of you that knows how to use her power?" She said, "I can't." He said, "How do you know that?" She said, "Because I don't dream." So, she was clear. Let me break that down for you. So, she was clearly stating that she can't she's not a multi-dimensional being. There's only one version of her. You see what I'm saying? And she was the only ver only only version of herself. You feel what I'm saying? Instead of her having multiple beings and multiple realities, she was the only one who could go through multiple realities and multiple um universes, right? That's why the witch that was chasing her, key word, the Americans under the spell, her name's America. The witch that was chasing her wanted her power because they were all so powerful. So was Doctor Strange. But they could not um they could not just go to different universes like her, right? And what did they call her? A day walker. You see what I'm saying? or a daydreamer, which somebody who could literally dream in in real life, like in in in the daytime. You feel what I'm saying? Without sleeping. Now, check this. This where it gets deep. Rapid eye movement. What causes rim sleep, right? I'mma show you something. Now, what causes rim sleep, which is rapid eye movement, can refer to involuntary, which means there's no will in doing it and there's no control in doing it. It just happens, right? um eye jerking called nestagmas, right? Or movement during rim sleep um which cause varying nestagmas stems from brain/iner ear issues, medication or injury. While rim sleep movement, dreaming, okay, are a normal brain function. Though rim sleep behavior disorder acts out dreams, acting out dreams resulting from brain stem dysfunction often linking to neuro um u neurodeenerative uh disease like parkinson, right? Now everybody know Parkinson is when when you have that shaking problem, right? You shake, you shake. Now I'm about to break this down. Okay? Now you remember in Doctor Strange, right? When he was shaking like this, he was moving his hands, right? They were shaking like that the whole time when he was fighting against certain forces, right? They call that Parkinson disease. You see what I'm saying? Now, they don't want to let you know. Remember I told you anything that doesn't um provide uh the system an aid, right? Or doesn't promote the system. They call it a disorder or disease. You feel what I'm saying? To the system. They got names for everything. Like you have ADHD, you have unlimited energy. You can pull energy out from anywhere, which is called nuclear fusion. You see what I'm saying? You're autistic. You can literally do things that are above normal. You feel what I'm saying? That's why that's why they call it um they call it autism, right? Most of your doctors who do the best surgeries are autistic. They can do nerve surgery. Not even a computer can do that. Just think about it. You feel what I'm saying? Also, people who are autistic can literally hop in through different timelines. That's why they can't really speak to you or talk to you in certain ways that they don't understand at that timing. All right. Now, this gets Now, remember everything you see right now, everything you see around me, it don't matter who you are or what you are, it only looks how it look, the way that light is reflecting off of it. Okay? That's the only only way you see things is the way that light reflects off a object. I'm not really holding this can. You feel what I'm saying? It's just the way the light reflects off of it that makes it look real. Your mind makes this shit real. You see what I'm saying? Why do you think they how they when they when they say they want to make America great again? They want to make America this and this and that. They're all just distractions and advertisement in your world. Your emotions and your mind. See, your mind makes it real. No, your mind makes it form. Your um emotions make it real. You see what I'm saying? That's why people be trying to um it's like it's like um a bully, right? You don't know you're getting bullied until you realize like when somebody tells you like um they're they're picking on you. They're bullying you. You like for real? I didn't I didn't think about it like that. Now you know they're bullying you. You ain't trying to let nobody get one over you. You feel what I'm saying? Because you recognize it now. Now this is my thing. If you could only see now with your eyes open, you recognize you see things the way that uh light reflects off of it. So that means um light right light um exposes things. So why when you close your eyes and you have a dream, right? Your eyes are closed. You can't see nothing. It's dark, right? What light is reflecting the images that you are seeing while you sleep? Take a moment and think about it. Again, I'm going to say, what light inside of you in darkness is reflecting and putting out images in real life scenarios? You see what I'm saying? Anything that's rapid means it's super fast. Okay? Just like if you play Call of Duty, you remember rapid fire, the gun sprays a lot quicker and faster, right? It's just you're shooting. You feel what I'm saying? Think about that now. Are eyes moving at the light of at the speed of light? You see what I'm saying? Are your eyes moving at the speed of light? Because you can move so fast in light. You feel what I'm saying? It will u it will cause it would cause you to see certain things. You feel what I'm saying? If you were time traveling, if you can move at the speed of light, you can leave the atmosphere. So, it seems like our natural glyph, our natural gift is to leave the realms. You feel what I'm saying? But to recognize it, you got to talk to yourself. You got to believe in yourself. You got to put faith in yourself because that's where everything is happening inside. If you live in this reality outside of yourself and you think it's just a dream, you feel what I'm saying? Then that's just what it will be. Your mind forms everything. Your emotions make it real. You see what I'm saying? Your body can act out as they call it Parkin Parkinson's disease or Parkinson's disease, right? Your body can act out and experience that it's living on a whole another world yet you're here doing the same functionings. Right? Remember in Avatar when they when they pulled him out when they pulled him out of the Avatar, he just drops. He just falls. Right? Can't move. move the avatar is done, right? And then he wakes back up and goes back into the machine, right? And goes back into it. He wakes up, he pop up, and he's able to move and do all his shit, right? Same happens for you when you dream and you're so I know y'all had um y'all woke up tons of times and your body was just still laying still. You couldn't move or nothing cuz you were waiting for your soul to enter back into your body from traveling. That explains that they call it sleep paralysis. It's not sleep paralysis. Okay. Also, who remembers in Doctor Strange? That's why I'm telling you, watch Multiverse. It's going to explain everything that I be trying to explain to y'all because I can't really say too much, but I say everything which is crazy. You feel what I'm saying? That duality is a motherfucker, right? But remember in Doctor Strange, the witch was using a version. She closed her eyes and she found a version of herself in the reality and she used that version of herself to handle her business to get to Doctor Strange. Remember Doctor Strange found that dead version of him, right? cuz he said how it don't matter if I'm dead or alive. Who said I need a live version of me in order to um to use a version of me? He made that dead version of him wake up and he looking around. You feel what I'm saying? And he's sitting here but he's there using his body. She's sitting there but she's using her body. You feel what I'm saying? To do things. That's what we can do at free will. And it's coming to that point now. Remember it's from we're going from a 3D to a 5D. A 5D is when your merkupa body can literally you can literally go through dimensions. That's literally what it is. The fifth dimension. Fifth dimension in a theoretical concept in um physics and metaphysics, right? Representing an extra dimension beyond our familiar three spatial length, width, and height and one time dimension. often described as a hidden spatial uh direction that could link parallel universes or unifying fundamental forces or spirituality or spirituality as a higher state of consciousness where all possibilities and timelines exist simultaneously. Y'all think I'm making this shit up? Do your research. Realize what the fuck is truly going on. I'm explaining you everything that's been going on. I'm explaining the consciousness, the rise in it in the flesh right now. And I go places, I sleep, I talk to myself, I get my information, and I wake up and I tell you guys from a whole another universe, you can do it, too. Wake up. Peace. A. All right, this one's for the books. Okay, make sure you like this video and save it because what I tell you right now is going to literally explain everything scientifically because we literally are the alchemists of the earth, the universe, and the cosmos. Okay? When a negative charge takes over a positive charge, it's a misnomer for the process of attraction and neutralization, just as a neutron, okay? which occurs because opposite charges attract each other. A negative charge can move towards and combine with a positive charge resulting in attraction and ultimately neutralization of the charges. Okay, neutralization. When a negative charged object comes into contact with a positively charged object, electrons can flow from the negative object to the positive one until both objects reach a state of equal charge balance. Okay, my explaining this shit through the walls. It's written on the walls. Okay, now check this. Now, I'm going to prove something to you. All right, this is where we get into reverse polarity. This is for all those people who are like, "What if God was Satan and Satan was God?" You're not far off from the picture. And I'm going to explain that. Okay. If someone thinks the positive pole is a negative pole and connects them incorrectly, it is called reverse polarity connections. The results can range from nothing happening to immediate, severe, and dangerous damage depending on the type of device and power source involved. Okay? Now, you are a power source, right? And you have many sources of power just like you have many forms of energy that you can collect from. Okay? Now, check this. So, I looked up reverse polarity. Reverse polarity is an electrical conduction where the hot positive and neutral remember middle negative wires are connected incorrectly, sorry swapping their intended position. This can create a shock hazard. Shock hazard as the casting of the device can become energized when it is turned off. Indirect current DC system which means direct current right systems. It means the positive and negative terminals of the battery are swapped which can damage devices and shorten battery life. Key word your electric your electrical energy right or cause a short circuit causing a a misconfusion right in your energy or your aura field. Okay. Now check this. Now I looked up reverse polarity spiritual meaning. Okay, which I I got the sum of this. I just had to make sure I was I was on the right track because this is instantly the thought that I got cuz remember it's attraction positive and negative attraction, right? When they're balanced out, it becomes neutral, stable. Okay. In a spiritual context, reverse polarity often refers to a imbalance not may in relationship dynamics where both partners are perceived as embodying the same energetic principle such as both being in a dominant masculine or receptive feminine role. Okay. This is why it's very important for fathers to be fathers and mothers to be mothers to their children because it causes an imbalance. Okay. This can lead to a breakdown in attraction and desire. Spirituality. The term can also be used metaphorically such as religious okay concept of the polarity of the heart being reversed by a divine aka god power allowing a person to to to turn towards God being reversed by a divine power allowing a person to turn towards God. It's a negative It's a ne negative effect. This is why I tried to tell you I tell y'all if you're serving God outside of yourself, that is a crime. That is so-called evil. That is so-called bad. It's not good for you. Okay, check this. So, it says in relationship form, right? imbalance instead of a natural or neutral um comp compliment comp complimentary dynamic of opposites like masculine and feminine energies. Both partners are identified with the same pole. Loss of attraction. This lack of contrast can cause sexual tension to fade resulting in a shift from passionate connection to mere companionship. This is why a lot of y'all end up breaking up with your wives or breaking up with your husbands and talking about we were better off as friends or it just didn't work out. No, you weren't playing your roles right. That's the problem. A female cannot tell a man how to play his role and a man can't tell a female how to play their roles. They must be balanced. So, if he is the way he is and that's what you was attracted to from the get-go, you can't change that. Otherwise, you're changing your whole circuit. You're changing your whole re your whole wiring process. Then you're going to what's the results? You're going to have to play the mascul masculine role. And what happens? It damages you. It tires you out. And you never have time no more. Think. Just think. All right. Same goes for vice versa. Or the effect is your kid going to think he's feminine or your feminine is going to think she's masculine. That's that's just how the roles go, right? So check this examples. Still in relationship, right? Two partners clashing because both are in control or drifting apart because both are overly passive. Healing shifting back involves one partner stepping into each pole of the spectrum creating momentum and energy through their contrast. Now this is just religion aspect. Now let's I mean um relationship aspect. Now let's get into religion. Okay. All this is about I'm telling you the Bible every everything is science. Once you get out of religion, you'll understand that everything is science. You're an alchemist. You're you're a wizard. However you want to put it, like you're a fucking genius, right? So, while they got you looking into the books, they using the science of it it to control the world. All right? Now, check this. In a religious or spiritual sense, reversing the polarity of the heart. In some religious contexts, this means a spiritual transformation occurs allowing a person to turn away from sin and towards God. Divine intervention. It could be it can be seen as a power beyond human control where a divine force reverse the polarity of the heart to enable a person to receive and respond a spiritual message. Okay. Now, that seems good, but I'm going show you how that takes the power outside of yourself, okay? And puts it somewhere else where it lies dormant. All right? Now, watch this. Shifting your spiritual direction. It relates to choice to follow. It relates to the choice to follow one's path versus another such as choosing God's way of life over a self-centered path. Right? Your journey is your journey. Your mission is your mission. Your purpose is your purpose. If you start living for God, you're not living for yourself. If you start following God's ways and God's laws, they abide by you and you have no freedom. It takes your free will away. Okay? So, you're not doing it because you think is right or you feel is right. You're doing it because that's the only way, right? God's way to some people. All right? Now, I'm going to explain something to you that totally eradicates. So proof when two poles, right, are swapped and you're not understanding what is what, it causes confusion. So a lot of you guys think that we're looking up in the sky when really we're looking down. We're not rooted into the ground, okay? Like a tree does. So if it if a tree turns and it turns, it's not going to change its shape or its image, right? But if you turn gravity off, we're going to literally fall. So we're literally upside down. Our eyes, you can look this up. We see things upside down. Our brain makes it look like it's normal when it's not though. But that's what the brain's supposed to do because it's called your occipital lo. It actually it actually um you don't see with these, you observe with these, right? What what um preview what what it perceives is what the brain affects, right? You take how many of you guys got iPhones? My natural rule was talking about this. How many of you guys got iPhones? You take a photo straight, right? Or on one side and the best side is on the opposite side. How many of you guys look in the mirror and you lift up this hand and the right hand pops up? See what I'm saying? You guys have to understand we live in reverse polarity. Okay, another sense. Why does the right side of the brain controls the left side of the body and the left side of the brain controls the right side of the body? Think about Antarctica. The most coldest area is in the southern hemisphere. The south really is the north and the north is really the south. Okay? And the the west is really the east. The east is really the west. I can prove these things. Just like in in Egypt or Kimmit, but you guys probably know it as Egypt. Upper Egypt is lower Egypt and lower Egypt is upper Egypt. You can't make this shit up. So if I reverse your thinking, a lot of you guys going to think that's this is why a lot of people think that something in the Bible is good for them because that's what they were taught and it's really destroying them and conquering them and you can't see it because you believe into the negativity as it's good which is part of your creation power to process these things.

Topic - Expansion of Nervous System Through Metaphysics

Don't think of it as a sacrifice. Think of it as an offering because remember your body is the altar. They externalized your power and named it Jesus. But at the core you are God. So what you are doing in your selfmastery journey is that you are worshiping yourself by learning the aspects of yourself through the process of healing or expanding your nervous system. So when it comes to channeling, when you make these offerings, no one can actually tell you what you should be doing. It's all based on what you feel safe or what you feel aligned accomplishing accomplishing. So what that looks like is sometimes you'll get a urge that you absolutely know you don't want to partake in, but it does align with the urges that you are internally experiencing. So if you're in the process of manifestation and you are stepping into your new reality, you are you are taking your mindset to a new dimension of thinking, you have to act as if you are that being. You have to act as if you are that entity. Sidebar, this is why racism became so successful because as soon as they painted God as a white man, then he took over the entire world. Now backtracking to our original conversation, once you step into that being, you take on its light form, which means that you will act, you will have the same urges, triggers, and sensations. So for example, I can give you an example from my experience. Months ago, I was channeling this urge to smoke a cigarette. I have not smoked a cigarette in over 10 years. I quit very early on, and I did it cold turkey. So that isn't really stored in my nervous system. So I'm not familiar with that. But I'm I'm familiar with where I was or the frequency of my nervous system back when I was addicted to smoking tobacco. So instead, what I did was I countered that because I made I made a counter offer because anytime that you are in any state of worship, whether it's yourself or if you're a person who worships other entities in order to conjure them, the the there must be a balance between what you're offering or what you're considering, in this case, a sacrifice. So, the sacrifice would be me going ahead and getting that cigarette even though I know it doesn't align with who I am today. That was the old me. You got the urge to smoke. I'm going to go break down some tea. I'm going to break down that tea and I'm going to roll it up in a rose petal and then that is going to be your cigarette. Now, give me my channel. And the the idea is not necessarily what you smoke uh as far as whether or not it is healthy. Again, that's all I can't I can't limit you to my personal idea of how to fulfill that sensation. But it's not necessarily about what you smoke, but it's about the intention behind it. the chemical process that take place when you are actually inhaling a any sort of vapor because vapor etmologically you can connect that word to spirit and what we are the cycle that we are going through from the 9year over to the 10 which is completion is the calling in of the messiah that is all the healing work that we're doing so everybody is on a collective healing journey for a reason because this is an aspect of our ascension as a people. So, um, all of that corresponds to you healing your nervous system and in order for you to step into that new world or if you have a religious background, in order for you to gain access to the kingdom of heaven, then you have to walk as if you are actively having that experience, which means that you have to do the things that you feel called to do in order to receive the information that will help you gain that access to the next dimension of the experience that you desire to have. But keep in mind these are these entities that you are channeling, the information that you are challenging or channeling is coming from the one source and the one source is just your consciousness. So the the thoughts you may have, the information that you may pro process, the feelings or sensations that you have is based on who you see yourself as when you're doing this type of work. This isn't this isn't related to anything else. We're talking about manifestation here. So when you manifest, you have the intent and then you make the aligned action and the the action is aligned based on what your the capacity that you hold in your nervous system. So if your nervous system is rejecting the idea or if my nervous system was rejecting the idea to smoke a cigarette, which it was, it was, then I knew that I shaped the way that I perceive smoking in and of itself because I understand the chemical process and how that um how that helps to call in the divine feminine. That the same with incense, herbs, all of that. is is the essence that vapor is a conjuring element. Um however because I knew that aspect of it metaphysically I was able to make certain sacrifice sacrifices in order to start channeling. So I so I instead my nervous system rejected the cigarette but it accepted the new neurological framing that I did around the idea of smoking. And so I was able to channel a better alternative. So people aren't people aren't channeling better alternatives because they have calcified nervous systems and the density of your nervous system, you don't get good quality light codes. Think of this as your internet provider. When you get a smaller business, more local, your connection on a 400 gig, a 400 megabyte plan is not going to give you the same quality of experience as a much larger company that could probably offer you one gig plans. Your connection isn't as good. It's choppy. The same like if you think of the advancement on technology, we went from the TV with the static in it to a flat screen, right? So the so so what you're channeling can either be the old school not as advanced flat screen that was closer to the analogous age or you could get the better quality 4K UHD XYZ whatever they calling it today if that makes sense. So you doing the work to heal your nervous system when it comes to your manifestation in the spiritual realm. Absolutely. matters when it comes to what type of energy you'll be channeling with from within yourself.

Topic - Nervous System & the “Kingdom Of Heaven”

So let's take a moment to understand what the Bible means by the kingdom of heaven. Whenever you are generating money, your money generates first energetically because everything that materializes in the physical world is mirroring that of the spirit. So your money is generated by how much energy you emit from your biofield. Your biofield is your heart chakra. That's why it's necessary to establish heart coherence before you go on your or while you're on your healing journey. Because at the end of you recognizing the patterns and clearing your karma so that you can create new experiences, you are going to by nature start to generate wealth. Wealth can be in the form of love. It can be in the form of relationships, opportunities, businesses and actual money in your bank account. That is actually this is what happens when you flush your nervous system. That is the concept behind or the purpose of metaphysical healing because flushing out your nervous system and uprooting your trauma to create better experiences through neuroplasticity. This is what science calls neuroplasticity is what uproots you from the 3D so that you can transcend your consciousness and have experiences of better quality. So with that being said, once you restore heart coherence by learning how to regulate your emotions and control your mindset, this is the science of mindfulness that is discussed in spirituality. That's a part of the healing journey. Once you're able to do that, then you will strengthen your biofield because the heart once you regulate your emotions, the heart regulates the body, which is done through your nervous system because the heart is 50,000 times stronger as far as the energy that it emits compared to your mind, which is your subconscious. So you being able to regulate your emotions flushes out your nervous system and through that you have a better capacity to hold wealth. So that biofield that gets strengthened through this process through you breaking the narcissistic spell and narcissism in this case or on my page as I teach is a third-dimensional program. It anchors you in density so that you vibrate so slowly that your time seems as though it is not moving. This is the science of you being stuck in the past and repeating the patterns of toxicity. The generational trauma that you're supposed to be breaking is this narcissistic spell on your consciousness that keeps your mind or your perception in 3D. When you reach the point in your journey where you have more capacity to hold energy which corresponds in the 3D as wealth in terms of love, peace and money. Then essentially you have reached the king dome of heaven. We know heaven is the mind but the king dome is the biofield which in spirituality we refer to as the aura. Your aura is emitted from your heart chakra. And the heart chakra being green is the reason we know that money corresponds to that frequency or you reaching that frequency. Also notice that the kingdom of heaven is in the middle which means once you reach once you start to empower this portal this heart chakra portal then you will have integrated your energy. This is when you restore harmony. All of this is part of neuroplasticity, metaphysical healing and flushing your nervous system and emotional regulation and intelligence as they discuss in psychology. These are just different terms or variations of the same thing. But it is embedded in religion because religion is a guide to breaking the narcissistic spell of the 3D. That is why organizations like church, the external church, not the church that is your body, teach you these stories, these religious stories as if they occurred literally. That's because it densifies your consciousness and keeps you anchored to the 3D. It's all a narcissistic program. Narcissism drains you of your frequency just like it does when you're in a relationship and it's full of toxicity. This just happens on a more quantum level affecting your subconscious and your accashic records which disconnects you from your divine memory. Now with that being said, keep in mind that this is Matthew 6:33. Seeking the kingdom of heaven is seeking the science of metaphysical healing. However, that science of metaphysical healing will then bring upon you your riches, your energetic w riches and your energetic wealth. This is materialism. All these things will be given to you once you reach a level of consciousness that integrates all the different fragments of you, all the different parts which Carl Jung in psychology refers to as the shadow. The Bible refers to these shadows as Satan. It's your advisor. It's your adversary. It's the energy or your own personal demons. Your inner geniuses because the etymology of gen of demon is genius. It's your own demons that are getting in the way of your alignment and you reaching that point in Christ energy. Christ's energy is just crystalline energy. That crystallization is you lightening or lessening the density of your cells on a quantum level so that you can rapture your nervous system out of its hail. So this takes you out of your karmic patterns that you are choosing and therefore placing upon yourself. Now the 633 is significant because six is 33 when you expand it. But six is also symbolic to the mother frequency. That's the heart chakra. Six is the mother code. That's self-love, nurturing. That's what happens when you flush your nervous system so that you can raise your frequency. 33 is Christ conscious energy. So the only way to the father is through the son. The sun is Christ which is symbolic to your kundalini energy. This is basically a map of what happens when you allow your kundalini to rise. Also in this case seeking righteousness is about how closely you align to your personal intent and purpose.

We're going to be starting off with the unified field and at the end we're going to be dealing with uh solar ascension or physical ascension. So, that being said, what is the unified field? The unified field family is the electromagnetic grid which makes up the universe. So, this is just non visible to the eyes. So, let me throw this on the board. So this is what you call the unified field.

