RE: FORMAL DISPUTE OF FRAUDULENTLY ORIGINATED ACCOUNT & DEMAND TO RECALL FROM COLLECTIONS

Account Ending: 9302

FTC Identity Theft Report #: 202816785

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to formally dispute the above-referenced account, which was opened through fraudulent misrepresentation by a Vivint sales representative. I was verbally promised a 30-day free trial; the written contract presented to me contained only a 3-day trial period. This material discrepancy was deliberately concealed at the point of sale. I made repeated requests to cancel this account; both Vivint and Fortiva refused to act.

You subsequently sold this account to DNF Associates, LLC on or about 05/15/2026. The sale of a fraudulently originated debt to a third-party collector is itself actionable.

I DEMAND:

1. Immediate recall of this account from DNF Associates, LLC and cessation of all collection activity
2. Immediate deletion of all tradeline information reported to Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion related to this account
3. Written confirmation that this account has been closed, recalled, and all reporting deleted
4. Pursuant to FCRA 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b), as a data furnisher you are required to investigate this dispute and correct or delete inaccurate information within 30 days

I have filed a formal Identity Theft Report with the FTC (Report #: 202816785) and am simultaneously invoking my rights under FCRA § 1681c-2 to have this tradeline blocked at all three credit bureaus.

Failure to respond within 30 days with confirmation of deletion will result in complaints filed with the CFPB, FTC, Texas Attorney General, and arbitration proceedings for FCRA violations.

Sincerely,