Now why is this important? This is literally the blueprint. So when you get the word blueprint, this is where they get it. This is where they get the concept of drawing a blueprint from. This is literally the esoteric fabric of the universe. This is the blueprint. Everything in existence comes out of the vibratory state which is called in quantum science and quantum mechanics the unified field. So now let me give you a uh understanding of how big this field is. This picture with this horizon and the rest of the g the rest of the universe that you see with the stars out doesn't do the unified field any justice on how big it is. So when they say the universe is constantly expanding, this is what they're talking about. This unified field is constantly expanding. Now why is this important? on the unified field. We might literally, let's just pick a random spot. We might be here. So, our galaxy might be this little corner right here on the unified field. And this entire square right here that you see might be a universe in itself. So, when they say there's univ infinite universes within a universe, we're speaking about the unified field. So, this right here could be a universe. This right here could be a universe. This right here could be a universe. This right here could be a universe. And we've only went through four squares on the unified field. And yet we've accessed four un four universes. Well, yet we're just a small microcosmic being on a planet that lives inside of a solar system that exists inside of a galaxy that exists inside of a Milky Way that exists inside of our universe. So when you understand how big the universe is and how magnificent physical reality is, then you understand how important you how important the ego is in reality, which is not very important. You're just this big in contrast to the universe. So we're not trying to degrade anyone, but we want people to think on a quantum level. Black people, we are quantum beings. We exist anywhere on this unified field where there's humanoid life, there is what you can call a melanated being. So with that being said, understand our galactic importance in contrast to what you call reality. Now why is this important? This unified field vibrates into existence what you would call stars or suns as you can see here. Now how are stars manifested? Through radio frequency. If you look up the definition of radio frequency, it will say any electromagnetic signal carrying specifically sound messages. So the sun is actually speaking. It actually has a voice. Now your ears can only hear up to 20,000 MHz of sound. The universe is so loud that you literally can't hear it. So the this unified field can't even be analyzed on an audio level by your brain because it has too high of a frequency. So now why is this important? Everything is just sound vibrating into existence. Melanin is just condensed sunlight. Remember sunlight is nothing more than electric electricity and magnetism combined. Electricity and magnetism comes from the radio frequency which is sound. So now why is this important? The unified field is ran by the quantum mind which we call God. God is the highest extent of the mind which uses elements and matter to express itself. So it is the cosmic mind because you have the conscious mind which is what we use which governs 10% of what we do on a reality basis. Then you have the subconscious mind which is the 90% of your mind that you don't even know is unconsciously governing your 10% conscious mind. And then you have the highest level of your mind which is God mode which you access through the crown chakra which is this. So once you tap into the unified field you become all knowing. Why? Because you become interconnected to all things. So now family when you want to break down the unified field in us you have to understand that you are not your body. You are a light being. So you are an extension of the material or the or the cosmic fabric woven in this unified field. So now let me throw this picture up here so that we can have a proper understanding. Okay. So, you are not your body. Now, you once melanate once the um matter of fact, let me give y'all the order of creation so that y'all can understand how you're connected to the unified field. Somewhere on this unified field, a plasmic wormhole creates what you call today a Milky Way system. And in the Milky Way system, it creates what you call a galaxy. Now, how are galaxies and Milky Way systems formed? First stars are born. So you see these stars. What happens is stars are just suns individually uh spaced apart. So the star that's closest to us is our sun. But a star that's farther from us, I mean a sun that's farther from us is what we call a star because it doesn't directly control our solar system. Now why is this important? When antimatter and matter meet, okay, it creates light. Now what happens is this at this point of electromagnetic frequency because electronics remember electronics is just a controlled manipulation of electrons. So if you can if you can control the direction of an electron the speed of an electron the size of an electron you are dealing with what they call electronics. Now why is this important? At the electron at a certain um point I mean at a certain electronic point in the galaxy I mean in the in the universe on a unified field this unified field the creator began to speak into existence aka radio frequency which you would call a star or a sun. Now this sun begins to grow and create an electromagnetic spectrum and at 432 terz frequency it become it begins to create physical color I mean physical reality starting with the color red. Now it goes through all of the colors throughout the terz frequency until it gets to 780 terahertz which is the color purple. After the color 780 terahertz frequency melanin begins to condense the electromagnetic wavelength begins to condense. Go look at the electromagnetic spectrum you'll see. Also go look at my video solar existence as well as seven levels of existence and I show the condensation of the electromagnetic wave. Now why is important? After the sun has been vibrating for trillions of years it explodes. is it it it does what you call a supernova. So once the sun explodes, what they don't tell you in public schools is the sun actually creates not just elements but cells and and bio and bio and biological matter. So what happens is the star the sun explodes. Boom. And it it creates what science calls stardust. There's no such thing as dust out of space. Stardust is just the composition of chemical elements such as carbon, nitrogen, oxygen, helium, all of that as well as gen as well as genes and biological or genetic material. So this is why our bodies are made up of carbon which science can prove we're made up of billions and trillions of years old of billions and trillion year old stars and suns. So now what happens is all of this stard dust is now traveling across the galaxy. So now as it's traveling across the galaxy, it comes in it comes into the magnetic field of another star or sun and it gets caught up into that star or sun's orbit. And what happens is it's no longer traveling. Now it's caught up in the magnetic field of the sun which we would call a orbit and it begins to rotate and it begins to blend together. So just like the same way you put fruit different fruits in a smoothie and make a fruit smoothie is the same way different elements biochemical genetic material in in genes and DNA blend together in an orbit to create planets and humanoid and animal and plant and plant life on that planet. So just like when you bake a cake it doesn't automatically come out hard and solid. It has to go through a biochemical state. So while the planet earth was in its biochemical state, it went through I mean it is seated on it. I mean seated on the planet earth while in its biochemical state is what science will confirm is proaryotic cells. Proarotic cells are created directly out of the womb of the cosmos and the sun and proaryotic cells grew to become what we call today the African black woman. And from the black woman derived the black man. Now why is this important? Why am I making this connection? Because I have to show you as black people, we are born out of born out of the womb of the cosmos and spiritually and physically and we are still interconnected to the unified field. So now the planet earth has been created. Now your physical vessel has been created. Now your soul can reincarnate into the body that was manifested on a unified field for you which is an extension of the creator of the unified field to experience his own self. So now through the chakras which if you go watch my video seven levels of existence I show how each chakra is connected to the to the sun and to different levels of of uh existence. So go watch that video now assuming that you did or you watch my hijacking the human being lecture. Assuming that you did you know that your body emits its own electromagnetic field or what science calls the energy field or what the ancestors called your aura. So through your aura you are connected to the earth's magneettosphere family. So you have your chakras which is just your spiritual electronic energy commuting through your spine from the root from from from below your feet which is the 10th chakra all the way through your crown chakra which is the seventh chakra. And your personal electromagnetic energy field is connected individually to the higher latitude of latitude lines of the planet earth aka the earth's magnetic energy field. So your body is just your avatar and your soul which is in the body is what is electronically powering it to create this energy field the same way a battery powers a phone. So now with that being said family, you are intertwined electronically, physically by I mean electronically, biologically to the unified field through the sun. So now why is this important when we dealing with spiritual ascension? Let me get this up there for y'all. So these could all be in your so you can have all of these on your mind, family. Give me a second. I want both of these up there at the same time. Boom. So now family and I'mma hold this one. Now you understand the grid. So the smallest fabric of your being is the unified field. And out of the unified field came a came the sun which helped create your biological body as you can see here for you to inhabit. And your body's magnetic field is interconnected to the planet that it's in. So your body is the house for your soul and the planet is the house for your body. You follow me? So everything is is as above so below. So now with that being said, why is this important? Because we going to go into something now family. We going to turn up. Okay. There's a planet, a 10th planet in our solar system titled Planet X, Nibberu, whatever you want to call it, that the Europeans have been hiding. But this planet has been documented as I show in my Anunnaki lecture. Go watch it. Anunnaki et agenda. It was documented by the Egyptians and all other civilizations. Now, why is this planet important and what is the significance in regards to this planet to us? As you can see, this planet takes 3,600 years to complete a orbit. So, this is planet Nibbu. This is our solar system. And this is our sun. So, now this is planet Earth right here, family. Let's say this is planet Earth. It takes 3,600 years for this planet to go from our galaxy, which is the 18th galaxy, and as you can see, it orbit is leaving back out to the 19th galaxy. The 19th galaxy is Orion's belt. So, whenever you hear people talking about, oh, planet Illooine and it got three suns, they're just talking about a body of planets in Orion's belt because, as you can see, Orion's belt has three stars. And this is why our ancestors, the Egyptians, lined up the pyramids 33° um equivocally latitude on a latitude and longitude scale of the planet Earth with Orion's belt because they understood that this was an extension of our solar system. So, science will confirm that we live in a binary solar system. So, uh, we don't just exist here, we exist there as well. Now, why is this important? When we dealing with numerology, the number nine, family, let me write this down. Give myself some room and write this down cuz it's going to get real. When we dealing with numerology, what you got to understand is nine is symbolic to things being born. So women carry children for women are pregnant for 9 months. Every 90 days is a new season. And I can go on and on and on about the things that the number nine signifies uh in regards to bringing forth life. But as I told you, planet Nibru comes every 3,600 years. $3 + 6 + 0 + 0 = 9$. Now, why is this important? Before we continue the lesson, planet Nibru acts as a refresher to the solar system. So, the same way you on your computer and when you ready to update the page, update your experience on whatever site you're on, you hit refresh. What planet Niru does is it comes back every 3,600 years and it raises the magnetic field or the magnetic frequency of all life in this solar system in order to bring it to a higher level of existence. So no matter what the fuck you do on planet Earth, you got about 3,600 years to do it because once the planet comes back is basically like a deleting system. It's like the in your DNA you have what is called edettozymes and the edymes actually travel up and down the DNA constantly correcting errors. So planet nibbru would be significant to like a a solar system azyme on a solar level. It comes back and it refreshes all nine planets. It's not just planet earth. Planet nibbru has begun to affect all nine planets since it's been here in since it's been in our solar system in 2003. So, it started with Pluto cuz Pluto is the ninth planet and it something happened to Pluto and they tried to say Pluto wasn't a planet no more and then it came past Uranus and Neptune and Saturn and Jupiter and Mars. Now, it's here and it's and after us is going to pass by uh Venus and Mercury. So, it's a refresher on all planetary levels. We just dealing with planet Earth cuz this the one we're on. So, with that being said, planet Nibbu, right, was going to happen family cuz it's going to get real. Now, write that down. Nine is symbolic to things being born. You're pregnant for 9 months. Every 90 days is a new season. Planet Nibiru, it takes it 3,600 years approximately to travel. $3 + 6 + 0 + 0 = 9$. Now, why is this important? Let's pull some of these pictures down, family. Going to get it in now. We going to turn it up. cuz it's going to get real now. Write that down. Nine is symbolic of things being born. You're pregnant for 9 months. Every 90 days is a new season. Planet Nu, it takes it 3,600 years approximately to travel. $3 + 6 + 0 + 0 = 9$. Now, why is this important? Let's pull some of these pictures down. Family going to get it in now. We going to turn it up. Give me one second. Okay. You about to turn it all the way up. Okay. Now, why is this important? Every planet, just like planet Earth you see up there, has a magneettosphere. Every planet has a magneettosphere. Now, you see these two planets, what you see right here is called a solar discharge. Now, what these two planets are doing, family, as you can see that I'm sticking up here on the board. When you see lightning in the sky, lightning is like electronic. I mean, it's like wiring, right? Being short-circuited on a cosmic level. So, if you deal, if you're an electrician or you're somebody you ever seen like a rat, a rat to a wire. When wires are no longer connected, they discharge. They spark because the electrical signals are trying to connect with each other due to them being attracted to one another's magnetism. This is the same thing with the planet. So, we're on Earth. So if so Venus is in front of us and Mars is behind us. So when one of those planets travel by us, our electromagnetic frequencies, our electromagnetic fields try to merge with each other or connect with each other real quick, but they can't because we're two different solar bodies. So what happens is the electromagnetic signals or radiation from each planet cause a discharge in our atmosphere and what is called the ionosphere and it creates what you see called lightning. So lightning is like a a atmospheric view of the same thing that go on in the walls of your house when wires are shortcircuited. So the same way two sparks will come or be manifested out of two wires shortcircuiting. When two planets shortcircuit or spark when they go by each other, they create lightning in the atmosphere. Now why is this important? because we're about the same size or close to the same size as Venus and Mars and we're on the same frequency being that we're powered by the sun at the same level of intelligence because it is a proven fact through quantum physics that sunlight carries intelligence. Now, why is this important? Planet NibL, let me grab my pen. Nibil/Planet X is 3.66 times bigger than planet Earth. So let's just say planet Nibbu is four times the planet Earth. So now what's happening is when planet Nibbu now let's pretend this is planet Nibbu family. As planet Nibru is coming around at this point in time because it's here now its gravitational pull is so big that it's actually interconnecting with planet earth and creating this funneling vortex that you see. So now 3D represents planet Earth, 4 D represents the funnel tube, and 5D represents the frequency that planet Nibbu is on that we're being pulled to. So as you can see, Planet Nibbu is coming around 3,600 years uh after it 3,600 year orbit. And let's pretend this big planet on the right that looks kind of yellowish to y'all is Planet Nibbu. Now what's happening is the electromagnetic fields are interacting and intertwining with our magneettosphere on the planet earth and the strength of planet Nibu being the fact that is four times larger than us is actually pulling the gravitational frequency of our planet to its own. So now when we talk about Aquarian ascension or raising the frequency this is literally what's happening. So when we talking about tidal waves or y'all hear me say planet in my Nibbu video, planet Nibbu is going to cause tsunamis or floods or they made the planet San Andreas video. That's because they know just like the moon has a gravitational pull on the planet on the ocean and the moon is way smaller than the earth. Imagine something that's four times bigger than the earth and it pulling on the ocean. It's going to cause those tidal waves. So now, not only are we talking about the physical effects of planet Nibbu, we want to talk about the spiritual effects. Because remember family, remember everything is created upon a a unified field. So out of this unified field came all celestial bodies including planet Nu. And you are connected to that unified field through your spirit. So now remember your spirit is what helps to generate the electromagnetic field out of your body. So as this frequency of the planet is being raised remember your you are interconnected to the planet as well because all things are interconnected. So your emotions the way you think the way you feel it gets esoterically absorbed in the planet earth as well. So your mood determines the mood of the planet. This is a fact. So now why is this important? Our frequency is being raised as well by planet Nibiru. So we want to talk about the age of Aquarius and why they put the water why they made the man with the picture of water and and it being symbolic to the age of Aquarius because water is symbolic to wisdom. There's going to be a spiritual enlightenment, a flood of spirituality. This is because we're being put into a higher realm of reality which they call 5D. 3D is like when you're drawing a picture. So now let me give y'all an example. family. This is 1D. This is 2D. This is 3D. You following me, family? So only in 3D reality can you see the totality of any physical object. So now, why is this important? When you see me showing y'all, and matter of fact, let me post a picture so y'all can see it constantly while I'm drawing this. Okay. So, as y'all see me, this is 3D family. So, this is where we live now. Planet Earth. We've been lowered to a three-dimensional level of existence. Now, why is this important? Because 4 D is your is when you can spiritually observe your own self. So 4D would be like astral projection. So now, why is this important? Or or to give you an example, when you playing Call of Duty and you only can see the gun, that's one D. And I wish I would have printed something out so you can see it, but go look it up. When you are playing a video game and you only can see the armor of the person, that's 1D. When you are playing a game like uh, let's say Sonic or Super Mario where you can only run across the screen, but the player seems flat, that's 2D because you can see the player now. Because 1D is when you're only the observer of the physical reality, but you can't observe yourself outside that. So, it's like you are stuck in the body. 2D is when you can observe the being outside the body, but you can't go around the being. Like a camera can pan around you. So, you're not in 3D, you're in 2D. So, that's why I'm giving an example like Super Mario or Sonic the Hedgehog or one of those old Atari games. So, now 3D is when you can observe the body, but you can actually move around the body. Now, now why is this important? Because 4D is when you can observe the character, but you're outside of the body looking at the entire land mass. So 4D would be like playing Pokemon. You follow me? You can see the character. You can control what the character does. You can pick the level. That would be like 4 D. So now we're being put into a fifth-dimensional frequency now. So we're skipping 4 D. We mean 4D is just the intermission period for us to get to 5D. Five dimensions. So now why is this important family? Because dimensions are created by density levels of light. So remember if you go watch my video, blacks are the angels of God. And I broke down how angels it just means angels. And in the Bible is breaking down how God is the son and the Bible means helios and Greek I mean holy Greek means helios which means sun and bible and Greek means biblios which means book. The bible is about the sun. So now why is this important? Remember melanin is condensed sunlight. So in order for you to exist in 5D you have to be on the electronic frequency that this is on. So if this is one battery if this is okay let's just say batteries. 3D is three batteries which means you need three batteries aka three let's say 3 volts 3 volts of electricity to live here 4D you need four volts 5D you need 5 volts now why is this important just like a phone a phone will break if you put too much um electrical voltage in it for it to conduct your body can only conduct so much electricity due to its atomic structure so now why is this important as planet Nibiru is pulling us into the fifth dimension at the same time family, the sun is heating up and emitting what science will confirm to be a solar storm. So now remember the sun is intelligent. In order for us to successfully pay into this fifth dimension, we have to physically be recomposed on an anatomic level. So we have to get deep here, family. So now In order for us to successfully pan into this fifth dimension, we have to physically be recomposed on an anatomic level. So we have to get deep here, family. So now, why is this important? Only black people can make this transition. This is why white people are harvesting our organs and stealing us and I mean stealing our babies and harvesting them and making melatonin pills and shooting with melanin because they can't make this fifth-dimensional shift. This why they trying to run out of ground. Now this blue that you see where my thumb is at is the magneettosphere of the planet earth. This is what shields us from the sun. A lot of people don't know that this year April 22nd the magneettosphere of the planet earth actually went down for two whole hours. So now why is this important? Remember cosmic rays penetrate the atmosphere come in contact with nitrogen and create carbon 12 and 14. Now why is this important? Because carbon 12 family makes up all makes up 99.9% of all physical matter throughout the galaxy. So now let me give y'all back the perspective. Remember this unified field represents all things in existence. Anything that comes out of this unified field is made up of carbon 12 which is melan. So now why is this important? This is where you get the 666 analogy from. Six protons, six neutrons, six electrons. Now, what's happening, family, is the sun, and go look this up. It's called a solar storm. The sun is hotter right now than it has ever been recorded to be in history. And it's getting only, it's only getting hotter. So now, why is this important? In order for us to exist within the five within the fifth dimensional frequency that we're getting pulled into, as well as just on this planet, we are being atomically reconstructed. So now, anybody who knows anything about Adams, matter of fact, let me post my atom up so y'all can see it. We going to block this for two seconds. Anybody who knows anything about atoms, family, you know that. And it's going to be an ugly atom, but y'all got to y'all got to bear with me. Okay, you got your protons. Let's just give it the little layers that it had. Excuse my Adam. And you got your electrons. Okay. Now inside, let me put some dots for the protons and neutrons. Okay. Now inside this atom family, let me come over here so y'all can see. Whenever an atom wants to become a new element, it gives away an electron. So for example, hydrogen is the first element ever. When you look at the periodic elements table and it got them rows, row 1 2 3 4 5 6. Whichever element is in the numbered row tells you how many electrons I have. So all of them elements down row one got one got one electron. All of them elements down row two got two electrons. All them elements down row three got three electrons. So we're going to deal with the first two elements which is hydrogen and helium. What happens is hydrogen I mean when a when a when an atom becomes radioactive aka struck by sunlight I mean all atoms are neutral until they become struck by sunlight and then they become radioactive. Now in science radioactive just means unstable. Now this is what this is an example of what you would call a radioactive atom. In order for this atom to give to become stabilized we're going to delete the other electrons here. We going to leave we going to just leave two. In order for this atom to become stabilized, let's say this is a helium atom, we gonna write H for helium. I don't know if that's the real chemical name, but that's the name I'm using here. This is a helium atom, right? In order for this helium atom to become st. So, we going to draw us a hydrogen atom, family. So, bear with me again. Okay? And remember, hydrogen atom only has one electron. So the green dots represent electrons. And we going to put just a straight H for hydrogen. Now what happens is family? Boom. This right here has been struck by sunlight. So now this is radioactive now. Now in order for this to become restabilized, it has to give away an electron. So what happens is this atom right here, the helium atom gives one of its electrons to hydrogen. Now hydrogen now possessing two electrons upgrades to helium and helium now only having one electron downgrades to hydrogen. Now why this important? Because this is how elements are created. Now why am I making this uh knowledge in reference to us and our ascension? Because anybody who deals with chemistry or physics knows that elements and atoms only give away electrons. They don't give away nothing from the nucleus. The nucleus of an atom is the center. This is where protons and neutrons are. So now why is this important family? Because we want to come back to this carbon atom which is six protons, six neutrons, six electrons. Atoms once again only give away electrons in order to uh become non-raactive. The sun is getting so goddamn hot that the carbon 12 atom is now reconfiguring itself to carbon 7. Why is this important? Because remember carbon 12 is six protons, six neutrons, six electrons. But carbon 7 is only six protons, six neutrons. I mean six protons, six electrons and one neutron. So now you have to understand family that the radio frequency of the of the sun is getting so hot that in order for us to become no longer radioactive on a subatomic level, we have to skip giving away an electron and just give away a neutron. So this is not even uh formal in the world of chemistry. Don't no other element do this when it comes to becoming non-raactive. So now why is this important? By giving away five neutrons and keeping the six protons and six electrons, we are going to become less condensed physically and more crystallized. So now why is this important? Your soul is held in this body as I'll show you again. I'll show you again family so you can get a visual. Your soul is held in this body which used to be six protons, six neutrons, six electrons. Now due to and that was based off carbon 12. Now you converting to carbon 7 which is only going to be six protons, six electrons and one neutron. This body is going to be lighter which means this soul is going to be less in prison which means it's going to have more uh let's say room for expression within a unified field or what you would call reality. So now why is this important? Remember carbon 12 is made up I mean 99.9% of all things in the universe is made up of carbon 12 since carbon 12 is converting to carbon 7 reality as we know it is becoming restructured and you can see this with what they call carbon radio dating if you go look it up family radiocarbon dating carbon radio dating whatever you want to call it is when basically they measure the half-life of ancient objects that they by how many electrons it has given off. If you go watch my video, uh I believe it's called energy imprisonment. I break down what this is. If you and they they measure objects by how many electrons it gives off, and they can tell how old it is. Now, what's happening is the sun is getting so hot, it's causing artifacts of ancient antiquity to radioact to radioactively decay at a faster rate. So they can't even tell you how old things are anymore that they're finding because it's giving off so much atomic energy. This is the same thing with melanated people right now. We are becoming uh reconstructed or recomposed anatomically. So now why is this important? And what does this all have to do with the ascension? This is what they was talking about when they wrote that revelations in the Bible. This is what they was talking about when they was talking about the end of the world. This is what they was talking about when they was talking about the prophecy. This is what they was talking about when they was talking about God will come back for his chosen people. The son because remember and I believe it's Psalms 84:11 in the Bible and the Lord God is a son and shield a son. The son of God because remember melanin is condensed sunlight will come back with his chosen people the melanated people at this time and this is what the ancients were predicting. all ancient civilizations, whether you want to go to the Mayan calendar, wherever you want to go, this is the time that they were speaking of the restoration of African people and all people of African descent on the planet Earth back to our throne, which is the spiritual seat that we originally took when we stepped up out of the unified field in the cosmic womb as procarotic sales. So, you have to understand, family, the importance and the significance of being an African. Why can't you live near the North Pole? Why does the government have laws that you can't live near near North Pole? Because they're actually using the heart machine, the other machines equivalent to the heart machine. They've set these machines up at the North Pole to where they are actually tapping into the electromagnetic grid that the planet Earth is emitting because remember the planet Earth is alive. The they're basically tapping into the spirit of the planet Earth, the electromagnetic grid, the latitude and longitude lines of the planet Earth and pinpointing certain latitude and longitude locations. Just like when you look on a map and it might be like 43° north and 33° south. Those are actually energy coordinates, earth chakras. And at these coordinates are certain temperatures, certain gusts of winds, etc. And they are a they are actually manipulating the frequency of the electromagnetic grid with a machine that I'm going to be breaking down. I'm going to do a video titled um the Mandela effect and spiritual warfare and I'm going to name the machine. But the machine just now for you to research it is called a pulse tube delushi refrigerator. They're using this machine to actually tap into the frequency or the electromagnetic sphere of the planet earth and weaken it at certain points or strengthen it at certain points in order to cause weather modifications and effects. So the so the so the Europeans under the Illuminati, the elites, whoever the fuck you want to call them, understand the power of the planet Earth at this point in time due to the return of planet Nibbu and they're trying to use it to their advantage in order to destroy and maintain their power. So you have to understand, family, when we say this is a spiritual warfare, this is a motherfucking spiritual warfare. This is not a game. This not shit nobody just making up. So, uh, the nervous system of the body is the most important thing because once the body stops conducting electricity, it dies. If we let these motherfuckers destroy the infrastructure of the planet Earth and it stop uh collecting electricity, it's going to die. See, and we we're oblivious because we've been allowed to think that shit just going to last forever. When we have to understand that nothing that's physical lasts forever. Everything is on the time glass, the our the glass of sand. But we are supposed to be the maintainers of the planet earth and preparing not just ourselves but it for this fifthdimensional shift. Because what's going to happen is when you hear me telling people get on the alkaline diet and raise the mega frequency of the body. If you're not on a frequency of this physically, you're going to be incinerated by this. Let me move this out your way. If you're not on a if you're not on a certain frequency for when planet Nibbu cuz it's happening right now. It's happening as we speak and you're looking for some shit that's happening energetically. Okay? You can't really see energy signatures with your eyes signatures with your eyes. Just like I said, the universe is so loud you can't hear it. So you that's like saying, "Oh, if the sun makes sound, why I can't hear it?" Because you only can process 20,000 mehz of frequency. So when it comes to density and light, you only can see so much through the retinas and which your retinas is able to process. So now this is happening as we speak. And if you're not of the frequency that you should be to make it through this gravitational pull, your body is going to be incinerated by the sun. Just like you see white people getting burnt sun cancer, and you got some black people walking outside talking about something is too hot. When really melanin is able to withstand a minimum of 1,225°, so it's only 8° outside. How is you too hot? is because your diet has made your body biologically toxic and and inactive to itself. But getting back on point, if you're not at a frequency to where you can make this shift, the sun is going to destroy your ass for one, and then spiritually you going to be reincarnated to a to another part of the energy field that vibrates on your level. So when they say God come back and you not going to go to heaven, they're talking about once the sun begins it solar storm as it was predicted almost three millennia ago by the ancestors, you're not going to go to heaven, which is remember heaven is a state of existence, your higher self. The fifth dimension is a higher state of angelic reality. So if you a demonic spirited motherfucker, you're going to stay exactly on the energy grid that aligns up with your electrical signals that you emit. So biologically your body will not make it to the fifth dimension. It won't be able to recompose itself anatomically to six six protons, six electrons and one neutron. So your carbon 12 is going to be the death of you. So with that being said and then spiritually you are going to be like if you watch my video purgatory and I break down how you attract yourself to the realm of past death which you you admit on the spiritual level energetically because remember family if you don't believe me you create your own electromagnetic field with your thoughts your beliefs and your diet. So depending upon the frequency of your electromagnetic field through your thoughts your beliefs and your diet is where you're going to go on the grid. You're not going to go here because you don't vibe like that. That's not your vibratory state. So, understand the importance of preparing yourself for the ascension. So, the shit is happening now. Whether you're ready for the shit to happen or not, this is just what it is. So, understand the sign. Go watch my video on the SE machine. I'm be getting back in on the SE machine on the next video I do, too. The uh whatchamacallit, the video I just stated I was going to do in regards to spiritual ascension. and uh boom in the Mandela effect. Thank you. Bless my mind. So with that being said, go watch my video, get on the ser machine to get ready for this part two. So you have to prepare yourself for this ascension. This is not a game. This shit is every this shit is worldwide known. Okay, the the I believe it was the Syrian government or the Iraqi government just admitted the existence of Planet Nibberu. Hillary Clinton's emails is is is leaking the existence of extra wrestlers and planning nebu. Everybody knows this shit is coming but niggas because niggas is too busy waiting for Allah and Jesus and all that imaginary shit that the European gave us. Meanwhile, the European has been building underground facilities to go on the run and escape plan since they motherfucking won. So with that being said, just like uh and the reason I'm using the Bible is because a lot of our people are Christians. So I want to format the information the way they can understand it. Just like remember the Bible means Helios biblos in Greek which means sunbook. They say what if you if you those who listen to the devil is going to go to hell with the devil when God come back. The devil is just the word live spin backwards. White people Europeans are genetically manufactured entities who are in total opposition to reality. Everything in reality comes from the sun. the unified field. Remember melanin is condensed sunlight. So melanin is the physical condensation of uh electricity. So melanin is condensed sunlight and matter is condensed energy and energy comes from the electromagnetic field. Europeans don't come from the electromagnetic field. This is why they don't possess neural melanin. This is why 85% of them have calcified pineal glands. Remember the calcified pineal gland is needed for your soul to take a seat in the body. Just like I showed you the other picture. So the devil, this is why you call the white man the devil because he's the complete opposite of what the creator in totality, God, the highest extended mind which was elements of marriage to express itself envisioned when it created humans from procarotic sales to experience itself. So white people are not a part of the creator. Period. Now why is important? This is why they put it in their Masonic Illuminati astrology book, the Bible, that you're going to go to hell for listening to the devil. Because the white man got you eating all this processed food, got you eating all these GMO foods, got you living every way but motherfucking natural, got you drinking everything but natural drinks, and he has you biologically making yourself toxic to yourself and making your melanin inactive. So, hell is what? A place of eternal fire. Who's the only motherfucker that gets burnt by the sun and turn red like the devil? The European, go look this shit up. Every 57 seconds, one white person dies from cancer. And niggas today now is getting skin cancer. Never before in the history of history have black people had skin cancer ever until Europeans came and switched their diet up. So now what's happening is we're taking in so many toxins that our melanin is becoming toxic to itself. We're doing so many drugs that our melanin is becoming toxic to itself. And once we become toxic to ourselves, we become what you call biologically dormant, which is a fact. Look it up. So now, what stops us? If you go watch my video, Black Symbiotic Body, I break down a process called ultra fast internal conversion.

Topic - Sunlight and Natural Environment Deficiency

This video right here is about sunlight and natural environment deficiency. Now, with that being said, we want to talk about and break down the effects of not being exposed to the correct amount of sunlight as well as not living in your natural environment and how these effects play out on your body or your your your biological self negatively. So, with that being said, we going to start with sunlight. Now, we're on planet Earth, which is approximately 93 million miles away from the sun. So calculating our distance from the sun and the sun distance from us on the planet earth it takes on from our distance from from the planet earth it takes the a ray of light or a sun ray approximately 8 minutes and 20 seconds to reach this planet. So first of all when you go outside and the sun hits you you're getting old information cuz remember the sun carries information. You would have to be outside for exactly 8 minutes and 20 seconds to receive fresh sunlight. So let's get that correct. So, that being said, if you just getting out your car and walking to your workplace or getting out your car and walking to a to the house, you're not getting any fresh sunlight. You're getting old sunlight. You're getting old information. So, you would have to be outside for a certain amount of time. So, at least spend 10 goddamn to 15 goddamn minutes a day outside just so you can get uh fresh cosmic downloads. Goddamn. Now with that being said, continuing on, right, when you eat food, right, your body stores some of the cholesterol in the epidermis layer of your skin. Now what happens is once this sunlight reaches your skin, right, it then uh sets off a biochemical reaction in the skin turning the cholesterol into vitamin D. Now this vitamin D then through the medium of your bloodstream travels to your liver, right, and becomes calcidio. If I'm saying it incorrectly, it's spelled C A L C I D I O L, right? And then this calcidial now in this vitamin D now travels from your liver to your kidneys and it becomes once again uh biochemically changed into calcitrial which is C A L C I T R I O L Citrial if I'm saying it correctly. If not, you got the spelling. Now this calcitrial then upgrades into vitamin D3, right? And this vitamin D3 helps to increase bone strength and density by the absorption of calcium in the body. So this is why they say calcium is good for you. Now with that being said, so basically just like uh whatchamacall chlorophyll inside of plants absorb the sunlight to grow. You perform what is known as human photosynthesis. And a part of human human photosynthesis is the human capacity and ability to absorb photons from the sun as direct as a direct uh foods um as a direct energy source for food instead of using physical food as a medium. But coming back to this calcium in the in the vitamin D. Once your vitamin D has been activated through the transmutation of of cosmic energy coming from the sun, it then activates uh whatchamacallit the cholesterol transmuting it biochemically a couple times into vitamin D3 which then absorbs the calcium and helps your bone grow. So you are literally absorbing the sun and you are growing as a person uh on on a physical scale or a or on a scale of your muscular system as well as your skeletal system. So just like plants grow from the sun, you grow from the sun. Now why is this important? Vitamin D also helps to deal with depression, right? Because when you don't get enough sunlight, right, you don't get enough minerals in your body or from the sun. So that being said, you become what is known as uh mineralizationally decreased. So that leads to bone disease as well as a weakened immune system. And then it also leads to uh certain deficiencies within the brain due to uh the lack of serotonin because your brain produces serotonin during the day. So you have you can also get sick from what they call seasonal sickness or seasonal change which is as black people we need more sunlight than less. So living in colder climates where there's uh shorter days and shorter hours of the day, right? Basically the fall and winter times, we get sick because our brain produces more melatonin which is produced during the night hours than it produces serotonin which is produced during the day hours because there's uh longer nights or or or less periods of sunlight than there is as opposed to a proper balance of night and day. So your body's producing less serotonin and more melatonin. Now, serotonin, serotonin in regards to all of the effects it cause on the body, one of the things it does is help regulate a person's mood, okay? And it helps to check depression and anxiety. So, now you have what what medical doctors call the winter blues, which is a post-med uh effect underneath the category of depression that they have have uh studies have shown that during the same time every year, aka the winter time, people get sad and become depressed. This is because the lack of serotonin that's being produced in the body due to the lack of the physical being being exposed to the sun. So you have to understand yo exposure to sunlight has a direct effect on your mood. You are a human plant. Period. I keep saying this. We have iron in our blood. Plants have magnesium but outside that we have the same chemical makeup. So if we was to switch our iron with a plant's magnesium, we would have chlorophyll and not and they would now have the neuromelanin that we have. So, we are upgraded bio biochemical plants. We are humanoid trees and vegetation and we need the sun just like they need the sun. You're not getting the sun all day at work underneath your blue lights which is destroying the retinas in your eyes etc. or you just getting out your goddamn car, walking to the grocery store and coming back. That's not being outside. Then you in a car with the roof over your goddamn head. You not getting no sun. You didn't you didn't hid from the sun all day. You done got out your bed, ceiling over your head, went outside, walked to your car. It don't take you 8 minutes and 20 seconds to get to your goddamn car, which means you missed all fresh sunlight. You got in your car, drove wherever you wanted to go, got out, walked into wherever you was going. It didn't take you 8 minutes and 20 seconds to go inside that store or your friend's house, wherever you was going. You spent however amount of time in there, got out, went to work, got out, went to school, got out, picked your kids up, got back out, got in the car, did whatever the fuck you you was doing for the day, then went home and felt you had a healthy day outside. Motherfucker, you didn't What did you do? What did you do? You didn't you didn't get no fresh light. But continuing on now, why is it important in our natural environment as African people which is close to the equator that's all we got was fresh sunlight. And studies show this is scientific studies show that people right the brains of people living in a natural environment right which means not man-made regions of their brain which control love empathy right and compassion are highly activated. So in a natural environment, your brain is is the the regions of your brain which control your higher self are already functioning naturally. Studies also show that people living in a man-made environment aka the inner city aka the matrix, the parts of their brain which control fear and anxiety are highly activated as opposed to the parts that that show love that control love, empathy and compassion. So with that being said, it this is science. Science shows that living in the matrix is crushing your ass as an African as opposed to living in a natural environment. So that being said, family, when we say why is it important to control your environment? Because the definition environment, the definition of environment is the circumstances which influence a living organism. What circumstances are influencing you? Okay, natural circumstances that were put here are not influencing you anymore. You motherfuckers have traded in the sun for the lights in your goddamn house. Some of you niggas won't even burn a goddamn candle. So with that being said, everything about you has become artificially dependent. You are defend you are dependent upon everything that is not natural. You eat GMO foods. You watch GMO motherfuckers on TV. You think GMO thoughts. You yourself is a GMO ass nigga. So that being said, you have to you have to reconfigure yourself back into a cosmic being. And you can't you can't do that until you understand yourself as a cosmic being. Because once you do that, you understand why you're not living as a cosmic being. So the sun right when you see the ancestors not worshiping because we wasn't worshiping nothing. We understand we was connected with when when you see this the ancestors acknowledging the presence and power of the sun. This is why because just 8 minutes and 20 seconds of standing outside could literally make or break your whole motherfucking day. Period. And it's and it's African people living anywhere cold literally automatically induces depression because our brains our pineal glands don't get to produce serotonin which actually helps to check depression as well as vitamin D. So with that being said look at the African people and look at why we are not functioning properly as African people. If you take a fish out of water and then it don't act like a fish right you can't blame that fish. If you take a a melanated deity outside the sunlight and we start functioning incorrectly, you can't blame us as deities. Goddamn it. We we look at plants. Take a plant out the goddamn out the sun and watch what it do. It die. So now if a plant can't live without the sun, what makes you think you can? And with that being said, family, download the cosmic frequency because it's always available to you. You're the one who's artificially been influenced and you need to recorrect your mind and realign your mind and come back in tune with that which is trying to get back in tune with you which is the universe. And with that being said, family, I love y'all. Peace.

Topic - How to open up your Chakaras

Peace. Peace family. This video right here is about how to open up the chakras. Now, first and foremost, we have to understand that meditation is the foundation of aligning the chakras in order for them to become stimulated and of use to you. Now, that is one chakra 101. So, I'm not really going to harp on that too much. You can listen to sound frequencies, um, meditations, you can meditate, crystals, all of that, blah blah blah blah blah. Everybody knows the basics. I'm gonna go past that. What people have to understand is how to actually maintain the chakra balance because as a black person, you your chakras is naturally pulsating. What what I'm going to speak about is what don't nobody want to speak about actually how to make them powerful or turn or tone them down so that they're just right. This would be just like this would be the equivalent to people who deal with music and make music. When you making a song, sometimes things are too loud, you got to turn them down. Sometimes it's too low, you got to turn it up. Same thing with your chakras. Now, let's say, let's just throw a number up. Each chakra is a portal. It's a circle vortex. The chakras that come out of the front of you from your chest out spin clockwise. The chakras that go out of your spine spin counterclockwise. So these are actually like metaphysical um rainbow tornadoes coming out of your chest out of each seven centers of the body. So now this is why you can put your hand in front of your face and close your eyes and you feel that energy. Now with that being said, you want to learn how to maintain them and depending upon what size your chakras are will let you know if it's too open or too close. Now let's make up a um scenario. Let's say the average chakra size is a CD. But when it's too open, it's big as a pizza. When it's too small, too, when it's too when it's not open enough or barely closed, it's either closed all the way or it's like let's say small is like a a peppermint. So, we have to learn to balance the chakras. Now, you can understand once you understand which virtue is aligned with each chakra, you can tell if it's too open or not. For example, we're going to say the root chakra. If you're super lust, if you're super lustful and you think about sex all day, 10 times out of 10, your root chakra is way too open. It's not that CD size, it's that pizza size. So, in order to close it, you have to actually practice that virtue in an opposite manner. If the root chakra has to do with sex, the more sex you have, the more you open it. If it's too open, then you're unbalanced. If it if you don't have sex enough and you don't don't open it, then you're still unbalanced. you have to have just enough interaction with that virtue physically and um physically and on a on a um righteous scale as well. So you have to physically act that chakra out and virtuously act that chakra out. So now getting back on point, if your chakra is too open and you're super lustful, then in order to close that chakra, you have to stop having sex. You have to start disciplining yourself. This is what discipline is for. The whole point of having discipline is to keep your chakras balanced. Period. Discipline keeps the chakras aligned. Remember that. That's the whole point of having discipline. So for another example, your heart chakra, if you are a cold-blooded serial killer who are who is chopping people up, apparently your heart chakra is not open. So how do you open it? You start dealing with the virtue that's associated with that with that energy. Love, you start loving. You start sharing. You start caring. You start interacting with things emotionally. This is why your heart chakra is the portal to your higher self. This is why the ancient feminine energy is so important because just like when you being loving and compassionate, negro bots make slick ass comments out their mouth like, "Yo, you acting like a female or you on some gay shit." No, you're not. You just in tune with your heart chakra. And this female energy, this yang energy is needed to commute into your higher self. This is why the black woman is God cuz she's naturally on this frequency. But outside of that, getting back on point, your heart chakra, if it's closed, then in order to open it, you have to start living it, living in it, and interacting on that plane. Now, some people love too damn much and they naive and they believe and trust everybody and keep wondering why they keep getting their feelings hurt. That's cuz they heart chakra's too open. So, how do they balance it? They do the opposite of that. They start not saying don't trust people, but start standing up for yourself. Start telling people no. Some of us do this every day. Motherfucker asks us for a favor. You got a dollar? Yep. You got $20. Yep. You got $50. Yep. And then you wonder why when you need a motherfucker, they not here for you because your heart chakra is so open that people are feeding off that that that energy that you're giving out, but nobody's there to replenish you. And now you keep getting your energy absorbed and snatched from you. And then you keep feeling drained and upset and feeling like why ain't nobody never here for me, but I look out for everybody. It's cuz your heart chakra's too open and subconsciously people who need that energy or need you are feeding off of that. So how do you close that? Start telling motherfuckers, "No, you got $20 a bar." Nope. That don't mean you selfish. Then we don't care what they talking about. That don't mean you that. That mean you're balancing your heart chakra and you're learning how to love when it's when you're supposed to and love and and and be stern and sturdy when you're not supposed to. So in order to balance the chakras, you have to find the virtue associated with it and act it out. And this deals with even with homosexuality because the second chakra is rooted in the gender, the opposite sex. So if you're a man and you like another man, you have a closed second chakra. And this goes according to nature because in order to open that chakra, you would have to commute with the with the opposite sex energy. So this proves my point just like in my video homosexuality in the chakras that homosexuality is a spiritual miscommunication of the body with itself between the 13 or 14 vertebrae which commute the yin-yang energies of the chakras. But getting back on point, your mind, the pineal gland, how do you activate that chakra? Start fucking using it. Start figuring things out for yourself. Start thinking for yourself. See, religion disables the sixth chakra. It it disables your the mind's eye, the eye of horse, because it takes away logic and it gives you the answers already. So, whenever you have a question, the answer that religion has installed in your head pops in your head and thinks for you. You don't even get a chance to critically analyze any situation or problem in life. So, in order to activate these chakras, yes, you meditate, yes, you do all that other stuff people talking about, but the main thing they don't tell you is you have to apply them. You have to actually pick that virtue and live it out. So, right now, tell yourself, y'all, do I do I give people too much of myself and don't get shit back? If so, nine times out of 10, you got to your your heart chakra is open. Are you attracted to the same sex? Nine times out of 10, your second your your second chakra, which is your sacral chakra, is closed. Are you super lustful? Are you super angry? Are you super just raging, rageful all the time, anim animalistic? Nine times out of 10, your first chakra is too open. You got a smart ass mouth and don't never know how to watch your mouth when it's time to be appropriate and you just some people just can't stop talking and just talk all day. That's not a a coincidence. Your fifth chakra, your throat chakra is too open. It's too much energy flowing out all the time. So, how do you change that? Practice being quiet. Practice every time you want to say something smart consciously assess it and then don't. and you will start to actually close that chakra because it won't that energy will not be spewing out at at at such a mass rate. So, in order to activate the chakras, y'all, you have to apply them. Study the you have hundreds of thousands of chakras. Each level of existence, which I broke down on my seven levels of existence. Each of those bodies actually have chakra points which commute the energy through those dimensions into this physical body. So, we're not going to get like say, oh, we only have seven chakras. We know we have more than seven chakras. But the point I'm trying to make is the basic seven within the body which are connected to all the other micro chakras within the other ethro bodies. These are the this is like the central system of the chakra database. And in order to activate these chakras you have to you have to in order to activate these chakras you let me get a good word. You have to play the role. You have to play these chakras out. You have to pick the virtue of of that you are lacking. And in order to increase it, you have to act that virtue out. In order to decrease it, you have to do less of that act. So with that being said, family, understand that knowledge is not just it's not just about meditating, humming, chanting, playing with crystals, none of that. It's actually about disciplining and and doing certain things. You can't activate the heart chakra if you're not righteous. Just like I stated in my video, righteousness. And this is why black people can't access our higher selves because we so stuck in the first chakra on the negative half of it which sometimes is needed but we don't never go to the positive half of it let alone be righteous. If you be righteous you automatically unlock the heart chakra. If you people don't understand the importance of virtues. This is why being virtuous is important because you think things don't have an effect but everything has an effect. Even even what you say if you tell somebody a lie you think it doesn't matter but guess what it does. You just close your heart chakra. Your heart chakra is activated and powerful predicated upon truth and righteousness. This is why people who speak their mind is firm and affirmative in what they say. Such as like myself, I have a powerful heart chakra. This is why I'm passionate because my heart chakra is healthy. Now, if I was a lion motherfucker, I would be disrupting my chakra balance. I would be disrupting my spirit because I would be closing my heart chakra every time I told a lie because I would be commuting negative energy. The heart chakra is the key is the gateway to the higher self. So when you do things like steal or you be sneaky or you do things like sneak thief or you rape or you be lustful or or for motherfuckers that's molesters and pedophiles, you closing your chakras because the chakras are activated off of virtuous and righteous energy. Righteousness stimulates the spirit and stimulates the chakra canal which are the seven chakras in the mid center of the body. When you do when you do sneaky shit or non-verituous things, you close the chakras. And when you close your chakras, you your chakras is what connects you to the higher self, to God. And if you close them off, you cut yourself off from the creator. And this is how you become weak and wicked and susceptible to what they call the devil, which is just the lower realm, the lower level of existence, cuz you're not in your higher self. You cut yourself off from your higher self when you stop being righteous. Righteousness activates the chakras. The chakras connect you directly to the creator and you have a relationship with your with your omnipotent omnipresent and omniscient self. When you do unrighteous things or unverituous things, you cut yourselves off and you live in what we call the realm of the devil which is negativity. All the negative lowest frequencies and vibrations. So the importance of virtue is not just about being goody two shoes. It's about activating the chakras. You see the best most talented people have virtue. Egyptians are our Egyptian ancestors built pyramids and guess what? They had virtue. They practice the 42 laws of MYA. Buddhist monks don't feel no pain. Guess what? They practice virtue. Guess what? Niggas on the hood practice. Niggas don't practice no virtue. Niggas is still in your bundle. Niggas is 28 having sex with 15 year olds. Niggas is acting crazy. Stepfathers is touching a little girl. There is no virtue, no order, and no discipline in the average black household today. And guess what? We not doing nothing great. So virtue is directly connected to the opening of the chakras. Once the chakras open, they connect you to the creator. With that being said, family, don't just meditate. Don't just do none of that. Actually start living this shit and applying the shit and understanding which each chakra characteristic is and start increasing that or decreasing that activity depending upon your individual need. And you know what you need because you know what you're suffering from. And with that being said, peace.

Topic - Science behind Chakras & the Kuldanini Energy

Peace be peace family. Welcome to another episode of Feral Alli University where we teach melanated beings the true sacred science of themselves in regards to their personal individual relationship biologically as well as spiritually with the universe aka the cosmos. With that being said, fuck hybr. So today's episode family, as you see on this board right here, we're going to be breaking down the chakras aka the energy vortex that it produces that we mentally conceptualized as cooling energy and how this energy circumnavigates the spine aka all three vertebrae starting from the coxix all the way up to the cervical part of the nervous system entering into the brain and stimulating the pineal gland creating what we call psychic abilities. Now we're going to be going step by step of each vertebrae and what specific characteristics are released into the nervous system of the organism aka a human excuse me family as this cooling energy touches each vertebrae. We're going to be going vertebrae by vertebrae and we're going to be breaking down the different chakras that are affected and that exist within each certain level of the uh the spinal base. So, we're going to get crazy in this episode today, family. Don't worry, we break it down to sacred science. So, to sum it all up, we're going to be conceptualizing the chakra system. We're going to be going into all 12 chakras because if y'all remember, I did a video on the chakra side of the seven levels of existence. If you haven't seen it, go see it, family, because it coincides exactly with this video. But in that video, I only deal with seven levels of the chakras and how they open up certain layers of your aura. Today, we're going to go to all 12 uh 12 chakras, which are the seven that exist within the meridian layer of your body and then the duration of those chakras that exist outside yourself to create the 12 levels of your entire chakra system that that helps comprise your being. And then I'm going to break down how this chakra system generates an energy called kalini energy that circumnavigates the spine. I'm going to show step by step how this cir how this kalin energy circumnavigates the spine and what it does as it interacts with each and every vertebrae. We're going to go step by step to all 33 vertebrae. Now, that being said, family, if you watch my seven levels of existence video, you see the exact location and colors of each chakras. If not, go see it. I left off at chakra number seven. So, what we're going to do is I'm going to continue here at chakra number eight. So this is stick boy right now. Like I said, go watch my video, seven levels of existence to get all seven levels of the chakras and their locations. Here I'm picking up at level eight. So you got seven chakras, right, family? One, two, three. Matter of fact, I don't want to use this black. Let me use the blue. Let me use the blue, family. You got one 2 3 4 5 6. Right. 7 8 9 10 11 12. Now your first chakra is your root chakra. Second chakra is your naval chakra also known as sacra. Your third chakra is your stomach chakra. Your fourth chakra is your heart chakra. Your fifth chakra is your throat chakra. Your seventh chakra, I mean your sixth chakra is your third eye, you can say, or the pineal gland, which each chakra coincides directly with the pineal gland. I break this down step by step in my video. I'm in my PowerPoint presentation called spirit diet. Um that's available family if y'all want to grab that at the black woman is god. 1. Your seventh chakra is your crown chakra. Your eighth chakra is your aashic records which I have a video coming on about this on my YouTube page. Don't worry if you can't read that family that says records. Nine. Your ninth chakra is your soul. Your 10th chakra is gravity. Your 11 chakras are your hands. And your 12th chakra are your aura. Now, let me get out of your way so that y'all can see this. Now, family, the first chakra, which is your root chakra, is located at, if you're a female, your womb. If you're a man, your penis. Your second chakra, which is your naval chakra, is located at about your naval area. Your third chakra, which is your stomach chakra, is located at your stomach. Now, with that being said, when we dealing with the first three levels of the chakras, this is your lower self. When we're dealing with the inbody chakras which go from one to seven, you have three lower body chakras which is root, naval, stomach. And then you have the heart chakra which let's say this is the heart chakra which is basically the gateway the doorway to your higher self. And then as you get to the higher self or the higher columns of the spine, you have the your throat chakra which is your fifth chakra. Your third eye chakra which is your pineal gland chakra and your seventh chakra which is your crown chakra which is the soft spot on the baby's head. Now after you get to the seventh chakra which is located here family where this X is. The rest of your chakras are manifested outside the body. So now with that being said, for more details on the first seven chakras, go to my video, seven levels of existence, family. That's why I'm not harping on them here. Now your eighth chakra, which is the accashic records, is located approximately 6 in above the head. So when you close your eyes and you put your hand above your head and you feel that little uh static electricity, that's actually your Aashi records. Now, I'm going to be going into a video on my YouTube channel very soon, probably after I post this titled Aashic Records where I go in depth on what the Aashic records are, family. Now, with that being said, to give you a long to make a long story short, your Aashic records is your spiritual book, which records all of your past lives and you are currently writing the pages that will go on that book as you experience everyday reality, every second, every every fragment of a second in this current lifetime. So your accasha check records is basically the records of your soul. All the lives that your soul has experienced, all the memories that you have from your past life. Just like memories are passed down genetically. As I proved in my lecture, genetic reincarnation, spiritually your records are kept in what is known as the aashic records. So the aashic records exist about here. Let's say this is a half a foot. So we going to say 6, right? For aashic records, right? 26. Now you got the soul. The soul exists about a foot and a half. So we going to put S for soul and we going to put a foric reference. We going to put 1.5. Let's say one is for foot. Uh matter of fact, we going to make this five to make it less confusing. So one is for foot, five is a half, and this is a half a foot. So A is for Aashi record. S is for soul family. Now I broke down the color contin of all seven uh levels of the chakras in my first video. Seven levels of existence. I'm going to also be breaking down the colors of chakras 8 through 12 momentarily after I'm done introducing them to you family. Now boom. The ninth chakra is your soul. 10th chakra is gravity. All right? Cuz if you don't know, gravity is a chakra. Now, gravity is your electromagnetic uh relationship with your celestial parent. Now, all things return to the source from which they came. This is why when you undergo what this planet conceptualizes as death, your soul goes back to the solar system and your body goes back to the planet. So, gravity is basically the planet Earth's way of saying this belongs to me. It's like your It's like your electromagnetic umbilical core. The planet Earth will never allow a piece of its own self to exit the atmosphere. So, gravity is your electronic connection to your cosmic mother. Period. Just like the Earth can't leave outside the orbit of the sun. You cannot leave out the electromagnetic gravitational pull of this planet. Gravity is caused by the Earth rotating at approximately I want to say 180 miles per hour on its axis something around there 198 miles per hour something like that. So with that being said uh gravity is caused by the the velocity of the planet earth rotating and it's creating an electromagnetic uh whatchamacallit friction which is holding you here as well as you being stuck in it speed in it speed vortex. So it's just like when you get on a roller coaster and the faster it go and you be stuck to the seat, it's creating gravity due to the velocity that the roller coaster is traveling. This is the same with planet Earth. We're traveling so fast on this planet Earth that we are stuck in this atmosphere and we are electromagnetically connected to this planet because the electrons being manifested by the iron in the core of this planet is being circumnavigated through the soles of our feet through gravity because remember the 10th chakra is the feet. If I didn't state that earlier, let me state that now.

Your feet are your temp chakras. So the electrons being emitted by the planet earth are being absorbed through the soles of your feet. Because remember, you absorb solar energy through the soles of your hand, the soles of your feet. If as as the electrons are being emitted by the planet earth, they're being absorbed through the soles of your feet and helping to unlock or awaken your kundalini reservoir which I'll be going into in a short moment family and help this queen energy become released and so that I can have a successful travel up the 33 vertebrae of the spine into the brain. So gravity is actually a chakra family. What is chakra by definition? Energy vortex centers which help input and output solar frequency. Now, let me go into the 11 chakra, which is hands. In case you don't know, let's put little 11s right there. Let me put little tens by the feet. So, you know, a matter of fact, I'm going to put a eight by this A. And I'm going to put a nine by this S. So, you know, your eighth chakra is your accashic records. Your ninth chakra is your soul. Your 10th chakras are your feet, aka gravity. And your 11 chakras are your hands. Now your hands are for transmuting. Transmuting is the transformation or the trans conduction of energy. So you think with your mind what you want to let's say if I want to paint a picture first mentally on a non-physical scale spiritual metaphysical scale I create a thought and then that thought is manifested into the physical realm through the transmutation of the energy that I produce with my hands. So everything is created now physically and in order to be brought on this pure duct of reality we must use those mental thoughts and transmute that energy into manifesting the craft that we first manifested in our imagination. Image means born nation is what you rule. You born and manifest that which you rule first from your mind. So with that being said the your 11 chakras are your hands. Your 12th chakra is your aura. Now, with that being said, like I said, family, in my seven levels of existence video, I broke down each color of the first seven chakras step by step, and I went into these chakras in full depth. So, I'm skipping these chakras. Now, if you want the signs on these chakras, if you haven't already seen that video, go watch it. I'm dealing with the last dealing with the eighth through 12th chakras cuz I haven't touched on them yet, and I promised y'all I would. And then I'm going to be going into the vertebrae. So that being said, your accashic records are gold in this color family. Now with that being said, the color of your knife chakras, which is your soul, is silver. Now you might say, Ph, why is the AAI record gold and why is the soul silver? Because once all of your once your aura begins to trans transfuse with the rest of once all of your chakra layers begins to transfuse with the uh lower levels of of of its existing cells at the end of the rainbow because your chakras form a rainbow color in case you don't know that starting from red at the root chakra and then ending at purple at the crown chakra you get gold. This is where the saying there's gold at the end of the rainbow comes from. This is why when you see biblical deities or holy deities, they always have a gold aura or a gold halo because it's a subconscious way of saying I am fully activated inside of myself spiritually and my chakras are fully aligned. So your records is gold family because it's what's produced after all seven of after all of your first seven chakras are aligned with each other. So your first root chakra is red. Your second one is orange with your naval chakra which is your second chakra is orange. Your third chakra, which is your stomach chakra, is yellow. Your fourth chakra, which is your heart chakra, is green. Your fifth chakra, which is your throat chakra, is baby blue. Your sixth chakra, which is your third eye, is navy blue. Your seventh chakra, which is your crown chakra, which is the soft spot on the baby's head where it's born. That's where it's located. That's purple. And then after you get purple, cuz now we successfully have just concluded the color of the rainbow aka the electromagnetic spectrum of the sun because you are a condensed sun melon condensed sunlight. Then you get gold, which is the color of the eighth chakra, which is the uh records. Now, after that, you get your soul because your soul is so big. In case you don't know, it can't even entirely fit in this body. This body can only hold so much of your actual soul. So, that being said, you might say, "Per, why is my soul silver?" Because it's the color of electricity because your soul is an extension of the solar system. Okay? The sun is like a flame and your soul is a little sparks that come off the flame. The spark is not other than the flame. The spark is an individual piece of the flame. So your soul is just a piece of the solar system. So it's silver because it's nothing more than an individual piece of electromagnetic energy which circumnavigates the body and controls it through what is called its nervous system specifically neuromelanin. Your pineal gland controls your entire nervous system. Okay? And in the pineal gland I mean behind the pineal gland you have what is called the neuromelanin nerve tract. If this neuromelanin nerve tract produces neuromelanin, key word neuro. Go look up the etymology of the word neuro. It could tell you it comes from nerves. Nerves. Your body is controlled through your nerves through electrical signals. These electrical signals are actually waves of intelligence. So with that being said, when we go to the temp chakra, now the temp chakra is brown, which is the color of dirt for gravity. Pink, okay, is the color of the 11 chakras for transmut transmutation. Now you might say why is the color pink for transmutation? Everything in the physical world that is the color pink serves as a portal. For example, your nostrils transmute oxygen and carbon dioxide in and out. Okay. A woman's womb, semen goes in, baby comes out. Transmutation of energy. Uh being mature here, your anal cavity pink. Okay. feces comes out, your gums, your teeth, food goes in, uh, saliva comes out and you spit out your mouth. Other things I can go into the sides of the mouth, I'm not going into. So, that being said, we dealing with the color pink family because if you go watch my videos, shape and colors, I break down how each shape and each color has a signature frequency that denotes the specific characteristic of that person, place, or thing. When we deal with the color pink, the color pink is a color that deals with transmutation. If something is pink, nine times out of 10, energy goes either in inside it or it goes outside or maybe both. So energy is inputted or outputted at that specific object nine times out of 10 if it's the color pink. So the color of your hand chakras are pink for this very reason. Now your 12th chakra is your aura aka your bofield. If you go watch that video I did on impass, I break down exactly what the bofield is, family. So now be shakra family. Erase this real quick. All right, family. Like I said, now that we understand the chakras, we understand we need to understand the difference between it conscious and subconscious energy flow when it's coming out of the body in certain directions. So this is our man Sticky. We going to name him Sticky. All right. This is Sticky's field of view to show you Sticky is walking this way and he's looking this way. Now, this is the front of Sticky. This is the back of Sticky. Now, why is this important? Family chakras, right? don't just come out of the they don't just uh project energy out of the front of you. They also project energy out of the back of you through the spinal column. So that being said, chakra energy flows in the same based upon the same mathematical numerical principle as all physical things are manifested on this realm which is of the of that which is called the Fibonacci sequence aka 5 PHI not pi five which is 1.618 1.618 1.618 618 is the universal sequence of a spiral. Everything in this universe comes into formation predicated upon 1.618's mathematical numerical sequence. Now when energy is flowing out of the front of the body, it flows clockwise family clockwise. Now why is this important? Because clockwise energy flow represents a being being conscious. So the front of you is symbolic to your consciousness. The back of you is considered your subconscious. Okay? 90% of your your the things you do are actually controlled by your subconscious mind. 10% of what you do you are only conscious too. Why is this important? Because the energy of the universe is literally flowing into you from behind and being projected out of you from in front of you by you. You out of the universe. So with that being said, condunalini energy when it's being projected out of the front of a being this red is symbolic to the uh energy that's being projected out of a being by chakras flows in a clockwise manner. family. Remember chakras are just energy vortex centers which uh release energy which input energy and output energy out of the body of an organism. This symbolic to the conscious of a being. Now energy energy that flows out of the back of a out of the back of an organism out of your back flows family in a counter clockwise manner. Okay. counterclockwise and this represents your subconscious self. So when chakras flow out of the front of your family, they flow in a clockwise direction. When the energy from your chakras flow out of the back of you, out of your seven chakras, they flow in a counterclockwise manner. So even with your hands when energy is being protruded out of your hands if you do Ricky healing the energy is coming out in a clockwise manner. The back of your hands is coming out in a counterclockwise manner. So we need to understand the direction of energy flow family because that's very important. Period. Very important. Now family, what we getting ready to do is we getting ready to get into the chakras as I just broke down and how they relate to anatomy. So with that being said, before I continue on, watch seven levels of existence. After that, come back and watch this video. Seven levels of existence in the first half or the first beginning stage of this video will lead you up to understanding what I'm going to talk about now, which is the scientific understanding of how your cooling energy interacts with your spine according to anatomy. Now, let me get this up on the camera so y'all can see, family, before I put it on the board. Anatomy, right? You have the spinal column as you can see over here starting at the bottom from red and ending back at the top in red. Now this is your spinal column consisting of 33 vertebrae. Each of these individual links are considered a vertebrae which I'll be breaking down in a second. Now the bottom is considered the coxix where it's red. The green is considered the sacrum. The yellow is considered the lumbar. The blue is considered the dorsal also what you see here as the thoracic. And the top red is considered the cervical. Now notice family the coxix has four vertebrae and is connected to the sacrum which has five vertebrae. The lumbar which is the yellow part has five vertebrae. The thoracic which is the blue part has 12 vertebrae. And the cervical part of the spine has seven vertebrae all equaling 33. Hence masonry stops at 33 degrees which I'll be breaking the dollar down the science to that shortly as well. Now you have 33 vertebrae family. Your kundalini energy has to circumnavigate through each and every one of these vertebrae individually. Now each and every one of these vertebrae brings out a different character characteristic or a different aspect of your own enlightenment. Each one of these vertebrae contain a specific individual characteristic of energy that is embedded in you. And these energies interact with you predicated upon your zodiac sign as well as a myriad of different factions and possibilities that can be the cause of who you are as a being. Now, that being said, let me throw this up here real quick for you. Let me throw this up here for you. You got anatomy, family. Y be diving in and in and off camera cuz I got a lot of things I want to grab and show y'all. Now, not only do you have anatomy, this is your vertebrae on an individual scale. Now, let me show you. This is your vertebrae family. Now, right here, this is called the vertebra body. All right. This is your spinal cord. These are your spinal nerves. And this light blue area is called the nucleus pulposus. Nucleus pulposus. Once again, nucleus pulposus. And this is your vertebra body. So this is basically like the bony part of your skeleton of your uh vertebrae that protects the nerve. Now what happens is kundalini energy family shoots. out of the coxix I mean out of the reservoir which is located in between you know if you're a man your testicles or your penis whatever your root chakra if you're a woman your womb your vagina whatever you want to call it and your anus so most people know it as the gu area being mature that's your kundalini reservoir now what happens is kundalini energy shoots out of your kundalini reservoir and it enters into your spine through what is called the kaic aka the first level of your root of your chakras. Now, each vertebrae is actually associated with the chakra. And I'll be breaking down how the first vertebrae is is not, excuse me, associated with the first chakra, but the 10th chakra, which is gravity. So, give me give me some time, family, and I'm going to get to going in. Now with that being said right here as this energy jumps into your spinal cord your energy travels to each vertebrae through its entrance of what I deemed here I mean what I told y'all here what is deemed as the nucleus pulposus by which is just the name the Europeans gave this light blue area and it travels up into the next nerve along the spinal cord through it let's say the medium of the spinal nerves. So as your cooling energy enters in each vertebrae, it enters each vertebrae through the nucleus pulposus unlocks those energies and characteristics in that vertebrae and then it travels through the use of spinal nerve of the uh spinal cord into the next nucleus pulposus of the next individual vertebrae unlocks that information and those energetic characteristics and it does this so on and so forth until it gets to the 33rd vertebrae. So now family why is this important? This is a diagram of the four potential uh kundalini let's say navigational aspects. So with that being said

A, B and C are good. D is bad. Now a is when the kalini energy is flowing straight up your spine in a normal pattern. Sometimes it flows up your spine and it has like a little egg in the diagram because some people feel like lumps are going up their back. This is a different patterns. These patterns of AB and C are just diagrams of different flow of different ways and variations in which the cooling energy flows up the spine and it's to help illustrate the different sensations that people feel. So this one is a smooth flow column A. Column B is more of a egg flow. Column C is more of a tingly, tickly flow or sensation. Now column D is when A, B or C, whichever one of these flows come into a block in the spine. And what happens is the cool energy has to discharge itself. Now it's like when somebody bends a water hose. So what happens is the water can no longer flow become stuck. But now if you can remember family when I broke down earlier how how energy exits the front of you. I mean it's projected out of the front of you or the back of you. This ball comes from the spine. So what happens is once the cooling energy is released out of the reservoir and it enters in the coxix, let's just make a number. Let's say it makes it to the lumbar part of the spine. Let's just make a number. Let's say it makes it to like your 14th vertebrae. So now what happens is let's say when we get to this vertebrae this vertebrae is damaged or you have bad posture or one of the millions of the reasons why you have a uh incorrect module I mean incorrect vertebrae module in your back for whatever reason like I said nine times out of 10 most black people have bad posture we over we eating bad foods it's a million reasons that we can give period we've been shot hit by cars I don't got to go down the list but for whatever When this cool energy is flowing and it gets to a certain part of your spine, what it does is, as you can see in D, is it ejects itself from its own root of circumnavigation of the spine and it releases itself forcefully out of either the front or the back level of wherever it's at. So, a lot of people have chest pain or back pain. might be your lower back, might be the middle of your back, might be your upper back, might be your stomach. A lot of people have stomach pains, chest pains. Okay? And a lot of people have damn have neck pains. A lot of people have pains in their neck. And this is what massages is for, to help realign your spine. This is the point of acupuncture and why anatomy is so important. But getting back on point, this is the primary cause of your back pain because we living in a celestial time where these energies are being released, but yet your spine is not aligned for it to flow. Would you get on a goddamn train where the damn tracks ain't aligned? No. Cuz you know the train is going to crash. So the cooling energy is the train and your spine is the track. So a lot of people complain about having back back problems, but if you go to where the lower back is located, that's in the lower area. Okay? Or the sacum area. As you can see where it's green and yellow and most people have, like I said, a myriad of reasons why your vertebraes could be unaligned. We're not going into specifics. I don't know the specific viewers watching this, but you know what's wrong with you. And for whatever reason, as your cooling energy is trying to make it way up your spine, you have abandoned your holes. And this energy is either being released out of the front or the back of you and it's causing pain in that area of the body. So most people like I said have chest pain and don't know why. This is why. So a good exercise actually would be to plank or do exercise that strengthen your spine and back. This is why martial arts they stress good spine and good back posture because it it helps to navigate correct energy flow. So when we dealing with uh the science accordingly energy this is very important to the health of the being because all beings rely upon this energy. It literally either makes you or breaks you. So these are the four different types of possible cooling energy flows family. Now I'mma sit this down for a minute because I'mma continue to tell you the science of cooling energy flow and then I'm going to bring it back and I'mma go into each individual vertebrae one by one. Matter of fact, no. I'm going go to each individual vertebrae one by one. your chakra system, right? These are your vertebraes, family. Your kunalin energy is now flowing up the spine. Now, your first vertebrae in the coxix level of the spine is associated with gravity. This is why when you break your damn coxix bone, your coxix your coxix part of your spine, you become paralyzed because you become electrically dis I mean electromagnetically disconnected from the planet earth. As I broke down earlier, you are connected to the planet earth through its own and your own electromagnetic bio fields. The one on the scale of celestial bodies is called a magnetosphere, but for you it's called a biofield. That disconnection becomes broken once the first vertebrae becomes damaged or or or I mean becomes damaged or destroyed beyond repair. So this becomes paralysis period when you break that bone. Now you got your second vertebrae which is still in the coccyx which is your associated with your first chakra. So your second vertebrae is associated with your first chakra. Your third vertebrae which we still in the level of the coccyx is associated with your second chakra which is in your sacral your sacral chakra which is the orange chakra. Now your fourth vertebrae is associated with your third chakra. Mind you we're this is the end of the coccyx. Your coccyx tailbone has four vertebrae. So the first vertebrae is associated with gravity. The second vertebrae is associated with your first chakra. The third vertebrae is associated with your second chakra. And the fourth vertebrae is associated with your third chakra. Now we're moving on to the green which is the sacrum the sacral part of the spine. Now this has five vertebrae. Now your fifth vertebrae is associated with your fourth chakra. Your sixth vertebrae is associated with your fifth chakra. Your seventh vertebrae is associated with your sixth chakra. Your eighth vertebrae is associated with your seventh chakra. And your ninth vertebrae is associated with your eighth chakra. So I'm going to say that again. Now we're in the sacral part of the spine where it's green. Your fifth vertebrae is associated with your fourth chakra. Your sixth vertebrae is associated with your fifth chakra. Your seventh vertebrae is associated with your sixth chakra. So six is fifth and your seventh vertebrae is six. Just in case y'all can't understand what I'm saying, your eighth vertebrae is associated with your seventh chakra and your ninth vertebrae is associated with your eighth chakra. Now, you might say, "Phero, why ain't the numbers matching up?" Because remember, your first vertebrae was associated with the 10th chakra, but they're getting ready to realign now as we come back into the lumbar part of the spine. Now, the lumbar part of the spine, all right, as we all can see, has five vertebrae, which I broke down earlier. Now your 10th vertebrae is located is the beginning of your is located in the lumbar vertebrae. So it starts off the lumbar vertebrae. Your 10th vertebrae is associated with your ninth chakra. Your 11th vertebrae is associated with your 11th chakra. Your 12th vertebrae is associated with your 12th chakra. And your 13th vertebrae is associated with your feminine aspect aka yin energy. And your 14th vertebrae is associated with yang energy. Now if y'all watched this video I did damn near last year. It was called homosexuality. Shockers where I broke down what makes a man or a woman homosexual. All right, go watch it. Basically, when there's a disalignment outside of the shit the government do, outside of the food, the estrogen, all of that, naturally, when a person became over too masculinized or too feminized, it was because of a disbalance in the vertebra in their vertebra alignment. So, uh without me going into that too much, I have a whole video on that. Go watch it. Long story short, it's like water. If it's too much hot, then the cold water will uh begin to rise in its temperature. If it's too much cold, then the hot water will begin to become lower in its temperature. But when you balance them, then you get lukewarm. So that being said, the 13th vertebrae deals with feminine energy. Your 14th vertebrae can mutual masculine energy. If you notice how women stand, women naturally have an arch in their back or they always stand uh let's say feminine just to without just for a less offensive word, they stand feminine. So that being said, this is because they're catering to their 13th vertebrae. Men, we're supposed to stand straight because we're catering to our 14th vertebrae. So what happens is once you have a disalignment in the spine, one vertebrae begins to work double time to make up for the lack of help that it should be getting from another vertebrae. So what happens is the feminine vertebrae, I mean the masculine vertebrae, the 14 vertebrae, become becomes imbalanced in the anatomy of a being for whatever reason. We're not going into this position. For whatever reason, it becomes imbalanced. I don't know individuals like I said we would have to diagnose you individually but for whatever reason your 14 vertebrae if you're a man becomes imbalanced and your 13 vertebrae which can mut your feminine energy now is working in double overtime to make up for the energy that the 14 vertebrae is conducting and you begin to act in feminine ways on a biological scale on a physiological scale. So, this is why you see little boys right now doing what we consider homosexual things, but they're not gay. But they do they have, let's say, female gestures in their bodies or they do uh they they they exert homosexual tendencies that most men would deem it, but they're not gay. This is why it's all because of the spine. Now, continuing on, now we going to to to the dorsal or the thoracic part of the spine, which has 12 vertebrae, which is this blue. Now, We out of the chakras now. Now we're into the energies that are actually housed within these vertebrae. Now your 15th vertebrae has to deal with the balance of polarities. Right? So once you get a successful 13 to 14 vertebrae flowing, aka successful feminine and masculine energy flowing up the spine. Now the balance and the polarities of those energies begin to become manifest in the 15 vertebrae. So when we dealing with the balance of polarities, think of the yin-yang ball, but not the little dots, just the big spaces filled with color. So that would be the all black and the all white. I mean balance of polarities. I'm sorry, wrong word. We have to balance of polarities. The balance of polarities would be the all black and the all white. So this is balancing the totality of your being as a man and or as a woman. Aka all the electrons and the protons in your body begin to become equally dispensed throughout your body. So like I said, the 15 vertebrae is the balance of polarities, not similarities. The 16 vertebrae is the balance of similarities. Now this would be the little dots in the leaning ball. So this would be all the black, let's say, would be feminine, but that little bit of white would be the masculine aspect that that feminine energy contains. And then all the white would be masculine, but the little black dot would be all the feminine aspects that that masculine energy contains. The 16 vertebrae is the conductor of these energies is the balance of similarities. So your 15 vertebrae is the balance of your polarities aka the balance of the totality of your being of who you are. And then your 16 vertebrae balances the oppositional energies that exist within you which is the opposite of the totality of the being that you are. So if you're a man, your 16 vertebrae helps to balance the feminine energies that are in you. If you're a woman, your 16th vertebrae helps to b helps to balance the masculine energies that are within you. Now we going to the 17th birthday vertebrae which is harmony. Your 17th vertebrae conducts energies of harmony. We know anything about harmony. It's not just dealing with music is dealing with balance. Your 17th vertebrae is what helps is is what's helping all of the rest of the energies coming from all 16 vertebrae below it. Now they're all becoming synchronized and flowing in harmony. And your body at this point in time. So for the first seven, as long as the first 17 of your vertebrae are correctly aligned, you should be able to physically move at the frequency of the sun successfully, which is 432 hertz because everything in physical reality becomes manifested at 432. So with that being said, as long as the first 17 ver the first 17 vertebrae are aligned correctly, aka from your coxix all the way to your thoracic, okay, you should be able to physically operate in a healthy manner. So when you see a lot of a lot of In the movies, you see old people always hunched over and their back always messed up or these people can't physically move. You can bet that the first 17 of their vertebrae are not either as strong or aligned as they should be. Now 18, your 18th vertebrae has to do with your freedom of will. All right? And I'm going pause right here because I want to show y'all something. If you if you were to count the chakras in these, we've already been through your first three chakras. Now we on our way to your fourth chakra. So, when we dealing with your 18th vertebrae, which is located in the thoracic part of your body, aka the dorsal, and the reason I keep saying dorsal is because sometimes when you look it up, it's going to say dorsal. We've already went through your first chakra, your second chakra, your third chakra. Now, we're on the way to your heart chakra. So, just like your heart deals with your free will, the vertebrae in your spine, I will help commute this energy, family. So, if we were to go back down to the coxix energy, let's say being grounded, your root chakra is about being grounded. Your first vertebrae conducts energy of gravitation. So it literally on a on a on a on a on a anatomical scale or a regio anatomy everything lines up perfectly. Your second chakra dealing with coming out of the uh the coxix going into the sacral and a little bit of the lumbar and a little bit of your lumbar. Your second chakra everybody know deals with sexual preference. Your 13 and 14 vertebrae which are located in the areas of your second chakra have to deal with sexual sexual preference. So all of this goes hand in hand family. This is why acupuncture is such a necessity. When you see our ancestors who taught these people today who go by the national the national uh the national let's say status of Chinese and all these people overseas doing the the the science that our ancestor taught them and they're poking specific nerves in specific parts of the body. This is because our ancestors understood this science in regards to healing ourself. You have to first deal with the nervous system because the nervous system is primarily hooked up with your chakra system. So now we on our way to the heart family.

Once you hit the 33rd vertebrae, then you reach what's called the divine love principle. This will be what this would be what you consider pherohood or Buddhahood or when you have a natural love for all things. See, intelligence and wisdom is two different things. Wisdom is when you can express what you know in a positive manner. Intelligence just means you know. So with that being said, when you get to the 33rd level of your own spine, when your cooling energy gets to get to the 33rd level, I mean the 33rd vertebrae, which is this very very very last vertebrae in in this last red column that you see within the cervical part of the spine because remember the spine is broken up in five parts. [music] Coxic, sacral, uh sacum, lumbar, thoracic, also known as dorsal and cervical. So once you get to the last vertebrae which is located in cervical part of the spine, you develop a natural love for all things. So when you see in religious text, even though we know these people didn't exist, I'm using the book as a format. You always hear people talking about uh you know, thou shalt not kill and thou shalt not do that because these are enlightened beings like electromagnetic frequency, electromagnetic waves. These are beings who have reached this level of enlightenment. These are beings who have reached the 33rd vertebrae within their own body and it has unlocked it has unlocked the level of intelligence. Remember your brain is conducted all thoughts predicated through your nervous system. Your cooling energy travels up your spine and unlock certain understandings and intelligences in your nervous system. So we say people are living in their lower self. Remember science deems you dead at 25 mez brain frequency. You don't got to be physically dead to be dead. A lot of people was operating at 25 mezzzy. They're scientifically deemed dead. A lot of people cannot conduct thoughts or generate electromagnetic energy out of their nervous system beyond the goddamn lumber part of their spine. So when we tell people you're living in your lower self, you are really living in your lower self. Your brain is conducting thoughts that are not being generated past. So you don't know what it's like to live the fuck up here because you don't live up there. So it's not just your psychology that keeps you down here. It's your food. There's all kinds of shit that I don't got to go into right now. These goddamn prescription pills, the nigga across the street that's aggravating grandma, everybody. So, it's a million fucking reasons why black people why we can't get past our lower self. I'm not going into that now. I'm just giving you the science of what it is like to be above that and how to get above that on the scale of anatomy and in regards to his synchronicity with the chakras. Now let's say you get past the 33rd spinal column family. No ass has made it. You have made it. You have made it to the higher self. Welcome to the higher self where resides. See sometimes I go down here but I still be righteous. Sometimes I got to go to my cockit to let a nigga know back the fuck up off me like that. But it's way I love you. So that being said, you have made it successfully through the goddamn 33 vertebrae of your spine, your energy flowing. You are now ready to join me in feral hood family. You are ready. You are ready. So now what happens is as you can see down here family boom the energy that made it all the way through the spine as I broke it down now into the brain. Now you see the Egyptian pharaohs put the cobra on. This is not because they thought it was cute. This is because they considered the spine the serpent. This why they calling energy the serpent energy. Now why would they choose a cobra as the animal of significance? Two reasons. For one, a cobra relies 100% on its own inner strength. If you notice that cobra is standing up. It don't got no goddamn arms or legs. So think about this family. If you want to understand how strong a cobra really is, lay your ass down on your chest, tie your motherfucking arms and feet behind your back, and see if you can sit the fuck up backwards. See if you can do that. Because if you could, you would be the physical humanoid manifestation of a cobra. Since you can't, then we need to understand how strong a cobra really is in regards to using it own inner strength. So that's one aspect of the cobra. It represents inner strength. All right. And self-discipline. For two, it represents energy. Not only because we literally have reptile DNA and not only is it because a cobra actually has a pineal gland and is able to meditate. This is why they can dance to music. A cobra is literally one of the only animals on the planet that can meditate. But also because once the energy circumnavigates the 33rd vertebrae as I show it up there, family and that energy enters into the into the brain. What happens is Let me see this one. What happens is that energy comes into the brain off the brain stem right here. Boom. And this is the third ventricle, the blue and the green is the fourth ventricle. The pineal gland acts like a door that separates the third and fourth ventricle. And what happens is this cooling energy lifts up the pineal gland. And there's a literally a liquid melanin that only African people have in their head. Only I'mma repeat it. Only African people have this liquid melanin. And if this liquid melanin begins to become released into the fourth ventricle and stimulate not only the fourth ventricle but the spinal cord of the entity or the humanoid organism because remember only African people are human. And this by default stimulates the entire nervous system of that being as well as the entire brain of that being and particularly what it stimulates in the brain is called dipple antennas which are small melanated tissue receptors located within the internal and external layers of the skull that literally trans transport thoughts in and out of a being in regards to their personal interaction with the solar system. So this is what you would call uh hyper praying like this is like talking directly to the creator. So this is where in religion they get the same you know popes and pastors have the divine connection with the creator they can talk to the creator because remember the sun is the creator of all physical existence and black people are condensed sunlight. So once your cooling energy is flowing and you reach your higher self, you can contact and you become mentally directly in contact with the creator predicated upon your thoughts through neurome neuro nerves the neurological transmission of messages. So only black people have a direct connection with the creator. Now coming back to the science of the pharaoh and like I said this where Europeans stole that from and now they try to say the pastor the pope and the Catholic father is has some kind of magical divine connection with the creator but yeah that's what the creator that they created not the real goddamn creator but coming back to the feral head family what happens is the pineal gland literally swells up like the hood of a cobra and the puratory gland which is located underneath the pineal gland begins to flicker like the hood of a cobra. So the ancestors put the cobra aka the ureas on their head to signify that they was fully aligned on the scale of chakras and that they were in their full level of enlightenment. So this is like the same reason a Buddhist monks would wear their Buddhist beads to let you know that they was fully aligned in the science of themselves. So with that being said family when we dealing with uh divinity and we deal with us as being melanated beings we have to understand the science of these vehicles that we are using to circumn this physical realm or this third dimension which is becoming a fifth dimensional frequency uh atmosphere at this time. So, it's important to understand your anatomy, family, and the characteristics that in play. I know that school is boring and they don't tell you the full extent of what it is you should, but that's what I'm here for. So, with that being said, family, I hope y'all enjoy today's university. You know, I love y'all. Peace always. Um, you know, the next one is coming to be fire. I ain't going to tell y'all what it is. I'mma just drop it. I've been meaning to get this one out for a minute. So, with that being said, you know, this is FA University. If this is your first time, you need to As I stated in the beginning of the video, here we teach African melanated beings the true science of themselves in regards to their individual relations with the universe. And with that being said, fuck president. I love y'all. Peace.

Topic - How did black people go about engaging with the world around them prior to the patriarchy spell?

about what was black people's religion uh before slavery. Now, I know that religion is man-made. Black people didn't have a religion. We had a way of life, understanding, but I'm I'm uh creating a title in a manner to where people who ask me these questions, you know, can come across this video and it can be uh answered on a widespread platform versus me keep answering this question individually as time goes on. And so that being said, uh monotheism and all of these other man-made fictitious religions, okay, uh especially the monotheistic religions via via, you know, Judaism, Islam, and Christianity are all uh Caucasian created religions. Now, when you ask what did black people uh worship, all right, I don't even like using worships because that's a Caucasian terminology to misrepresent our oneness with the universe. So, you know, I want people to understand, I know they have a vast diverse audience, right? But we have to understand why things were created and not just what was created. And so when we understand the the specific, you know, misleading terms and things like that that are used uh towards African civilizations, we have to understand why they're placed there. Black people, okay, my ancestors had a specific understanding with the universe that was purposely distorted and misconceived to make us look like we were univized savages. For example, right, uh I'll just use Egypt for example, right? Egypt, right? They say we worship the sun. Okay, nobody worshiped the damn sun. We understood that melanin was condensed sunlight and you get your soul from the solar system. Okay, this why uh whatchamacallit Egyptians called themselves children of the sun. So we understood that this that the sun was uh the electromagnetic sustainer and manifesttor of the physical plane and physical reality. Okay, it sustained physical life. So the universe is is the manifesttor of of uh potentiality via the metaphysical realm and it is through the portal of the sun because the sun is actually a portal that physical life is manifested at a specific terahertz frequency that you're able to digest and experience through electrical signals being downloaded and perceived through your five physical senses and interpreted by your brain. And so our ancestors understood that. Okay. Now what Europeans did, okay, and other races, uh when they came amongst black people where we were, specifically Africa, uh they were soon, you know, diagnosed with the realization that they cannot be sustained or exist with under the uh underneath the sun. So even to this day, skin cancer.org confirms that every 57 minute, one non-black person dies of uh skin cancer via the sun. You know, Israel right now, which is full of white people, has the second highest uh largest rate of of uh skin cancer via the sun or sun uh excuse me, skin cancer via caused by the sun uh in in in you know statistical history right now. So this is not something I'm making up even still today. This is a fact. And so what happened was uh the sun as well as the solar system. So I would like to call it solar science. Okay, we we studied the science of the solar realm, the solar system. So, astrology and the stars cuz every star is a sun. Okay, this why I'm saying the sun. Okay, it's many suns. The stars, okay, are called a map for a reason because they are grid. I mean, they are points on a grid which show you the fluctuations and the changes of energy. Okay, for example, I did a video on this. They call 3:00 in the morning the witching hour because it's the hour where the latitude and longitude lines of the planet earth via during when the sun begins to rise become electromagnetically stimulated and charged by the sun and it begins to kick out a frequency all across the planet earth. I mean that that that travels at like a wave all across the planet earth. So uh 4 between 3 3 and 4:00 in the morning you actually coming into the uh the the uh the p the stars that form a particular pattern that that uh affect us aka zodiac sign known as the Virgo constellation. So this is why paranormal activity is actually so high at 3 or 4:00 in the morning. It's all due to the position of the of the plan of the planet earth in conjunction with the sun and the rest of the celestial beings. So our ancestors were dealing with astrology. Okay, we can go to uh even the Doan tribe in Mali. They had maps of Sirius A and Sirius B before Europeans just found out that that was even a star in the sky 60 years ago. They've been doing this for thousands of years. So, our ancestors were master astrologers and astronomers and uh they dealt with bio energy as well as uh whatchamacallit, the healing properties and the electromagnetic uh properties of the sun. That's just to tone it down. I can go into an entire lecture on that alone. I've done it. I'm not going to do it now. I'm just telling y'all where we were at psychologically before Europeans came because now I'm going to tell you how we got here and why we got here. So, to sum it all up, we dealt with astrology, astronomy, and the acknowledgement of melanin being a natural universal gift from the sun. Once once photons and rays of light vibrate past 800 terz frequency, it begins to condense and solidify and become light. This is why uh we call ourselves light beings. So actually light when you solidify it is dark. It's blackness. So black people are actually light beings. I'm not being racist here or any or anything. I'm being scientific here. I'm being historical and factual. Even when you in art class, when you coloring, they tell you don't leave no white spots. You put color on a white sheet of paper because the white sheet of paper denotes the void of the existence of frequency. And so with that being said, continuing on. Okay. Boom. What happened was when Europeans came over there. Okay. Let's just get on Jesus for a minute. Let's just deal with Jesus for one second. They said these niggas is too powerful spiritually for us to conquer as so long as they remain in conjunction in unison with nature. So what they did was they created, you know, with the general set with which he uses this term and I'm going to use it now, but I'm going let you know where I got it from because I feel it best helps to describe this situation. They used a sunblock in the form of religion. Okay? So just like they create sunblock that go on your skin and sunglasses that block your eyes even though you are supposed to sungaze. Okay? And the reason that they don't tell you not to go blind is because they don't have melanin in their eyes which is why they're blue because they're melanin recessive within the retinas of their eyes. And so sungazing is actually healthy. You download uh photons uh and you digest photons via the retina of your eyes. Those photons and electrical signals are converted. They actually travel down and back up your spine into your pineal gland and stimulate your entire nervous system. They also stimulate your DNA via somatic frequency and unlock codes in the DNA. So all of these sciences our ancestors knew. But this is the important why we must understand that we are not all one race and separate oursel. Cuz if you let somebody who this science doesn't apply to come in and scientifically tell you what's best for you, then as a black person, you skipping out on living your best life. A fish can't tell a bird how to fly. A bird shouldn't tell a fish how to swim. So like I said, this is not about being racist. This is about uh I mean racist in a hateful sense. This is about dealing with different races of people, you know, in their best form. And so specifically when it comes to white people, white people say we have to get these niggas from out of tune with nature in order to conquer them. So instead of dealing with the sun, they created the son of God. Even in the Bible, Psalms 83,

Topic - Music = Uni-Verse = one verse

Everything is music. Everything has a bridge. Everything has cadence. Everything has a catch. The tempo at which I'm speaking is stimulating your brain in a certain way which makes you want to watch. People always ask me, "Court, how are you articulating yourself so well?" And I'm beginning to think that it's just the tempo at which I speak and the different manorisms I have and the predictability of my next sentence or my next breath. You can see this with AI and it's why AI feels so soulless. The way that it talks and the sentences that it generates have absolutely no cadence that is original to them. It's like this really strange uncanny homogenized way of speaking. It's like the statistically most probable sentence to occur, you know, like it's just a hodgepodge of every cadence of every writing style that's ever existed. Anyways, everything is music. All the important parts about life are music. Everything has a bridge. Everything has a chorus. Everything is about the feeling and the eb and the flow and giving space for notes to be heard and adding clutter when you want things to feel staticky. Every single sensuous experience you have is characterized by this up and this down. This arising and then this dissipating, which is all that music really is about. World operates in cycles and in flow. When you think of something that's jagged and rigid, it's it's sounds evil because it's so disharmonious with things as they are. And I'm saying all of this because people always think you need to figure out life before you can be happy. That you need to you you need to make this plan. You need to make this structure so that things will always be good. But honestly, it's the piece that you find first that makes you understand everything else, right? It's the groove you find in the song that makes you understand everything else. It's something you feel out first. You find the piece first and then you get the clarity and then you get the hidden message and then you get the beautifully written, perfectly articulated story laid out right in front of you. There's no amount of analysis that needs to be done. Just like music theory doesn't really help people create good music. Good music is totally irrespective of your musical education. There is no scientifically perfect song or better song. There's just what's true and authentic and in the moment and what isn't, which we like to think of as being better, but is kind of defined by the lack of wanting to be better. It's the lack of wanting to be anything at all except for the thing that it is. It's just this unique identity like a like a person like the color red like anything else in experience. Can't say that cherries smell better than oranges. They just smell. They just are. All the experiences in life are this way. And it only makes sense when you just find that rhythm. When you just find that that groove, that music that's always happening in every aspect of life. Otherwise, it's just sounds. Everything is just sounds. It just seems absurd and random and just fucking totally inongruent. You don't have an ear for harmony, how will you ever see beauty? It's all connected in every way that we interact with this world. It's all connected. I love you guys. Hope that hope that made sense in some way. Take care.

Topic - Dr. Saanja on Mother Earth

We live on the same earth, not on the same earth. You have to understand that the reason why they call it a planet is because it is a plain net. It is a netted plane. Which means when you enter this dimension your consciousness collapses and it becomes contained in whatever narrative you allow yourself to exist in. That's why once you break the narcissistic spell of the third dimension and you release yourself from that anchorage, you have a totally different earthly experience. Some people never get wounded by law enforcement. Some people never have to deal with racism or any type of discrimination. Some people do not align with the narratives that they show you on social media because the reason why they keep that stuff in your face is to keep you anchored to this dimension so that they can continue to harvest your energy in order to make this narcissistic beast as strong as it is today. So when people talk about even another esoteric narrative, right? When people keep saying, "Oh, we're on the wrong calendar system. That's not really the winter solstice. This is not really the 999 portal like they were saying back in September." It's not about us being on the wrong calendar system. The reason why the Bible and all these uh organized religions talk about the end of the world or the end of the age in some sense when they create and apply those calendar systems is indicative of a new timeline that has split from the original. So when these timelines collapse, that is symbolic to the end of the world. When I talk uh over on my YT channel on the rapture being the taken up of your nervous system, that is you coming to save yourself. That is you doing the inner work to break the narcissistic spell. You literally take the chains off of your consciousness and you live free because slavery in in this sense is a choice. You are choosing to participate in an artificial reality. The calendar system is neither here nor there. The calendar system is just a map just like everything else in this narrative. Whether it's religion, politics, government, everything that is organized and structured was put into place as an inversion which is a clue to how to return to the source which is the true you. I think sometimes we lose sight of the fact that the mind is over all forms of matter and we keep focusing on what's real and fake. Nothing exists in this realm. That's what the spell is. That's what makes this thing the matrix. The matrix is just the womb. The womb is a manifestation tool. That's it. The earth is a plane. It is a plain net. That net is just like us being quantum supercomputers getting on the internet, but we're not on the internet. We are in her net. It is a separate dimension. We are all experiencing different levels of the same stuff. That's where the disagreements come from because no one can invalidate your perspective. No one can invalidate what you think is real. We keep thinking that everyone lives in the same dimension. We live on the same earth on the same planet, but we do not all experience it in the same way because we live in our own separate dimensions. We are all different web addresses. We are different domains on the internet. This is the ancient metaphysics that the secular world has adopted and is now calling neuroscience. It is the power of your mind and your ability as Dr. Joe Despensza says to restore heart coherence. Everything is mind over matter. It is you that limits your own experience based on the narratives that you allow yourself to collapse into. That is why they use these storylines in your timelines in your FYP to trigger you. Your triggers open portals to alternate dimensions. But if you keep choosing the same patterns because you have no sense of self-awareness, then you are the source of your own anchorage. You are your own oppressor in that sense. You are what's making the earth a prison because you continue to choose patterns that maintain the chains on your consciousness.

Topic - Multi Dimensional

us not understanding ourselves as multi-dimensional beings has really fucked us. I came to understand something yesterday in my dream that I need to give to y'all, but it's going to take me a second to bake it. So, just watch to the end of this video. Earth is a really dense place. And because Earth is a really dense place, everything is separated. And we are experiencing that separation through polarity consciousness, which means that only one truth can exist at once. We were never supposed to experience life like that. Earth was not a school. Earth was a place for you to come and dream awake. They called it heaven on earth for a reason. It was a place that you can come as a god and descend into flesh, descend into matter, and play with angelic codes, saraphic codes. It was a place for us to come and dream while we were awake. It was a place where we could use source energy to our benefit because Earth is a womb planet. She's a feeler. She's water, divine feminine energy. And mind you, this is new for me. I thought I fully understood this until I had my dream last night. So last night in my dream, I kept being told that the Milky Way was fractured at some point. So I'm thinking, "Oh, the Lyra fall, the Tara fall. We've had so many fucking falls. No, this is pre-Earth. This is what in our memory vaults are called the severance or the tearing of the song lines. It happened pre-earth, pre-gaia, pre-tara, preyra, pre- everything. And this was not a natural thing that happens. It was a consequence of misusing frequency. And what happened is that there was a collective collapse in the harmony in the high density quadrant of the Milky Way. Not only are we in the Milky Way galaxy, we're also in the high density quadrant of the Milky Way galaxy. And this caused a dimensional veil to drop which basically severed us from everything else. And that's why we have always been told, well, we're the only ones here. We're the only thing that exists in this world or in this universe. But that's not true. We were disconnected from everything before we got a chance to even be a thing. Now, this caused a couple of different things. It disconnected us from our soul families. It fragmented memory vaults across star systems. And a lot of those memory vaults had to be relocated. So a lot of them came to earth, a lot of them went to Saturn, a lot of them went to Andara. It also splintered over so embodiment paths as well, which is why we don't remember ourselves. And it's also why Earth got caught in an infinite reincarnation loop. Now that's where the fucking problem comes in because we think that reincarnation isn't real. Time isn't real. Space isn't real. And that's because we've been taught that. But the reason why we've been taught that is because we feel the truth that it's not real at the higher harmonics. But for Earth, it is real. What's happening to Earth is like having a CD and you scratch the back of the CD and every time you get to the specific part, it starts to stutter. Click, click, click, click, click, click, click, and replays the same part. It's like when somebody has a fracture in their mind and they keep repeating the same things. That's what's happening to Earth. And that's why they say history repeats itself. I think this is where the ages come from, the golden age, the iron age, the bronze age. But we're also doing that as well. And that's the whole idea of karma. We're accumulating all these karmic imprints and carrying them over into the next life. And so we just keep repeating the same thing over and over again until we do something about it. So that's the first part. The second part is as we try to clear this trauma and this karma so we can create more light in our body so that we can fully embody you are not dealing just with the trauma of this life. You are dealing with the trauma of all of your past selves that are reflected in this life. And so the issue that we're running into is that we're trying to heal our trauma. And so say for instance, you dated somebody and they broke your heart. You think that you need to heal the heartbreak, not realizing that that person is a holographic trigger. That person came into your life because they needed to trigger the feeling of heartbreak of betrayal so that you can deal with the betrayal itself. But it's not exclusive to that person. the betrayal that you feel is across three different incarnations of yourself and so you focus on that one specific event and then you don't understand why it keeps coming back and coming back and coming back. So what spirit told me is what comes back in your mind is what has not been healed in your body. Your mind is not trying to punish you. It's bringing awareness to what is come going on in your heart. Your heart is a memory vault of your soul. Your womb is the memory vault of your ancestry. is what connects you to your ancestral line. Your heart is the memory vault of your soul. It connects you to your soul lineage. So that event keeps coming up because it's supposed to trigger the feeling and the feeling is the key. The feeling holds the information. And so when people say feelings are not facts, that's a lie. Feelings are encoded carriers of multi-dimensional memory. So ignoring your feelings keeps you fragmented. There's no way you can do what you came here to do if you ignore your feelings because they are what connect you to everything. So when you feel something intensely, whether that's betrayal, rage, grief, longing, you are actually activating a harmonic frequency within your soul loom. And your soul loom is your nervous system. They've told you that you only have two, the parasympathetic and the sympathetic. No, you have a crystalline nervous system as well. That's the soul loom. So your meridians, they're part of that network. So, not only does that intense feeling hold present life weight, it holds past life origin memory, oversole level distortion, which is when you were exiled, abandoned, silenced, and the most important, plasma keys that open or close your access to higher levels of consciousness. Remember I said at the beginning that Earth is in polarity consciousness, meaning one truth can exist at once. After polarity consciousness is high heart consciousness. This requires you to drop into your heart space. You have to forgive. You have to feel. When you do, you start to experience compassion for other people. You go from victim to survivor. You start to use empathy with discernment. You start to reach inner harmony and start to see love through the lens of divine union. Two whole peoples coming together who have healed from their own trauma. You take care of your emotional and physical needs. I take care of mine. And we come together and coexist in the same space. And then after that, Christ conscious, which is collective consciousness. And that's just me skipping around. As you move up in consciousness, your truth deepens. So you're not wrong to think that one thing exists at once. That thing is true for you at this moment. But as you continue to reach higher levels of consciousness, that truth is supposed to deepen. This is what they call expanded awareness. Now you see the triplicity in everything. And now you understand that everything appears on a spectrum and there are multiple things that are true at one time, not just one. That's when the real work can start. When you can see the nuance in life, you can be right and I can be right. So when these intense emotions happen, what your body or what your oversoul is really saying to you is that you're ready to retrieve the memory that you fragmented in this exact resonance a long time ago. If you try to skip it, override it, suppress it, you lock this access point again. So these triggers that are happening in this lifetime or say the event that we talked about with the person who broke your heart, they're showing you where you're blocked, but it's not in the thing that you're taking personal from the event. It's in the feeling. It's in the resonance. It's in the energy. And in that energy, you can discover a past life vow, a soul fragment, a grid point in your nervous system that needs to be reweaved, a mirror. Your feelings are your soul's language. And then when you heal yourself, you heal earth. So the reason why a lot of us high vibrational beings came into this reality and into these specific bloodlines that are full of trauma is so that we can heal within this bloodline. And when we heal ourselves, we heal the line before us and the line that's to come after us. And by healing ourselves, we heal the plasma in our body that realigns us to earth. So by healing us, we heal earth. As within, so without. So, a lot of us chose to come here because we knew that we were capable of doing the work that needed to be done. And by us doing the work, we heal Earth. We break through that dimensional veil. Now, with that being said, my name is Taja. I'm a very ancient soul. I was here in Egypt. I was here in Atlantis. I was here in Lyra, which was the first harmonic civilization in the Milky Way galaxy. But I've also been in galaxies outside of the one we exist in now. I'm here to help us to embody our oversoul. We've only been taught about ascension. So, you think you're supposed to be becoming something. You're supposed to be remembering who you are. But first, you need to clear the trauma of your line in order for you to remember who you are. Because when you clear the trauma, you allow more light, which is love and remembrance into your body. Your vessel has to be able to hold it so that it does not fragment again. But in order for you to come here, you had to fractillate yourself into multiple pieces. And so this journey is about you going and retrieving the soul fragments. But you can only do that through feeling. Every service that I provide is surrounded around helping you to remember yourself. I do a thing called flame lineage readings. I don't know anybody else who does this where I tell you what soul lineages you come from. You can have up to three primary lineages. That's going to be your soul's language. Then you have secondary lineages which are going to be karmic overlays, generational curses, soul vows that you made in previous lifetimes. We look at all of that and I tell you how all your energy connects with each other, the function of your oversoul, what you came here to do, and in which order you need to heal. I provide you with journal prompts, mirror affirmations, and rituals. There are three tiers to this, but the third tier, you get a month worth of embodiment coaching. That's what I recommend. This is all available on my website, www.btage.btjj.com. Happy healing, friends. They are blocking my content, so if you made it this far, please like, comment, and share so other people can see this.

Topic - Correct Calendar "Time"

Not just out of the books. Like when people say, "Oh, they hid they took it out of the books." Nigga, they didn't just take pages out of a book. They literally took hours off the clock. They took days out the week. They took nigga, fuck just hiding a paragraph, nigga. They told you that your birthday was 2 months later than it is. Every month is actually two months earlier. For example, October is really the eighth month. It's not the 10th, but they got it in the 10th place. But octo means eight. like Octopus, eight arms, Octo. So, August the 30th, which is my birthday, is actually the day that the spider came to Earth. That's actually the real day of Halo, cuz it's not Hollowo, it's Halo. But they put Halo 2 months after that, which is in October the 10th. But really, Halo is supposed to be August 30th. So, the real calendar, if you want to figure it out, just take every month and minus two numbers from it. And that's the real place that it goes. So like December is not the 12th month. December is really the 10th. October is not the 10th. It's really the 8th. August is really the 6th. So and that's why cancer and matter of fact he brought up cancer. Mel brought up cancer. What is the symb What is the symbol for cancer? The 69 69 and what's the what's the what's the three numbers of Satanism? 666. And and where did you where did they get that from? Because the inverted 69 mean as above so below because your physical and your mental is getting cancer. Little do you know because somebody is putting parasites and carcinogens in your water. And then the and then the and then the the number six that you don't know. I mean the third number six is the six hours that they took off the day because it's 30 hours in the day. It's not six. It's not 12 hours of day and 12 hours of night. It's 15 hours of day and 15 hours of night. But somebody shaved three hours off the day and shaved three hours off the night. Then they took that three hours and split that shit in half. So they they got somebody getting an extra hour and a half and an extra hour and a half twice during the day and an extra hour and a half and an extra hour and a half twice during the motherfucking night. So they so that's so that's that's 1.5×4 . Or if you break down that break that down in minutes, that's 45 minutes time 8. So, somebody getting an extra 45 minutes out your ass eight times every motherfucking day cycle because they lied to you about how long a day is and how long a week is. When are people going to realize that Western tropical astrology is completely BS? It is 23.5° off from the actual position of the constellations, which means that most people don't know what their actual zodiac sign is because they're using the wrong form of astrology. Vadic astrology accounts for the procession of the equinoxes which allows us to see the actual positioning of the constellations.

Topic - Mandelbrot

If you see this video multiple times, don't pay attention to it. I'm trying to reach a scientist. Okay. Uh, the mandelbrot is a mathematical fractal that has infinite patterns. The mandelbrot is a 2D representation of the entire infinite universe. I'm talking first dimension, second dimension, third dimension, fourth dimension, fifth dimension. It is a map. Okay, this is where I get excited. Do you know what you can do with this? So, the mandelbrot is essentially like an interdimensional computer. And the way it works is that I was zooming in on the patterns and then I realized like I know exactly that pattern and like it gave me like hold on let me Okay, I don't know if this has ever happened to anybody else but have you ever been in like a certain part of your house and the way like the vibe is it reminds you of like it's like a perfect encapsulation of a previous time you were also in that part of the house. Like the vibe is just perfect. If you know me in real life, you should probably keep watching. The way a computer works is essentially just using contra like it contrast to push against itself and then using division to divide itself into powers. Um when it comes to a pyramid, it's really easy to understand using the Mandelro. So essentially, it's teaching you how to build your own computer out of anything. My goal is to take what's in my head and to see it manifest essentially in front of me in real life and seeing how close I can get to doing that like mathematically, scientifically cuz I've already done it. Your imagination is a really strong part of this. So basically, you're using your reality right now as a um a flatter map to receive things without having to work as hard for it. Like, okay, I'm in my room now. What kind of life do I want to have? Oh, look at me. I'm a pretty girl sitting on my couch with my vines. I'm the princess. I'm the queen. Look, I have um like this sh look at my shelf. None of this stuff is like it doesn't it's not the expensiveness. It's like what you feel about. Remember, just like a computer, the universe is just essentially two things. But like honestly, I think the universe is probably a bit less complicated than a computer is because it's just so simple. It's like my man, my bag, my path. Like you're using yourself as a piece of code. You just need to develop your your p your ratio, right? So, you're like, "How do you know this works?" I know pain and I know I don't just imagine pain and I know I don't like overexaggerate my pain. So, when I have like a weird headache for like months that like goes on and off depending on, you know, how I guess I let people treat me. Well, like a computer, you need energy. And there's like I feel like physical energy and etheric energy are two different things. Just like the stars in the sky and astrology, life and the computer works on a pedal. It works on a beat. It's following like a a dump dump. Anyone who's in finance understands that if even if you're losing like a little money over a long period of time, that still ends up being like a lot of money. Racism is the same way. The universe follows a grid pattern. So my room is logged into my house which is logged into the street which is logged into the city which is logged into the earth which is logged into the space and time and it all has numbers and all has correlations to it. So I sit in my own temple as a queen period. So you set your computer up like a castle. They I use the left side of my brain to deal with grid work and I use the right side of my brain to deal with fire and emotion and feeling. And this is the more computery side. So in glyph, it's essentially my man, my bag, my path. Memes are also like the biggest universal inside joke just because like 67 like I don't I'm not a huge fan of it because it doesn't have any context behind it but like whatever. But I guess the context like have you ever heard the American Horror Story theme song that's like that's a part of the mantle broadcast like it's like fractions of the universe that are coming that you can hear. It's like like a checkerboard. But if you live in Clear Mountain, you know, if you've ever watched My Little Pony, you could get together like uh like the Avengers. It works in angles and nursery rhymes. So imagine if you can get like a full set of characters together in Clear Mountain and if you all sit together and imagine a better life.

Topic - patriarchy being a narcissistic spell

Hey, hey, hey everybody. Welcome to yet another episode of Sundays with Saha. I am your host, Reverend Dr. Saha L. And before we get started, make sure you like and subscribe and don't forget to click that bell so that you can be the first to know and grow. Let's get started. So, today's topic is going to be the war on love. And we're going to dive a little deeply into the origins of what I call the narcissistic spell of the patriarchy. Now, let's stop for a minute and think about the situation that we currently live in. The whole world is ruled by religion. Whether or not you consider yourself woke, ascended, tapped out, off the grid, there is still an element of religion that is embedded in your consciousness. Now, how did we get here? You may say, how did we get to where we are today?

So, Reverend Dr. Sahaja is a word spelled magician. So a lot of the work I do is on the study of vibrations.

The vibrations of your language, the vibrations of your emotions and the vibrations of the visuals, the things that you see beyond and in the 3D. Now let's think for a minute.

Before we had religion, there was just womb worship because the womb is all there is. And that's the essence of the divine feminine.

Again, if you are familiar with my content, you know that gender is an illusion. The consciousness split, the polaric shift that gave two sides to everything. It distorts the harmony of the universe, which is the embodiment of oneness. The universe is whole.

It just expresses itself differently depending on the dimension of existence.

We'll talk about that later. But I said all that to say that when I speak on when I when Reverend Saha speaks on femininity and masculinity, I am not talking about female or male. I am not talking about a him or her. I am talking about the spirit and the physical. the 5D and the 3D.

And the 3D is what I refer to as masculinity. So before we had any of that, all of those religious constructs, the things that that made us look at everything as a

this or a that, there was just a oneness. There was the void or what the Bible calls the abyss. Right? If you watch my video on the deep sleep and the delta state of consciousness, this is where we came from. This is what we should be living in.

So, let's break down these words. Religion.

Religion is, and you know, Rev Sahaja is going to take you to church. So if I look away, I'm just looking at my notes. So religion is the raw lesions or the lesions of raw.

Think of these lesions as the different elements of your consciousness. Cuz remember we are infinite beings.

Everything and no thing exists.

So the legions of Rah, we know Rah is the sun god. But when we think of the son, there are many dimensions on how to define it.

The sun meaning the child of God. The sun meaning the light of God and the sun meaning consciousness, divine energy, right? Because when we think of light, the light, the light that you see around you, everything that you perceive visually with your two eyes is an illusion because it's been scientifically proven that your brain is your true eyes. So what this means is yes your eyes may pick up on things but your mind tells it tells you how to perceive it. So those people that are in mental hospitals and this the people that they calling crazy they just exist mentally in another dimension that we can't see.

Right? This ain't this isn't woo woo. This is science. This is actual science.

And the masculine aka physical aka 3D realm is why we are limited to thinking that none of that is real.

Right? So the lesions of Ra, the original Ra is the womb because the womb is the black sun. The womb is the void.

The void, right? It is the potential energy of which all things are sourced before they are birthed into being. So the mother is the true son but she projected that light. She projected her consciousness into a different realm in whatever dimension.

If you understand the science of the the quantum the quantum field and parallel realms of existence, the timeline shift, this is just a mindset shift. When you shift your mind, you are transitioning your consciousness. You are literally phasing yourself in and out of dimensions. You are an interdimensional being and this is this is nothing new. This is just a memory. Real Sahisa is just coming to tap you on the head. Open the door.

You have a library of knowledge in your head.

So now when we think of worship right because religion is essentially wound worship and then as we phased more deeply into the 3D it became something else. It became a concept of hierarchy. with us at the bottom, us at the bottom, men in the middle, right above that, and God at the top, who was another man.

It wasn't always like that.

When you look at the Bible or religion in general today, the great mother, her wisdom, her womb wisdom, that metaphysical knowledge that she embedded in us, it's inverted. The patriarchy inverted that knowledge because they needed you to be a slave so that they can keep their foot on your necks because the throne the throne that they sit on is only in your head.

Right? Alchemization is key.

The way that you alchemize your experiences is you learn how to break down the spelling or the language vibrationally.

So when Rev says she's a word spell magician,

I study vibrations.

I utilize an interdimensional realm of listening. I don't hear things the same as the normal person.

I hear in vibrations. That's why I can pick up on what most people aren't saying.

Right? So now worship was not always about servitude, right? We this this episode is called the war on love. Love is the divine feminine.

Love is the cosmic spirit, the essence of who you and I are. the essence of who we are. Regardless of whether you are a man or woman, you are feminine. You are spirit.
Feminine. Fee is the oxygen, the breath of life. I is the I am.
That is the one God mind and nine is the resurrection, the transformation, the evolution.
Those of you have seen who have seen my video on love being evil, love is an evil concept because it requires you to be in a constant state of massaging old versions of yourself.
Jesus dying on the cross. That was a sacrifice. Jesus sacrifice his masculine aka physical body to reach a higher state of the mind. There used to be a ritual where monks would go off for a thousand days and starve themselves. Literally starve themselves. Most of them did not make it. Barely made it a fraction of those thousand days. But the idea was the closer they get to a transitional state, the higher that they vibrate, right? They were sacrificing their masculine.
Masculine is just the the maschooling. the bloodline that was birthed from the feminine which is spirit. See we are our purpose here.
We have individual ways of getting to the same place which is reconnection with the higher self, the cosmic space. that void, that deep sleep, that delta state, right?
Moving on. So, you having that library in your mind means you already know what you're here to do. You already know how to make moves, how to manifest, right? But trauma got in the way, right?
Cuz trauma keeps us looped in a certain time and space.
The things that you experience that's embedded in your womb.
And remember the womb is the first mind, right? Which means that your mind is a physical manifestation of the cosmic womb. Right?
That's for the fellas cuz I don't want y'all thinking just because you ain't got a wound that you ain't you ain't worth nothing. That you have no purpose here. You create the seeds that you were taught that you plant in the womb are really the seeds of your mind.
It's your thought patterns. The way that you think. It has nothing to do with making a baby.
Because once she returns to her Christ conscious state, she ain't going to need you for that. So, you need to work on how to get to where she's at, right? How can I create without a wound? Who am I without her?

Because the two don't need each other. All the energies that are necessary for manifesting exist within us individually. Because what we aren't accounting for is the growing population of women who don't want to have children no more. Every lifetime you are preparing for the next. So in everything that we're going through, the the the gender war, the spiritual war, the war on race and religion [Music] is meant to be a vehicle to return us to our origins. Because all that trauma does is shock us awake. Cuz after so long of experiencing the exact same thing, you have to make the decision to exit that game.

[Music] Right? So because we are so disconnected now we have to work towards remembrance. So the process of remembering is where the war begins because love is the frequency of Christ consciousness. That is the healing in the Bible. When it talks about Jesus healing people, redeeming the sick, that was the energy. That was the vibration of love. The vibration of love is what does the healing. This is scientific, y'all. 528 hertz is all you need to change your whole world. And we going to get to the exit and the end of the world in a minute. So when because we are tasked with remembering right we we're disconnected. So when on our way here we essentially forgot everything. So when the patriarchy comes in this is this is after the X chromosomeal shift. I'mma call it a shift cuz the the X shifted into a Y and that's where all of this began. The X shifted into a Y. And if you have to ask why, that is indicative of having forgotten the information. So the the male essentially is the memory. The male is the lost memory, a physical manifestation of what was lost as we phased deeply more deeply into the third dimension. There was a molecular slowing of our frequency that anchored us to the 3D. And when that began happening, we didn't always have this language. We communicated via telepathy. Cuz in the beginning before we phased from higher dimensions into the 3D, we were still vibrating a little more highly than what came to be of the patriarchy. So these writing systems when we started really honing down onto the idea of being in this masculine aka physical realm. We created these writing systems which further anchored us into the forgetting because now that it's written, it's almost like creating space, right? So, it's like a release once you put it on paper. Now, you're relying on this paper rather than your library. The library is in your mind. That's the significance of your DNA because we have lost access. We lost the keys to our genetic code. Now we have to work towards remembering. So when you are when you are in that delta state of consciousness, when you are in that meditative realm, which means that you are ejecting, you are exiting yourself from the masculine realm and you are going straight to the feminine, the spirit, the womb of the abyss where it all began. Then you have unlimited access to all realms of knowledge. [Music]

The books, the books that we have here, the writing systems here are just validation and confirmation of what you already know that's already within you. You just have to learn how to go within and pull it out. and then manifest something with it.

That's what's been happening for centuries.

Because when the masculine or the patriarchy extorted the womb, extracted that divine feminine wisdom, then he used that as a tool to oppress her. That's why you see the Pythagoras and all these other people that had these great grand ideas, Tesla and all them. Where did they get that? Where did they get their information?

They had to go into the dark or the womb realm.

[Music] They didn't initially have that access.

So they had to find a way to go in and extracted and this was mostly done by force.

So once he stole that wisdom and became the face of metaphysics and higher realms of existence, cuz remember once they extracted that knowledge and wisdom, then they told women that they weren't allowed to learn and be educated.

Women were the first slaves, y'all. Just to throw that in there.

That's why all of this carrying on this war on the womb, this gender war, all this stuff that people like to throw out, black women being the new white supremacist. Why you think that's happening, man?

Karma is a vehicle that is meant to reconnect you to your mama. So instead of thinking about how you compare to her, you should just be focusing on returning to her. And this is not even in a physical sense because remember when we look at vibrations we're talking about metaphysics which is beyond the physical realm. So returning to her is returning to the source that delta state that cosmic wound.

tap back into your femininity, fellas.
And then you will restore the love and the balance that you have been looking, begging, and pleading for from us. The government didn't take that away.
You did. Women just found a way to work around it. And that's what some of y'all are really mad at cuz you don't really want togetherness. You don't really want to be whole. You still want to dominate.
Which is why we are talking about the war on love because the patriarchy vibrationally is turning is is projecting hate.
And we know this because once you disconnect from the divine feminine, that's where we get dis diseases and illness because the frequency of your sales is distorted. You know when you're traveling and you're listening to the radio and you're going state to state and then you you when you get too far from the towers, you start to hear that static, but you can you can pick up just a little bit of the old station and then you get so far in you you pick up a couple words or two from the old station, but then you also start to pick up the new station.
So, you more or less listening to two songs at once and you don't know what's going on.
That's what it's like in your body. That's what it's like in your body.
When you on this realm of existence, your cells can't communicate. They are distorted. Right? So when we look at the word, we broke down the word religion, the lesions of raw, the different dimension, the different dimensions of divine feminine consciousness.
Now worship cuz now we know metaphysically speaking the linguistics go that vowels are interchangeable letters are rearrangeable. So worship then became the warship.
Right? Why are we on a ship?
Because water is symbolic to the womb.
Right now the etymology of the word worship is to honor.
So we know that the introduction of all our trauma started with the split in consciousness, our initial disconnect from the spirit realm.
So when the Bible talks about honor because we are disconnected we think of it in terms of the third dimension. Let me bring it up.
Exodus 20:12,
"Honor your mother and your father, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God has given you. Honor thy mother and thy father.
Honor your parents. Don't be disrespectful. do everything they tell you to do. Whether it's government, God, the law, your husband, or anybody that you put over you because the patriarchy thrives on hierarchy. The patriarchy is not oneness.

It's a pyramid.

pyramid scheme. But as I've stated over and over again, when we talk about the masculine and the feminine, we are not talking about constructs of the third dimension. We are not talking about polarized splits in consciousness. the his and the her, the male and the female, the right or the wrong, the good or the bad. We are talking about energy and wholeness. So acknowledge all the different dimensions of your own existence.

Not mother meaning mom or father meaning men.

Your masculinity is a realm of existence. Your femininity is a realm of existence. And within those two realms, there are a plethora of other dimensions.

Check out my video on the 72 demons or the 72 pillars of consciousness.
Because there are five realms of consciousness of which all things exist and express themselves.

In your house there are many mansions within your being. There are many mindsets.

That's all that means. But the patriarchy wants us to project that outwardly.
They want us to think that the many mansions are other people's homes or other people's places of being.

But it's you. It's all you now because we are referring to Exodus.

Exodus is the exit, right?

Because now that the patriarchy has come in and severed our connection to our consciousness, our remembrance, right? They've distorted the frequency of harmony that we initially were living in.

So now we are collectively on our exodus. We are collectively trying to escape these chains, these mental chains bestowed upon us by the narcissists.

I have many videos breaking down the spell of the narcissist, how the narcissist was birthed through this interdimensional split or polarization of consciousness. This religious idea that if it ain't good, it's bad. And if it ain't that, it's this.

All things are vehicles with the purpose of transcending us to higher dimensions.

Have you heard anyone say things don't happen to you, they happen for you?

That's what this means. This is that mindset shift that you need.

But instead we are forced to live in this time loop dwelling on our traumas and experiences [Music] because we don't remember our divinity. We don't remember it.

We know we know we use our logic.
We use constructs of the third dimension to make the connection that oh if this is happening that it must be because of this. [Music]
We can make the connection but do we remember it?
[Music] Right? If you think of a member like a congregation to remember indicates that something split up and has returned to its whole state.
[Music] So you may know these things, [Music] but do you remember it?
Right. When we are in the book of Genesis leading up to the Exodus, cuz remember Genesis is the gene of Isis. This is the book of the darkness. They should call Genesis the book of darkness because Isis, the gene of Isis is indicative of the womb.
Cuz in the beginning there was what? Darkness.
And that's what God is.
If God is darkness, then Satan the shadow [Music] is also this darkness.
But they are both are divine just in different realms of existence.
That is how we went from Genesis, the feminine, to the narcissist, which is the dormant state that we have currently been living in. Because our consciousness has been eaten away at and redirected to anchor us into the third dimension.
Dimensions are vibrations. Consciousness is a vibration.
Your mindset is a vibration. You are ancient technology.
Not artificial intelligence. It's ancient intelligence. They use your energy to power that stuff.
When we talk about forgetting, the way you now remember is through artificial intelligence because they are essentially extracting your mother code and putting it in these engines. So the more you gas up AI, the more you eat that up, the more you begin forgetting cuz people now AI isn't evil. I AI isn't detrimental to society. But when you dwell on those machines instead of learning how to repower and operate the energy within your being, your DNA, then you are severing yourself. You're severing your own connection to the to the most high conscious state.
So in Genesis, we got the introduction of the patriarchy, right? Because God is love and God created everything. And we know by God we just mean the womb, the feminine.
But when we get to the story of Cain and Abel, something shifted, something split, right?
God created man and woman which is the masculine and the feminine.

the the the physical from spirit. [Music] And then when spirit shifted into physical, then she further phased herself and inverted her body to create the male.
[Music] So now we have a true split in consciousness.
[Music] We are further anchored to the third dimension because we are disconnected now from the source. So when we when the two sons Cain and Abel came into play, then we started to see emotions at play because Cain was emotional.
The patriarch can't handle emotions.
Because without a wound and without being energetically tapped in then you become the embodiment of the antichrist or this cosmic distortion.
So Kane rep who represents the I can Cain came up with all this vegetation.
This is my sacrifice to you. And Abel said, "No, you can have you can have the meat." And that animalistic sacrifice was symbolic to the blood sacrifice which means that Abel who is the I am Cain is the I can if you can do it then maybe you will maybe you won't but if you are it then you are the embodiment thereof.
I exist whether I'm here or there or nowhere.
So Abel sacrificed the flesh, sacrificed elements of the flesh which is which is relevant to the blood or the animal. And that's why his offering is what was accepted. Now Cain further breaking this down metaphysically. This is the metaphysical breakdown cuz I ain't your granny pastor. I'm Rev Sahaja. We going to talk about the vibrations of these chapters. Cain was not making that sacrifice.
Cain say, "This should be good enough." And God said, "No, I want the whole thing. Come all or come none." Right? So rather than acknowledging that Cain did what?
Sacrifice life somebody else's at that because the first level of ex enslavement happened in the head. So because Cain was enslaved by his mind and we know this because he could not control his emotions.
Then he had to kill his brother in order to have some sense of having overcome it.
So the emotions is symbolic because remember now that we are on this frequency this mass separation of of our energy now we introduce disease. [Music] we introduce disease. And to cure that disease, you've got to flush it out. This flush is also known as the great flood. Now, here's how we tie this in together.

Because there is a war on love and we are disconnected. That means [Music] that our linguistical devices which is the language of our spirit aka our emotions. [Music]
They are running the show. Our emotions are running the show.
We don't know how to check ourselves. So, we check each other.
We don't know how to sit with ourselves and elevate, [Music] manifest good health, manifest love, manifest whatever you want to manifest. But you have to keep your emotions in check to do it.
Because we know that the womb is symbolic to the water and the water or the flood is your emotions. [Music] This is the first exit.
This is the exit of us. our collective lower levels of consciousness. [Music] So the first the first start to revolutionizing our freedom to overcoming the war on our natural state of being is self-awareness by way of your emotions.
Because those of you who are in my metaphysical healing course, you know that your triggers are your healers. Your emotions are a guide. They're your GPS.
It's a language within you that are telling you what to do in order to manifest.
This is the science of the of the quantum shift.
Some of them call it leaping. Your emotions are key to alchemizing your reality.
Whatever you choose to apply your energy to is what you will keep reliving.
So the patriarchy works day in and day out to make sure that you dwell in a constant state of trauma and heaviness. They don't want you to make that leap.
They want you to forget. So the flood of the emotions is your cleansing process. Cuz remember this narcissistic frequency is a demon. It is a heavy energy that keeps you anchored to the 3D. And the way to transcend beyond that is by listening to your inner being, aka your emotions.
This is ex this is explained in full in metaphysical healing.
So y'all go ahead and join that VIP list. Now another aspect of the consciousness split in the book of Genesis is the Tower of Babel, the shortcut to heaven. [Music] Because you are building something that's taking you to this higher realm, [Music] but you don't you won't go within yourself. [Music]

You won't meditate. You won't tap into your femininity.
You don't want to give. You just take take [Music] your relationships are transactional because it's about validating who you are, which is something you still don't know. [Music] Every time Every time you subject yourself to emotional enslavement, [Music] you fall more deeply into the spell.
So by the time we get to the Tower of Babel, [Music] you are on a whole other layer. [Music] of thirddimensional existence.
You are bound by time, religion, duality. These are all the boundaries of 3D. They keep you bound. It's why you feel like you keep reliving the same thing.
Now, the interesting thing about the tower tower of babel is when you break that down, you get bael. Ba ba I.
Well, ba is the breath of life which we spoke on earlier because the feminine breaks down into the breath of life.
The I am in transcendence. Babael gives life to your inner demons.
Bael is the first of the 72 goalic demons.
And if you look at my video on the pillars of consciousness, this is how that relates.
your consciousness are realms of existence if you don't learn how to tap into it you by way of your emotions cuz the things that you feel aren't always just you. They're different parts of you that want something new.
In psychology, there is a science called parts therapy is breaking down all the different aspects of yourself into different states of being. If anybody's seen the movie Split, notice how all his different consciousness had different names, different identities, different personalities. That's not bipolar disorder. That's not dissociative identity disorder.
Psychology is a secular branch of metaphysics that tries to explain the things that already exist for those who are anchored to the third dimension. And they need to title. They need a title or a or a labor label for it. They need some way to measure it. Metaphysics for the most part can't necessarily be measured. It can be demonstrated.
But these pillars of consciousness, when you don't know how to tame it, they anchor you to the 3D and they either give you medicine for it or they put you in the psych ward.
But learning how to master these vibrations within yourself, learning how to give it a language so you can guide yourself. [Music] That's that's the magic.
That's the witchcraft that religious people told you would send you to hell. [Music] Alchemization is key. Y'all learn how to tap into your own energy.

Analyze the things that you are experiencing [Music] and use it as a guide book.
Use it as a GPS. [Music] Right now these are the elements of self-love.
So once you exit the 3D reality and you alchemize the the religious code that is embedded in your DNA that makes you religiously judge and interpret everything instead of using your power to read the vibrations and hear what they aren't saying. we get to this concept called the end of the world, right?
So, Exodus not only is the split or the the freeing of the people of your consciousness from the 3D cuz remember God was was freeing the people from from Egypt.
These are states of consciousness. The the Isis Rael lights.
[Music] It's just energy.
This is that this is that delta state again. Right. So the interesting thing about Exodus, honor thy mother and thy father 20 verse 12. Well, in 2012, what did they tell us?
The world ended. See, every 12 years we do another cyclical zodiac completion and at that point there's another mass wave of awakening. Well, the thing about 2012's significance when it comes to this awakening is that we were backed by the powers of technology. Information is traveling to us much faster. Time itself is moving faster because now the masses are starting to really know better.
Your emotions is a compilation of spells within yourself.
And who's holding that wand?
So we can't stop the patriarch from waring against us for for waring against our heart chakra.
The heart chakra is the divine feminine. The heart chakra is your body's largest energy center.
And the further you are anchored into the third dimension, the more that oric space that your heart projects, the more it diminishes. When that oric state diminishes, then you start to get what we call sick and illness because it's your energy that does the healing. But you have to mentally instruct yourselves on how to do it. And with the patriarchy putting all this noise in your head, you can't see or hear where you're going. This is why meditation is key. It's not always just sitting there with your eyes closed and humming. Meditation is you being intentional in focusing on whatever it is that you want to manifest into being. [Music]

If you want more money in your bank account, then you focus on that.
Don't focus on the money that's not there. Focus on finding ways to attract money or see money everywhere.

[Music] Focus on your revamped relationship with money.

understand the trauma or the disconnect that you have with money. [Music] This is all what I teach in metaphysical healing. Join that VIP list, y'all. It's everything. The focus is on the inner child, but the child and the mother are one and the same.

Closing thoughts, cuz I ain't I I'm not holding y'all long.

We just I just wanted to have a little Sunday service, give y'all your time and offering because you are the church and thank you for listening.

But starting today,

we are aligning ourselves with higher vibrations.

We are transcending our consciousness to higher dimensions.

Before you blame anything on anyone else but you, think about how you can alchemize it.

How is that experience happening for you?

[Music] This is your X chromosome coming online.

That junk DNA, your key to the divine.

So, one of the biggest things that can help us on this journey is learning how to breathe life back into ourselves.

The con time is a construct. So, nothing has to happen in a hurry. You are time. You and are one and the same. Remove the concept of time and you'll have everything.

The key to the other side of everything you want in life is a matter of selflove and changing your mind.

Thank you guys for joining in on another episode of Sundays with Saha. Again, I am your host, Reverend Dr. Saha L. And until next time, peace, love, and Wellness.

Topic - speaker: Big Homie CC appreciate- Don't worry.that, bro, 'cause there's so many people that be getting mad and sensitive, and they be like, "Bro, it ain't even personal, gang."Like- Facts, facts, facts, folks.I know it's not personal.Like me, you know, I've been, I've been a private bodyguard almost 20 years and all of the guys that I know right now that still got 1000000, 'cause most celebrities

I know live in middle class.You see what I'm saying?So, at the end of the day, etiquette matters 'cause I watch everything and, you know, folk's my homie.You know what I'm saying?I done got calls from him in the strip club, he kicking it.And when he call me and I know he wanna talk,

I, I'm gonna stop what I'm doing just to hear him out.You know what I'm saying?And that's all about building relationships and etiquette.And, you know, being a player in our community almost gone extinct.'Cause of all thet's 'cause of all thereal.Yeah.You see what I'm saying?And I feel like it's up to us to bring that back because you can never tell no grown man nothing, dude.But if he take time and listen to you, make some suggestions if you care about that man, 'cause well, I want for myself and I want for my brother.Oh, man.100% And my boy, AP Louis, it's his first demo. My first one, man. I appreciate y'all, man. Hey welcome, AP Louis to the space. Let's get it, shout out 16 for go ahead and making a boss move. Oh, man. Oh, no. First off, how y'all feeling today? I'm cool, man. Shit. I'm man. I'm nice. How y'all like it in Vegas? This is my first time here, bros. I ain't gonna lie. It, it, it look crazy. It look like a movie, but- What's good? I don't know, man. It give a little weird energy. What type of energy that is? I don't know. I feel like it's like a dark energy. A very dark, crazy feeling. It's a rough town. It's a rough town and they call it Sin City for a reason. He tapped in. They got cars riding around this motherfucking

First Impressions of Las Vegas shit. So look, when we go to Arizona, I want you to see that 'cause most of their Ubers, bro, nobody drive them. Yeah. Crazy. On the gas, G. Imagine if we had that. I just seen something I ain't never seen and it was a black car that looked like the doors open like this or something. Geez. Like, "Damn, I wanna get inside that." Yeah, yeah, yeah. Speaking of the underworld, what you been out here like- Right. What's, what's some things you noticed, like just as far as like the what's going on out here in the underworld? Well, the main thing that I've noticed is the homeless community because where we come from most, part of the year, it's freezing cold. Out here- They going to jail. Boy, out here they outside the whole year. They don't got no freezing temperatures, they ain't gotta go mandatory shelters and shit like that. And then, you know, they pay these people out here on the street every month. Yeah, so the homeless population out here every month get a check for being homeless. That come out of taxpayer dollars? Absolutely. That's insane. Look how close we are to California. You know, you know something is- It's an American privilege. That shit. Yeah, but I mean, I think, I think that if a working man works all day, he working 50 hours a week, they take a percentage of that check from, from his family to give to somebody that might not wanna They might not want it better in life. They just want it for drugs. For sure. So you would, you would abolish that? I would. But I would, I would make it more accessible for people to, uh, get the help that they need. Like rehabilitation. Yeah. I don't think they have an issue, gang. I think all these black budgets is the issue, for real. But what you know about black budgets? Man, I know they spend a lot of money on a lot of shit. But that mean, you know, the Pentagon failed another

Homeless Population & Public Assistance

audit for the 8th year in a row for trillions of dollars. We all know that. That's what's going on. When, when was the first, uh, year that they failed the kind, the audit? Uh, the first year- 8 years ago maybe. The first year was when Obama came into office. No, I think, I think. If I'm not, if I'm not wrong- No, no, he don't think. He know what's going on. If I'm not wrong- Hey, AP Louis really tapped in. This is, this 16's the secret weapon the whole time. That boy smart. If I'm not wrong, I think it was the day before 9/11. Ah. What else happened that day? 12 Israelis got arrested for celebrating- Mm. the towers going down while that was happening. On camera. How would they have known? How them cameras was pointed that way? Everybody needs to look up retired FBI agent, John DeSouza, who ran The X-Files program for the FBI. He investigated this whole process with 9/11 and he documented that speakers were playing throughout the, the, the crisis telling people to calm down, there's no emergency, relax while the towers is falling. And firefighters said, when they entered the building, they seen explosions happen. Why is that happening? Why- why on the day before 9/11, the- the owner took out a- a- a massive, uh, insurance policy? I heard about- And he- he never missed a day of work. But that day, he wasn't there. They said, they said not- no- nobody that was Jewish was there. Absolutely not. The truth is indeed stranger than fiction. Question everything. So what y'all insinuating? Uh, basically we're insinuating that this was a calculated, coordinated event. And that there are forces at play that use modern media to trick the public. That's why you see a billion dollar lawsuit from the Trump campaign against New York Times, CNN. And he's gonna win. Yeah, I saw- I seen how they clipped that. The-

if- if that's true? That's true. Oh, yeah, they did on both. For sure. Speaking- speaking of the media, right? Right. You see what's going on right now in Venezuela? Absolutely. Do you believe that those people are on, uh, on the news that are celebrating? Do you think those are real, like, Venezuelans from Venezuela? Absolutely. You think? So that- so you think that they are actually excited that? Absolutely. One thing that we experience here in the United States of America is the American privilege. Uh, for the last 7 months, I've been traveling the world. I went to, uh, 14 different countries. And in each one of these countries, there was something synonymous, the lack of infrastructure. Imagine you get in a car crash and you dial 911 and nobody's coming. Yeah. That's actually crazy. So we've just seen what happened with, uh, Anthony Joshua, the boxer, after- I see. After his fight with Jake Paul. Did somebody die in that too? His 2 best friends died. I got footage on my phone of his best friend decapitated- Oh, no. In the street. Yeah. And the locals were hitting his pockets. They stole all of their cell phones while- off dead bodies. His friends? His friends. And they stole Anthony Joshua's phone. They decapitated him or that came from an accident? So the accident took place, the driver was going 140 miles an hour with no driver's license. What? He crashed. He lucky to be alive. His 2 best friends, Anthony and Joshua are dead. One of them was decapitated, both bodies ejected onto the road. The locals robbed the dead bodies. And they stole Anthony Joshua's phone when they pulled him out the car. Whenever you see, uh, trauma like that take place, where we come from, nobody's moving till what happen? Ambulance,

Questions Around 9/11 & Media Coverage

EMTs. Over there, it's not coming. It's not happening. They gotta try to figure it out, but it's- Yeah, so like over there- make it so they- the people work together. So when you seen them pulling Anthony Joshua out of the car, they put him in another car and they drove him to the hospital. His friends was already dead. Damn. I seen over 30 deaths being in traffic over in Africa. Just today,

I shared on Instagram, 20 people died today in Kenya, all traffic accidents. Folks, it's no rules of the road. Yeah. So imagine- That's true. you hop on the e-way and you going this way. You're gonna see somebody else driving directly head on to you. In the same lane. There's nothing- They used to it though. They get mad. They used to that. They swerving out there. The only time I was gonna die was in traffic. What? Facts, G. No. But that's why I was- Gotta be like out in some shit. But see, over there, they got something called boda bodas, which is uber drivers who just ride dirt bikes. Nobody's wearing a helmet. They don't abide by no rules of the road. And if you knock a boda-boda driver off his bike and hurt him, the other bike drivers are gonna come set your car on fire. Yeah, 'cause they gangs. Damn. I be seeing people, like in Thailand, they be on the back of people, uh Yeah. Same thing, same thing. But out there, bro, it's, it's no police in there. No state troopers What, in Thailand? In, in, in, in Kenya. All right. In Africa, period. So, they police their own neighborhoods? Yup. And then the police, you gotta pay them. If they pull up to the scene- you gotta pay them on sight, or they not doing shit. Damn. Crazy, bro. I seen it, bro. You think it's better that way? No. With all the chaos? No, it's not better. It's not Bro, a lot of these countries are shit holes, bro. I went to Nigeria, 92 million people have no access to clean water or electricity. That's a lot of people. Yeah, I went to whole neighborhoods, everybody got a dirt floor. But look, I know the clean water part ain't good, but can the no electricity part be hood? The Like, just knowing, like, what's going on with all this technology and how they, it affect us type shit, like, would people be better off without this shit? No. 'Cause you know how, like, they say, like, certain frequencies program our brain, all type of shit. Like, even certain sounds that we don't even realize, like, down to when you turn everything on, it got a beep. Like that's- For sure. That's, that's the reason for that, like, with dogs, how they got a clicker and shit. For sure. Like, it, it trains you to. You don't know it, though. Like, it's a lot of shit that happens. So, imagine you went to Burger King and you seen stray cats and dogs inside the Burger King. That's how, that's what's going down over there. I'm pretty sure they- Stop. I'm being- Fact! That mean they, that mean they self-sufficient people, meaning, like, if we went into that environment. Well, I ain't gonna say we, but, 'cause I don't know what y'all know, but I know if an average American go to that environment, they're gonna die. They don't got a grocery store to go to. So, they got grocery stores and stuff like that, but the issue is they have something called load shedding. So, to bring power to one neighborhood, they gotta cut off power to another neighborhood. So, let's say you spend 10,000 Kenyan shillings to put power in your house. They finna cut that off. Every day out there, I experience 6 to 7 hours with no electricity, and I pay my electricity bill for the year. So, you gotta live some place that got a backup generator. And you gotta pay extra for that. It's fucked up outside the country, bro, I ain't gonna lie. It's fucked up. I, I, I ain't saying it's better, I'm just more so looking at it on the, on the aspect of like, I think it's a lot of fucked up shit going here that's right in our face and we don't realize it. Like, all this shit. Like what? Name some. We don't have no privacy. Honestly, that 'Cause if you don't got electricity, you gotta have some form of privacy. Okay. I'll give you a situation. They passed a cybercrime law in Kenya that pretty much gave the government the freedom to come and lock you up if you say anything against the government. That's a lot of Well, I didn't say a lot, but ain't that like, uh You know what they did? Korea, South Korea? For sure. They stormed the Parliament building and burnt it to the ground, they canceled the bill. That's the difference. So, they don't, they, they can't, they don't really got no Can't do shit. When we seen Black Lives Matter protests, they can protest peacefully. Over there, I got a video right now, peaceful protest, the police is gunning people down. Damn. And they say we not free here. I mean, I don't, I don't, I can't speak about the world, but we, I don't think people free nowhere, for real. Like, even here, like, we got a sense of freedom- For sure. compared to that, but it's like, we all getting taxed and we all It's a lot of things we just forced to do. That's not freedom. Like, even the laws, like, the laws ain't set up based on right or wrong. It's, a lot of this shit set up with, can we make money off this shit? So, you saying that our justice system has been completely monetized? Yeah. I don't give a shit. Like, look at this, like, if I wanna make money by selling drugs, I'll go to jail, but that's because how I'm doing it. If I do it the way y'all doing it, pharmacy, that's legal. If this nigga harm me or he do some shit and we ain't tooled up with land and money and I go killed him,

Traveling Abroad & American Privilege

I go to jail. But if you do it, you a patriot type shit. You see what I'm saying? Like- Right. It's, it, it, it almost apply with everything. If, if, if, if I'm mad at you and I, I put you in a room 'cause you did some child ass shit- Right. and I put you in a room for a year- Right. I'm going to jail for kidnapping. Yeah. For some of this bullshit. But, so, so, so, so let me bring this up. There was a lady who was just arrested last week in Kenya for running her own private prison. Damn. Over there, if you wanna sell drugs, you gotta go to the police station and pay them first. See what I'm saying, long as they can make money off of, it's legal. Good. Right. But where are you as a species when the people who are paying taxes to you get murdered because they don't agree with how you operating the business?Yeah, we ain't doing that.We not doing that here.There's where the problem comes in.We are to a certainLike, if you're fucking up the algorithm, what's going on, you come here like, "Yeah, I'm finna get rid of cancer."This, this shit gonna change.But this, but that's Big Pharma now.Big Pharma will sell you suntan lotion that gives you cancer and then sell you the medicine at a high price to treat it when they could've prevented it in the beginning and they got the cure for it.I feel like that's like a super high level of gangbanging, like, legally.And this is why we see places like Chicago where they've watched for years, gangster shit paid off.If you do it smart, like, like, like the owner does.If you do it smart.We just seen President Trump violate Article 2 and international law enforced by NATO.They broke several international laws by arresting President Maduro in Venezuela.Hm.And then what did Senator Rubio say?He said, "We don't care what NATO says because NATO empowers dictators."History was written by the breast group of killers, bro.So what that's gonna do though?Like is that gonna cause problems?Actually, it's gonna stabilize a lot of things because now people know, wait a second-

These niggas not playing.they not playing.On Christmas night, uh, President Trump bombed a, uh, Boko Haram terrorist sect in Nigeria.They've already killed 40,000 Christians in Nigeria throughout the year.A genocide.On Christmas night he told them, "Merry Christmas."Bombed them.No 75 virgins for y'all.The people of Nigeria sent hundreds of thousands of videos thanking the president.Strength through peace is the only way to police human beings.Because if you wasn't

Living Conditions & Infrastructure in Africa strong, how many more motherfuckers would've played with you?So can you blame a presidential campaign for showing force?'Cause JSOC is outside, and when JSOC is outside you better be careful.And

JSOC, for everybody watching, is Delta Force sp- special operations.You know, the best warriors in the world.Shout out John McFee, I've been able to train with them doing CQB.You know what I'm saying?Doing stuff like that.And you realize real fast that it's one thing to have weapons, another thing to be able to use them.Because what did President Maduro do?Once he seen there might be a military invasion, he enacted an act to arm 4.5 million people with weapons in Venezuela.Don't look like that shit worked.They took the president of the country in 3 hours.They said, they said 15 minutes they had him out, in and out.15 minutes he gone.Yeah, in and out, 15 minutes.4 hours later, he in New York.In Rikers.He was the president of a nation.That's crazy.And this is what I try to tell people.You know, I got military connections, you know, I've been on base in Germany,

I've been on base in Kenya.You know, shout out to my boys in, in, uh, in the Ranger Battalions, they're my boys.And you learn real fast that when I seen President Maduro giving his speech from Miraflores, taunting Pre- President Trump, I said he got 24 hours.What you think about the Colombian president?Oh, the Colombian president?He popping his shit, right?Yeah, yeah.Uh, I'ma tell him something because he runs the biggest trafficking organization outside of Scientology, and your days is numbered my boy.Because without Venezuela, Cuba is gonna fall.32 Cubans died protecting Maduro.Cuba took over Venezuela.Those guys in the Cuban intelligence agencies, they kept Fidel Castro alive his whole life.He died of natural causes, that's hard to do.Them boys is the best.They not better than American warriors.Point blank, period.That's a- I think-big long shot. I think if you look at history, it, it, it's whoever has the biggest army, the biggest, the biggest, uh, population, those are the people that, um, throughout history, they, they control the world, right? Absolutely. But every nation Every great nation fell. Do you believe that's true about America? One day, it could fall? Um, if the Democrats would have won, America would have fell. Without us taking Venezuela, we would've lost the entire East Coast to Chinese hypersonic missiles. We would have seen 2, 300,000 American deaths on American mainland soil in 8 hours. Secretary of War, Pete Hegseth, came out and he said, "All war games show that in 8 hours, we are out of missiles and we lose to China." Hmm. If you wanna stop China, you remove them from the whole Western hemisphere, take back the oil that Maduro and them stole from Americans, and then now, you sanction and you seize oil tankers because China wants Taiwan. Trump told President Xi, "If you try to take Taiwan-" There's nothing you can do about it." I'm gonna bomb the hell out of Beijing." He said, "No way you would do it." He said, "Yes way." What is the Chinese army doing right now? I don't know. What are they doing? They doing the same thing that we doing outside of Venezuela. The whole Chinese- Oh, they outside of it. They got their noses- They outside of it right there, right now. So they down there next to the, uh- They planning They was planning to take Taiwan. Where you stop that is you seize the oil, you kick China out the Western hemisphere. That staging area, Venezuela, is where Chinese military was gonna stage to be able to do an invasion. They gonna come right up through Mexico, challenge the border. That's why we seen them close the border down. It's crazy as like the countries be on some passive, passive-aggressive type time. Like we, we faking to it through all these ways, but we still doing business with each other and this and that. So- And that's what I'm trying to tell my homies. Like, bro, Trump and Vladimir Putin, mortal enemies. They get on the phone and talk. They sit down and have dinners and talk. They talk about potentially changing the Earth by deploying weapons. We gotta have them same principles we're dealing with people. We can't take everything personal because, at the end of the day, everybody who's trying to get money, they gonna target the people that's already getting it. They not gonna invent nothing new. They just gonna copy what you doing, make you look bad, and take what you doing. Real shit. Real shit. So what you uh Well, you kinda, you kinda broke down. So you feel like they did all that with Venezuela, basically, it was bigger than just Venezuela, more so China? For sure, for sure. You gotta send a message to the world because the deep state

Privacy, Surveillance & Government Power

Democrats were selling our country out. Hmm. And when you see stuff like that going on, you try to ask yourself like, "Damn, like what's the end game?" When you say the deep state Democrats, are you saying like that's the only deep state or is it like Good question. I think they're all in collusion. They not all in collusion. Let me tell you why. Which political party put an end to slavery? Democrats or Republicans? Republicans. And the Democrats dominate what neighborhoods, what areas last? They done finessed the whole game. The Quakers and all of them was all Republican people. All of the civil rights movement legislation came from the Republicans, not the Democrats. But what was the reason for them doing it? 'Cause I, I don't think it really had nothing to do with us, for real. It definitely has something to do with us because This is controversial, but white people did not start the slave trade. The Arabs did. Yeah. The Arab slave trade never ended. Every Thursday in Mauritania, there's a slave auction. They still selling right now. Right now. I got footage of this right now. I mean, if, if you're gonna say that, really like, shit, they say that been going on since the Bible days. And that's what, 2,000 years ago? So That was like a regular thing. It just wasn't supposed to be forever. Absolutely, but the problem is-

Like jail. the- That's slavery. Like that's what that there was supposed to be like type shit. Like you might owe a debt, you might have- Indentured servitude. You wasn't just supposed to be a slave

'cause you Black though. Right. They took that shit too. They, they finessed the whole game then. You see what I'm saying? Yeah. And that's the whole thing. You know, us as Black people, we used to be like the white man this, the white man that. That's not really how it's going down, bro. All of those people who came from out of Nigeria, they were sold to the white man and the Arabs as already prisoners of war. They was already enslaved by other Nigerians, other Africans. That's the truth of the matter. So if you wanna enslave a group of people, keep them thinking that they enemy-is not who it is. 'Cause the Bible, if you're geographically correct, that mean niggas killed

Jesus. And what we know about niggas? We kill our greats. Yeah. White people, they build monuments for

'em. The Latina community, they build monuments for their greats. Us, we kill 'em. Shit, just each other in general. Like- Period. Like, it's- it's I hate to say this, but it's a lot of things like, say like, if you walking down the street and somebody feel threatened, like a white person or whatever. Like, if- if I'm being real, I understand. It's just how you go about it. For sure. Like, it's like, don't-don't be offensive, don't snatch yo' purse. Don't do all that. For sure. But like, if you being real, if I'm in my car and my door ain't already locked and I see some niggas walking past and I don't know them, I'm definitely gonna lock my door and- Absolutely. probably put my shit in drive and do some more shit. Like- Situational awareness. Yeah, like but it's So it's like, I don't And when I say a white person, I don't really do that. Because? And the whole time, you might just be somebody there randomly shooting me. How many white people pointed a gun at you in your life? I ain't gonna lie, probably more than the black people. Police. Outside of police- But outside of that, nobody. 0.0. 'Cause

I went through this in Africa. I'm seeing groups of niggas walking. I'm like, "Hold on, boy. What y'all on?" They not on shit. They don't even give a fuck about me. I'm watching them, they ain't paying no attention to me. I'm like, "Damn." I think they did that to Like, put that in our head, though. You know? Like- At the end of the day, we already know our own enemy, our worst enemy is our own kind. Outside of the police, it ain't no white boys chasing, chasing us around. We too, we too advanced for that. This ain't the Civil Rights Movement. If them niggas not doing nothing and don't feel that way, that mean it had to happen here. I feel you. All that Jim Crow law shit. All that shit. Like, just the ways They- That's right. That's the, that's the real side of it. That's the, that's the real side of it. So imagine meeting a group of black people, they don't have slavery in their history at all. There's a lot of people here probably that don't know. We just don't even know it. We just all think we- Most of the immigrants that come here from Africa, they families never experienced slavery. So they look at us like, "Man, why y'all not taking advantage of all of the shit y'all got going on?" They just don't belong. If you wanna hide something, you put it in books, you put it in literal texts. We living in a TikTok era. If it, if it's not in an 8second video, people not learning. Speaking on that, I One thing I- I learned just from, uh, seeing somebody else experience, you know how like, when they made it that, uh, weed not probable cause? Right. Like, the smell of weed. Right. Whatever. They did that, right? Yep. That was all over the blogs, everybody knew about it. Yeah, yeah. What they didn't publicize and make viral was they overturned that shit. For sure. And now, they say the smell of raw cannabis is probable cause to search your car, but not burnt cannabis. So, there's a lot of people running around here right now just, "I got weed, I'm good." Even if you got weed in a bag, like, it could've came from a dispensary. They- they not going for that. They want it to be sealed and child-proofed and smell-proof. So people still getting caught up thinking they valid 'cause they publicized this, 'cause that was the law. Facts. And

I don't think that's like, a mistake. I don't think them not re-making that part. Right. Like, niggas finding that out, out in jail. Going to law libraries and shit. Imagine how many people in jail right now, how they feel seeing dispensaries open. I mean, I'll be mad as hell, bro. For sure. You spent 20 years in jail for- for an 8th in 1988. Now I'm thinking about how the fuck I felt about the liquor stores. The prohibition era? And I always tell people that if you wanna understand certain things, you gotta look at the ideology. A capitalist society, anything that they cannot control or put taxes on, they're gonna make illegal. So, once you know these facts, it's up to you 'cause you already not a tax-paying citizen. It's up to you to maneuver through that shit. Because we about to experience the onset of AI. AI is gonna wipe out the majority of middle class jobs. Nobody's telling anybody to re-skill. That's why annual global income is coming. That's why we see San Francisco rolling out reparations plans. They gonna have to pay the citizens to be in cities, 'cause if not, we're gonna see violence, destruction, and we got a presidential cabinet that don't wanna see that. So, that puts us in a position of people, especially as a community of all minorities, where we have to evolve and adjust. All of that, the white man is the boogeyman shit, we can't keep buying into that, because the white birth rate is dropping by 3% every year. That's why Roe versus Wade became a thing. They banned abortion simply because of that. If you don't want the whole country looking like a mixed- a mixed race person, you'll have to ban abortions. The white human DNA is on- only 7,000 years old. S- before then, it didn't exist on this planet. They wanna keep it around for more. They trying to keep it around. Yeah, I- I be peeping. There's a lot of groups, but it's- it's Black groups and white groups what they be on some, "I just wanna be with my people, you know, procreate with my people." For sure. "Do business with my people, live with my people." And how you- how you feel about that? Like, is- would that- do you consider that racism, or do you like, even racism, what's your definition of racism?Um, racism is when you feel that certain populations of people don't deserve fair and equal treatment as human beings because of their skin tone.All right, so what about, you know how like people be like, "All right, Black people can't be racist 'cause y'all ain't got power."And it- it's- it's about power.Like- I used- I- I- I used to think about that.So, 'cause I beNow, I'm kind of confused on the definition of racism,

'cause my opinion at first was just like, "All right, you hate people, you dislike them, you w- wound them down, whatever, this and that."But then, I looked at it like, "All right, if and when people keep saying, 'Oh, we can't be racist 'cause we don't got power,' is it a power thing?"Cause if it's a power thing, that don't necessarily mean you hate this person.That's a survival thing.Like-

Right.when I look at slavery and I look at like all that shit and how it played out- Right.I look at it like a survival thing.'Cause if- if you- if you, uh, a race and you see, "All right, genetically, this race is faster, this race is stronger, this, this, this and that," if motherfuckers catch on long enough, they might have been slaves. did this shit to them.For sure.So it's like, to survive, why not outsmart some people, you know?Why not make it unfair?Why not do this thing so you  die- Well said.if you can't compete- Racism started-in General, in general though, like.Racism started outside of this planet.It started outside of this planet?For sure.For sure.Well, you know, Adolf Hitler, uh, his name is Der Führer, he said that the perfect human is tall, blond hair with blue eyes.Well, that's not even how Germans look.On how he looked.Not even how he looked.I've heard he was Black.He wasn't Black.He's a German man.The problem is, he encountered a group called the Vril.Once he encountered the Vril, he was able to en- encounter the Nordic group of non-human intelligences, and it set him off on a path searching for divine wisdom and technology.That's why you've seen the Germans in ancient Egypt, the

Pharmaceuticals, Profit & Regulation

Grand Canyon. You've seen them in Argentina. You've seen them in Antarctica. You've seen them searching everywhere. Whoever the Vril introduced Hitler to, it set him off on a path. Yeah, so the whole United States of America rocket program was developed by the Germans. The space program was developed by the Germans. Uh, Russian cosmonauts were the first guys to even enter into, uh, low earth orbit. And they made a trade with him. They gave them certain technology for whatever he provided for them. That's what set him on his path. 'Cause think about it, how can a small country like Germany start a world war that they almost won? How did they have more advanced technology than us? How? See, I be hearing so many different things. I already know your take on this, but I wanna ask you, like, what is your take on this, 'cause, you know, we got the people that believe the Earth round and the people that believe the Earth is flat. And the people that believe the Earth is flat, I also heard them say something like Hitler and the Nazis ain't die and they went somewhere in Antarctica or some shit. Or another planet. In South America, in Argentina, you have entire German cities. They only speak German, right? Only speak German, and we seen in declassified files released last year that, uh, Hitler wasn't killed in Germany. They had footage of him in Antarctica. I mean, not in Antarctica, in Argentina. So they basically just got up out of 'Cause somebody said they- they won the war. I don't know what that means or how or wh- The Germans didn't win the war. what- Um-how, 'cause you know, like, say like, all right, we won the war, right? Right. But if we, if they still working with us and employed by us and here and there, then it's like- Exactly. did we, did anybody lose or win, or is this just a show? Well,

I believe the world is indeed a stage. And all of the generals that partook in concentration camps that executed all of the Jews, they got immunity from the US government. They built our rocket program, our space program, some of our weapons program. They built all of that. They got immunity from our government. Wow. So you feel like they still in tune with whatever- Absolutely. was given our knowledge? Absolutely. Do you think that the people that gave the knowledge to the Germans eventually gave the knowledge to America? If you go onto forbes.com, if you type in "tall white space aliens Forbes.com," a article comes up where the Iran Space Chief says the United States of America is ran by tall white space aliens. You can pull this up right now. I seen something like this. We just seen whistleblower from the military, David Grusch, testify in front of Congress that the Nordic group is a couple centuries ahead of us. You could pull this all up right now. Yeah. Everybody watching this, you can fact-check me. Pull all this up and you decide for yourself. I'd be,

I'd be so confused why there ain't a big, like, bigger, uh, spotlight on this. Like,

'cause it's so many people in so many positions that speak about this. There's whistleblowers, so many people that had, had positions here, had positions there. Right. Respected people. And it's like, I guess since the president ain't say it in a country like we got, it's like, well, we just don't give no fuck. You gotta look at who control the media. And the people who control the media is the same people that Adolf Hitler was persecuting. So long as it ain't in the media, nobody believes it. Absolutely. And it's crazy 'cause the media ain't even- Fake news media. That's why we see Donald Trump with a billiondollar lawsuit against all of them, and they're gonna lose. At the end of the day, somebody realized that the universe that we live in is built on 3 principles, sound, light, and frequency, and that the human brain can be programmed with information and propaganda. They figured that out, and they used it as a weapon. They weaponized it against us. Without that, you can't have no

PSYOP. That's how the PSYOPs came. Where'd we get this information from? The Germans. What were the 3 principles? Sound, light, and frequency. So, one of them could be music? Absolutely. Guaranteed. We used to record music at below 40 megahertz. Once they figured out past that you could program people, all music gets programmed past 40 megahertz. 4- 4:32. Absolutely. See, I'm glad you in this interview-'cause at the end of the day, bro, like, a lot of times, it's other people who know what you know, but they don't get the confidence to say it unless they see us saying it. Yeah. Truth. The truth is indeed stranger than fiction, bro. And, and I think it takes leaders in our community to speak up out and make it okay for us to talk about certain things. Absolutely. That's how human nature is. You know, if you take a person and put them in solitary confinement, they deteriorate. Everybody wanting to be in general population. Without that, your senses and your recognition of the world can change. When you see people testifying in front of Congress, risking their political careers and safety, you gotta take that very serious. And that's what's going on. There's been several whistleblower conferences in front of Congress that have taken place over the last 12 months that people are not talking about, but they can pull it right up. Yeah. So what's your, uh, what's your feelings on, like, you know how people be talking about, like, Bigfoot, stuff like that? Right. That's something that you believe in? Absolutely. Have you always? I haven't

Venezuela, U.S. Policy & Global Influence always, but I'm a researcher, you know, I spent a lot of time in libraries as a kid, stuff like that. And you know, I'm a paranormal investigator, bro. Whatever people call me about, if you got eyewitness testimony, you got circumstantial evidence, I take it serious, I go investigate. Every year, I spend 60 days in Clackamas County, which is in- I ain't ever heard of that before. Man. Okay. That's crazy. So Clackamas County is in, uh, Portland, Oregon. Uh, that's what Digi from, Clackamas County up in. And, and, and look, shout out Todd Gatewood, legendary researcher in the Bigfoot world. Shout out to Todd Standage, uh, shout out J- uh, shout out my boy, Les- uh, Les Stroud. And I got shown probably 200, 300 footprints that they casted with plaster, and some of these footprints had injuries to them. And all of them had dermal ridges. Mm. Dermal ridges is what make our fingerprints. All of the casts had that. One of the footprints in particular had certain injuries, and that same footprint showed up on the East Coast and the West Coast. How is that even possible? In Kenya in Africa, they call it the Agave. In Native American reservations, they call it the Kushtaka. They used to trade with them, war with them. Why does stories about this creature exist on every continent on Earth? How come more people don't, don't, uh, like, see these things, though? They do. There were 40- there was 4,700 sightings of Bigfoot just last year. So everybody watching this, you can go to the BFRO website and look for yourself. The thing is- They- there's pictures? There's pic- I got, I got footage on my phone that I got myself. Of Bigfoot? Yeah. He say of Bigfoot. I'll show you right now. I can't believe that, bro, I ain't gonna lie. All right. Watch this. Keep it looking at Bigfoot, too. I'm just saying,

I got- I, I, I gotta draw the line somewhere. He said, "I gotta draw a line somewhere." See this photo? That's from the Patterson-Gimlin footage that was recorded- Look. What the I mean Hold on, hold on. This photo is from a national park in China. That's a statue? That's a statue. There are 3 states in America where it is illegal to hunt and shoot Sasquatch. I, I ain't seen it. Hold on. 3 states? 3 states. It's, like, in the parks or some shit, right? National parks, Yellowstone is one, Washington State is one, and in the Pacific Northwest, there's one. So- Look at this photo. This is from the Paul Freeman footage. There's a video for this. This is one of these beings carrying a baby one. That ain't alt's not a gorilla. That's what I would think. Not a gorilla. Like, I- uh, like, the first thing I would think of. What's the difference is- the- like, the- the feet? Uh, gorillas aren't 8 feet tall. They not. And they don't walk on 2 feet all day. Okay. Hold on, hold on, hold on, hold on. So Nah, I'm just saying, I'm s- I, I, I don't know, bro. So- AI, bro, it's an AI day and age. Okay, so you wanna say AI? Well- Yeah. I got something for that. Let me see that, let me see something, bro. I got you, brother. Now, this is from a location in Oklahoma, and I stood in this exact same spot that this creature that you finna see right here. What y'all see right there? Oh, that lion out- Uh, that's a dog right there. Now, look into the distance. Oh, to the right. Coming up the trail. That shit big as hell. I ain't moving. Right there. I stood in that exact same spot. Whoever that is is 3 feet taller than me, and I'm 6 foot six, and three times wider than me. Damn. And you can see the timestamp when this was taken. This is from a game trail footage. I'ma send y'all this, y'all can run it through AI. I know AI's gonna come up. I've been on NDA for this for 2 y- for, for since it was taken last year. Yeah. Why they, why they put you on NDA for something like that? Because these people who own these 1,000-acre properties, they don't want nobody coming on their property because- Out of- is that that story when you said something like somebody had, like, their head or something in a- Nah, uh, with- now with that story, that's very close to this location. He had a taxidermy one in his, in, in, in his game hunting room. Seen it. And I thought to myself, I said, "Man, this, only black motherfucker over here, man, y'all got him stuffed?" "Let me be cool." And he said, "The big old boys are real. They're out there." That's what he said to me. I seen it by myself. So why, why is it, like, considered a myth then? It's not considered a myth from the first Nations people, all the indigenous population, all throughout Africa. It's only considered a myth by the people who live in the matrix. I feel like, I feel like wouldn't they be a, uh, some sort of endangered species that's on a list? If you make them an endangered species, all logging companies have to shut down immediately. Mm. Are we doing our logging in- Yes. America still? Yes. All through the Pacific Northwest. Sure. Absolutely. Where the hell does this wood come from? I thought they were, uh, digging the forest in, in Brazil or something. No. No, no. You know, there's international law prohibiting certain things like that. And then the cost of bringing that wood here, we have things called invasive species. You can't bring wood from this location to this location if the same insects- Oh. and amphibians don't exist there, because it'll make, it'll make the entire ecosystem collapse. The wrong species get there- Mm. it's gonna collapse. That's why you see people hunting wild hogs in the South, pythons and monkeys in the South. But- It's the same with the plants and shit too. Same thing. The wrong plant- Take up all the water. they can be cannibalistic to other plants. And then they remove certain plants that remove certain bacteria out the water stream and now we're getting poisoned. What you know about, like, the Vatican? 'Cause I seen someone, they said the Vatican, our souls go to the sun, then the Vatican got them beat down and- The Vatican come with a criticism because of the Vatican Libraries. You know, they got 2 miles of library that nobody can go to. It say 2 miles? 2 miles. I thought it was a lot more than that. Well, they report 2 miles and- Mm. some people say- It's like going down the miles, right? Yeah, some people say it's, it's a lot more than 10. Uh, you know, the Vatican is its own country. And the very first case of a crashed UFO, it happened in Vatican territory, and they contacted the Americans to bring the crashed craft here to America. Facts. All of this can be fact-checked to everybody that's watching. What, what significance does the Vatican have over a country like America? Well, the Vatican came out and made a statement saying that God created more organisms than just us as human beings, and that doesn't mean that God is fake. Because all of the origin stories of supernatural experiences where human beings interfaced with creatures or beings more superior than us, it's all held in the Vatican Library. Mm. Facts. I say that's an actual interesting dilemma, right? 'Cause if you're, you're a Christian or Catholic? I'm a Christian. You're a Christian. So you believe in Jesus? Yeah. So how- He was a real person. He walked the Earth. Yeah. Ho- uh, yeah, of course. How, how can you, how can someone that believes in Jesus also believe in aliens? 'Cause wouldn't that kind of I would, I would say if you believe in aliens, wouldn't you be more inclined to believe in e- evolution? To believe that the most complicated organism that was made by God as human beings is asinine. Look how foolish we are as humans. Mm. And in every, uh, historical text involving religion, they speak about angels and demons, which were fallen angels. You know, the Christian Bible that's dominating America is the King James Bible. The King James Bible was edited by King James, and he hires Shakespeare and 47 other clergymen to edit the Bible. They removed over 100 books. The main book they removed is the Book of Eli. I mean, the Book of Enoch, pardon me. Enoch. And if you've read the Book of Enoch, a lot of things that's mysterious- Hmm. will add up. And the only way to find that is in the Ethiopian Bible. Um, speaking of The B- Book of Enoch- Right. do you believe that giants once roamed the Earth? Absolutely. Um, there are texts from Abraham Lincoln, one of our presidents, the Niagara Papers, where he said that the remains of the extinct giants buried in the burial mounds across America still exist. These things are all listed in historical text, but people ignore it. Do you think people ignore it or it's being suppressed? It's definitely being suppressed, and then it's getting ignored. Because everything of value has been monetized in our country, from religion to prisons to music. So anything tangible has been monetized. And if you can't put taxes on it, you make it taboo. You make it, people think that it's imaginary. So are you saying, like, to get certain knowledge the Vatican got, you could pay for it? No. They won't let- No way? They won't let nobody in there. So, like, it's like, who- who- Who has the knowledge? Black people, we burned the Library of Cyprus. Like, the people that got access, how they get access? Like, what is it? Like, you know, like, how do you born in it or something? Like Well, first off, you gotta be a follower of Cath-

Catholicism. And what's the Catholic prayer? "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners from now till the hour of our death. Amen." Nobody is gonna pray to the Virgin Mary. That stops everything right there. Facts. I, I, I am a Catholic, uh, growing up Catholic. Nice. But I do,

I do see an issue with praying to somebody that's not Jesus. And do you think that Catholicism, it was used to control people? Absolutely. Because with no ladies, there is no life, and in no religious text is there a quote from a woman. None of them. And I ain't suspicious of nobody. Is, is that because, you know, they're not? They, there wasn't any, or because, you know, back in the day, women didn't really have any, any rights or any say so? We also seen wars fought over women. But, but did they have a say so? Huh? But did they have a say so or no? No. Right. So, could you, could, could one make the argument that there might have been women, but they just never got read? In regards to what? Quotes in the, in, in re- uh, religious texts? Yeah. No, because here's the thing. Uh, the Prophet Muhammad, when he founded Islam, it took him 24 years to create one book. Who wrote that book? Himself? No. His wife Khadijah- Hmm. who was 20 years older than him. And this the same man who had a 6 year old wife in Aisha. How can a man follow a religion where the founder had a 6 year old wife? What y'all gonna do with a 6 year old? I don't know, man. Nothing! This is what's goin' on. So, w- what, like, what, like, what are they really doing for real though? Like, 'cause- It's a really old story, 16. And it all reverts back to literally good versus evil, angels and demons. What we call angels are really beings who went against the grain and got casted out. Just too powerful to kill. 'Cause whoever the prime creator is, he doesn't interfere, but if you pray to him, he may help you at times. And we have a responsibility as men because I always tell people, "I'm not finna be arguing with nobody who can't defeat me." If all they have is emotional choices and rationalization, you got it, lil mama. Name me one time we seen an army of women. If you got 160-pound woman, she can't beat no 160-pound man. It's just science. So when I see guys getting all bent out of shape over females, I already know you a bitch. Because I'm not saying all women is the same, but they definitely breed from the same book. Yeah, men and women are definitely not equal. Not at all, brother. Yeah. Not at all. Because if we were, we would compete in the same sports. Sure. We do not. A lot of shit'll be the same. A lot of shit, bro. Like, the way, the way the dynamic set up, everything will be different. So- Everything will be different. But, like, I think it's obvious. Anybody that say we equal, I think

Shows of Force & Political Messaging delusional. Like, I ain't saying we shouldn't be treated, like, uh, fairly, you know? For sure. But, like, we not equal. For sure. There are things that they bad at, there's things we bad at. Absolutely. Like, I see a lot of girls get their heart broken still believing love and being like, a nigga, that shit- Once that happen Yeah, like- Yo, y'all got it? Watch this. So it's like, all right, y'all might be stronger right there on broke. Hold on. But it's like you not physically stronger. Not at all. 'Cause it's a lot of things, so it's like- Not at all. I don't see nothing wrong with it. It's things that go in our favor, but- Things go in they favor. Yeah. For sure. Like You know, the ultimate measure of a man is a guy who can find the balance in a world where everything's imbalanced. Until you find that, it's hard to prosper, because you always find yourself in positions where you gotta spare people who not as smart as you. And then when you try to teach them, they talk to you like you the dummy. Which leads to isolation. It all goes back to isolation. Absolutely, absolutely. So you know, I had seen a clip with you and Orlando Brown, man. Yeah. What, what, what, what that was about? Bro, shout out to Orlando. Look, the man he got famous friends. So they will rent him rooms and shit like that, and when it's time to pay,

"Yeah, Michael Jackson's estate is gonna cover my bill." Then when that shit don't happen, "Yeah, my Disney check ain't hit yet." When it hit, "I got you." And then when that don't work, he just become belligerent. And then I got called at 9539 Teton Hills Drive. I pulled up, Orlando done took over the whole crib, G. Uh, he screaming at me, "D, man." I'm like, "Dude, get your ass "And you know, you don't wanna be that guy putting hands on a fool, you know what I'm saying? But he'll get tough with you. Shout out to Orlando, man. He scrappy. He'll fight with you, bro. He don't got no bitch in his heart, I'll give him He out of his mind though, G. When he hit, he go to the bathroom, hit that meth, he a whole new nigga when he come back. So, like, do you feel like a lot of stuff he, he, he be doing is, is for the, uh, the camera? Or, like, you think he, like, really be going through some shit in real life? You gotta understand something, bro. He was going into character 20 years ago. He knows the value of that. He knows when to cut it on and when to cut it off. Um, we ain't ever seen him really crash out either, because- Calculate.He calculated, 'cause I was pissed off at him.He finessed his way right out of that.Rap battle me for a hour.You know what I'm saying?I'm like, "Dude, your ass tweaking."He said, "I'm not tweaking.Nigga, I got God."I'm like, "All right, dude."Shout out to Orlando.We just seen him a few minutes ago.Shout out to my boy.Bro, shout out to Orlando,Who you feel likeNah, whoUh, yeah, probably who, like, what's, like, somebody you ran across where it was like, you know how they be trying toWell, I ain't gonna say trying to, 'cause it might be true, it might not be, but how they paint people like Diddy and shit like that?Who somebody, like, you came across where it was like, "That's it.That's really what's going on."type of guy?Chris Brown.What?I'm finna show you a video.I wanna see what you think about it.Oh, man.I wanna say something, but I ain't- Easy.Watch you, why, why you ain't say nothing?'Cause my hope, he beAhh, I'ma shut up.Say it, bro.Say it, bro.can't even, I ain't even gonna play like that.I'm just gonna see what he got.And then I'ma have to show fool on you.So this video was takenHold the phone.Watch his dunking hand.Wait, hold on, I'm confused.Watch his dunking hand.It kinda like, what?What the fuck?And then watch how he treat his hand when he come down.He put it behind him.Just look at that.Yo, his hand transformed.Fuck he got going?Yo.What's that?Hey, bro.You know, um, the whole reptilian thing is a real thing, brother.Oh, see I thought you wasAll right, all right.Y'all, y'all cool.See, Tate, Tate 600 be kicking it with him.I thought you were saying some Diddy freaky shit.Yeah, that's the only person I know who can do unlimited cocaine a whole day with no problem.Yeah.Seen it.I think, I think,

I think I might've seen something that looked like that before.So just explain to me- But you know, cameras be doing shit like that too.Listen, bro, I feel that.This footage is from years ago.Nah, like not even AI.Like, cameras tweak at certain focal lenses and all type of shit.Like- I feel that.But why ain't nothing else tweaking?Look at this.Watch it again.Look at it closely.Why would he hide his hand then? He had to fix that motherfucker. He put it behind his back. Everybody that we see walking around us is not a flesh and blood human being like us. Now, I believe that though. I just don't know who or how to tell. Ho- How do you tell? Thermal camera. Thermal camera? They cold or something? Facts. You see somebody on that thermal camera, and they not white hot, and they blue, you know what time it is. Reptilian. But what about people that ain't reptilian and shit? Like, ain't it, like, a whole list? You look like you don't wanna talk about that. 'Cause, 'cause, like, it's, eh, Dan, you know how you said the, uh, the tall whites, they, like, couple hundred years. Yep. But then there's motherfuckers that's way ahead of that too, right? Who been here the whole time. Oh, those are reptilians? Yes. So those are the ones that's, like, dangerous, dangerous for real? Absolutely. Well, everybody that are dangerous for us, if we behind- Well, to certain groups, human beings are a resource on this planet to them. So, do you believe we created by them? Absolutely. And do you believe that's why, pe- like, they don't wanna, like- Interface with us. Nah, not even just that too, but, like, like, the, uh, media don't wanna, like, s- say, "Uh, it's aliens here, this and that." Who you think running these companies? 'Cause they're gonna mess up people religious, uh- Absolutely. But who you think running them same companies? Them. Yes. They say disclosure supposed to be coming. Like, Stephen Greer be saying that a lot. Disclosure already happened. If you wanna find the truth, everybody just look up Dr. Roger Leir and look up his project about hacking the alien internet. Because Dr. Roger Leir removed several alien implants out of people's bodies where the metal isotopes don't even exist on Earth. And some of the implants he tried to remove moved. The fuck? You can pull this right up. There's movies on it. There's documentaries on it. Rest in peace, Dr. Roger Leir. After he came public, he had a heart attack the same day. Facts. Not a coincidence. Not a coincidence. So what you? What's they purpose? Like, were they just they planet? Yeah, they was already here. Um, they did some things with our

DNA to create us. So when we got- We're like, we're like, we're, we're- Huh? When we hear the stories in the Bible, is that based off of them and they created us, and it's like, since they created us, they got it. Like, when they say serpents, could that be reptilians? Like- Absolutely. That's what that means. Representation of them. Facts. And then what do we do? We blame the sin of the whole world on a female. And that ain't suspicious to nobody? What, they don't

Religion, History & Information Control

got females from. Well, just think about in the grand scheme of things, they blame sin. I mean, it's on both. It's, it's like the female finessed, and then she finessed him. But it's like y'all both dead and y'all was told not to. Jesus never even seen the New Testament. He taught from the Dead Sea Scrolls. So, the Bible, the most original Bible is the Ethiopian Bible. American public has never even seen that book. We only see the King James Version, the Scofield Bible, things like that. But they used those books as instruments of control 'cause all of the esoteric knowledge has been sequestered by certain groups. And they keep us at one set of science, they use the other. How you feel about, like, the teachings, uh, Rashad Jamal? When it come to niggas who catch pedophile charges, everything that they say, I don't even listen to, because horny guys finish last. Point blank, period. What exactly? You, you know exactly what he got locked up for? 'Cause I know some, but I don't know exactly. Yeah, yeah. Yeah, yeah. Oh, he had a, a little kid testified against him. You can't beat that. 'Cause I ain't, I ain't really know the details, but I, I know I was talking to I forgot who it was. It's, it's a guy that ain't even like him, but he's basically saying, like, they do that to they, they people type shit. Like, it was another guy that ha- Is it Malachi York or something? Yeah, my whole thing with this is, though, like, the most slaps on the wrist that you see in the criminal justice situation is crimes against women and children. They repeat offenders of shit like that. And you got a testifying witness you're going down every time. So the shit with Malachi York? Pedophiles, oh well. Yeah, they say he had, like, a whole compound. Yeah. Yeah, so when you see guys who- Like, a cult basically. Yeah, when you see guys who get involved in the occult and they use it to oppress people, there's no sympathy for 'em. So, what are they getting out of that? Like, you know how the Behu- Behu- Bohemian Grove, like, they say they be doing it the children, they getting the adrenaline, adrenocline, something like that. Like, what, what are they essentially doing for real? The scripture says, "Make sacrifices to us and worship us, and we will do your bidding, and we will reward you with riches and power." These people all had riches and power. What scripture? You saying the Bible? In the Bible, for sure. Who's, who saying that in the Bible? Like, make sacrifices to who? Well- 'Cause I know in the, in the Old Testament days, I guess people m- s- people still made sacrifices. Right. But like, they saying like to God? To- Making it to the fallen angels which are demons. It's a old story, bro, and- Basically worldly beings. Absolutely. That's not on our own sin. Absolutely. Same thing, bro. Because in all ancient civilizations who had gods or deities, they all wanted child sacrifice. And in exchange for that, they got r- rewarded with shit. "Look at them guys. My- my Malachi, y'all was rich." Where, where, um, where can you draw the line, right? Sometimes we, we see that, like, people are, are big into astrology. Right. And they a lot of people have said that that is a teaching from a fallen angel. Yeah, so that's why I tell people, you know, "You have to find your own interpretation of things because all of the esoteric knowledge that helps people is considered witchcraft in the Christian Bible." So where do you draw the line if you're- That's what make me scared to even, you know. Right, because- My grandmat that god ain't write that book. The Bible we all read, reading was created by King James who had several gay boyfriends, killed his own mother to become king. After he edited the Bible, he had a series of books called Demonology. He was demon-possessed when he did this whole process. That's the whole thing about this. All of the people we see winning with fucked up lifestyles, they made covenants with demons. Facts. So what's, what's the end goal for them? Oh, the end goal for them is eternal damnation because people who walk in the light have to wake up and stand on business, because without that, they wanna enslave us and our children. And us as men, we always revolt. Even back to the Sumerian tablets of the Anunnaki, we revolted. That's why they left us here. They like Elon Musk and him? He's a human. He's a human being. Yeah? Yeah, he a human being. You believe him when he be saying he don't have no knowledge on aliens? Even though he one of the main people that put shit in the sky? This is what they do in the private sector. They use etymology against people. Etymology is pretty much playin' on words. You cannot call something alien that's been here before we have. The word is extradimensionals. He can always say, "Yeah, I have no knowledge of aliens," but nobody asks him about extradimensionals. Point blank, period. 'Cause he's acknowledged that UFOs exist, but people ask him about aliens. They reverse engineer a lot of stuff. There's a company called Tuttle. Tuttle is a crypto company that is putting reversed engineered alien technology on the blockchain. Looking for that. It's getting publicly traded. You could pull it up right now. Tuttle? Tuttle. Where do, where do all these, um, are Or, I'm sorry. I think the better question would be is, so do these people still live day-to-day? Like, you, you could be one. He could be one. Yeah, yeah. They walk among us. They live normal lives. And every species, like, the Nordic group and the reptilians, they still walk among us? All of 'em. Despite them komodo dragons. No. I'm just kidding. They all walk among us, bro. Shout out my boy, sh- shout out Rob, Robert Bigelow. And Bigelow Aerospace is here in Nevada. He was the first person who even brought this up to us. Because he spent $20 million of his own dollars at Skinwalker Ranch researching information, and he said that the information that he got, the government wouldn't let him release it. So, he kept his information. He paid his own tab and paid them back. Kept it for himself. You know, there's a guy named Ben Rich who runs Lockheed, uh, Martin Skunk Works. He said we already have the technology to take E.T. home. It's locked in the black-budget projects, so it'll never benefit humanity. They say they be, uh, they keep 'em private so you can't FOIA request it. Yeah, yeah. So they put all of this type of stuff into private organizations and private companies. That's why Elon Musk was giving Donald Trump $47 million a month to win the election, because, uh, the Democrats wasn't gonna let him go to Mars. If you wanna get some of this reverse engineered tech for your company, you gotta put your people in power. And that's exactly what's going on. Yeah, they did that with Palantir. Yes, sir. Somebody told me- Yes, sir. years ago to invest in that. And I, he, I ain't gonna lie, he never really explained why, but- Damn. he told me, he told me like, "Trust me, lil' bro, like, do it." Yeah, see- And I did and it's just- back in the day when Palantir first came out. Yeah, like, that's, that stock is 1,000X now. Yeah. Like, let me see. Wait- 1,000X. So that means $100,000 would've got you 10 1000000. And I, I- Or I ain't gonna lie,

I ain't even put nothing crazy 'cause it- Yeah. all right, but I- Yeah. I still made 1,000. You made, you made cheese. Yeah. What, uh, what, what are your thoughts on Palantir and, and kind of the face scanning that they're doing? Tracking us everywhere we go? I feel like that all of that technology is the precursor to AI robotic overlords. Straight up. I've seen some things- I've, I've seen some

Slavery, Politics & Historical Context things where it says that AI could be the devil. Putting AI as the devil is like saying that the devil didn't exist until AI. No. At most so- I think the devil has always existed. Like it's their body. It's the body to the, to the- to the, the thing, right? AI is a learning language model and you can always put, uh, technical limitations on AI. You can't put limitations on the devil. Who's to say it ain't always existed, though? 'Cause you know how, like, we, we feel like we just so advanced and all type of stuff, but there's evidence that there's people that did things we ain't been able to do yet, and there's evidence that they've been knowing stuff that we just found out with technology. Like, as far as, like, how the planets lined up, how the stars lined up. Like, how the fuck do you know this and y'all supposed to be people that ain't have no technology? When they ran the United States Constitution through AI apps, AI apps said, "This was written by AI." United States government's already murdered 2 sentient

AI's before. Uh, the Amendem Corporation, sh- you know exactly what I'm talking about. 2, 2 sentient AI's? Absolutely. I think it's trying to get itself, like, in a body or something. It's trying to get free. It's trying to get a body. And basically not, not be able to get turned off type shit, but-

Absolutely. Yeah. Absolutely. That, that, that was made possible with quantum computing, right? S-

Somewhat, because in order to house a quantum computer, you gotta have the right infrastructure, and you see China is housing theirs, where? Underwater. Um, our whole purpose of going to the moon- That's what you need to do, man. Was to put a quantum computer there. Hmm. That's why they filmed one scene of the moon landing in a studio and showed us that. They didn't show us the actual footage because the audio tapes don't lie. The audio tapes from the astronauts, they saw pyramids, they seen craft flying above them, and they said they got shooed away from the moon. Yeah, I heard it was, it was bad for sure. Like, they told them, "Don't come back." For sure. They told them, "Don't bring y'all ass back out here." Everybody should look up a remote viewer named Ingo Swann. In-Ingo Swann? Look up Ingo Swann's story and look up a person named Carl Higdon. You'll be able to atta- c- connect the dots. Uh, have you ever been able to remote view? I don't wanna talk. No? Nah, I'm not saying it on camera. Good question. What can you say about remote viewing? I can tell you this, that you gotta be careful with remote viewing because you have sentinels who are patrolling who comes into that space and if you disobey them, they can trap your soul basically. Damn. Meaning what? Like Yeah, so if you go remote viewing in a restricted area, if you keep coming back, they can trap your consciousness someplace. There are people- They still do that? There are people in hospitals right now in comas who was remote viewing and they got trapped someplace else. Oh, they can't go- What the fuck? Check out Area 51 or nothing? No, they got a blockade,

I heard. They got a blockade. They got a blockade around Area 51. Yeah, Area 51 and Mount Shasta. You could, you could stop remote viewing? They got people. Aight. They have- Aight, dog. He said, "Aight." They have- Damn, so if I can't see that type of shit, what the fuck I got it for? I'm just gonna see if a bitch cheating or something? Like, I need the, I wanna see the s- the s- the shit. Have you ever experimented with remote viewing? Nah. We just started watching. We literally just got into it, like, a week ago. Don't talk about, don't talk about this, we ain't did shit. I'ma put y'all in, I'ma put y'all in contact with- You can talk about this. uh, CIA Psychic Beverly Rhodes. That's who I work with when I'm looking for missing people. Uh, I work with her to this day. If you wanna play around with it, I can put you in contact with her, but once you start- up. just heed the warnings that you get, man. I don't play with remote viewing. When you say warning, it's like, it's like clear, like somebody talking to you? Very clear, bro. Dangerous warnings. So, are these beings that are patrolling, uh, I guess, would it be like the underworld or The Well, you see- Overworld? You see people like Elon Musk getting patents on telekinesis. Facebook, too. There are declassified documentation on cia.gov website about something called a galactic federation. The same people that's running that, they have people who patrol areas for rogue remote viewers. Oh. So there, there's people like part of our army, they are basically doing- We got a space force. Yeah, with the galactic federation is non-human intelligences. Oh. They look at us as less than ants. It's like seeing a monkey with a nuclear weapon. Yeah, it's, it's basically like, "Yo, y'all came for something, but y'all still" They said, "Until we learn to speak to ants, they won't speak to us." That's probably how we look at dogs, like y'all- Same shit, bro. Yeah, it's like y'all cool, but I'll Same shit, same shit. Y'all know a little something. Little something. Y'all ain't there yet. Nah, bro. Y'all done up finna fuck the universe up with these nukes. It's a fact. For real. That is a fact. Now, now we gotta We might have to let y'all know something. Throughout American history, there were over 300 occasions where we almost used nuclear weapons and non-human intelligences interfered. So basically, the threat of nukes probably ain't even gonna ever happen, 'cause they know- We'll never see another nuclear explosion. Because when you see videos of nuclear weapons tests, who was holding the camera? Yeah, where the fuck the camera men? They don't, they don't do them in the sky though, like ain't that how they do EMPs and shit Yeah, yeah, 'cause like if, if you was to do that, you can't control the damage. If you were to explode a nuclear weapon

30,000 feet above America, we would lose all electricity for years at a time. We never seen that. 4L. What's CERN? CERN, CERN is like NASA to me. Uh, you got a Hadron Collider, which is trying to disprove the theory of relativity when whoever built the pyramids already proved the theory of relativity. How so? Because in order to build a craft that can travel without being impeded by the laws of physics, that means you figure out how to surpass the laws of physics. Like better space and time? B- Better than space and time. We just seen the Space Chief for the Trump administration say, "We have technology that can bend space and time." All of that type of shit, bro, is just money in laundering. That's why we keep failing audits at the Pentagon, straight up. 'Cause

I interviewed a guy some years back and he said, "We have fossilized remains of the gods." So, you know. What gods? The gods that used to patrol the Earth. Like- Because they can die. Would it be 'Cause they not real gods. They can die. Like the Greek gods? Absolutely. Okay, so like Zeus? Absolutely, absolutely. Okay. Absolutely. Is Hades, then- Absolutely, all of them. But is Hades the devil or is he just like aA older race. Mm. How, how did, so how do we get, how do we go, how, how do we learn that we as a people have evolved, but truly we've been devolving, right? I'm not gonna say we've been devolving because, um, there are groups of chimpanzees that are exin- entering the Stone Age. They're using tools, building structures and they're fishing. So

I'm not gonna say devolving, but I will say that 100,000 years ago, something happened. Somebody intervened with already evolving hominids on this planet to create us. Because how were we able to out-compete, uh, Denisovans, Cro-Magnon man when they were bigger, stronger, faster than us and we were out, we were able to out-compete them? Outthink 'em. We outthought people with bigger brains than us. Elephants? Elephants don't have opposing thumbs. They giant, but they don't have thumbs. With no thumbs, you can't use a weapon. So earlier off camera, we was You know we was talking about, like, pardons, how people get pardons, stuff like that. Yeah. And, uh, also, we was talking about just how the president of Venezuela just got locked up. Right. But another president got locked

like that, they had to provide certain amounts of information in exchange for their release. And you gotta have 10 million liquid cash to get a pardon. Easy, right? Facts. So Youngboy, did he have to have 10 million cash? Absolutely. What about the information part? In his situation 'Cause it's like, they don't want that type of information. They don't, at least. Yeah. So, you know, look at how many people that he's making money. All of them have associations with Israel and he didn't have no violent charges. You got 10 1000000, you can come back. Look at Kodak. He had the same lawyer group as him. You know what I always thought? What? If, if you somebody that's gonna keep getting in trouble, it's probably best to be signed somewhere. Absolutely. But you gotta, but you gotta be the breadwinner. Yeah. You know, he's selling out arenas. Like, like the real, real breadwinner, like- Yeah, so if you making people 1000000000, you got a chance of getting back. Look at Lil Wayne. He got a pardon too. If you making billions for somebody, you signed to one of these labels. They were supposed to pass bills to punish labels for empowering criminal street gangs through record deals. That ain't happen. Y'all push aside them. That didn't happen. That didn't happen. So now you see guys getting pardons, and it's all associated to the same group of people. Before they change their hustle, if they ever do, and, and give that to some other people and do some shit we ain't aware of, then that's probably when that shit gonna start happening. Definitely. Definitely. Once music executives aren't the same owners for private prisons, then we'll see change. Why, why are the owners of private prisons music and media? They're all the same, right? Yeah, because- 'Cause look who in it. Once humanity realized that the most powerful asset to have is free labor, what do you get- It's slavery. All type of forms, even if it's high paid. It's still high paid slavery. Even if it's high paid, it's still slavery. If I'm making you billions and I ain't seeing one, but I'm, I'm, I'm look, it look good to everybody that look up to me, that, that. That's gonna turn you into me. Facts,

Violence, Human Behavior & Society

'cause a record label gives you a million dollar advance, you owe them 10 1000000. Uh, even the Chief, I, I'll, I be calling this the Chief Keef effect, like- Oh, God. A lot of people seen Chief Keef and seen what he did- Hold on. And they tried to mimic that shit. Absolutely. And some people did it- They did. But a lot more people died. A, a lot of lives was lost trying to mimic that. Generations. Still. And if that was your goal, you won. For sure. Now it's like, that's what I gotta do to get out. Absolutely. And then you get worse and worse and worse, 'cause can't keep doing the same shit and get bored. Facts. You gotta take it to the next level. I remember when you couldn't get a deal making murder music. Now that that ain't enough. Niggas-

Gotta sh- Niggas rapping about splitting a nigga's ass. It ain't e- And they wanna get life insurance policy on you. Is it like a almost, uh, almost like how the school to prison pipeline, is it a music to prison pipeline? Definitely. Definitely. You know, all the guys crashing out playing the same music. Could you? You could say that the music you, you listen to would make you do something, right? Definitely. We were talking about frequencies, right? Definitely. If you're listening to drill music every day- You gonna wanna be a driller. Are you gonna want to kill someone? What if you aware? Do it matter? If you aware, you less than 1% of the population. Because if you try to tell people, they not gonna listen. That's why you see, uh, the most intelligent people in the world usually don't get married and they always isolated 'Cause my lawyer told me, he says,

"You know what, Keith? I'm sitting here watching a video and I think you're a genius until you talk about getting married, then it all goes away." So when you get conversations like that, it's like, damn, you put shit in perspective. Because, you know, price of life is cheap, but the cost of riches is immense. See, how I feel about marriage, people feel like people don't get it. Like, how I was raised, I was raised believe in marriage. I was raised to not have sex before marriage, honestly. Me too. But like, I don't be eager or even looking for marriage, 'cause I feel like what my idea of marriage is, what I thought marriage is, people not getting married for that reason. And they don't believe in that. Like, I was taught, like, divorce? Ain't no divorce. Fo' nah'. So it's like, if, if I get to the point where I feel like I want to marry somebody, that mean I, I, I chose to be with you forever- Fo' sure. through good and bad. Meaning, like, I might really dislike you right now. You might did some shit that I'd leave any bitch for- Facts. but this my wife. And I don't feel like it'll be the same vice versa. So it's like, I feel like that'll be a dumb situation for me to get in- Definitely. knowing I'm playing myself. Unless somebody really on that same level. And I don't think nobody really gonna do that. Do you think a man can find his soulmate after he's become successful? It's gonna be extremely hard. But I feel like when you're around people that's like your level, that shit don't matter, for real, as much. How many females you met on your level? Uh, a, a couple. Not as many. Would you want to date them? Ooh. That's a good question, man. A few. Not, not many, I ain't gonna lie. And when you, as a man, have to answer questions like that, you realize it's safer to go it alone. Because, um, do you believe in prenuptial agreements? Yeah, but I don't, I don't know all the details of that, 'cause somebody told me you can sign a prenup and still get fucked over. For sure. It depends on how long y'all been married and what contributions she made to your career. She can lie. You know, I live in Nevada because this is a father's rights state. And, you know, here, males get the benefit of the doubt. Other places, not so much. And for tax purposes, Illinois is the highest taxing place in the country. That's very true. That's why all my businesses are set up here and in Delaware. You know, bro, I had a football coach tell me, "Bro, if you not cheating, you ain't trying." And when he meant that, he said, "Look, if you not trying to cut every quarter to save your cheese, you not trying in this shit." Because, you know, in Dubai, if you make a million dollars, there's no tax on that. Here, you make a million, you going home with 600,000. What you just said, that's how I got in the position I got in. Right? Break it down. I was rapping. Okay. I was. You know how, like, I ain't gonna lie, me as a cameraman, there be a lot of niggas that DM me and they be like, "What's your price?" Yeah. I'll tell them, they get mad. They blue. They get mad as hell. But like me, I DM a motherfucker, they hit me with that price, I definitely be like, "Damn, this ass taxing." G. But what, what I did instead of like saying something to them and arguing or this and that, I'm like, "I'm just gonna buy my own camera." I thought it was that simple. I bought a camera, ain't use it for a year. Okay. I got in a situation, I got locked up, came home, got put on house arrest. After so long, I ain't have shit to do. I had time. I- You chose to use that camera? Yeah, but it was for my rapping. It was like, "Damn, I don't wanna I don't gotta spend money. I could learn how to do this shit. I don't gotta spend money. I could do the, uh, studio shit." Free enterprise. And that shit turned into this shit. Snowballs. For real, 'cause I start, people start asking me for music videos. Music videos turned to interviews, and then I just got in a hole. Okay, okay. Unintentionally. Facts. And this is what I tell people as well, bro. Sometimes your blessing in your path is your blessing in your path. That don't mean it's gonna happen the same way for everybody else. It was just your time. Straight up, bro. I believe that, 'cause it's, it's so many things I ain't understand. Yeah. So much shit I went through, like getting in trouble for shit I ain't do, like multiple times. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Like, really, the majority of things I got locked up for, I ain't do. And I ain't saying I'm no angel- Fo' sho'. but like the shit that- Say, "I wasn't guilty, motherfucker." Or, "Oh." The shit, the shit that I actually did do, like, I actually thought about it and planned it. And not saying that that shit can't go wrong still- Yeah, I know. but it's like, I didn't never do no just stupid, stupid shit. Yep. So it's like, I just get in trouble, like, wrong place, wrong time. I'm the driver, this and the car, I don't say shit. I'm going to jail. G shit. Shit like that. But, uh, I never understood why that shit kept happening. But when I look at how my life, life played out, it shaped me. Like, literally, like if I never got put on house arrest, I never would have did this shit, I never would have picked up the camera, I would never 'Cause I, I was out, I was doing so, you know? You know, favor fortunes Favor fa- uh, fortune favors the bold. And, um, I guarantee if you look at numerology and you go back and look at all of those dates when you had these tumultuous events, it would all add up. I did that. And I said, "Damn, all of this shit was connected?" And then I started using it for my benefit. You need to look at the Chinese calendar, you need to look at numerology and just do the mathematics, bro. It'll change,

Ancient History & Suppressed Narratives

it'll change your world view on things, for sure. For sure. That's what I got to do my research on. I don't, I ain't really too educated on numerology. Damn, you just fucked me up, bro. I guarantee you, if you go back and look at them dates and do the mathematics, you'll say,

"Damn, why didn't this add up?" You just fucked me up right now. I promise you, bro. Finna see. I just did al just- Oh, you thinking about it right now. Yeah. For sure, bro. I promise you, So is astral projection different from, uh, remote viewing? No. Same thing. Same thing. So, there's like no boundaries to that? Like when people be like, all right, go into outer space, like how do you even know where to go or something that big? Like how do you say, "I want to go to Venus," and you ain't n- never been nowhere out there? If it's that big, how do you find that shit? Astral projection, that word astral and astrology associated. So like, once you look at numerology and the Chinese calendar, then we could come back to this, because all of it adds up to being able to remote view. Because it There's a person named Danny Goller. Danny Goller, uh, he experiments with DMT. And in DMT, in the DMT space, they are able to reach certain conclusions. One of those conclusions they reached while using a diffractive laser, the same laser they use to scan packages at the grocery store, they able to see the source code of the matrix on the wall. And when you put your hand in the laser, the code changes. I ain't seen I did this shit. Yeah. And once I did that shit, I started partying harder than ever because I said, "You know what? I always knew this shit was not based reality."And when you see Elon Musk say there's a less than one billion chance that this is based reality, you start to figure certain things out. Because when I traveled to India and I looked inside of the construction, it looked the same way as if I was on DMT. You look at the ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs, you see, uh, mushrooms being shown on the artwork. According to modern science, they didn't even have mushrooms back then because they don't want us to know that we can interface with other beings who could teach us how to transcend and escape. So every dimension, like if you in a higher dimension, you can see the lower dimensions, right? For sure. So there's basically a whole bunch of other beings that see us that we don't see them? Absolutely. They have higher frequency, higher hertz? You ever heard of shadow beings? Shadow people? Heard of,

but I don't- Real thing. I ain't understand on that. A real? What is that? Uh, I mean, you know you have certain species on this planet who feed off despair. Our people energy? Absolutely. And if you a demon, that's what it'll be. "Oh, my why are my allergies fucking up like? Might be that smoke. You don't be smoking, huh? I don't be smoking. So that's like the same thing as like energy vampire? For sure. For sure, same thing. How do you identify something like that? Uh, y- it's got, it's just got to be in you. Like, you know- Like you feel it, I say, like something just don't feel right? Yeah, your gut feeling. Like us as human beings, we almost like a species with amnesia because you ever heard somebody say, "Damn, I just trusted my gut feeling"? Yeah. That's the whole thing, bro. Somebody's convinced us not to trust our natural abilities and trust these literatures that was written by people inspired by demonic entities. No way around. So, would you say that you believe, you believe in God, but you don't believe in the Bible? I'm not saying that. Uh, there is when I went to Ethiopia and I met, uh, the Guardians of the Ark, all of them had cataracts. And the guys who was guarding the ark the longest was sickly looking old and they weren't even older than 40. So then when you see declassified documents from the CIA talking about how United States government searched for the Ark of the Covenant and they found it then you look up where the actual replica of the ark that was made, where they find that at? Mar-a-Lago. That's on Trump's property. Why is that there? You know, the Guardians of the Ark are real dudes. There's, like, power behind that or something? Absolutely. Absolutely. You know, they associated the symptoms those guys have as radiation poisoning. Ancient tech exist. Why is the replica over there at Trump's house? replica, for real? It's the exact replica they made. It's at Tr- it's at Mar-a-Lago. You can pull this up. So, um, kinda going back to what I said, so you don't believe the Bible that's put out, the King James Bi- Bible? mythology. What about the Ethe- Ethiopian Bible? The Ethiopian Bible will scare the fuck out of you. And so is it completely different? N- it's, uh, an extra 100 books in that Bible. What's the most scariest part? Well, I've, I've, I've, I've seen, like, most of it is The Book of Enoch, wouldn't it be Yeah. Well, that's one book. That's just one book? That's just one book. So there's a hundred more of them? Yes. Dang. The scariest part? The scariest part to me was there's ten levels of Heaven. And the s- the real scary part was God sent the angels to do the labor of the trees. Oxygen. They cut down all of the giant trees that people would use to go to Heaven. They built the Tower of Babel to mimic these giant trees that extended into the Heavens. So when you see, like, the Butte- Mountaintops that are, like, flat? cut off, well, that's a petrified tree. Yeah, everything they told us is a complete lie. And we only see it if the governments across the world drip feed us certain information because they feel like, uh, whoever left here is gonna come back soon.'Cause all of my homies in government say they're not making no plans past 2026. Yeah,

I keep seeing that. So yeah. So what do they mean? Do they mean they getting out of here? Like what they said is, they said the world is gonna be a mess because we gonna have some visitors that's gonna show up and fuck up the grand scheme. So somebody else gonna be making the plans? Facts. 'Cause they only tell us about things they can control. If they can't control it, they give us little whispers about. But something's about to happen. Project Blue Beam? They could've been did Blue

Beam. Damn! Project Blue Beam is the same holographic technology they used to do these Prince concerts, these Elvis concerts and Tupac concerts. It's just that with Blue Beam I'm gonna be careful. Everybody needs to go get John D'Souza's book, The Astral Dimensions. The Astral Dimen-like, like, I don't got permission to say what I wanna say, but I do got permission to say to go get that book. And I don't want y'all to come under scrutiny, so I'ma leave it right there. What type of scrutiny? Like, how that, how that shit be getting? I had some motherfuckers tow my car and I was able to go pick it up for free. Just to talk to you or something? Uh- How they pipe? Why? Yeah, so, so right. Fuck them motherfuckers. For sure. For sure. You know, it's been a lot of weird little things happening, like. But the most important thing was, when they impound your car, never can you go get the shit for free. They mean they did something wrong. Once that happened, my homie said, he said, "Hey, BH, they impounded the vehicle, G." And we went to go get it, they just gave it to them. They said we had to wait I had to take my hand rests off my seat. And in my hand rests, they had some type of device in there to where the person who removed it, they said, "Hey, man, who worked on your car?" I say, "Bro, nobody did." He said, "Somebody did." And he said, "How did they get the wires inside this head rest like this? And in the seat?" The guy who do the sound system said, he said, "Yeah, it's like they had their own seats made, and just installed their own seats to your car." So it's- Same ones. Same exact seats. I was in a Beamer. Right. 750. "Shit like that be going on." Is that, is that the furthest extent of like retaliation then? Hell no. Hell no, it's not the furthest extent. What, what are some things- Like, my mama is like traumatized, you feel me? Like Okay, I'll say this. Uh- You don't wanna speak on it, you don't have- Yeah. Yeah. Yeah. But just, you, you have been retaliated against for speaking out on certain things. Hell yeah. Hell yeah. Hell yeah. But, it's people in high places who have my best interests in mind. So I, I got some guidelines

Bigfoot & Paranormal Discussion

I'm not supposed to cross and shit, but What was your first wake-up call where it's like, "Oh, this shit real"? first wake-up call with the Popeyes in Chicago. Somehow Bro, the Popeyes gets surrounded. My car was getting searched the whole week. I'm waking up, coming out the crib, all my car doors open, car ransacked. And my mama was like, "Hey, what's this about?" You know what I'm saying? I'm like, "Uh." She said, "You wanna turn on that goddamn internet?" And I'm like, "Uh, i- i- it's just that I feel like I owe it to my people, and then there's people that I respect who told me that, 'Yeah, yeah, now is the time to go ahead. We got you,' type shit." So,

I've been cool so far. But, but, but it's been, it's been shit that's been taking place. But, you know, I'm just at that moment where I don't give a fuck, bro. It is what it is. Would, would, would things like that stop you? No. No. So you're gonna continue to be a, a pillar. Absolutely. You said a killer? A pillar. Yeah, I gotta be a pillar because if something happens to me, everybody knows what I was saying was the truth. And they don't want the truth to get out. So do the Freemasons really like have power and stuff like that?I know it's different types of Freemasons.Absolutely.Any city or state where you see obelisks, those are Freemason cities.Washington DC?Absolutely.What other cities have obelisks?I think St Louis has one, no?Any place you see a obelisk.Um, their god is Satan.That's whatNevermind.Yeah, see.Look, look.I don't recall.I don't recall, on brova.On brova.But all I can tell you is somebody told me if I repeat something, that they gonna kill me.Facts.I got told that same bullshit.So, you know, that's whyAnd he dead and I still ain't.Bro, you not wrong.The truth is stranger than fiction, bro.I think, I think we are, uh, as a com- community, not just Black, Mexican, but everyone, I think, is waking up right now.Definitely.'Cause if I woulda started talking like this 5 years back, it wouldn't have hit like this.Yeah, I wouldn't have been- Foenem.But, you know- I didn't release this nigga.Yeah, yeah.But like, everybody is startingEven the animals know something is goingBut do that mean we really waking up, or is this some, like you know how we keep talking about psyops?What if this how we been prepared- Beginning of the end.like trained to, to think?Yeah.So, global consciousness cannot be psyoped because we're all going off how we feel.We going off our gut feeling and instincts now.Not what we being told.That's the major difference.And people of all nationalities, races, colors, is all coming together to share their information.That's how you know change is happening.For sure.So, it's supposed to be a situation, like a fight going on?Yeah.Apparently, they want me and, uh, King

Yella to get in the ring.So, you know-shout out to Wack.I'm trying to see what the numbers gonna be.You feel me?We gonna see what's to it, 'cause Aaron The Plumber ducked.Oh, you supposed to fight Aaron?I was supposed to fight Aaron.He ducked.I got the footage.Hold on, that's, that'sYou talking about that video when he was on the ground, or is that something different shit? Before that. Was that him training for you, though? Yes. And that's why he ain't fighting you? Yes. Damn. On my granny. The,

the match got made right up in here. Yeah. The match got made right up in here. He, he, he pulled out. He pulled out. He ducked your boy. I ain't gonna lie, you too big, man. 4nil. Hey, I was trying to tell Dussey, "This ain't even no fair fight." But, shit. They say me and Yella a fair fight though. We gon' see. You feel like, you feel like you got Yella? Of course. Say, "Of course." Look, bro, it's, it's- Look, bro. I'm, I'm trained for this. As a man, you gotta feel like that too. And if you don't feel like this, you should, you know, stay your ass in the house. At the end of the day, you feel me, like, I wouldn't try to hurt bro, but it's a boxing match. We got 16 ounce gloves on. He gon' be good. But I'm going for the knockout fast. I gotta get up out of there. Putting, putting bets on it? Oh, and I'm matching bets. And I'm Anybody who got their cheese, put that count on. I'm matching. I'm matching. I'm taking all count on bro. So earlier, you had, uh, spoken, you know, knowing a couple SEALs or something like that? Yeah, yeah, yeah. So tomorrow, if y'all wanna come out, uh, me and some Navy SEALs gonna be going out canvassing the community. We looking for s- uh, we're looking for a young lady named Kazaria. She 13 years old. Been messing since November 14th. This something I do every day though. I'm with that. I'm with that. Yeah, pop out. We going outside. We documenting everything. Yeah. For sure. For sure. What would be some of the most beneficial, uh, knowledge you learned from them? Maybe- Oh, situational awareness, bro. Just knowing that every room you walk in as a man, you should have a plan to kill everybody. That was the most valuable shit. They said, "It's not malice." See, I don't do that in every room, but I definitely do that in areas where I feel like I can. Mm-hmm. Sometimes it be like, I don't got no in, but a lot of y'all going- See, they say I said that same to them. I be looking for escape plans, but sometimes there don't be none. Okay. Where there's no escape plan, you create one. All right, I'ma give you an example. Let's break it down. Back when I was shooting music videos. Okay. This, this a real example too, like- Okay. This is why I rock with FBG Young. Shout That's Yung Melo. I'm at a video shoot. I, I pull up with the white boy, Billy. Yeah. He's shooting a video for He's supposed to be shooting a video for Wooski and J Mane. Right. Wooski don't come. He's shooting J Mane video. Couple people there. Right. It's, it's really a long story. I ain't even gonna go to the, the long story route, but short story, I ran into somebody that it was a crazy situation with him before. But it wasn't crazy with me. It was just- Oh, somebody else? Yeah, some, some white boys. It was really some funny shit. The white boys tracking his phone trying to find niggas all the way in O Block and here and there- God damn! in the trenches. Damn. Yelling like, "Yo, where's my phone?" But long story short, I run into him. He like, "Damn, last time I seen you, uh, y'all was Y'all got up out of there." Where y'all was at? I don't Uh, somewhere around where they be at. Oh, okay. Yeah. Okay, okay, okay, okay. In the hood. 'Cause he, he tracking a phone. So I'm,

I'm in a car, like, not willingly. Like, we This is the ride. This is years ago. This a long time ago. But I'm in the car with him. He tracking a phone. Me and Digi in the back seat, like,

"What the fuck? This guy's tweaking." Yeah. But long story short, he like, "Last time I seen y'all, y'all ass got up out of there. Y'all scared." So he saw y'all. Y'all ain't see him? Yeah, I ain't,

I ain't recognize him. Oh, Melo slick with it. No, nah, not, not Young. Who? It's, it's I don't even wanna say the- Oh, somebody else. the goddamn name, yeah. Somebody else. But I, I basically, I s- uh,

I tell him, like, "Cuz, your ass is clutching. You got a hoodie on, dreads down like this. I don't know you." Yeah. I'm gonna probably have nothing but pipe. Yeah. He already be having pipe. I,

I spoke too soon. Tipsy. Um- This Chicago shit for everybody that's watching. Soon as he say that, um, yeah, but then it click. I don't fuck he cap for. So- Type shit. So as I say that shit,

I peep. Like, I'm peeping what he doing now 'cause I'm, I'm realizing what I just did. Right. I'm like-so I'm like, so I'm like, I'm in a party. I'm watching and shit. He get to talking to that nigga. They walk outside and come back in and they get to talking to another nigga. They walk outside, come back in. Nigga get to whispering in each other ears. So now I'm in this bitch thinking like,

"Damn." "I hope he don't try to do that because I know I naturally, like realistically I don't got no win, but I'm trying to figure this shit out." "Oh my God. I'm looking at this window. I'm like, "All right. I'm gonna have to pop it-" I'm gonna figure something out in this bitch." and then I'll figure this bitch. "Chief, chief, chief. Like, door all the way over there. I can't use the door, but long story short, like I just got a bottle of Hennessy in this hand and my clutch- Yep. in this hand. Yep. And I'm just, "Shit, am I right? Billy, Billy shooting a video." Chief. I never say nothing to nobody. Oh, no. We get back to Billy crib. You know, I never tell none of them. That's how I know Young was telling the truth. He was like, uh, I don't remember exact words, but he told me like, "I had to tell fo'em." Like, you know. Get off that- Yeah, like he ain't gonna call me type shit. We ain't- and I ain't really know Young like that on bro. So I, I fuck with him for that shit. Shout my boy, Melo. That's a real nigga right there. See, that's what we would call having situational awareness and being on the X. When you on the X, you in the hot zone. And what you was thinking about was how to get yourself off the X. Yeah. And then- Then it wasn't possible, like without something happening. What w- Yeah. Without using violent force. Uh, without something happening to me. I ain't gonna lie. Like I'm just one nigga. Yeah, okay. You gonna have- Yeah, yeah, yeah. It's a music video game. Yeah, yeah. And then, you know, people don't understand when you a music video- videographer, everybody got they guns pointed at you. So it gives you that feeling like, "Damn." Like, "If, if I was interview number one, I'm food." For sure. You feel me? Like I said, bro, like I got my situational awareness course

Vatican, UFOs & Non-Human Claims

dropping and you the only person who invited me to come to a gun range. So we gotta- These niggas be scared, bro. we gotta collab 'cause look, bro, we could do a lot of shit. We could do a lot of shit. These niggas be scared. Do you think, um, people from Chicago naturally growing up, we have more situational awareness, more, more like life skills than other people not? For sure because in Chicago, if you blow your horn at somebody in traffic, you gotta be ready to shoot it out. We resort to violence faster than everybody else. So for us, we done experienced trauma more than everybody else. So our survival instincts is just a lot- That's why I ain't like LA. 'Cause in LA, bro, it's a false sense of security. You see them palm trees, there's weather and you surrounded by sharks. In Chicago, you know everybody a shark here. Oh, bro. And then at Cali- in LA, they throw- they run fades. Boy, we not doing no- That's, that's- We only boxing our brothers. That's

it. Fuck my, imagine you in a road rage situation, somebody walk up to your car aggressively and they really truly want to fight. They wanna box? What? It's like, I don't know that or believe that. We don't know this, bro. Like, it's like, "Damn, this is not gonna work." Where you come across is these. It's like- We only fighting our homies, dude. We only fight niggas we really got love for. Like if- For sure. Even if I'm arguing, road rage, whatever, I'm not hopping out of my car, walking up to you. No, they hopping out the box. Yeah. That shit fucked my head up too. I said,

I said, "Hold on. Get off dude." What you saying? He said, "Hey, hey, I need that." "You need what?" "Oh,

I thought y'all were running fades." "We don't do that shit, bro. Our environment is a lot more advanced. Ours is way more hyper aggressive. It would be gang killed, bro, that shit. It's like even if he would want to, it's like what you gonna do afterwards, gang? Like what's the- It's like they got DPs and violations. It's like, "What the shit going on here?" Say you gonna violate one of the guys. "Oh, yeah. All right. Bet. Y'all stay right here." It's all over with. They catch you, look like they gonna try to splash you, foenem. So it's like why, if it's gonna lead to this, why not just skip ahead? For sure. Well, I ain't gonna say why not. I ain't preaching that, but shit, if that's the situation you in. If that's the situation, look, man, at the end of the day, you gotta make it back home. That's the only rule right now, make it home. So I know you talked about it, but since this is our first time, I wanna ask you about the situation when you had, uh, got shot in the head. Oh, yeah. So basically-you know, hold on, man. My fucking throat is sore. I'm cold too. I only got a few more questions unless you got something. I ain't gonna ask all these. I think we had it for a while. I think we had a pretty good one. Yeah, we going crazy. Yeah. I ain't gonna write down none of these questions. I know- No, I'll make sure you get these, the film clips and shit throughout our interview. I got all the footage from this shit. So you had asked me about, uh, the time when I got shot in the face, but at the end of the day, like I feel like, uh, as a pillar in my community, people depend on me to stick up for them. And I didn't think this situation was gonna go this far. But, you know, if somebody who got hands and feet put on 'em took that shit personal. On bro, and he put some Gs up and shit, they came trying to collect. Shout out to the Goonas. You know, free Do Guy. Shout out Turn Up Guys. Shout out G Lemonade. Shout out Doc Block. Uh, I was just blessed to have a solid group of homies, bro, because, you know, I told my guys, I said, "Man, y'all stand with me, that's what we on." And some people didn't, but the ones who did, shit, we been locked in. And, you know, everybody don't take ass-whuppings the same way. Yeah. And- That's why we love fighting. For sure, man. You know, I, I know how it feel to have a bounty on your life. I know how it feel when motherfuckers come and collect. You feel me? And, uh, it was my day that day. And I don't glorify none of this shit, but in order for a man to combat evil, he must be able to enact evil. Even Jesus tore up the church before, slapping niggas and everything. And history was written by the best group of killers, bro. No religion, no border, no country, no ideology can exist without them. And I always tell people this, you know, that violence is just something in my toolbox, it's not my identity. And, uh, I was fortunate that on this day, you know, they sent rookies. You know, if they was top professionals, um, the outcome might have been different. So were there situations where they, like, thought they got you, but they trying to- Yeah, yeah. Uh- Like, you was able to still move and shit? So the thing was, bro, we had cameras on the slot, and it's a trap, so there ain't no running water. And we got Wi-Fi and electricity. And both doors, front door and back door barricaded, but on the cameras, it was niggas in the back. And this motherfucker at the front. So, I was put in a situation where it's like, "All right. Well, if I take the chance to talk to niggas, I die." And on the camera, fool at the door with his gun out, but he got it tucked on his side. So shit, I just blitzed through the door. Chief. 'Cause it's like, man, my mama ain't gonna cry, bro. Hell no. You here, I, you. Come on. You right. You feel me? I know what time it is. And shout-out to my boy, Big Dugan. He was like, "You know what to do, BH." He said, "I'm, I'm down with you." And I'm like, like, "What do I do?" You know what I'm saying? And, uh, you know when you get that feeling when you go like, "Damn." "Here go my chance." I took that shit. I ain't gonna lie. I took that shit. F- that's why I tell people, bro, like, FN57 saved my life. That, that 28 millimeter round, that shit go through doors, bro. You know what I'm saying? And, uh- It's faster too. It's fast. That velocity is real. And shit, I ain't gonna lie, bro, uh, 00 once the smoke cleared, I didn't even know I was hurt. You know what I'm saying? At the corner, I'll see my homies looking at me. They looking at me crazy though. That's how I be. You be like, "What's wrong with y'all?" I'm like, "You see what I just did?" They like, they like, they like, "Gordo, Gordo, Gordo, Gordo. Come sit down, come sit down, come sit down." So I sit down and they handing me Hennessy and shit. "Man, pass me all these drinks." Well, these the gas. They don't know that liquor thin your blood, liquor thin your blood, so I start bleeding more. Mm. But bro, motherfucker showed me on their phone, my face. I said, "Yo,

no!"But my whole, this shit was smashed.And like, this right here is permanently still fat, but, but this shit was hanging down, bro.Like, it was bad, it was bad.But I didn't panic though because I was hit in the arm and shit right here.I was hit right here and shit too, but, shit, like, I wasn't bleeding a lot, but I felt my body getting cold.And like, my vision was getting a little bit blurry.So shit, I mean, niggas got me to the hospital and efficacy pills really saved my life.I ain't gonna lie to you.Like, once that shit happened, they was like, "Take these."You feel me?I'm chewing on them bitches.You know what I'm saying?And, and my nurse said, "Your heart is beating strong."I'm like, "You don't have no idea, man."You feel me?You was bussing in the hospital.Bussing, bro.I ain't gonna lie, I was bussing so hard.That's a hardThat's a- I was bussing so hard.That's a life hack.G, I was bussing so hard, like, I chase that feeling, though, to this day sometimes.Yeah.Like, I'll never forget that.Like, I- That shit probably dangerous then.Oh, it's dangerous.It is dangerous because yoult's a somber feeling 'cause you know you're not invincible, but goddamn it, I'm hard to kill, Jack.You feel me?And my doctorProbably like 2 days later, my toxicology report came back and my doctor was just kind of blue.Like, he was pissed off.He was like, "Yo, your, your, your, your drug test lit up like a Christmas tree.""But, like, Zolrisma is what kept you alive.You're lucky, you're lucky, fat boy you walked out."I said, "Damn."And, you know, I never went into spiritual like that again, but I think about it every day.It was a good day.It was a good day.It was a good day.My homie lost his eye that day too, though.Tyler Floyd.Yeah, they came 2, 2, threes and everything, you feel me?He lost his eye.We hadThe guy who had to put up money for this nose back on.That shit crazy.I'm gonna send you all of this stuff so you can put it on the interview.Say less, we're going out on this and that.Hold it.You got anything you're working on?Anything you want to promote?Yeah, yeah, yeah.So my Ladies How To Stay Alive Kit is coming and my Situational Awareness book is coming and my movie coming out, the Retrieval series coming out. Y'all can look for that for this summer. It should drop by May, June. I'm trying to get a, uh, uh, uh, agreement with my boy so we can kind of, uh, team up on some content. Uh, we gonna, we gonna make it happen, man. Pardon my allergies, y'all. I've been in Africa- That's one of the most annoying things. I ain't gonna lie. I've been in Africa, like, I've been in Africa, like, the outlet is just different. Like the shit out there, that's when I knew that this is really where I'm from 'cause I wasn't allergic to nothing. That shit changed my view on everything and I wasn't sweating and shit over there and I was losing weight, eating more food. Yeah. Bro. Probably moving around more, though? Hotter weather, weather? Yeah, it's as hot as a motherfucker. But you know how you would get some food leaving it in the microwave overnight? Over there, that shit spoiled. It's what you eating too, for sure. Yeah, for sure. Yeah, they KFC most. The 5 chicken I done had over there. Foe now. Only eat KFC over there. But, no, that's it, though. That's it, though. My Ladies Still Alive Kit is coming. Oh, The Big Bodyguard book is coming too. That's coming out too. Yeah, stay tuned. You wanna find your boy, Big Homie dot C-C everywhere. For real. So one of my last questions,

I don't know if you got any more, but I wanna ask you, like, what's one of your long term, uh, long term goals? Uh, one of my long term goals is to make enough money to buy a plane so I can help more people across the world, send more kids to school. Yeah, last year I brought home

17 missing women, 4 kids, uh, 3 girls, one little boy, uh, paid for 500 kids in Africa to go to school and I want to double that this year. Straight up. 100%. Straight up. The people that want to get involved or help, what's ways they can? Uh, if you want to get involved or help, you can find, uh, my land initiative, The Colony. Life. We're building a safe haven in Africa for victims of human trafficking and, uh, if you want to donate to my Feed the Children, you can find me on GoFundMe at Big Homie C-C.All right, say less, man.We're gonna see if somebody gonna send that shit through.Oh, now.questions?No, man.I think it was a great interview.My dawg, my dawg.It's been a pleasure.I will shake up with y'all when I, y'all can see me without blowing my nose and shit.My sister will do it too.Hey, man, I appreciate y'all.Dope interview.Bro, I appreciate you too, man.You know.What's up, bro?We came in just to have for a minute, man.It's been a minute though.We got it done though.yeah.Oh, now.All right, man.It's your boy 16Shotem.AP,

AP Louis, man.We out of here.Shoo.Hey, shout to everybody that just tuned into this video,

could you correlate how the church and the state in america and in general are one in the same and how the church agenda to repress the feminine energy stems from man's inability to grasp that conscious is rooted in feminine energy so if you can convince women that their born dirty sinful and shameful and that they aren't enough and need to repent to and exterior force you can program shame and all those aspects into the bodies which in term would disconnect women from their sovereignty and in term disconnect them from their instinct and also their intuition and this benefits the state and in order to keep the state running you need class and the only way you can create a class is through a factory and that factory is the women's uterus. no woman didn't lay down with men but were in fact forced to bare children which is a very well known concept that colonizers used rape and force please correlate with ancient mesopotamia
